Facts In Review

By STAN COATES

OUR NAVY—For many weeks the American people wondered where our navy was; so did the Japanese. We finally found out where it was; so did the Japanese. Our first organized naval attack was against a Jap convoy in the Strait of Macassar. Severe damage was inflicted on the convoy in a long running fight. The second appearance of our navy was a surprise attack against Jap naval bases about 2,000 miles from Hawaii. Using both bombers and artillery fire, the navy greatly reduced the effectiveness of these Jap bases.

PRODUCTION — For many months, even years, we have been told that this is a war of production. This has been dinned into our ears so long that we Americans have now reached the point where we think that we can win the war by sitting back and letting our marvelous industrial production outstrip the rest of the world. What difference does it make that Hong Kong has fallen? Why worry about losing the Philippines? Don't bother to reinforce Singapore; we can soon recapture it. Just look at our mighty production. If we don't snap out of the defense-minded attitude, we are in danger of losing every base east of Hawaii. We must realize that this is a war of fighting as well as of production, unfortunately.

AIR POWER—If we can believe our official commiques, U. S. planes and pilots are showing surprising superiority. In actual air combat, the ratio of planes downed is about 9 to 1 in our favor. Let's send more planes over there instead of just producing them.

Students Urged To Give Drive Better Support

Donated Books, Money
Fall Short of Set Goal

Because of probable shortages in donations for the Red Cross and Victory Book drives, students are urged by the Student Senate to turn in all the money and books they can spare as soon as possible.

According to reports contributions to the Red Cross and Victory Book campaigns are considerably lower than expected. "However," says Jerry Stryker, Senate president, "while the Red Cross drive ends Thursday (today) the campaign for Victory Books will continue as long as books are available. It is realized that college students will have few books, other than texts, but perhaps, it is suggested, books might be sent from home, in the laundry for instance. Pocket size books are especially desirable because of the convenient size."

Student Senate voted to contribute not more than $10 to make up the balance not quite met in the "Meatless Dinner" campaign to purchase a "vic" for the East Side Community Center.

The M. S. G. A. owes the Student Senate $100 for their Halloween formal and the Student Senate has agreed to settle for $80 if paid before Apr. 2.

Arrangements were made to hold a "Vic" dance this Saturday evening, Feb. 7, at Douglass from 8 to 11 with a 15 cent charge.

Jim Bean was appointed to make inquiry about securing a bus and a block of tickets for the Mt. Union game on Feb. 18.

Big Four Designates Prayer Week Group, Plans Benefit Movie

The Big Four held its mid-year retreat, Sunday morning, Jan. 31, in Babcock dining hall for the purpose of selecting a chairman for the Week of Prayer. Four men were nominated from whom the final selection will be made.

The Big Four designates the chairman of the Week of Prayer committee, while the remainder of the committee is composed of two members each from the M.S.G.A. and the W.S.G.A. One member is chosen from the faculty and the preceding year's chairman is an ex-officio member.

Following a pancake breakfast, Dr. John Hutchison of the philosophy department gave a lecture based upon the extensive religious program here at Wooster. He urges students to continue their concentrated study, by which they had prepared for semester exams, and not to let the new term suffer because of the mid-semester let-up.

The Big Four is also formulating plans to sponsor a movie downtown. If this plan materializes the proceeds will be spent to buy Bibles for soldiers. This plan is carried out in cooperation with the American Bible Society. Mary Smucker, George Mulder and Sara Jean Ferguson are in charge of this project.

New Election Schedule

The new election schedule for Y. W. C. A., W. S. G. A., and W. A. A. is as follows. For Y. W. C. A. and W. S. G. A. the petition for nominations will be circulated from Mar. 16 to 23, and elections will be on Mar. 25. W. A. A. election will be Mar. 26.

Glee Club Presents Program in Canton

Tonight at 8:15 in the First Presbyterian Church of Canton the Men's Glee club will present its first concert since the eastern concert tour during Christmas vacation. This evening's program will consist of the same numbers as those used in the secular concerts of the tour. This includes the three soloists—Bill Sharp, bass; Gordon Rowand, marimbist; and Nicky Zuppas, violinist.

This will be the first of four out-of-town concerts that have been scheduled for the second semester. In addition to these the glee club, under Mr. DeVeney's direction, will present its annual home sacred and secular concerts in the spring.

Marines Announce 3 Months' Training Course for Officers

A chance to obtain a reserve officer's commission in the United States Marine Corps will be offered to a limited number of Wooster students it was announced today by the Marine Corps recruiting office in Cleveland, Ohio.

