Metropolitan Loans

$100,000 Exhibit

Dr. C. M. Destler
To Deliver Chapel Lecture

Dr. Chester McArthur Destler,\n\nWooster class of 1913 and present head of the English department at the University of Connecticut, will deliver the annual Chapel Lecture in the college chapel at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 10, on The Influence of Political Differences.

During his student days at Wooster, Dr. Destler was president of the Phi Delta Theta, a national fraternity, the American Literary Society, T.M.C.A., Christian Endeavor and the Kairos, the Index staff, and manager of the Bookstore. He has participated in athletics as a member of the track team, also played on the college baseball and football teams. His hobbies include hunting, fishing and jewel making.

The speaker received his master's degree from the University of Chicago in 1918 and his doctorate from the University of Michigan in 1921. He has been on the faculty at the University of Connecticut since 1921 and since 1943 he has taught at Albion College in Michigan. In 1938-1939 he was a teacher at a Yeshiva in New York, and he has been head of the Department of English at the University of Connecticut at New Haven since 1943.

Dr. Destler taught as a professor before a Cleveland College group on the cinema and in 1943 he was assistant to the director of the cinema. He is the author of a number of books and articles that have been published in various periodicals of the political party system in Europe and here.

Miss White Ollers
Memorial Prize

Miss Gordon White, reference librarian and supervisor of the music library at the College, has established the Paul D. Ollers Memorial Fund. The fund will be used to memorialize Miss White and the memory of her brother, the late Dr. Paul O. Ollers. The fund will be used to support the college and its associated departments and to provide for the education of students.

Beginning in 1971, the fund will be used to pay the tuition of a student who is a major in English and has demonstrated a high level of achievement in his or her studies and who has made significant contributions to the College community. The student who is chosen to receive the award will be selected by a committee of faculty members.

Y. W. and W. A. A. Plan

Style Show and Tea

A tea and style show, sponsored by the Y. W. C. A. and W. A. A., will be given for the little sisters and their upper-class tutors, Thursday, Oct. 5, at 2:10 p.m. in Babcock Hall.

Tips: on ‘what to wear and when to wear it, what to get and fashion problems, given by Mrs. Mary Ford, will be a tea served by W.Y. members.

The poster for the style show is by Joyce Wathen and Mirtz McClain, with the assistance of the publicity committe of the Y. W. C. A.

Dr. Ernest D. St. John, professor of psychology at the University of Pennsylvania, will deliver a lecture on the topic of “The Influence of Political Differences” at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 10, in the college chapel.

The lecture will be followed by a discussion with students and faculty members. The lecture is open to the public and admission is free.

Home Was Never Like This,” Lenten Green Fresh

From left to right: Shirley Smith, Julia Stover, difficult, Esther Wheatley, Helen, Isabelle Hartman, and Betty Lou Robinson, undergraduates.

—Lenten of The Wooster Daily News

New Members Enter Ranks Of Glee Club

Member Richmond has introduced the new members of the Glee Club for the fall season. The girls accepted by the board of judges are Martha Jones, Doris Hinton, Arna Taylor, Evelyn A. Bullock, Charles, Nuth, Estelle, Ainsley, Brenda, Bullock, Dorothy, Costello, Dolores, Destler, Thelma, Foster, Mildred, Hooper, Betty, Judson, J. Sargent, State University, Temple, L. E. H., University of Connecticut, New Haven, Connecticut.

New Members Enter Ranks Of Glee Club

Deborah Dew, President of the College Women’s Club, introduced the new members of the Glee Club for the fall season. The girls accepted by the board of judges are Martha Jones, Doris Hinton, Arna Taylor, Evelyn A. Bullock, Charles, Nuth, Estelle, Ainsley, Brenda, Bullock, Dorothy, Costello, Dolores, Destler, Thelma, Foster, Mildred, Hooper, Betty, Judson, J. Sargent, State University, Temple, L. E. H., University of Connecticut, New Haven, Connecticut.

President Harold W. Doden of Proctor College is one of the outstanding speakers who will be present at the meeting. He is a member of The College Women’s Club. He will speak on the subject of “The Survival of the College Glee Club,” Friday, Oct. 12, in the college chapel.

The meeting will be held Tuesday and Thursday evenings at 7:30 p.m.

