By BETTY DOODS

Friday afternoon will see the roads and highways of the state as a busy area. A number of activities will be taking place all over the state, from the largest city to the smallest. Some of these activities include:

- A meeting of the State Board of Education, scheduled for 2 p.m. in Columbus.
- A rally for the upcoming election, organized by the American Federation of Labor, at 5 p.m. in Cincinnati.
- A parade to celebrate the opening of the State Fair, at 2 p.m. in Dayton.

Those who are interested in these activities are encouraged to attend. It is a great opportunity to meet people and learn about the various aspects of the state's culture and history.

Columnists Ask Us To Be Rational In Facing International Situation

By BOB KIJKERICK

For all to whom this column is addressed, it is requested that you consider the following points:

1. We must work together to ensure peace and prosperity for all.
2. We must respect the rights of all nations and peoples.
3. We must not allow our differences to divide us.

We must all strive to be rational in our approach to international situations.

Students Demand "Sit, Out of War"

A large group of college students has demonstrated this morning in protest against the recent conflict in Asia. The students were interviewed by student newsmen and expressed their opinion that the conflict is causing unnecessary suffering and that it is time for an end to the fighting.

The protest coincided with a similar demonstration in London, where thousands of students gathered to demand peace and an end to the war.

HOLE GOLF

by BfAL STIPPER

"Action along the line. This is a hot one in the present department at this time in the school year. It is a hot one in action with the coming of spring and right up until some of the hottest of these plastics action here at this location." Picture above shows the four craziest golfers in the state. Foolish Koehn, he can hit the ball from the basketball court to the men's room. Last year Mullin was the leading scorer at the game taken was more than probably at the course of the season. This year we understand that doing the making. There are enough great men of experience to give the best of the best at the golf course.