Lt. John L. Pratt, a graduate of Denison university, will be on the Wooster campus Feb. 10, for the purpose of interviewing students interested in obtaining commissions as Second Lieutenants in the United States Marine Corps.

As in the past only seniors, juniors, and sophomores, between the ages of 18 and 24, will be eligible for admittance into the Candidate's Class, a three month's course at Quantico, Va. To enlist as a member of this class a man must be physically fit, not less than 64 inches and not more than 76 inches tall, and have a vision of 18/20 in both eyes without the aid of glasses.

Juniors and sophomores accepted for the class will be given draft deferment and will be allowed to finish college. Upon graduation they will be called to active duty to last for the duration of the national emergency.

All students interested in a reserve commission in the United States Marine Corps should contact Arthur F. Southwick, registrar, immediately to arrange for an interview with Lt. Pratt.

Office Will Take Applications For Counsellorships

Men desiring counsellorships in the freshman dormitory may apply for the positions now, John Bruere, Dean of Men, announced Monday. These applications should be made at the office of the Dean of Men by Feb. 15.

It has, in previous years, been the policy of the Dean of Men to select students, usually juniors, who were qualified for positions as counsellors, without their making application. The new system will avoid the possibility of a student's refusing the counsellor appointment after it has been made.

In the past juniors have usually comprised the majority of those selected but in the future there will be a greater number of sophomores, according to the Dean. The reason is that the juniors chosen this year will be spending their last year at the college next year, and because of the usually extensive activities of the senior year, they may not have sufficient time to spend on their duties as counsellors.

Senate to Circulate Fred Waring Song Petitions in Dorms

A new Wooster fight song composed by Fred Waring is the goal of a new project sponsored by the Student Senate. A committee consisting of Paul Churton, chairman, John Melin and Fritz Pfouts has been chosen to carry out the idea.

Miami university, Arizona State university and Marshall college are a few of the many colleges and universities for which Fred has written songs. The demand for these songs is naturally very high and the student body's wholehearted approval of the idea is apparent.

For the purpose of showing approval, petitions will be distributed tomorrow to all off-campus houses, each section of Kenarden, the girls' dormitories, and Douglass hall. For those who live in town, the Voice office will be open at all times and petitions will be available for signatures there.

Wooster Debaters Hold Two Meets With Kenyon

Wooster's debate team will have two meets next week with Kenyon college. The first, scheduled for Feb. 11, will be here, and the second, on Feb. 13, will be at Kenyon. On Feb. 12 Wooster will send two teams to Case.

These debates will be on the subject: "Resolved: that the federal government should regulate by law all labor unions."

Council Passes Six-Day "Hell Week", Feb. 23-28

Star of Kappa Theta Gamma Play

Cast in the leading feminine role of the Kappa Theta Gamma production of "The Man Who Came to Dinner" is attractive Alice Neff, '43, of Utica, New York. The comedy, one of the most amusing and popular plays to hit New York since "Abie's Irish Rose," will be presented in Taylor hall on March 12, 13, 14.

Bids Due in Dean's Office
Feb. 18; Upperclassmen
Barred From Douglass

A six day "Hell week", beginning Monday, Feb. 23, and ending Saturday, Feb. 28, was approved at the Kenarden Council meeting in Kenarden lounge, Monday evening, Feb. 2. The meeting was attended by John Bruere, section faculty advisers, section heads, and section "hellmasters."

Similar to Last Year

The week's program will be similar to last year's six day plan. The first two days—Monday and Tuesday, Feb. 23 and 24—the initiates will be free after supper. Wednesday's evening program must be held indoors. Outside activities will be confined to Thursday, Friday, and Saturday evenings. Because of a deadlock in voting between the six day and three day plans, the final decision was made by the toss of a coin.

"Hell week" was moved up from its usual time, the first week in March, because of the shortened semester and the probable conflicts with mid-semester examinations.

Procedure Announced

The schedule of events leading up to the eventful week is as follows: the preference lists were available to the section heads Wednesday morning, Feb. 4, in the office of the dean of men. Bids will be due in the dean's office from the sections, Wednesday, Feb. 18, before chapel. From there (Continued on Page 4)

Red Cross Plans Blood Donations

John Smeltz, sophomore Senate member, has been appointed college chairman of the Blood Donors Service of the American Red Cross, it was announced yesterday.

This particular branch of the Red Cross is organized nationally to arrange for donations of one pint of blood from healthy persons to be used for transfusions and other medical purposes arising out of the war. No organization has as yet been set up for blood donations, according to Smeltz.

Persons under twenty-one years of age desiring to donate blood to the Red Cross must secure written permission from their parents. The request is made therefore that any such students obtain written permission now to avoid delay once the blood donation campaign is under way.