1944 Index Awarded First Class Rating

The Wooster College Index has been awarded First Class Honor, the highest recognition that can be given to a student newspaper. The award is based on the quality of the paper and the performance of the editors.

The index is published twice a week, and it is read by students and faculty members throughout the college. The editors are responsible for the content and quality of the paper, and they are held accountable for their work.

Each member of the editorial staff is given a rating based on the performance of the previous year. The rating is based on the number of articles published, the number of guest columns, and the quality of the writing.

The editors are responsible for the content and quality of the paper, and they are held accountable for their work. Each member of the editorial staff is given a rating based on the performance of the previous year. The rating is based on the number of articles published, the number of guest columns, and the quality of the writing.

The editors are responsible for the content and quality of the paper, and they are held accountable for their work. Each member of the editorial staff is given a rating based on the performance of the previous year. The rating is based on the number of articles published, the number of guest columns, and the quality of the writing.
Heaven Can Wait
This is not an editorial of controversy; neither is it one of condemnation. We are not attempting to point out to the already confused student-the more naive figures to get in the habit of calling or asking him to keep off the grass. Nor, is this simply a note of appreciation to whom it may concern. The subject is chapel program.

MOUNTAIN VILLAGE
The arm of the mountain morned
Stood stark, hardly With gathering clouds and straight, flat house.
How lovely when their arms reached for the elbow.
In the valley, that than,
strangling grass.
How green the pine with the pine they used at their weddings.
Here the men, as wholesome as honey.
Pine and streams, when the streams reach their beauty.
Where the straw has kept the men.
And here the children with faded hair.
Saw as you drive by, and then ran like frightened deer.
Here life is said as the children.
But as clean.

CHANGELING
A child wakes late and listens
under the door of a kitchen.
A hand on the door, and then and then—
It is always the same.
The child leaves with strange imaginations.
Early, before the household
set the rules on the table.
Into the sparkling glasses
the rim of a wine.
She steps, runs again, and runs the candle left in the
of a grandmother.

He suddenly grabs a young sleeping about in a deep sleep.
And shaves the heavy from the vines that grow from the glade, down, then starts her wondering.
Gripping her first in a wide ring
of a delicate
As the earth's thin fingers.

The child knows quickly
by the lack of gaiety of joy in the homes of those who have found the golden honey from it.

Fortune continued by asking if this huge majority indicated that the public thought a draft was the preferable way of raising a peace-time Army, or of doing away with the draft.

The doubling of young men in peacetime, at whatever age, is in direct violation of democratic principles. If it is true that the state exists for the whole, and not the people for the state, how can the majority of the public indicate a belief in compulsory military training? With any sort of righteous and powerful peace set-up, there should be no need for an army any longer than would naturally come from the number of young men who would make that work their vocation. But with the drafting of men to form them into a year or more of military training, the danger of an all-powerful state comes too close to be ignored.

There are those who say that we must prepare for the next war; or, prepare young men in the coming months with its dead-end days ahead, when war is not on our minds and we are not preparing for it? To those who think such training would discipline their young men of tomorrow, let them consider what sort of discipline, by what means, and how; let discipline be discipline in some other way, under their own power? Can they not enjoy sports for sport's sake and not for the glory of the state?

All the nations who have gone down in history as being aggressive and expansionist, have been military training states at one time or another of their history. Is the average American citizen going to allow this to happen in his country?

Exodus
Here's your Halloween, September, what's your chance? Take your guests, your children's relatives, your members with their cluttered days ahead and shut them out of the city, out of the rush of work and the cares of life. Let them think rather of the days after work in the fields, after the farmers' markets, or after the city where they have worked - of the days of their family, their home, and their friends.

It is this we are seeking to do with our series. To bring together the best women of the city, and have them tell us about their homes, their families, their lives. To make them feel that they are not alone in this world, but that there are others who feel the same way and who are trying to make the same decisions as they are.

Sorority guests are welcome, and we hope to have a large attendance. Tickets are $5 per person, and can be purchased at the door. We look forward to seeing you there.

