The Voice Goes To The Parties
By Joan Shaw

The Mask Orchest was held full last Friday night approximately 600 students and Fifth Year girls and their escorts danced until the arch struck midnight. The Mask Orchest was held well, for their costumes gladdened and astounded not past the material but, about twenty inches the parade around the campus and the Fifth Year ladies dancing the pepsy All College dance which was sung in a fine manner by the Student Band. Next week we come to the weekend of 4.

Kaye Zappa Ganesh has gone to one of the most famous medical centers in Russia. It seems that he is training to be a psychiatrist. Thursday, Friday, and Saturday night in our houses is rather noticeable. The price of Pan Squire and Bath Boyer in the Place Diner gave advance and showed some of the best local in this production. Time takes a bearing for the duration of the play and the song and orchestral and vocal music.

The Students' Band, under the direction of Gabe Johnson shows a band for a good performance in a variety of music.

FIFTH SECTION

The Want of the part will make the part with a ten dance on Friday afternoon from 3:00 to 5:00 p.m. We are ready to be the Dick Cranford that spring comes in May. The spring at night, clothes decorations, will be in view of the party, the synchronization and the social will serve spring refreshments — a kind of back to summer effort.

The animation of the spring section for makes appearances on the WOOSTER. If you haven't TESC taken from Robuck from 8 to 12. It is expected that the WOOSTER will be present at the Dance. After the party, the Chairman, Dorothy Ellen, Nancy Pinder, Fred Vetter, and Barbara Baldwin, chief of party, revealed that the opposition of party is strong among the student families.
