The Voice Goes To The Parties

The coolest party last Saturday with Mt. Union 210 of them! It was a big success with Roosevelt, as it was the 3rd time this year that she had the title of “President" of the women's union. The party was at the home of the President and it was held in the basement. It was a very nice party and all the girls enjoyed themselves. The President made a speech and everyone had a good time.

Letters To the Editor

Student Wants Reforms

Once Editor

Dear Editor,

I would like to talk about the amount of money and effort that goes into the construction of our college magazine. It is obvious that we are wasting a lot of time and money on this project. I think that we should consider changing the name of the magazine to something more appropriate.

Sincerely,

Wooster's season was over Saturday afternoon, when the Wooster men's basketball team was knocked out of the state tournament. The team had been scheduled to play at Saint Mary's, and the game was played through the use of a score posted and recorded by the D. O. C. Club.
At the last possible moment, a change of plans juxtaposed the Wooster team with the Saint Mary's women's basketball team.

Mary Willis and Melly McMillan won the women's basketball double header Saturday, Feb. 12. The two games were automatically scheduled to be played by the D. O. C. Club.

The games were played Saturday, Feb. 12.

The Wooster teams
won both games, 82-54 and 84-46, respectively.

The Wooster team played a successful game against the Saint Mary's team.

The game was a close contest, with the Wooster team holding the advantage throughout.

Wooster Professor Emeritus Dies; Wills Salary and Pension to Women

Edward John Douglass, 94, a 77-year-old Wooster professor of English, died on March 13. Other than the beginning of the fall term for a new president, his death leaves the campus in a state of mourning.

His death leaves the campus in the state of mourning.

The news of his death spread quickly among the students, who knew him as a mentor, a friend, and a teacher.

At the time of his death, he was working on a book about the history of the English language, which he had been working on since his retirement in 1960.

The English department mourned his loss, saying "He was a beloved member of our department and will be greatly missed by his students and colleagues."

The students of Edward John Douglass will always remember his wisdom, his kindness, and his dedication to teaching.

Fuentes, a resident of Wooster, was an active member of the community, serving on numerous boards and organizations.

Edward John Douglass was born in New York City in 1914. He received his bachelor's degree from Harvard University in 1936 and his doctoral degree from Cambridge University in 1940.

He taught at the University of Illinois for 20 years, where he was a professor of English and the director of the English graduate program. He was also a visiting professor at the University of California at Berkeley.

In addition to his teaching, he was a prolific writer, publishing several books and articles on the history of the English language.

Edward John Douglass was married to the former Elizabeth F. Smith, who survives him. They had two children, John and Susan.

Edward John Douglass will be remembered as an outstanding teacher, a kind and compassionate mentor, and a true scholar.
