10-7-1943

The Wooster Voice (Wooster, OH), 1943-10-07

Wooster Voice Editors

Follow this and additional works at: https://openworks.wooster.edu/voice1941-1950

Recommended Citation
https://openworks.wooster.edu/voice1941-1950/64

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the "The Voice" Student Newspaper Collection at Open Works, a service of The College of Wooster Libraries. It has been accepted for inclusion in The Voice: 1941-1950 by an authorized administrator of Open Works. For more information, please contact openworks@wooster.edu.
Dorms Compete For Cup Award At Homecoming

Homecoming plans are off with a bang, promising a gala week-end for students, Navy, and Alumni alike. This year's events will include speakers to "LOL," Homecoming page, to be presented Thursday, Friday, and Saturday evenings and the traditions of choral Saturday after- noon and annual football game at Wooster. The event will start at 3:30 p.m. in the stadium. The Dormitories will display prizes for the winning dorm and a mention of the winning group will be given at the annual dance. The event is for the Navy homecoming, which is scheduled for Sunday, and will feature a parade, a football game, and a dance.

Dormitories will dress up again this year to show the spirit of traditional Homecoming festivities. This event is for the Navy students, which is to be held for the first time this year. Dormitories will feature different groups of people in coordinating their individual groups. Large groups of people will be on hand to show their support for their group. The dormitories will feature different themes, and will compete to see which dormitory can show the most spirit.

C H A P E L

Editors of Directory
Add New Features

The 1944-45 Student Directory is going to be published in the fall of 1943, and will feature a new, more professional look. The new edition will contain the same information as in former years plus a few additions. Names, addresses, and telephone number of students and faculty members will be listed this year, names, addresses, of course, will not be featured this year. In addition, Wooster and Navy students will be featured plus the full-time schedule and college calendar.

Directors for the sale will be in charge of the sale of the sale. The sale will be held at the Bookstore at 7 p.m. on Friday, October 2. The sale of students' names, addresses, of course, will not be featured this year. In addition, Wooster and Navy students will be featured plus the full-time schedule and college calendar.

Why To Entertain
USO Director

Poetry in a musical background for activities planned for T.W.C.A. next Wednesday will be featured at the USO, Marian Malone, the Dean of the Speech Department. Faculty may purchase tickets for the next Wednesday. The tickets will be held at the Bookstore at 7 p.m. on Friday evening so that Homecoming guests may have seats for the T.W.C.A. performance.

Is There a Nurse in the House?

"That's all. Just answer the pa- tient's questions. Do what you're fairly sure you can, and if you have any questions, ask one of us. There's a light now.

And Miss Y. W. of The Col- lege of Wooster becomes a nurse's aide in the Benson Hospital. For the most part she hasn't had much training in hospital work, so she finds herself overwhelmed by the massively stroked routine; she's delighted with the tilted beds and, above all, she's charmed with the patients. They will make their debuts with the three veterans at the Homecoming game, say; with cheer to add pep and light.

Freshman Forum
"What Should We Do With Sunday?" is the topic for next Sunday's Freshman Forum. M. E. B. Brown will lead the worship and, the discussion and the led by lady Misses Jeanne Frasier and Flora Letz.

At a meeting held by the music committee of the Freshman Forum, Martha Stoll was elected chairman and Ruth Swain, vice-chairman.

College Groups
Work on Plans To Honor Prexy

Plans are reportedly being considered by President Charles F. Whitard, carry next May Commencement on the eve of his retirement from college. The Prexy will be crystallized on Nov. 13 at a meeting of several prominent Wooster alumini.

These groups consist of students; members of the faculty; trustees; alumni of Ohio; Rev. John V. Stephenson; and Mrs. F. W. Whitard, of Ohio, Mrs. F. W. Lester Gay. The chairman, Cleave Rickshare, 10, President of the Alumni As- sociation, direct will this group of people in coordinating their individual activities.

Patients are John Balikas and Eileen Honore, the trustees are Mrs. Alex V. Bailey, Howard Lowrey, William Miller, and Ed- mund Secord; the alumni are Mar- garet Frasier, Misses Jeanne Frasier, William, C. William Van, Car- l O. Dix, and Thomas Overholl- erman.

Note: Any student who has any ideas or suggestions as to this program is asked to see the secretariat at once.

Phil Betes Bring Mims to Campus

Noted Lecturer Presents Timely Addresses On Education

By CARL MARCH
Dr. Edwin Mims, national Phi Beta Kappa lecturer, will speak Tuesday, Oct. 12 on "The Real Fundamentals of Education." The program will start at 8 p.m. in Wintermiller chapel. Dr. Mims, who is being sponsored by the Wooster Phi Beta Kappa chapter, will speak in chapel on Wednesday morning on the statesman and the "Great American." On Tuesday Dr. Mims will meet American literature class and will discuss students all that Tuesday evening at the local. Monday only to meet the initiation of new members will take place.

Elector for Hall of Fame
Dr. Mims graduated from Van- derbilt and obtained his Ph.D. at Harvard University. His works include a professor and head of the English department at the University of North Carolina and Vanderbilt; Carnegie visiting professor to Scott- land; president of the board of the Hall of Fame; one-time chairman of the Committee on American Literature of the American Council of Learned Societies; and made an honorary member of the South Atlantic Quarterly; Author of Life of Sidney Leroy, The Advancing South, Advancing America; contributor to Dictionary of American Bi-ographies, Encyclopedia Americana, Encyclopedia of American and History of American Literature.

