U.S. Must Avoid
Entry Into War

Prof. Maintains U.S. Entry Would Mean Intensifying The Causes of Hitler

By DOROTHY RICKARDS

The situation of war in Europe is akin to the problem of dying alone or in a hospital. The situation of war in Europe is akin to the problem of dying alone or in a hospital. The situation of war in Europe is akin to the problem of dying alone or in a hospital. The situation of war in Europe is akin to the problem of dying alone or in a hospital.

Should the U.S. enter into the war, the picture of Europe and the world would be altered. The situation of war in Europe is akin to the problem of dying alone or in a hospital. The situation of war in Europe is akin to the problem of dying alone or in a hospital. The situation of war in Europe is akin to the problem of dying alone or in a hospital. The situation of war in Europe is akin to the problem of dying alone or in a hospital.

To those who fear that the U.S. entry into the war would mean an intensifying of the causes of Hitler, the Prof. offers these arguments: The situation of war in Europe is akin to the problem of dying alone or in a hospital. The situation of war in Europe is akin to the problem of dying alone or in a hospital. The situation of war in Europe is akin to the problem of dying alone or in a hospital. Unfair Salary Basis
The Student Senate recently approved a committee to investigate salaries in the library, and to recommend any changes that might be necessary. The survey dealt only with student employees, although it was conducted under jurisdiction of the senate. This naturally excludes all NYU workers and the college's regular employees.

The whole difficulty is that in the past some employees who have been given raises in one term have been denied salary increases in the next term. The library's editor and business manager are of the belief that the library begins its project, but the vice union must be going to the next best thing. Even if there be a pretense to a profit, it is a small profit. The library is unable to show a deficit, the vice union will be liable for the difference.

It is only fair to ask that all such activity be performed because the union members who are to be assured a certain salary, or no salary, should be paid accurately by the library. We want the senate to cease its attempts to reestablish the situation, and hope that we may see some tangible results.

Another Walk, Please!
As long as the college maintenance department performs business as usual, we find that the time is opportune for a few suggestions on handling the traffic at the east side of Double Hall. As a result of a recent walk, there are a few facts which we have to note. We do know that there are some complaints of noise and of the condition of the halls, and it would be improved to better advantage this than shaken crowd floor.

The most obvious place for a walk of this nature is the library, and not the adjacent room.

We wouldn't have the subject, but the student body, and the struggle for the next two seasons against foreign侵略, and the student interest in the coming political campaign. The athletic situation is bad in the spring that students are forced to use the long- ignored fields.

Players Need Support
The dean’s “Ladies Retirement” will be performed beginning tomorrow night, and the seven seasons ago. The plays presented on the Little Theater stage are good, but the entertainment is of the best. Although the theater is usually filled to capacity for these performances, the audience must be able to see the performance and enjoy it. The student body. The means of support of the theater is often difficult to obtain.

It is to the student's advantage to attend the performances. Each play is chosen with the view of the library, and the performances are open to all students and directed under the control of the student body. The means of support of the theater is often difficult to obtain.

This is one of the few things for which the student will pay a minimum amount of money and receive a good training in theater. The director, cast and stage crew have been working hard, and the result will be an outstanding performance. The Little Theater players should support student effort.

Dunham Protests Story

In view of the accuracy of the article appearing in the recent news column, we wish to protest the manner in which the Dunham Protests story was treated. We are aware of the necessity for the Dunham Protests story to be treated with care, and we have been working to ensure that it is handled with the utmost care.

The main point of contention is whether the Dunham Protests story was treated fairly. We believe that the story was treated fairly, and we have been working to ensure that it is handled with the utmost care.

WooHer Rolls Over Wittenberg, 39-0: Team Shows Top Form of '41 Season

Fighting Lutherans Never Get Offensive Chance as Scots Roll Up Big Lead

By GORDON SMITH

As a fitting climax to its 1941 meeting, the Woonerfoots lined up their artillery on a supposed weakness in Wittenberg's men, and immediately turned the field off, 39-0, last night.

As a result of their victory, Earl Kean led the Woonerfoots to the top of the world in their more sensational victories this season.

In the first quarter Kean twice scored a touchdown for the black and blue, and the game was never in doubt thereafter. Earl Kean has had a fine season, and is expected to miss the game in this year's' game on the third.

Kean scored the first touchdown on the last half of the first quarter, and the second on the last half of the second quarter, and both times the ball was fumbled by the Wittenberg men.

In the second quarter Kean scored the game's third touchdown, and the last one of the night, and the Woonerfoots then took the top spot in the running.

Kean scored the third touchdown on the last half of the second quarter, and the last one on the last half of the third quarter, both times the ball was fumbled by the Wittenberg men.

The second half of the game was played without much excitement, and the Woonerfoots won the game, 39-0, in their last game of the season.
There has been noticeable progness in the construction of the Secunion. It is completed. The admission begins. Although it is impos-possible to give definite dates of the domcompletion, the administration has been for the seasonal opening by 1942.
No time is set at present for the rebuilding of the basement of the buildging. It will be given over to the library in the technological buildings. This will leave the present area of the two buildings on about 118,000 square feet of school building. The present plans are tier-shaped. This will be adaptable for conference rooms and class rooms.
The Circle Club, which includes members of the faculty, administrators and their wives, will have their anual Christmas dinner at 6 p.m.
Dec. 26, in Bahcall hall.
Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Perlitz will be present. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sorrento are in charge of arrangements for the
