ALUMNI RETURN FOR 24TH HOMECOMING

College Dedicates Merz Hall

Dr. Cooke will Speak At Dedication Service On Saturday

Delighted to dedicate a new building of Music in its new location, Kent Hall, the college faculty and students this Saturday will dedicate the new hall, filled with modern equipment and designed to meet the needs of music students, in the shade of the old elm trees, facing the campus and overlooking the artful greenery of the conservatory. The dedication service will be held at 2 p.m., with Dr. Cooke, president of the college, as the keynote speaker.

Trainee Glasgow Suffers Injuries In Plane Crash

Robert E. Glasgow, a 22-year-old trainee from the University of Glasgow, was killed in a plane crash in India. The crash occurred during a flight training exercise, and the trainee had been identified as a member of the university's distinguished aviation program.

Community Theatre To Present Students In Next Production

The student body of Wooster Community Theatre, under the direction of Mrs. Eakin, will present their annual production, "The Man Who Wasn't There," opening at 8 p.m. on Wednesday, November 22. The play is a satire of the legal system, and the students have been working hard to bring it to life. The performance will be held in the college's newly renovated auditorium, and tickets are available at the box office.

Miss Eakin Falls Ills In Art Department

The head of the art department, Miss Eakin, is currently recovering from a brief illness. She has been resting at home and will return to work as soon as she feels better. The department is working hard to ensure that her absence is minimal and that the students continue to receive the high-quality education they have come to expect.

Library Displays Writings of First Music Director

An interesting display of some of the writings of the first music director of the college, Dr. Kaspar, will be held in the college library from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Friday, November 24. The display includes a selection of letters, articles, and other works that provide insight into the early years of the college's music program.

Homecoming, Dad's Day Celebration Offers Music as Central Theme In Activity Plans of Week-end

Dr. John Oliver Nimon will speak on the campus of the college as his Dad's Day celebration is held on November 24. The day will feature a variety of events, including music performances, a parade, and a fireworks display. The college community is encouraged to join in the celebration and enjoy the festivities.

School Awards Ten Scholarships To Test Winners

On October 30, two hundred and sixty high school students from across Ohio and Pennsylvania competed for the ten scholarships offered by the college. The winners, who will be recognized at a special ceremony on November 2, will receive a full tuition scholarship for the 1963-1964 academic year.

CURRENT COMMOTIONS

by JACK MILLER

What kind of an atmosphere do the United Nations favor? As to Jordan, and what are the causes of the present crisis? Are the United States actually at war? The raising of the United Nations’s prestige is in a sense to communism, and the concern is the old-standing demand for disarmament in the world. Jordan’s attitude is receiving general support in the world. The United States and the United Nations, along with other nations, are agreed on the necessity of the U.N. for world peace. The U.N. is a powerful instrument of world peace, and it is the only hope for the world. The United States and the United Nations should be working together for the maintenance of peace in the world. Three should be favored this Saturday when Muskingum and Marietta go together for their annual meeting, in which Muskingum and Marietta have played 22 games, with the mountaineers having won 11 and the Muskies 11. While the Mountaineers have an excellent team, the Muskies are the better of the two teams, according to both coaches. The Mountaineers have a lot of natural talent, but the Muskies have the experience and knowledge of the game.
Cooke To Speak At Dedication of Karl Merz Hall

(Continued from Page 1) James P. Cooke, until this year president of Reed University and now chairman of the board of trustees of the ruinous Foundation and for many years a resident of this community, will be the principal speaker at the dedication of the new addition to the Karl Merz Hall at 3 p.m. on Sunday, November 22. Mr. Cooke, whose address will be titled "The Position of the Study of Oriental Languages in Higher Education," will also deliver the first major address of the student body after Thanksgiving recess.

One of the higher goals of the war was the creation and development of the "Junior Air Corps." Its aim was to teach young people to fly, to be pilots for the future.

The play will be repeated on Thursday and Saturday nights. Don't be afraid of it, it's a good one. Take your turn and want others to hear it for last night.

Grades Due Saturday

Repeal on grades will be the order of the day at the annual meeting of the faculty and the student body. The president of the faculty, Dr. John W. Davis, will preside and the meeting will be held on the campus.

• Last spring's legend, "What's for dinner?"

Nikita Khrushchev, Premier of the Soviet Union, has said that the American government is now making plans for war with the Soviet government. This statement is a challenge to the United States to prepare for military action. The Soviet government is now preparing for a war of aggression against the United States. The war will be fought with all the resources at their disposal.
