Hygiene Continues Oral Sabin Despite Controversy

Plans for another three-dose series of polio immunization will have been administered, according to college physician Dr. Viola Sturman.

This report comes in spite of the recent controversy in Canada about the effectiveness of the vaccine for Type III polio.

Canada has recently postponed further immunization by the new oral vaccine because of a new polio case caused by the Type III virus.

Two weeks ago the Polio Ad-Hoc Committee, composed of Cleveland's Dr. Fred Robbins, met to discuss the vaccine.

The committee took no definite stance, merely suggesting caution in the mass program.

Dr. Sturman points out that the 12 polio victims in question recently received the new vaccine in the summer months, possibly contributing to the chance that the vaccine was involved in the six deaths.

She also noted that 12 cases may have been too small a sample to signal the effect of the oral vaccine.

The new vaccine was estimated to be 80 per cent effective.

Chairman Muir Clarifies Honor Code

Editor's Note: Senior Joan Muir, Chairman of the Academic Board, wrote the following article to answer some of the questions that have arisen in connection with the formulation of the Honor Code. Several questions of interest have been raised in discussions of the idea but in the few classic examples given to us at the beginning of this school year.

Muir is a positive approach, however, to maintain the idea of an organization of principles which may appear negative, the goal of an exercise of honor and integrity itself.

A positive approach can, however, be maintained only when a complete image of the best is used in the Code. Several questions of interest have been raised in discussions of the idea, but in the few classic examples given to us at the beginning of this school year.

In the important area of jurisprudence, we are seeking to incorporate a statement in the Code containing an image of the best of these examples. This approach is, of course, difficult to ensure a certain definition of the idea. The idea of the Code's being written at all is the same, because it has been various times.

The idea of the Code's being written at all is the same, because it has been various times. The Code's being written at all is the same, because it has been various times. The Code's being written at all is the same, because it has been various times. The Code's being written at all is the same, because it has been various times.

Plagiarism is derived from the modern meaning of "stolen" and its present mean the honor code. Using one's own, the thoughts, expressions, or inventions of another without proper credit. (Owens)

Paul's Epistle

by Paul Mental

In the years immediately following World War II, the unprecedented military advances, the continuation of the United Nations and the S.U.C. foreign policy, were necessitated by the continuous and effective expression of the late 1940's. This approach is, of course, difficult to ensure a certain definition of the idea. The idea of the Code's being written at all is the same, because it has been various times.

In addition to studying the consequences of the Code, we will depend on the rep- ort of the Committee on the Code and faculty.

The major emphasis of the responsibility of the faculty to encourage students to respect the honor code. It is not anti-st shocked to the spirit

RESPECTS CHAPEL REPORT

To the Editor: How commendable that you are keeping tabs on faculty chaperone.

While you are waiting your turn in this uncertain, why not investigate the facts which check in with their members and then leave the judgment to others.

Each one of us knows what our own obligations are. Do you really feel qualified to tell the faculty how to meet these?

Sincerely,

John Terry

TO THANKS TO MOVERS

To the Editor: We through you to keep us in the loop regarding the facts which check in with their members and then leave the judgment to others.

We each one of us knows what our own obligations are. Do you really feel qualified to tell the faculty how to meet these?

SCOTS REBOUNDED AT KENYON?

After a disappointing home opener against Ashland, coach Phil Shippe's Scot footballers are preparing for an tougher assignment in Kenyon Saturday at Gambier.

The Lords return a veteran unit, starting only one freshman. They opened the season with a 32-12 win against Williams.

Leading the way for the Leaders is junior guard Harold Welke, who has been one of the year's most consistent performers.

Coach Shippe feels that Vanderzandt will help the Scots greatly on offense, and "in a way that is better than our other quarterbacks.

The Scots will be able to plug in the Scots' new backfield, led by running back Pettie Perry, who is expected to lead the offense.

The Scots will be out to reverse last year's loss to the Lords. Action will begin at 2 p.m., at the Scott Stadium held at Waseca Ave. Tickets will be sold at the gate, and the Scots are expecting a large crowd.

A football game at Case Tech next Tuesday, the next Scott home appearance will be on Oct. 15, at 3 p.m. against Iowa.

Intramurals Set 45-Game Stomp

Another season of kicking feeding in the intramural gridiron got under way yesterday.

Reggie Minster, director of the program, has released the intramural schedule. Seventy, winner of 34 straight games and five consecutive titles, will be the main target of the competitors.

Returning All-Stars George Da- vis, Bob Carpenter, John Knecht, Mike Smathers, Dick Werns and Hay Leitch will play VH.

Third, whose only defeat last season was at the hands of the Tri-Kappa, has the services of Pete Payne, Mike Ceman and Sam Vatis from last year's stars. Also expected to give the Kappas a tough time are All-Star Mike Styr, and VH.

Steve Neldick IV is the only other returning star.

In addition to the eight section teams, there are two fresh squads, Madeiran-Scott and Westminster-Scott (Wesconet).

Red Cross Seeks
Blood Here Oct. 9

"Give Blood!" The popular Red Cross slogan hits Wooster Town-day, Oct. 9, when the bloodmobile operates in Lower Babcock from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m.

This is the first of two planned visits, the second to be held in early spring. Signing cards are available from dormitory representatives, on the main floor of the library, or from co-chairmen senor Sr Steen and junior Bob Hulland.

New Hygeia Plan

Students receiving medical care from the hospital or other care-rehab will receive bills at their college address, according to Dr. Vind Streptus.

They are then responsible for reporting to Regina Hall to fill out health insurance forms.

This differs from procedure in the past, when the bills went to the infirmary and the student got a reminder in campus mail.
