Woofter Co-operates With Government's Program of Speeding Up Course

Spring vacation will be eliminated from all four-year colleges and universities and given next term during close periods in order to speed up the college program, it was announced recently by Dr. Van Buren. The new vacation may hold May 14, it was declared at a meeting of the Woofter Board, Tuesday, Jan. 13.

A schedule of 12 trimesters in connection with the proposed plan was decided. That is, on Tuesday, Wednesday and Jan. 22, and 23, examinations will be given during the vacation. The fourth and fifth time may be given at other times but not on the same day. Regarding the change in the semester, Dr. Van Buren said:

"The government has asked us to make some change in our system of semesters and we are doing it. Our students are in favor of it and we are speeding up the college work. We expect that this will make things easier for the students and for the professors."

The Woofter Board is ready to give the students what they want. The new vacation may hold May 14, it was declared at the meeting of the Board, Tuesday, Jan. 13.

Wooster Shows Brilliant Offense
In Dohning John Carroll, 62-24

By CHET TURNER

Opening the home basketball season with its impressive defense, the Wooster ScotsFew memorable coaching debut in basketball.

For the second year in a row, Wooster's defense was the key to its 62-24 victory over John Carroll.

In the first quarter, the Scots held the visitors to just 8 points, while scoring 22. In the second quarter, Wooster's defense continued to dominate, allowing John Carroll only 7 points, while scoring 19.

The game was decided in the third quarter, as Wooster's defense held the Demons to just 6 points, while scoring 21. In the final quarter, Wooster put the game out of reach, outscoring John Carroll 14-7.

Wooster's defense was led by senior Captain John King, who had 9 rebounds and 4 steals.

King was joined on the defensive end by sophomore Dwayne Carter, who had 6 blocks and 2 steals.

Carter was also supported by senior Brian Young, who had 5 rebounds and 3 blocks.

As a team, Wooster held John Carroll to just 24 points, while scoring 62. The Scots outrebounded the Demons 46-24, and had 14 steals.

The win was a significant improvement from Wooster's performance last year in the season opener, when they were held to just 23 points by John Carroll.

With the victory, Wooster improved to 1-0 on the season. The Scots will next host Muskingum on Tuesday, November 22.

It's back! Takey's on your face, your band and your friends' faces. The night to get your face painted white and red.

Wooster's newest Tradition, "White Night," is now a reality. The night to let your hair down and have fun with your friends.

The night will feature live music, dancing, and a costumed parade through campus.

The event is being held in honor of the late Jamie Eicher, who was known for her love of the color white.

This is the first year that the event has been held, and it is already a huge success.

The event is being held in the Student Center, and will run from 9 pm to 2 am.

The event is free to students, and donations will be accepted.

The Wooster Fire Department will be on hand to ensure everyone's safety.

It's time to let your hair down and have fun with your friends. Wooster's newest Tradition, "White Night," is now a reality.
