Students Vote on Color Day Queue

Students have been undecided on the color for the 1947-48 academic year; however, they were assured recently that the committee is making the final decision on the color.

The most popular color suggested by students is maroon. Blue and orange are also being considered.

The elections committee will meet today to determine the final decision on the color.

Y.W.C.A. Indications Possibilities For Incoming Cabinet

Barbara McDonald and Jean Ann Carson were named by the Y.W.C.A. as the first two students to be named for the incoming cabinet.

The cabinet is being reorganized to include more women, and the Y.W.C.A. is looking for more active women to take part in the organization.

Students Help Select Prayer Week Guest

William Bollinger, chairman of the board of trustees, has been selected as the guest speaker for Prayer Week.

Bollinger is a well-known businessman and community leader, and his selection is expected to be well-received by the student body.

Dean Rachel MacKenzie Receives Letter From One of Her English Friends Which Relates Some of Her Recent Experiences During the Raid in London

The following are excerpts from a letter received from Dean Rachel MacKenzie, describing her recent experiences in London during the Nazi raids.

As you may know, I was staying with a family friend in London when the raids began.

The first raid was quite frightening. The sirens went off at 11:30 p.m., and we all ran to the basement. The noise was deafening, and the shrapnel was falling all around us.

Night after night, the raids continued. The British people were determined to fight back, and they showed great courage.

The end of the war was marked by great rejoicing. The British people were proud of their victory, and the world was relieved to see peace restored.
It has been charged that the Voice does not adequately represent the student body of the University. It is one of the functions of a student newspaper to present the total political and social philosophy of the student body. It is our function to present to the student body the views of the student body. If we fail to do this, we are guilty of a serious omission.

Baseball Men Go Into Heavy Drills As Season Nears

Baseball has wasted no time in getting down to base work. The definite date will depend on the present intramural schedule, which, in turn, has made the entire plan dependent on the weather. Although neither team has an indoor base, a wide assortment of material is available to both camps. It is in this way that we are sure to swing along with the pre-seasons in every year. Although the high-minded scholar will scoff at the idea of such a base, it is necessary to note that a certain amount of power must be developed during the spring. For this reason we must insist that the "out" side be held for the first nine weeks. The Freshmen should be informed at this time that they will not be held for the four-weeks. Girls' Volleyball Leagues

Volleyball has gained such force that it has become a woman's sport. It has become popular wherever the college is located. Although the initial state is not known, the game has been played in every state for several years. The game of volleyball is played by two teams of twelve players each. The teams are divided into two halves, a total of twenty-four players. During the second half of the program, the women's teams play a second set of games. There will be twenty-four players on each team, divided into four teams of six players each.

Pay Final Tribute to Seniors Who Excelled in Basketball - Swimming

BY BILL STEEPLE

With the correlation of the mid-year construction of our new building and the return of our veteran players, we have had a very successful first half of the season. The team is composed of two seniors and one junior who have been playing well in off-season games. There are only a few games remaining in this half of the season, but the team is showing great promise for a strong finish in the spring.

Seven Lettermen Bolster Trackmen

Finding few men eager to make a mark on Wooster's indoor track at the opening of the season, it was necessary to bring in some reinforcements. Of these, seven lettermen have been added to the team. The addition of these men should help to strengthen the team and improve their chances of winning.
