Final Senate Vote Will Announce '42 Governing Council
Jr. Class Representative Will Oppose Dunn
For Presidency Post
Rugby Dean, Gerald Snyder, Edna Brown, Wilma Dugger and Mary Smelz received the ballots of the Men's Senate for the Student Senate in balloting yesterday afternoon. This partially large junior ballot includes 33 names, which will be macabre to the students up to date in the Student Senate.

In a session which ran from 3:30 to 5:30, those voting were bound to make the slates known for the slate of the year. Ballots might be counted simply to the best three and every candidate will be known before the election.

Since the votes are being counted in the Student Senate, the elections will be held at the regular meeting of the Men's Senate, which is held at 7:30 tonight, in the Pioneer house.

Firestone Offers Training Courses in Salesmanship
Arthur F. Schumpeter, Director of the Firestone Division of the Student Senate, has announced new opportunities for those interested in the Firestone business.

The Firestone Company has a training plan which will lead directly after graduation of college students and individuals who are interested in the Firestone business. By the completion of the courses, students will have knowledge of the organization of the Firestone business and the working principles of the Firestone firm, and will be able to enter the actual plant at any time.

Plan is all on the platform of Firestone, and the person to be elected must have a first-class knowledge of the business and the organization. The Firestone Company, on the other hand, is interested in the possibility of placing us in the position of the men who have entered the business, and of creating the greatest possible advantages for us.

Be seated at the platform office and give your name and the type of work in which you are interested. It is known that we are interested in the Firestone Company, and they are interested in us.

Real Head Confro Mr. E. L. Frelinghuysen, Director of the Research Bureau for Fire-Ring Training, has offered to the students of the Men's Senate a new program of training which will lead the Midland students to the platform office and, through careful and systematic planning, bring the students to the platform office.

The new program will be described to the students of the Men's Senate, and the students will be asked to consider this program in the light of their future plans.

The program will offer the students of the Men's Senate an opportunity to see the platform office and the platform office itself. The program will be described to the students of the Men's Senate, and the students will be asked to consider this program in the light of their future plans.

Office Announces New Counsellors
Jim Vedt, of the Men's Senate, will announce new Counsellors for the class of '42, who will be appointed to the counsellor's post, according to a notification which was received from the office yesterday. Jim Vedt, who has been appointed to the counsellor's post, was selected for this position by the office of the Men's Senate, and the name of Jim Vedt is one which is known to the students of the Men's Senate.

The announcement of the new Counsellors will be made at the regular meeting of the Men's Senate, which is scheduled for tomorrow, at 7:30 p.m. in the Pioneer house.

Campus Republicans Re-organize for 1942
A new group of officers was elected by the College Republicans Friday night in the Pioneer house. The officers elected were:

President: Edward T. Clark, Darlington
Vice-President: Monroe T. DeLong, New York
Secretary: William C. Wilkie, New York
Treasurer: George W. White, New York

At the regular meeting of the group, which is held on the last Thursday of the month, the officers of the group were elected, and the new officers were installed, as follows:

President: Edward T. Clark, Darlington
Vice-President: Monroe T. DeLong, New York
Secretary: William C. Wilkie, New York
Treasurer: George W. White, New York

The group was organized for the purpose of promoting the principles of the Republican party on the campus of Wooster, Ohio. The officers of the group are elected by the members of the organization, and the new officers were installed at the regular meeting of the group, which is held on the last Thursday of the month.
Let's See Results

Not a few hold too many offices on our campus. When the Student Senate elects officials, you are not to vote for those candidates who have held them often during their college career.

No Convoys!

Since the Roosevelt administration has virtually withdrawn a British vessel from escorting the German ship we would think that red probably will be the color of the German flag.

Many undeniably do not realize the full importance of a convoy system. It has been argued that such a system is virtually dead in the water and that the chances of success would be greatly enhanced by the utilization of suddenly appeared, this argument is unanswerable.

The German ship would not be safe until it reaches its destination. It could be attacked at any point by other ships. Therefore, the greater the number of ships that protect it, the safer it is.

The students that are to be arranged for are to be held for the next year's election in the faculty.

The next two years they will swept into office on the basis of the two candidates that follow rather than that.

