Brightman Leads Week of Prayer

Famed Author to Present Views on Theory of Bohemianism

Dr. Peter, head of the WOOTER department, is coming upon the closing of his Bohemianism theory. Professor Brightman is the official interpreter of the many theories of Bohemianism. "The Bohemian is the only man who can walk in a crowd and not be noticed," he said.

"In Bohemia, we know, many years ago, I asked Professor P. T. Barnum to make a speech on the theory of Bohemianism. We have had to wait a long time for the next Bohemian."

Outstanding Philosopher is an exciting idea to Dr. Brightman. "It is an exciting idea," said Brightman, "and I am looking forward to the day when we can present the theory of Bohemianism to the world."

Library Obtains Important Books Of Varied Types

Several notable books were found at the WOOTER Library. These books range from modern fiction to classic literature.

Field, Rachel. "Almonds That Told the Time". One of the few books about the Almond that has been published in recent years. The book tells the story of how the Almond grew and developed.

Famous Poet

"Poetry is the voice of the soul. It is the expression of the emotions of the individual."

Philip Merrill, the poet, is a well-known figure in the literary world. His poems have been published in several literary magazines.

Saysers, Michael, R. & A. I. "Seascape". A novel that is set in the year 2008, when the United States is at war with Japan. The novel is a powerful and thought-provoking work of fiction.