Wilson Flattery, chairman for the city of Wooster, states that 450 donors must be signed up from the community before a Red Cross unit can be brought down from Cleveland. Appointments will be arranged, with about five minutes needed for the actual taking of the blood, and an hour recuperative period before returning to the campus.

College to Remodel Overholt Residence

Plans are being formulated now for the remodeling of the Overholt residence on Beall Avenue which is to serve as the new Conservatory of Music. The tentative plan is to leave the house essentially as it is with certain minor changes. The main revisions will be in the exits, to fit building requirements.

The present barn will be so arranged as to provide about 20 practice rooms. The old building shell will be used as a start with sound proofing, lighting, and heating improvements to be added.

The house will hold all the instruction studios plus a large lounge downstairs. The college underground tunnel for steam and electricity will be extended to both buildings from a point back of Severance hall.

According to Mr. Donald E. Dickson, assistant business manager of the college, the corner property on Beall Avenue and Bowman Street, the site of the present Conservatory, practice house, and the old Miller Manor is ready for sale.

If present arrangements are completed the new building will be ready for use in the fall semester.

Douglass Formal Features Keating

Will Keating and his orchestra is scheduled to play for the annual Douglass formal Friday evening from 8 to 12. Couples will dance in lower Douglass, and at intermission each section will hold its own Open House.

The committee in charge is headed by Don Meisel and consists of section heads, Wayne Hunter, John Hill, George Bell, Guy Hardin, Benton Kline, Ted Ferguson and Norman Wright. Bill Benson, Norm Wright, Carson Kent, Clark Weygand, Oscar Olson, and Gus Gessemet compose the decorating committee.

The chaperones are Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. Schroeder, Mr. and Mrs. John Bruere, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest M. Hole, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick J. Graebel, Dr. and Mrs. Wm. I. Schreiber, Dr. and Mrs. Lowell W. Coolidge, Mr. and Mrs. E. Kingman Eberhart, and Dr. and Mrs. John A. Hutchison.

Army Broadens Officer Age Limit

The War Department announced yesterday that the Army's Officer Candidate Schools are now open to all qualified enlisted men from 18 to 45 years of age. The minimum period of service required for admission to the schools has been reduced to three months. Specially qualified graduates may be authorized to take advanced training to fit them for early promotion.

These changes are in accordance with the planned expansion of the present system for providing trained officer leaders for the rapidly expanding Army.

The age limits for admission to Officer Candidate School have been broadened considerably to coincide with the new induction and enlistment ages. This means that any man between the ages of 18 and 45 now serving in the Army, or slated for induction in the future, who is otherwise qualified, will be eligible for selection as an officer candidate.

For additional details see Prof. W. R. Westhafer, dean of the college.

College Rifle Range Nears Completion; New Guns Acquired

The college rifle range which is being constructed in the stadium should be completed within a week according to Zearl Ramey who is directing the work. Upon its completion a class in rifle marksmanship will be offered under the instruction of Coach L. C. Boles.

The range will be a 50 yard indoor type, set up under the stadium stands. There will be room for six men to shoot at one time, and a table three feet high is being constructed so that shooting may be done standing, kneeling, or prone.

Six Winchester single shot rifles are being furnished by the college for use at the range. Men who could were advised to bring their own rifles back with them after the Christmas holidays. Ammunition and targets may be purchased from the college.

Plates one-quarter of an inch thick and eight by 16 feet will be the background for the targets. Special racks will hold the rifles.

"Instruction will begin just as soon as the construction work is completed," said Coach Boles. There will be no regularly scheduled classes, but men will be taken from the sophomore sections seven at a time and given lessons in rifle marksmanship.

Marsh Chosen For Part in "Tally Ho"

Bob Marsh has been chosen for the part of Shank in "Tally Ho", the 1942 Gum Shoe Hop production, according to Director Celia Retzler. Bob replaces Jimmy Rowe, who withdrew from the cast.

Esther Robinson has been placed in charge of properties and Walter Krumm, stage manager, has appointed Ginny Ellison chairman of the decorations committee.

Under the direction of June Whitmer, the chorus is working on a new song, "Good-bye Please." Jim Park and Ruth Kress are preparing a special jitterbug dance for the Hop.

The Curtain Rises

No longer will representatives of the Men's Self-Government Association be able to proclaim the M. S. G. A. as being a puppet in the hands of the administration. This was evidenced last Monday evening when Dean of Men, John Bruere, stated that the Kenarden Council would be the sole determining factor in either lengthening or shortening "Hell week," or in leaving it the same.