We will never again, that we have been said to there or times on the basis of good work that the best of all. We will make this to be true.

Mother would never have pleased with you to elect a man to office only because your friends like him. We ask you to use your own discretion in selecting your year's slate.

Don't be persuaded by your friends into voting for a candidate when you consider inferior.

Sophs Nab Interclass Track Meet In Rout of Seniors, Juniors, Freshs

Leading off the large and long, the sophomore class galloped with 20 of its best runners in the 100-yard dash against the seniors. The win was a thrilling victory for the sophomores, who won the race by a close margin. The final scores were 11-9 in favor of the sophomores.

The next race was between the seniors and juniors. The seniors proved to be the stronger team, winning with scores of 15-11. The sophomores took third place with a score of 3. The final scores were 15-11-3, with the seniors in the lead.

The next race was held between the juniors and freshmen. The freshmen put up a strong challenge, but the juniors emerged victorious with a score of 20-15. The final scores were 20-2-15, with the juniors on top.

Finally, the freshmen faced off against the sophomores in the last race of the meet. The freshmen fought hard, but the sophomores proved to be the dominant team, winning with a score of 15-10. The final scores were 15-10-0, with the sophomores taking the overall victory.

The afternoon was filled with excitement and energy, as the athletes pushed themselves to their limits in the interclass track meet. The results showed the strong athletic spirit of the Miami community, as well as the competitive nature of the students.

Denison Golfers Drub Scot Teemen

Opening their 1941 season, the Denison men's golf team traveled to Oberlin, Ohio, to play against the Scot Teemen. The game was played on the scenic golf course, providing a picturesque setting for the match.

The Denison team was led by Captain H. E. Steiner, who directed his men to a successful victory over the Scot Teemen. The final score was 127-143, with Denison winning by a margin of 16 strokes.

The team's performance was highlighted by several key players. Junior John A. Meek led the team, scoring 78, while sophomore Horvath scored 82. Freshman McGehee and sophomore Nightingale also contributed to the team's success, with each scoring 84 and 85, respectively.

The Denison team's performance was a testament to their dedication and hard work, as they put in countless hours of practice and preparation to achieve such a formidable victory. The team's victory not only brought honor to the Denison community but also set a high standard for the remainder of the season.

Snooper Squeaking

By ELIZABETH STUM

Don't you think that snoo-ople are the worst people on earth? I know I do! I think they are the worst people on earth. I don't think they are the worst people on earth.

I think they are the worst people on earth. I don't think they are the worst people on earth.

I think they are the worst people on earth. I don't think they are the worst people on earth.

I think they are the worst people on earth. I don't think they are the worst people on earth.

Women's Log Dwelling Partially Damaged by Large Falling Tree

Last Monday night's windstorm which blew down the utility poles along the Woman's Institute Road, two miles south of town, and sent many large branches of the trees hanging partly across the road. The branches of the trees, which were already decked with the fruit of late summer, had been moved so far into the road that cars could not pass, even after the trees had been cut down.

Mrs. Mary Smith, of the Woman's Institute, who has a house in the area affected, described the scene. "The wind was so strong that it lifted the branches of the trees into the air and sent them crashing across the road. It was a terrible sight to see the damage."

College English Lab

The College English Lab has been discontinued. "Among all those who have been active in the College English Lab, there have been those who have been interested in the program, but not enough to keep it going," said Dr. Robert Jenkins, chairman of the English Department. "We will continue to offer English courses in the College English Lab, but we must discontinue the Lab itself."

Dr. Cowles' Speech at Voice Banquet Recalls College News of Early Days

By JULIET BEATTY

Dr. Cowles, the former president of the College, delivered a speech at the Voice Banquet last Saturday night. He recalled some of the early days of the College, including the day when the College's first newspaper, The Echo, was published. "The College has come a long way since then," said Dr. Cowles. "We have grown from a small rural college into a thriving institution."

The high point of the presentation was when Dr. Cowles brought out the original copy of The Echo. "It is a piece of history," he said. "It is a reminder of how far we have come."

One of the highlights of the evening was when Dr. Cowles introduced his old high school classmate, V. W. Thistle, who is now the head of the English department at the College. "He is a true friend of the College," said Dr. Cowles. "We are all indebted to him for his dedication to the College."
