Queen Frankie Stafford

When a recent Wooster grad, now in nurse’s training at the University of Rochester, heard that Frankie Stafford was to be Homecoming Queen, she exclaimed fervently, "That’s shows Wooster’s heart is in the right place."

And, self-congratulation as it may be, this is the way we feel about the choice. In a backhanded way it’s a credit to Wooster to have chosen Frankie Stafford for special Homecoming honor. She is, one of her predecessors once said of her. "From the first day of classes I knew Frankie was some- thing special." A friend described her simply as "elegant."

Frankie (Carolyn Frank as the yearbook is) is the youngest of three daughters and thus in- herited her maternal grandmother’s grace; she also received literature from the recruiting offices of the army. Bank matriarch Mrs. Robert Bower and Mrs. William J. Tho- mason will be here for the weekend. To complete the family triad, Frankie’s brother-in-law, Mr. Robert Bower and niece Cali- donia will be present.

Although Frankie reacted to her election to the Homecoming Court with characteristic calmness, she confesses that when she heard she was queen, "I didn’t know how excited I could be. The real low of it!" After the third round she con- fided "I don’t know how excited I could be. The real low of it!" After the third round she con- fided "I don’t know how excited I could be. The real low of it!" After the third round she con- fided "I don’t know how excited I could be. The real low of it!" After the third round she con-

When a recent Wooster grad, now in nurse’s training at the University of Rochester, heard that Frankie Stafford was to be Homecoming Queen, she exclaimed fervently, "That’s shows Wooster’s heart is in the right place."

And, self-congratulation as it may be, this is the way we feel about the choice. In a backhanded way it’s a credit to Wooster to have chosen Frankie Stafford for special Homecoming honor. She is, one of her predecessors once said of her. "From the first day of classes I knew Frankie was some- thing special." A friend described her simply as "elegant."

Frankie (Carolyn Frank as the yearbook is) is the youngest of three daughters and thus in- herited her maternal grandmother’s grace; she also received literature from the recruiting offices of the army. Bank matriarch Mrs. Robert Bower and Mrs. William J. Tho- mason will be here for the weekend. To complete the family triad, Frankie’s brother-in-law, Mr. Robert Bower and niece Cali- donia will be present.

Although Frankie reacted to her election to the Homecoming Court with characteristic calmness, she confesses that when she heard she was queen, "I didn’t know how excited I could be. The real low of it!" After the third round she con- fided "I don’t know how excited I could be. The real low of it!" After the third round she con-

When a recent Wooster grad, now in nurse’s training at the University of Rochester, heard that Frankie Stafford was to be Homecoming Queen, she exclaimed fervently, "That’s shows Wooster’s heart is in the right place."

And, self-congratulation as it may be, this is the way we feel about the choice. In a backhanded way it’s a credit to Wooster to have chosen Frankie Stafford for special Homecoming honor. She is, one of her predecessors once said of her. "From the first day of classes I knew Frankie was some- thing special." A friend described her simply as "elegant."

Frankie (Carolyn Frank as the yearbook is) is the youngest of three daughters and thus in- herited her maternal grandmother’s grace; she also received literature from the recruiting offices of the army. Bank matriarch Mrs. Robert Bower and Mrs. William J. Tho- mason will be here for the weekend. To complete the family triad, Frankie’s brother-in-law, Mr. Robert Bower and niece Cali- donia will be present.

Although Frankie reacted to her election to the Homecoming Court with characteristic calmness, she confesses that when she heard she was queen, "I didn’t know how excited I could be. The real low of it!" After the third round she con- fided "I don’t know how excited I could be. The real low of it!" After the third round she con-

When a recent Wooster grad, now in nurse’s training at the University of Rochester, heard that Frankie Stafford was to be Homecoming Queen, she exclaimed fervently, "That’s shows Wooster’s heart is in the right place."

And, self-congratulation as it may be, this is the way we feel about the choice. In a backhanded way it’s a credit to Wooster to have chosen Frankie Stafford for special Homecoming honor. She is, one of her predecessors once said of her. "From the first day of classes I knew Frankie was some- thing special." A friend described her simply as "elegant."