When voting upon the question between shortening the period and leaving it the same resulted in a tie, the council decided by a "flip of the coin" to retain the system inaugurated last year, i.e., two days of the week will be devoted by the pledges to concentrated inside activities, and the remaining four will involve outside duties.

As presiding chairman of the council, Dean Bruere could have cast the deciding vote in favor of the shortened period which the administration has been known to favor for some time. Instead the point was settled in as fair a manner as possible, by a "flip of a coin."

This incident proves that the association still has authority with which to work, and should not use the college as an excuse for not accomplishing desired ends. It further shows that the administration is more than willing to co-operate with the M. S. G. A. and will accept, if humanly possible, that which the selected representatives recommend.

Another "bushel" behind which the Men's Self-Government Association has been hiding has been lifted!

For The Common Good

Words could hardly express our amazement when we heard that only one, not ten or twenty, but just ONE junior man signed up for the advanced physical education course. The course was offered for those men who should be interested in perfecting their physiques before the armed forces attempt what with some would be the almost impossible.

A glance around the campus will reveal to any arresting eye the many men, too numerous to mention in these columns, who could lose twenty or even thirty pounds of excess avoirdupois. Our grandparents are certainly right in saying that the present generation is soft. Cream puffs and marshmallows; taxis and private cars, all have deteriorating effects.

Men in the junior and senior classes do not get enough exercise if they are not actively participating in some sport. The Voice proposes that a compulsory physical education course be instigated for all junior and senior men at the beginning of the summer session. Students not considerate of their bodies should be required to keep them in good shape.

If enough interested men would show up in the cage tomorrow at five o'clock, we're positive that adequate provision would be made to limber them up. After the majority of college men have been drafted, they will regret, more than they know now, that they didn't take advantage of their opportunity.

MEMOS from the DATE BOOK

By JUNE WHITMER

As has been advocated in the popular vernacular of the song writers, Life is just a bowl of cherries; but in view of the sugar rationing it seems they're due to be sour ones. So what happens. We chew the tart fruit—mit grimaces—and still end up with just the pits. However, there remains that saving grace in human nature to be able to take the pits with a grin and, accordingly, dish them out in similar fashion. May we suggest (for in these days of national defense measures, we preach the doctrine of individual comfort before patriotic sacrifice) that a mouthwash will often aid in removing that acid taste which is wont to linger even after the pits have been disposed of. So pardon me while I gargle.

Thursday evening at 7:30 the gym will feature thrills and actions once more from a brilliant and versatile basketball squad. Fenn readily becomes our next victim. Come one, come all!

The lads of '45 get their first big chance to scintillate and impress the campus by way of FORMAL design, Friday night. DOUGLASS will be the scene of dancing for the big punch on this week-end's social time clock. The red heart (not the dog food) will be the special theme of decoration in anticipatory celebration of Valentine's Day and Will Keating is to set the rhythmic pace from 8-12.

Too, the PYRAMIDS steep themselves in the atmosphere of the gay nineties, and with their guests, the Imps, will look forward to ten nights in a barroom condensed into one evening of frolic. The Bowery is to be recreated in Babcock basement and males on the roster are requested not to forget their derbies and stogies. Time: 8-11.

On Saturday evening the members of THIRD SECTION ope' their synagogue in Babcock basement and suggest that troubles be thrown to the wind (as cold as it is) and that persuasive strains of music lead weary souls and soles in a merry bit of informal dancing. Could 8-11 be right? It could and is!

And last but not least, on schedule is old faithful—the all-college VIC DANCE at Douglass—with general admission and a guarantee of no black-outs until after 11. Darn the luck, fellows!

But one could hardly ignore (and who would want to) the fact that though June may be considered the month of brides, January has certainly hit a new high for Wooster "Steadies" as quite a few new couples have recently and automatically joined our already swelling ranks. So here's special congrats and good wishes to all of them. May they scorn the "fickle" with proper contempt and spur on the "bashful" to as great and happy heights. (Thanks, kids, for the lollipops!)

Just Ad Libbing

When selective service was still in its early days, draft boards throughout the country seemed to vie with one another to demonstrate their determination to be completely non-discriminatory in their selections. The eyes of a nation were focusing, preparing to glare at the first draft-dodger among the more stellar members of these United States. But, either the public suffers from astigmatism, or we must admit, few if any of our celebrities have shirked their duty when called. In fact, the "celebrities" that have fallen under the act have been many—and the publicity they have received far surpasses the best efforts of their paid agents.

Hank Greenberg was one of the first to go. Then Jimmy Stewart was lost to the women of the movie-going public, constituting one of the first great mass sacrifices for the defense effort. We mustn't forget the Roosevelt boys in uniform, of course—or should we? But, to go on; the sports world also suffered a series of losses with Bob Feller and Joe Louis leading the cavalcade. But the gesture which perhaps has received the greatest plaudits of the "common folk" was the induction into the army of Joe Palooka.

