"Girls' Smoking" Again

SEVERAL people have asked us recently about the smoking problem which has cropped up among the hard-boiled girls, and which we supported in our nineth issue.

In agreement with some of our committee last week Perry pointed out that the petition would be considered, if framed and interpeted in a wholesome and faculty manner, far too busy with adjustments necessitated by the navy and the speeding up program to consider such a question. Also, in the light of present world events a smoking problem is a fad which is turning over which to split campus opinion.

We have received answers to an inquiry regarding women's smoking among several other colleges, and we quote these parts of them as a matter of interest to all the general small college policy.

"Smoking in women's dorms is restricted completely in the upper dorms. No smoking on campus is bound to several regulations of smoking in college halls;

"Small amount of controversy, of course. I mean only that a woman is merely enough along with a hard core with a wad coming from the corner of her mouth."—The Ohio Review.

"Girls are not allowed to smoke on the campus...There is, however, a special room in our building where girls may smoke. Women may do so in some of the women's upper dorms, but in the dormitories smoking is banned in certain rooms. A statement that..."—The Ohioan.

"Women have no official smoking privileges on the campus. Those with the habit must adhere to the rule. One of the hardest of all dorms."—The Kilbourn.

"...be used in any form by any boy...women may be stated as one word—'forbidden.' It is only within the last ten years that the use of tobacco by men students has been permitted at Muskingum. It was only last year that men have been permitted to smoke. The Blue and Gold.

"Under no conditions are women permitted to smoke in any form. Women are not permitted to smoke in any form. Women are not permitted to smoke in any form. Women are not permitted to smoke in any form. Women are not permitted to smoke in any form."—The Ohio Review.

"In every dormitory for a special room..."—The Ohioan.

Munson Stages Stunt Exhibition

The biggest of the season's indoor dual meets took place at the University of Wisconsin gymnasium this afternoon. The event attracted the best dual meet teams in the nation, including the University of Wisconsin, the University of Iowa, and the University of Michigan.

The meet was highlighted by a series of thrilling races, including the 100-yard dash, the 400-yard dash, and the 1500-yard run. The University of Wisconsin won the meet by a comfortable margin, with the University of Iowa in second place and the University of Michigan in third place.

Attention Track Men!

Carl Munson has announced that track practice will start in the gym next week. Everyone interested should report to Munson's office tomorrow at 9:00 A.M. Munson will explain the rules for the season at an opening day meeting.

The meet will feature a variety of events, including the 100-yard dash, the 220-yard dash, the 440-yard dash, the 1-mile run, the 4-mile run, and the 8-mile run. The University of Wisconsin will be favored to win the meet, but the University of Iowa and the University of Michigan will be strong competitors.

The meet will be held on the University of Wisconsin campus, with the University of Iowa and the University of Michigan guest teams.

The meet will be preceded by a series of track meets, including the University of Wisconsin Invitational Meet on Monday, the University of Iowa Invitational Meet on Tuesday, and the University of Michigan Invitational Meet on Wednesday.

The meet will be broadcast live on the University of Wisconsin radio station, with commentary by Munson and the University of Wisconsin track team coaches.

Cadets Adjust to New Quarters

The entire campus is adjusting to the new quarters. This is a difficult time for many students, but they are doing their best to adjust. The new quarters are located in the old science building, which was closed for renovations last year. The building has been renamed "Science Hall." The new quarters include a large lecture hall, a small lab, and several office spaces. The students are all very excited to be in their new home, and they are already making plans for future events. The science department is also planning to host a open house event for the community. The students are all very excited to be in their new home, and they are already making plans for future events.
