M.S.G. Must Pay

Defeat now pay up or the ship will sell them. Fortunately, for the men on this campus, the Student Senate is recanting its previous decision and now will date the last remittance of the debts to themselves by the M. S. G.

The debt was incurred several months ago when the action men decided to hold all a block with a "Tag Day" to raise funds. Although the chosen "name" hand failed to materialize, money was needed. Many of the non-student members of the band, only fairly well-known, was hired. As a result the debt rose and the total amount of $100 which the Student Senate gave is not enough to make up the emergency. Hoping to get the remaining $100 out of the $40 to $50 in reserve there with now.

Our Student Senate wouldn't be much of a Senate or benefit to the campus if it couldn't help us out now. We will allow them in favor of funds. The Senate came through in this case and will probably see the necessity to repay the man the money we owe them.

Personally, I think the M. S. G in this instance was a little too late on the party line. A series of tax debts which was a plan first prepared to alleviate the situation, the only responsibility of the Senate for a delinquency. Since it is too late in the party report a series of tax debts which was a plan first prepared to alleviate the situation, the only responsibility of the Senate for a delinquency. As the present time many of the colleges of the country are considering means of assisting their athletics program to move closer to those of the universities. The smaller schools are looking for a way to make the best of their funds, but the larger schools are looking for a way to make the most of their facilities. Some have not found it necessary to make such drastic moves, some have realized that small schools must do this in the future, but there is an underlying movement that is hard to consider the nature of it.

Theatre is one of the few things that has not been touched by the general movement to cut back. Every time we have seen a play, it has been one of the few things that has not been touched by the general movement to cut back.

One of the greatest sadnesses in our lives is that it is putting in the football on the 1941 season.

The football of 1941 season is a far from the best.

Baseball Squad Practices Inside

With the advent of spring, Coach W. S. Sebring and the 1941 baseball squad have been at the practice field on the campus for the past few days. The weather has been generally favorable for the practice and the young players have been sharp.

Their approach to the game is one of the most important aspects of their preparation. They are practicing their hitting and fielding, and doing a thorough job of their preparation. It is completely sound and well executed.

The weather has been very favorable for the practice and the young players have been sharp.

The senior baseball team, which will probably make up the squad next year, is in its final practice and will be ready to go for the 1942 season.

Brown Lectures On Biographies

"If I were to Write Your Biograp balanced was the subject of Bell's "The Brown's lecture Tuesday, Mar. 12, in the college chapel under the auspices of the class of 1877 lecture series. Mr. Brown is a native of New York, and author and historian. He is known especially as a biographer but also as an all-round scholar. Mr. Brown dealt with some of the major problems which the biographer should and must have in order to write a convincing piece of work. The biography should never be in competition with the subject of the biography. In the course of the lecture an interestingly varied reading. Mr. Brown listed these for the library, which he has recently added to his collection. These include, among others, biographies of Napoleon, Dickens, Johnson, and Schiller. Mr. Brown said that he has always been a voracious reader, and that his own self-knowledge has been largely realized through reading."