Private Joe Palooka

Joe has long had the common touch. He's been the example of good, clean living for all the youth of America to emulate and to go and do likewise. His value as a bolsterer of morale among the men in the army is beyond estimation. More recently, we who follow the "comic" section in the Plain Dealer, have been reading with great excitement the details of Joe's almost single-handed capture of a Nazi submarine, with his bare fists and boxing trunks as his only equipment and weapons. We were somewhat shocked at his language and his stern treatment of the enemy, however. This isn't the magnanimous Joe we have known in the past. And herein lies the tragedy of all comic strips—even they must alter under the duress of war.

All these, we presume, are supposed to be funny. We suppose they probably are, since they are a bit incongruous at times, and slightly overstated. But, what faith we had in the comic section as a source of enjoyment.

Letters Reprimand Social Columnist; Explain Student Fellowship Activities

To the Editor of the Wooster Voice:

Evidently your social columnist Miss June Whitmer, in her original "calm and unruffled manner," does not realize the after effects of a bit of TNT. She blew last week and now we would like to toot a bit.

Columnist Attacked Seventh
Let us say that we find the situation a bit heart touching. Your columnist relates to us, upon personal investigation, that she merely had to have something to write about and decided to add a bit of spice to her column by making an open attack not on the gang who inhabit the southeast corner of the gym balcony, but upon Seventh Section. We did not think that Miss Whitmer would use her "Memos from the Date Book" as a means of personal attack, nor did we entertain the thought that her ingenious writing talent, heretofore lavishly praised, would succumb to such an ignominious quirk of wit.

Resent Assertion
We do not resent being called habitual harangues, trouble causers, pests or just plain hell raisers. In fact we rather like it. But we do resent, heartfully, the assertion made by Miss Whitmer that we solely defend and noisily champion our stellar member (singular) on the floor. This is not only a gross exaggeration but a common ordinary unqualified falsehood. We do not inhabit the southeast balcony to cheer and laud our stellar member, but we are there to back a five man basketball squad which we think is worth all the public commendation that you or anyone else can hand out.

Section Misses Few Games
You might be interested to know that this gang which you label as public enemies have not missed one single basketball game played either here on our own court or at any away court in the past two years. This certainly was not done to back "our boy" but was carried out by loyal enthusiasm for our own college basketball squad and coach. We admit that our enthusiasm might be a bit too arrogant for a few timid souls, and we accept your unqualified public reprimanding. But we leave you with one thought. We do not intend to retire placidly into our shell because you have spoken and we shall be on hand

Moore Recommends N.Y.A. Funds Be Used For Purposes of Defense

By Associated Collegiate Press
University-trained men and women are encountering "the greatest demand for their services in our generation," Robert F. Moore, secretary of appointments at Columbia university, declares in his annual report. The emergency that made necessary the national youth administration as a relief measure for students has passed, Mr. Moore adds.

N.Y.A. Funds Could Go
"It is my opinion that the allotment of NYA funds for college students may well be withdrawn and used to much better advantage for purposes of national defense," he says. "There are ample opportunities through private sources for a student to work his way."

During the last year the salary at which students began to work averaged 10 per cent above the starting salaries of the previous year, according to Mr. Moore. "Furthermore, it was not unusual for seniors, after they had accepted a job at one salary, to receive word that they had been given a raise, even before reporting for work."

"From a period of historic unemployment, the situation changed overnight to a seller's market where there were more jobs than men."

"In the face of this active employment market, college women came into their own, for employers suddenly remembered that there are many positions that women can handle as well as men."

Positions Aren't Sound
"Under other circumstances the harvest of opportunities would be an occasion for rejoicing, and indeed we are proud of the record; but we cannot overlook the fact that many positions that college graduates took this

Dear Editor:

A difficulty faced by many campus organizations is that the student body is not adequately informed of their activities. The Student Fellowship wishes to make sure that the campus knows what we are endeavoring to do.

Campus Interested in Religion

We believe that the campus is sincerely interested in a religious philosophy of life. A genuine interest in religion is in evidence not only in "bull sessions", but in much of our ordinary conversation, especially since the present state of the world is forcing upon us a reconsideration of many of our fundamental values. This sort of thought is the basis of many of the vital adjustments which we as individuals must make to life. Even among those who profess indifference, there is a real undercurrent of genuine interest in the basic values of life. This interest is certainly a natural and important part of our approach to life.