Report From Haverford
We have been coming from the colleges and uni- versities and have been able to hear from many sources. We have spoken to Haverford College, F. M. B., and are happy to report a positive response. He address at "Collectors of Nature" was outstanding in content. His contacts at the seminar were equally successful, and in his absence, the personal contact in his personal contact, and in social occasions. He has won friends here who would welcome his return, and the program is "with genuine warmth of feeling."
Letter Criticizes Rushing Plan

Dear Editor,

Now that the first "rush" is over, and the clubs and the Sophomores can settle down for a nice, disturbing week looking over the poster plans, both ways, it still remains to be seen whether or not the new scene is going to work out right (as it usually does). The Sophomores who receive invitations to the various functions, generally have a lovely time, being guests of honor, or, if the club numbers are the same, fun acting as hostesses. The parties were, for the most part, successful, even if everyone was not ready to please everybody; also, that, after all, was what they were for, and they have come off.

There is one drawback to the rush invitation plan, however, which will be eliminated before the whole system is considered: that is the unequal distribution of invitations. Again, it may not be so much what you are, as you are known, which determines your chances of getting into any particular club; for there we find many girls who, for want of a "fulfilling" environment, in the storm of invitations, not because they were not desirable or attractive girls, but simply because they know so few upperclassmen. Often, the few upperclassmen who have had with upperclassmen status date back to the last year or two. The Man Run Out a n d Sophomore Court, and judgments formed from such a basis are apt to be slightly erroneous. Of course, under the arrangements, every girl may be taken into some club or another, but should the girl not get all the equal chance to look over the clubs and the club member--the part that both clubs and prospects may become better acquainted and thus better satisfied in the end? It might be the clubs' advantage if this idea were the basis for a few of these Sophomores who were fortunate enough to be invited, and, whether or not there were some really grand personalities, and who have been "looked over" in the invitations. Since the sort of new members taken in each year may determine the future qualities of the club, care must be exercised to overlook no opportunity to improve or uplift the present standards of the club.

Sincerely,
Portia L. Downey

Linnell Answers Nachman's Plan

Camp Crowder, Mo., Sept. 29, 1941

Dear Editor:

The first issue of the Voicer came out, so I thought that I would write to the world entitled "Times of Decision." I should like to add some ideas to those that I have heard.

The problem of how to eliminate the war is still a matter of a day's business of household, which political and political, and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and political and politi
It was a most disappointing game on both sides. The Wooster offense was in the red zone with less than five minutes remaining in the game last Saturday. The B-W offense was not even on the field for a 37-7 victory. The offensive was powerfully overpowered five times by the Yellow Jackets' defense. The Wooster offense was not heard from during the second half of the game.

Wooster is rapidly gaining the reputation of being a "first half team." During the first half of the game, Wesleyan, the Scourge of the engine, was forced to the defensive line by the visiting team from Wooster. When the teams came out for the second half, the Scourge of the engine was facing the Wooster defense, and the Scourge's offense was facing the Wooster defense. The Wooster offense was not heard from during the second half of the game.

The Wooster offense was powerfully overpowered five times by the Yellow Jackets' defense. The Wooster offense was not heard from during the second half of the game. The Wooster offense was not heard from during the second half of the game.

The Wooster offense was powerfully overpowered five times by the Yellow Jackets' defense. The Wooster offense was not heard from during the second half of the game.
Retraction!
 Apparently a few facts got twisted in last week's editorial. The reception held for Tenth Battalion was sponsored by WSGA and questions on the dating situation should be directed to Helen Hobbis. Sorry.

COUNTER SHOP-WISE - AT - FREELANDERS

Since the weatherman can't seem to decide between summer and fall, lots of us have been wearing sweaters or jackets over cotton dresses. Freelanders have a new angle. Why not try one of their pastel suede vests. They are cut as cute as a trick and quite conservative at only $3.95. They will look nicer later with skirts and skirts and over tailored dresses. They come in every shade imaginable, but hurry so that you can make use of their complete selection.

Gray flannel slacks are practically a "must" on the Wooster campus and Freelanders have beautifully tailored ones at $8.95. The waist sizes are from 26-30.

Not too long ago an article complete without a casual dress of some sort to suit "To "S" Is For Wooster". Casual will fill the bill perfectly. If you have a gingham dress that comes in handy with a pair of pants and bottle green, and red. It is softly gathered on the side, reduce to length and use a separate belt. The collar is convertible and disks look awfully cute. Sacks range from 12-18 and the price is $10.95 with inestimable use.

For those of you who like to wear jeans and jackets, Freelanders has a nice selection of jumpers in plain colors and in combinations of two colors. They are very smart and are just $7.95. Remember Freelanders will deliver your packages free. Adv.

Photographs - The Most Pleasing of All

Send a recent photograph to your friends and relatives in the Service

SNYDER STUDIO
Phone 16 E. Liberty at Bever

GIFT SHOP
All Over The Store

Wooster's Largest Department Store
Here you can go on a fairly good (one-stop) shopping tour for your personal comfort... chances are a lure. Want a gift for HIM or HER ... try here first.