I just tried the new breakfast cereal from the Banana Republic. It was absolutely delicious! I highly recommend it to anyone looking for a healthy and satisfying breakfast option.

Dinner at the Banquet

I had the pleasure of attending the Banquet at the University of California last night. The keynote speaker was none other than the renowned author and lecturer, Dr. Elizabeth Smith. Her speech was inspiring and thought-provoking, and we were all left with a sense of gratitude and appreciation for the hard work and dedication of our students.

Letters to the Editors

Dear Editor,

I would like to express my appreciation for the recent article on the history of the Alpha Xi Omega. As a member of the Beta Mu Chapter, I have always been proud of our rich history and the contributions of our members. I hope that this article will help to inspire other students to get involved in our organization and to continue the legacy of excellence.

Sincerely,

[Name]

P.S. I also want to thank the Beta Mu Chapter for the pumpkin you sent me. It is absolutely beautiful and I can't wait to use it as a decoration in my classroom.

Congratulations to...

President Howard F. Lowry

REPORTS ON SPORTS

BY STAN MORSE

Well, another week, and now football is really up there to stay, to borrow the light till the snow sets in and that will be every Saturday as we are glad to glue the radio, to hear the play-by-play, and to get the final scores. Last week everything can turn to form, much to the disappoint-ment of some and the joy of others, it is well done wherever we're aiming. All the favorites came through as we expected, and from this it looks as if it's going to be close, ev-er years eight down to two won. The Buckeyes from Ohio State continued to roll along in their own undefeated style, and the Irish down a stout Wisconsin eleven in the tense of 27-9. This was even sweeter for State, as it was the same Wisconsin team that pulled the big upset in 1942, knocking the Buckeyes out of the undefeated class with a score of 17-0. And last Satur-day it was the same Lee Hufford, who was stopped cold in 1942, who carried the Irish through, over, and around Wisconsin to lead his team to victory. Keep your eyes on that guy Hufford, he's had a straight run for the whole season.

This Saturday, Coach Carroll's, Wisconsin boys will face the world's test. They are due to take on a beautiful Great Lakes team, coached by the old State boss, Paul Brown himself. This is the game that all eyes have been pointed to since last year when the schedules were published. The All State eleven and rollers will kick off on fairly even terms. It is of partic-u-lar interest to Weekiaweta and the Great Lakes State is teaching the same systems that it taught, while Brown is giving his boys at Great Lakes the same system, but with a Columbia flair. Yes, it should really be a bat-tle, and as for the oddball that's up to you.

At the point, the only unbeaten teams in the midwest are Ohio State, the powerhouse from North, Notre Dame, Purdue, Michigan, and Michigan State. It looks as if the Big Ten will decide here in the region, there are neither mighty big or mighty small. Illinois, Indiana, and Wisconsin are the teams that will produce these eastern big boys, and they should stand well as long as they are holding up to their advanced billing.

Michigan State is due to meet Northwestern 7:15, and the game can be heard over WUWE in the tense of the afternoon statistics. The Michigan Wolverines are up and down the field to the tune of 410 yards from the line of scrimmage and compared to 24 for Northwestern.

DEWEY FOR PRESIDENT!

Vote for Mr. Edward J. Dewey, candidate for the presidency, who is considering the New York Times Magazine section's suggested platforms. Herefor the one who is brave enough to stand for something!

His Platforms:
1. Taxation. Wipe out the numerous Government debts by at once reducing taxes so that they won't hurt anybody, rich, poor, or medium.
2. Agriculture. No pauperizing the great American farmer with Treasury aid unless he needs it.
3. Capital and Labor. No interference with the right of our glorious workers and their employer to run his business to suit himself.
4. Foreign Relations. Full and immediate participation by this nation in a world organization to enforce peace with-out contracting any entangling alliance or obligations whatsoever.
5. Economics. Abandon Socialistic experiments and return to an economy of scarcity and abundance, with jobs for all under the free-enterprise system backed by generous Fed-eral appropriations as required.