The function of our organization then, is to provide an adequate means of expression for this interest, a place where ideas may be freely exchanged and discussed unhampered by preconception or prejudice. Our program is constructed with this end in view. Interesting speakers are invited to present their views and help lead discussions.

Spencer Will Speak

At present a series of meetings has been organized around the theme "My Philosophy of Life". Various speakers from the faculty and student body have been asked to contribute some of their basic ideas on the subject. Dr. Warren Spencer will be our guest this coming Sunday. I'm sure those who have heard Dr. Spencer speak will appreciate the fine ideas which he has to offer.

Sincerely,
Jack Strang, President

Affairs of Note

By LES GIBIAN

Even more than the usual amount of comment is current about Benny Goodman these days. A great leader of a great band, he is constantly the subject of popular music chatter. Recently, however, he created a sensation by recording the unusually large number of 18 sides in one month under Okeh label. Benny switched from the more expensive Columbia label to Okeh at the first of the year and he has certainly started off with a bang.

The first disc he made under the new label was "Let's Do It" and "The Earl". The latter is dedicated to Earl Hines and features Mel Powell at the piano. Goodman has been plugging this number on his nightly broadcast (11:30, Red network, NBC, if you're interested).

His second Okeh waxing revived the old tune, "Somebody Else Is Taking My Place," with a vocal by Peggy Lee. This really is a honey (of course we mean the arrangement) and it is truly indicative of the ability of Goodman's arrangers to make a good, modern arrangement out of almost any tune.

With the fine outfit that he has, Benny is continuing to pack them in at the Hotel New Yorker. Billy Butterfield's tone on first trumpet really does wonders in giving the brass section depth and roundness.

An arrangement which Goodman features quite a bit on location and which he has recorded in the last month is "Clarinet a la King." He plays some terrific stuff on the clarinet as does Powell on the piano. Most of the time you'll find that they both sound better on this arrangement on the air than on the record.

THE SCORE BOARD

By JOHN STRANAHAN
Voice Sports Editor

Some Friday night when you are drifting around the campus with your late and you aren't exactly financially overburdened and you don't want to spend what little money you have and you are big, strong and athletic and you don't know exactly what to do with your date, why don't you take her to the gym for Play Night. This is the night legally set by the college when boys and girls may go over to the gym together and indulge in the various activities such as swimming, basketball, volleyball, handball, badminton, tumbling, chinning oneself, wrestling, jiu jitsu, etc. In other words you can show your date in one easy session, just how big and strong you are and just how weak and dependent she is. Of course the reverse has been known to happen.

Few of the students have made use of this opportunity and if the turnout is not better these nights will be discontinued. Several members of the athletic department are there to supervise things and all in all, a grand time is generally had by everybody.

After the two frauds staged last week-end, especially the one last Friday night, it becomes more obvious that Wooster has its schedule filled with a lot of teams that have no business being there. Wooster has proven this year that it can have a first rate basketball team year in and year out. At the start of the season the material seemed the poorest in years, yet Mose Hole has built another winning combination that can be ranked among the top teams of the country. Wooster doesn't have a good team every five years—it has a good team every year and yet we are still playing Wilmington, Findlay, Fenn, and several other colleges that have no business being on the schedule.

The school's answers to the whole problem would be: (1) The school does not like the publicity that Wooster would receive from big time basketball, (2) Wooster could not play big name teams because these big name teams hesitate to play a college like Wooster, which is comparatively unknown. (3) To play big teams the Scots would have to either build or find a gym that could accommodate larger crowds. (4) The playing of games far away from home would necessitate several long trips which would be hard on the players' scholastic standings. (5) Too many big name opponents might give Wooster a bad name in the Ohio Conference.

The answer to the whole problem seems to be that Wooster should play teams that are not big name, yet that have a big time basketball team. There are plenty of small colleges no bigger than Wooster who have big time teams and yet they would be glad to play a home and home series with the Scots because they are in the same fix as Wooster is in trying to find suitable opponents. In fact playing these teams does not necessarily mean long trips. By such teams I mean Toledo, De Salles, Xavier, Capital, Ohio Northern, Baldwin Wallace, Youngstown, (all in Ohio by the way) Geneva, Westminster, Waynesburg, W. and J., and many others.

Any one of these teams could give the Scots stiff competition and could afford the Wooster fans something to boo about instead of having them go to a weekly Saturday night butchery. To play these teams would not give the Scots the distinction of being a professional college basketball team. Whatever publicity they would get certainly would not hurt the school especially in times like these, when college minded boys and girls are few and far between.