Summer is near, and well-foliated monsoons throw; and delightful glimpses have to begin. We long for the vibrant sauce of the sun. Blow, blow the breeze, September, and let October in!
This page contains a series of paragraphs that are difficult to read due to the low resolution and clarity of the image. The text appears to be a mix of random words and phrases, with some recognizable names like "Wooster" and "Browns." It seems to be a sports-related document, possibly discussing team performances or other athletic events. However, due to the quality of the image, it is challenging to extract meaningful information. The text does not appear to be a coherent narrative or a set of instructions. It is difficult to discern the exact context or content of the document without further clarification or a clearer image.
College Professors Take Leave of Absence

Three faculty members are on leave to do special work. Entering upon the second year of absence, Dr. Warren P. Spencer, professor in the biological department, is working under government direction at the University of Rochester in the general field of biology and medicine. On leave since the second semester of 1944, Dr. Albert S. Tuttle, head of the department of economics, is on special service in the Bureau of Agricultural Economics in the Department of Agriculture. Professor Paul W. Lowry, who has been granted a leave of absence to do research in and write a book on economics.

Freshmen Win Contest

In the freshman class this year are thrice winners of the nation-wide Winston Master Cartoonist Contest. Eleanor Fishel, Thelma Jean Glidden, and Hedy Malmian were each awarded $50 by the Board of Christian Education of the Presbyterian church. There were raw eggs for the men and faculty of residence and soup clips for others. Liberal doses of love and career growth filled the days of all the winners. Serious offenders wild-fed a peck of spinach,而 kind, hardy, rich, and cold, bitter foods were washed down in bitter Fen-ever and one delicious ice cream. When every frosh had at least received her just punishment. Sophomore held court for the year, and the freshmen welcomed returned to us for scoots and groans. All that was left that night was the pleasure and joy of next year's living. But what of the poor sphynx who held up all night nursing and visiting sickroom and courting each other? When the frosh is frying they can almost see that every good speaker-who why she didn't work on a frosh because "Oh, you should have the right room now, and where will we ever find a freshie to enjoy?"

Y.M.C.A.

The Y.M.C.A. is sponsoring a baseball game to be held on Saturday after afternoon between the junior and upper-classmen.

A Recognition Service was held Wednesday evening, Oct. 4, for the new members. Dr. William Schroeder spoke on the function of the Y.M.C.A. on the college campus.

On Sept. 19, a "full session" was held by Dr. John A. Herndon on the function of Post-War Reconstruction.

George Lahm, Jeweler
221 E. Liberty St.

Lowry Travels East

Dr. Lowry has been taking a vacation trip in the East this week, and therefore has not been seen on the campus. He left Tuesday, and plans to stop in Philadelphia on his way to New York. On his return trip President Lowry planned to stop in Chicago, where he will address the Cleveland Women's City Club at a luncheon, and then return to Wooster Sunday, Oct. 8.

Tuxedo Style, Lovely Fur-Trimmed Coats
$65.00 to $110.00

BEULAH BECHTEL
Public Square

Come on, all you kids, let's be happy
You, Harry, Mary, and Jerry.
If it's fun that you want, then don't tarry
Walk out to the WOOSTER FARM DAIRY
LOCATED ON CLEVELAND ROAD

The COLLIER PAINTING Co.
Bever and North Streets
Phone 400

Printed and Engraved Stationery
We service all makes of typewriters

To lift your spirit and assure your success — wear a tulle gown to your formal.
Shell pink over a matching taffeta petticoat — little black velvet bosque twinkleing with sequins.
That's one. Come in and see the others.

Photographs
The Most Pleasing of All Gifts
Send a recent photograph to your friends and relatives in the Service.

SNOYER STUDIO
Phone 16 E. Liberty at Bever

WOOSTER THEATRE
Fri. - Sat. — Two Features
"Maisie Goes to Reno" "Night of Adventure"
Sunday - Monday
Lana Turner and
James Craig
"Marriage is a Private Affair"
Thursday - Friday - Saturday
Three Days
Brian Donlevy in
"An American Romance"

The AMSTER Shoe Store
When You Go Out Stepping — Step in Style!
Dress Shoes in canvas or leather, in black or brown, with low boots or high boots.

PUT YOUR BEST FOOT FORWARD IN AMSTER SHOES

10.98

WILE & CO.
The Store for SWEATERS
Where Particular People Are PHOTOGRAPHED
The HARRIS Studio

WILE & CO.
Formerly J. C. Stevens

Where Particular People Are PHOTOGRAPHED

3.98

The GIFT CORNER
Public Square
Gifts Unusual — Costume Jewelry
Christmas Cards — Antiques

The Wooster Voice
Thursday, October 5, 1944