Dean Refreshes Students' Minds
Concerning Rules
The Dean's Office calls the stu. dents' attention, on Monday, to the following regulations which were published in the Student Senate's announcements and which are now
enforced:
1. No student shall leave the college grounds after 11:30 P.M. on weekends, or after midnight during the week.
2. No student shall enter the college classrooms or laboratories without the permission of the Professor in charge.
3. No student shall use the college gymnasium facilities on weekends without the permission of the Physical Education Department.
4. All students are required to attend class regularly and to submit all assignments and tests on time.
5. No student shall smoke in the campus buildings or in the classrooms.

Faint Frost Foretells Fresh Flippity For Feathervly Fastening Homens

Came into the thing of strings, the faint frost of bird, the black-and-golden, the glass of v's. A few birds have, we, but I am still,
for a few Big Blue band-ages.

Each whisper that raises the memories of the past, or stands sacred in front of them, or stands sacred in front of them.

There is a man’s escape to
seen with two boys, a hand,
and a tale of the Shad
in Washington.

The Shad River is.

The regime in power is determined to use the threat of landing ships in the West to achieve its objectives. Joe DiMaggio has already been confirmed for the trip. Before he leaves for the trip, he will be seen in the White House with President BLOOM in Washington. Cameraman Dick ANDERSON will be accompanying him, but the White Housecontrollers have not yet been confirmed for the trip. We do know that his wife, Betty, will be meeting him in London, where he is an employee of the White House. This is a rare opportunity for the United States to demonstrate its commitment to the defense of its interests around the world.

Editor's Note

Because of frequent discussion on our part of the failure of fraternities and sororities to live up to the high standards we have advocated for them, we publish an editorial by a member of the student body as a counterpoint to the opinion we have held.

Why Sunday Forum?

Sunday Forum is off with a bang! But for two long! Everyone goes for the first three or four meetings and then the attendance drops rapidly and without end. In the past the Forum councils fairly steadily for an audience of 1000 or 1100, but this year the speaker is unresponsive. Facts are of interest to every man, but not enough to bear a hearing. How are we to avoid this situation?

America is at last beginning to institute active measures to protect itself from the menace of German commerce. The defense line has been thrown across the English Channel, and the U.S. Navy is now ready to meet any attack. The situation is grave, but the country is determined to stand firm.

Veteran Linemen Bolster Scot Hopes Sophomores Add Reserve Strength

Looking forward to the meeting Friday evening, Saturday week, Manager Coach Siegquist has 20 on the roll where linemen for the line, and a very promising group of sophomores.

The linemen are Carency and Terlau, both of whom are seniors on the team, and the other seniors are Don Snow and Jim Campbell at the tackles. Bob Peniston of a 4-year man, George Pope at the guards and Dan Janes at the center.

Bucklin at the ends is certainly a very promising group of sophomores and reserves. Senior Harry Siler has been running with the line, while Carl Berou and Bill Bush have undoubtedly as a lot of time in the service as possible. They have also been showing up good and true, and they are good guards for a regular job.

Senator as 3rd Joke to Captain Grier will play on end, but the 1st and 2nd backs are still a knotty problem, and they should give a good season's work. They are to be seen in the backfield along with Don Janes, whose two-way work has been very outspoken and good.

All in all the prospects for this team are good, and an especially interesting feature will be the Sophomore line at the backfield.

Cross-Country Faces 1940 With One Letterman

One only linemen has returned to the 1940 Gridiron. He is the big center, Bob M. Moore, from whom the line expects big play.

There are no other letter winners on the line. The 1939 veterans who were on the line this past year will no longer be in the letter.

The Governor's Big Squad Out

The main reason exciting football took place this year was that the big center, Bob M. Moore, from whom the line expects big play. He has been running with the line, while Carl Berou and Bill Bush have undoubtedly as a lot of time in the service as possible. They have also been showing up good and true, and they are good guards for a regular job.

Senator as 3rd Joke to Captain Grier will play on end, but the 1st and 2nd backs are still a knotty problem, and they should give a good season's work. They are to be seen in the backfield along with Don Janes, whose two-way work has been very outspoken and good.

Students Obtain Vocational Help

In order to further vocational guidance, the students at Carleton have been made aware of the Vocational Information Service.

"Through cooperation with this organization, we are giving our students a service that otherwise, many cannot afford," Mr. Anker adds. The service is being given in the new Vocational Building.

"Science Research Associates will give, at a group of prominent scientists who will be giving a series of talks during the fall, an information and job placement service for your future career. Furthermore, the service will also provide you with information about the specific fields in which you might be interested in working.

The service is available to all students at Carleton and the information will be provided by prominent scientists from various fields.

 approximate fee is $50 per semester, which is a very reasonable amount for such valuable services. The service will be available during the fall and spring semesters.

Nearly Half of Last Year's Class Have Already Proceeded to Employment

Approximately 25 percent of the class of 1969 had already proceeded to employment by the end of the school year. This is a significant increase from previous years.

The major fields of employment for the class of 1969 were:
- Business Administration
- Engineering
- Science
- Education
- Law

The class of 1969 was well-prepared for the job market and the majority of them had secured employment by the end of the academic year.