New Coach Leads Fenn To Wooster

COACH BRUCE BRICKLEY

When Fenn college faces Wooster tonight a new coach, Bruce Brickley, will be handling the reigns of the Cleveland team. The new mentor is a fiery mite five feet seven inches in height and weighing only 135 pounds. Since his graduation from Oberlin, he has made excellent coaching records at Allegheny, Oberlin, and Chesterland high.

Intramural Leagues Tighten as Seventh Remains Undefeated

By EARL NELSON

With the intramural season nearing the half way mark there is a close struggle for honors in both the Kenarden and Douglass leagues. In the Kenarden league Kenarden VII is in first place with three wins in three games. Kenarden II is well established in second place with five wins in six starts. They have lost only to Kenarden I.

In third place the Frosh team has a slight edge on Kenarden I and Kenarden V who are tied for fourth place. Following these teams are Kenarden III, the Scotties, Kenarden VI, and Kenarden IV.

Seventh Leads Scoring

With only three games under their belt, Kenarden VII seems to have an edge in all departments. Their 34 point offensive average is the best in the league, while their eight point defensive average is also tops. Kenarden II has the second best offensive average. They have averaged 26 points per game. Second in the defensive average is Kenarden V with a 14 point average, closely followed by Kenarden II with a 15 point average. While beating Kenarden IV 51-2, Kenarden VII scored the most points in any one game and held the opposition to the fewest points in any one game.

Douglass League Tied

In the Douglass league there is a red hot race with Douglass I-II and Douglass VII-VIII tied for first place with five wins in five starts. Douglass V-VI is in third place with three wins in five games. These leaders are followed by Douglass III, Douglass IV, Section IX, Kappa Komets, Five Old Men, and the Town team.

Douglass I-II has a fine offensive average in their 41 points per game, while the 19 point defensive average of Douglass VII-VIII is the best in the league. There is plenty of opportunity for a fine battle between these two teams in this league, and there should be more fine games before the season is over.

Basketball Lettermen Win Awards in Four Sports

BOB COPE

RICH SPROULL

COACH HOLE

HARRY EICHER

CAPT. KARL KATE

These five lettermen do not confine their athletic ability to the basketball court but boast football, tennis, and golf letters beside their basketball monograms.

Captain Karl Kate is an all-year-round athlete beginning in the fall with football, progressing to basketball and winding up the year by playing on the golf team. Kate has won three letters in football, two in basketball, and two in golf. Playing number two man on the golf team last year, Karl is certain of being either number one or two when the team tees off this year.

Sproull Gives Up Football

Rich Sproull won a football letter in his sophomore year but was injured in the Denison game this year and was forced to give up football for the season. Rich's main athletic hobbies are softball and golf. Rumors have spread concerning his ability to hit as long a ball as any golfer on Wooster's course. Last year he pitched for the town team in the intramural softball league.

Harry Eicher has won two letters in the pigskin sport where he has held down an end position for two years. Eicher, like Kate, has little rest during the year, stepping from the gridiron to the hardwoods. Softball seems to be Harry's chief athletic diversion.

Black Has Tennis Letter

Bob Black won his first basketball letter last year and in the spring he won his tennis letter as number six man on the racket squad. Black is a hard working athlete both in basketball and tennis.

Bob Cope is the only basketball letterman not to own a monogram in another sport. Cope takes active part in intramural athletics and was named quarterback on the Voice's all-star touch football team. In the spring softball holds his attention as a pitcher and an infielder.

Wooster Runs Up Biggest Score of Season in Beating Wilmington 82-33

By BILL BOYER

The Wooster Scots made new basketball history last Friday night when they broke the 70 mark for this time this season and went on to score a victory over Wilmington 82 to 33.

This victory registered the second highest score on their home court in Coach Hole's memory, the greatest score being a triumph over Otterbein 83 to 22 several years ago when the famous Hole, Gernert, and Grenert were in school. However, the greatest score a Wooster team has ever racked up on either their own or their opponent floor was in 1931 when the Scots beat Kenyon at Kenyon 86 to 48.

Wooster Grabs Lead

Three minutes after the clock started Wooster was ahead 8 to 2. The time was doubled to six minutes and the Wooster score was also doubled to 16 to 2. Again the time was doubled to 12 minutes but this time the Scots more than doubled their score to 38 points thus scoring an average of better than 3 points a minute. Coach Hole inserted three substitutes at this time and the half found Wooster far ahead 47 to 16.

This was probably the greatest first half in Wooster's history. In the first half the Scots attempted 47 field goals and sank 21. In the greatest scoring spree of the season Wooster sank 8 shots in a row, 10 out of 11, and 16 out of 21 attempts. However, the Scots only sank five free throws in 15 chances.

