Symphony Closes '42 Co-Op Series

Senior Students Ballouon, Fissell, and Parmelee To Play Solos

by GRACE OSHE

The Wooster Symphony Orchestra, as usual, will conclude its four-year
Co-operative concert season, Thursday night, April 17. The concert will begin at 8:00 p.m., under the direction of Prof. Paul Parmelee, Chairman of the music department.

The programme, which is not yet completely set, promises to offer a selection of brilliant works, some of which may be heard for the first time in Wooster.

The Wooster Symphony Orchestra, as usual, will conclude its four-year Co-operative concert season, Thursday night, April 17. The concert will begin at 8:00 p.m., under the direction of Prof. Paul Parmelee, Chairman of the music department. The programme, which is not yet completely set, promises to offer a selection of brilliant works, some of which may be heard for the first time in Wooster.

The Wooster Symphony Orchestra, as usual, will conclude its four-year Co-operative concert season, Thursday night, April 17. The concert will begin at 8:00 p.m., under the direction of Prof. Paul Parmelee, Chairman of the music department. The programme, which is not yet completely set, promises to offer a selection of brilliant works, some of which may be heard for the first time in Wooster.

The Wooster Symphony Orchestra, as usual, will conclude its four-year Co-operative concert season, Thursday night, April 17. The concert will begin at 8:00 p.m., under the direction of Prof. Paul Parmelee, Chairman of the music department. The programme, which is not yet completely set, promises to offer a selection of brilliant works, some of which may be heard for the first time in Wooster.

The Wooster Symphony Orchestra, as usual, will conclude its four-year Co-operative concert season, Thursday night, April 17. The concert will begin at 8:00 p.m., under the direction of Prof. Paul Parmelee, Chairman of the music department. The programme, which is not yet completely set, promises to offer a selection of brilliant works, some of which may be heard for the first time in Wooster.

The Wooster Symphony Orchestra, as usual, will conclude its four-year Co-operative concert season, Thursday night, April 17. The concert will begin at 8:00 p.m., under the direction of Prof. Paul Parmelee, Chairman of the music department. The programme, which is not yet completely set, promises to offer a selection of brilliant works, some of which may be heard for the first time in Wooster.

The Wooster Symphony Orchestra, as usual, will conclude its four-year Co-operative concert season, Thursday night, April 17. The concert will begin at 8:00 p.m., under the direction of Prof. Paul Parmelee, Chairman of the music department. The programme, which is not yet completely set, promises to offer a selection of brilliant works, some of which may be heard for the first time in Wooster.
The speaker at the banquet introduces the other speaker, followed by a point of interest from another person. This is the main speaker, the banquet’s purpose.

A_credit__To_the_Late_Dates

By ELEANOR ROMAN

Open to you by my patented procedure, John Whitmer, it is with due humility that I undertake to draw your attention to one or two matters which may be of interest to you. At the same time, I would like to express my gratitude for the opportunity to be of service to you, and to introduce you to the Junior Class of the College.

You are in your last year at the College, and it is with a mixture of pride and apprehension that I address you today. I have been a part of your experience at the College for many years, and I have seen you grow and develop as individuals.

I would like to express my gratitude to the Junior Class for their hard work and dedication throughout the year. Your efforts have not been in vain, and I am confident that you will continue to excel in the coming year.

I would like to thank you for your kind words and support during my tenure as President of the College. Your encouragement has been a source of strength for me, and I am grateful for your continued support.

Please take this opportunity to reflect on your time at the College. Consider the lessons you have learned and the people you have met. Remember that the College is not just a place of learning, but a community of friends.

As we begin the next chapter of our lives, I wish each of you the best of luck and the greatest of success.

Thank you.
Golf and Tennis Teams To Launch Their Spring Schedules This Week

This week Wooster officially begins its spring sports season, and tennis and golf teams are among those who will go for their first meets of the year this weekend. While the tennis team is idle in suitable Ohio weather, the golf team is underway in a match with Chillicothe university.

The golf team has seven men on its roster, headed by Captain Karl Ker. Ker is the only Wooster golfer to qualify for the National Intercollegiate Golf Tournament, and in the event he succeeds in driving, he garnered a second place. None of the other members of the squad has had any experience in college golf competition. The other members of the team are Ed Millet, Paul Charbon, Howard Spears, Wilfrid Olgren, Dick Crowan, and Vernon Chance.

Most golf has been working with the eight men on squad, but Harry, Bob Black, Bob Crocker, and Jerry Spears are all downhill from last years men, and they will be worked on by Johnson Lewis, Bob Marlow, and Mont Huffman who were ineligible for competition last season. Pete Hines is the only sophomore in the group.

Clay Heads Senate For Coming Year

Clay Heads foreman for the coming year has been elected as follows: Ink. Danforth, thirteen; Henry Vandermall, nineteen; T. W. Watson, Optometrist, fifty; and W. T. Watson, Optometrist, fifty.

For Men Only

MIND YOUR

P's (PRICES)

Q's (QUALITY)

For Women Only

MIND YOUR

P's (PRICES)

Q's (QUALITY)

Wm. ANNAT CO.

The Wooster Voice
I4.9J. are with prices take introduce of Vim, having a dash of distinctive originality.

Katharine Hepburn The merely number of the program will be "The Life of Fredrick," as it will be performed by the orchestra and the audience. Miss Katharine will be accompanied by the orchestra with Heubach's music for the moment. It will be presented in its original arrangement without the pictures, for all action is necessary for the music. It will be played for a couple of hours, and both singing and acting will be for which this orchestra is popular.

The remainder of the orchestral numbers of the concert will be announced by Arthur Kallivitek of the speech department, in music. Miss Katharine will accompany the orchestra with Heubach's music for the moment. It will be present- ed in its original arrangement without the pictures, for all action is necessary for the music. It will be played for a couple of hours, and both singing and acting will be for which this orchestra is popular.

The remainder of the orchestral numbers of the concert will be announced by Arthur Kallivitek of the speech department, in music. Miss Katharine will accompany the orchestra with Heubach's music for the moment. It will be present- ed in its original arrangement without the pictures, for all action is necessary for the music. It will be played for a couple of hours, and both singing and acting will be for which this orchestra is popular.

The remainder of the orchestral numbers of the concert will be announced by Arthur Kallivitek of the speech department, in music. Miss Katharine will accompany the orchestra with Heubach's music for the moment. It will be present- ed in its original arrangement without the pictures, for all action is necessary for the music. It will be played for a couple of hours, and both singing and acting will be for which this orchestra is popular.