Eicher Out on Fouls

Four personal fouls forced Eicher out of the game after one minute of the second half had elapsed. In four more minutes Kate and Sproull left the game after both had done splendid jobs. The score was 63 to 24 then and Kate was responsible for 20 of the points. Hudson and Katherman were the next to come out of the game. They received a tremendous ovation. Denny Kuhn broke 70 with a left handed push shot boosting the score to 71 to 30 at the 15 minute mark. Substitutions scored the remaining points, the final score being 82 to 33.

Scots Shoot Accurately

The second half showed Wooster sinking 15 out of 41 shots for a total of 36 out of 90 attempts plus five free throws out of five tries making a total of 10 out of 25 chances. Wilmington had 11 field goals out of 65 attempts plus 11 free throws out of 23 attempts.

Scots Continue Conference Wins; Beat Wittenberg

Keeping their unblemished conference record intact, Wooster rolled over Wittenberg 62-40 last Saturday night at Springfield. Harry Eicher led the Scots' scoring with seven field goals and four fouls for 18 points. Dale Hudson was runner up with 12 points while Captain Karl Kate contributed 10 points to the evening's entertainment. The sixth Ohio Conference victory for Wooster kept them apace with undefeated Mount Union and Capital.

Scots After 200th Win

In beating Wittenberg last Saturday, Wooster captured its one hundred and ninety-ninth victory under Coach Hole's guidance. Tonight against Fenn they are out to make it two hundred.

The Scots playing in their typical style grabbed an early lead and never lost it. Dale Hudson had 12 points in the first 15 minutes. At this point however, he was sent to the showers after committing his fourth personal foul. Kuhn and Cope replaced him during the game. The Scots held a 33-19 lead at the half.

Harry Eicher was Wooster's chief offensive weapon in the second stanza, scoring four fielders and two free throws.

Twenty-two fouls were called—12 on Wittenberg and 10 on Wooster.

AFTER A FASHION AT FREEDLANDER'S

Ordinary pajamas are back numbers in this kind of weather. The Men's Department seems to be completely sold on the new SKI-JAMA made by Balbriggan for sub-zero nights in Kenarden Lodge. This glorified pajama is a fleecy flannel knit at a mere $1.98. So-o-o why freeze, men?

I stopped at the jewelry counter and couldn't tear myself away. The wooden novelty pins will add a definite zip to your new spring suit. Seznec of Harvard Gives Open Lecture In Scott Auditorium

Professor Jean Seznec of Harvard university will give a French lecture in Scott auditorium on Feb. 12 at 4:30 p.m. Professor Seznec was invited to speak at Wooster on the recommendation of Dr. E. B. de Sauze, Director of Foreign Languages for Cleveland city schools and professor at Western Reserve university.

His subject will be "The Romantic Hero" of which Chateaubriand's Rene is the type. The lecture is intended to be both instructive and entertaining.

Faculty members in the French department of Wooster had an opportunity to hear Professor Seznec at the recent meeting of the Modern Language Association in Indianapolis. They found him to be a clear and forceful speaker. He has written that he will make a special effort to adapt himself to undergraduate students of French and that his talk will be an informal causerie rather than a formal lecture.

The program is open to all and is free of charge.

Alumni Clubs Start New Student Drive

Wooster alumni clubs throughout the country will be holding special meetings sometime between Feb. 1 and Mar. 28, in order to interest prospective students in Wooster, the Alumni Office announces.

These alumni clubs are especially active in some of the larger eastern and central cities, such as Pittsburgh, New York, Philadelphia, Cleveland, and Chicago. The meetings will be held in addition to the regularly scheduled meetings in December.

The nature of the special meeting is left to the discretion of the local officers and such things as parties, teas, suppers and talent programs are suggested.

All clubs are expected to create a new post designed specifically to be a subsidiary of the central admissions office at the college. Duly elected officers will have at their disposal, catalogues, bulletins, and other college material in order to contact a maximum number of Wooster possibilities in their vicinity.

It is desired that prospective students be told about scholarships available to freshmen, including the honor and general scholarships and the special ones.

Dr. Recommends New Publication

By Dr. G. W. Jacoby

I have recently purchased from John J. Sutter, M.D., Wayne County's Health Commissioner, his publication of "Do's and Don'ts for Health, Happiness and Abundant Life". In his modest way he has stated: Quote "I have plucked a flower here, a rose there, a posie yonder all from stranger's gardens, and tied them together, and all I claim is the thread that binds them." He has accumulated more health facts and homespun philosophy with illustrations, in this small volume of 151 pages than any other book I have ever seen. I can only recommend your acquiring this book, at a very small cost, for your own library. A volume has been placed in the waiting room of Hygeia hall for your inspection.