Frankie (Carolyn Frank as the yearbook is) is the youngest of three daughters and thus in- herited her maternal grandmother’s grace; she also received literature from the recruiting offices of the army. Bank matriarch Mrs. Robert Bower and Mrs. William J. Tho- mason will be here for the weekend. To complete the family triad, Frankie’s brother-in-law, Mr. Robert Bower and niece Cali- donia will be present.

Although Frankie reacted to her election to the Homecoming Court with characteristic calmness, she confesses that when she heard she was queen, "I didn’t know how excited I could be. The real low of it!" After the third round she con- fided "I don’t know how excited I could be. The real low of it!" After the third round she con-

When a recent Wooster grad, now in nurse’s training at the University of Rochester, heard that Frankie Stafford was to be Homecoming Queen, she exclaimed fervently, "That’s shows Wooster’s heart is in the right place."

And, self-congratulation as it may be, this is the way we feel about the choice. In a backhanded way it’s a credit to Wooster to have chosen Frankie Stafford for special Homecoming honor. She is, one of her predecessors once said of her. "From the first day of classes I knew Frankie was some- thing special." A friend described her simply as "elegant."

Frankie (Carolyn Frank as the yearbook is) is the youngest of three daughters and thus in- herited her maternal grandmother’s grace; she also received literature from the recruiting offices of the army. Bank matriarch Mrs. Robert Bower and Mrs. William J. Tho-

When a recent Wooster grad, now in nurse’s training at the University of Rochester, heard that Frankie Stafford was to be Homecoming Queen, she exclaimed fervently, "That’s shows Wooster’s heart is in the right place."

And, self-congratulation as it may be, this is the way we feel about the choice. In a backhanded way it’s a credit to Wooster to have chosen Frankie Stafford for special Homecoming honor. She is, one of her predecessors once said of her. "From the first day of classes I knew Frankie was some- thing special." A friend described her simply as "elegant."

Frankie (Carolyn Frank as the yearbook is) is the youngest of three daughters and thus in- herited her maternal grandmother’s grace; she also received literature from the recruiting offices of the army. Bank matriarch Mrs. Robert Bower and Mrs. William J. Tho-

When a recent Wooster grad, now in nurse’s training at the University of Rochester, heard that Frankie Stafford was to be Homecoming Queen, she exclaimed fervently, "That’s shows Wooster’s heart is in the right place."

And, self-congratulation as it may be, this is the way we feel about the choice. In a backhanded way it’s a credit to Wooster to have chosen Frankie Stafford for special Homecoming honor. She is, one of her predecessors once said of her. "From the first day of classes I knew Frankie was some- thing special." A friend described her simply as "elegant."

Frankie (Carolyn Frank as the yearbook is) is the youngest of three daughters and thus in- herited her maternal grandmother’s grace; she also received literature from the recruiting offices of the army. Bank matriarch Mrs. Robert Bower and Mrs. William J. Tho-

When a recent Wooster grad, now in nurse’s training at the University of Rochester, heard that Frankie Stafford was to be Homecoming Queen, she exclaimed fervently, "That’s shows Wooster’s heart is in the right place."

And, self-congratulation as it may be, this is the way we feel about the choice. In a backhanded way it’s a credit to Wooster to have chosen Frankie Stafford for special Homecoming honor. She is, one of her predecessors once said of her. "From the first day of classes I knew Frankie was some- thing special." A friend described her simply as "elegant."

Frankie (Carolyn Frank as the yearbook is) is the youngest of three daughters and thus in- herited her maternal grandmother’s grace; she also received literature from the recruiting offices of the army. Bank matriarch Mrs. Robert Bower and Mrs. William J. Tho-
Page Two

Vooster Voice

Fridaar, October 9, 1966

Lives Of Service

Westover's Centennial Campaign has gone to great lengths to avoid a "crass, hard-hitting, hand-in-the-pocket" fund drive in order to accomplish the challenge before it. It has instead attempted to present, with as much solemnity and thoughtfulness as possible, just how the campaign works and how it exists and how it plans to further its ultimate goals. The assumption was that if in fact Wooster's motives were worthy and noble, those of good will would desire to support them when the need for them was presented.

"For the most part," the Campaign reports, "gifts have not resulted from solicitations by the College staff. Rather, they have been bought about by the profound commitment which the donors have to what this College is trying to accomplish.

During this summer, a doctor living in Florida—in years, pondered the same problem that challenged the Wooster students on the Mississippi Project. No longer could the Negro be unjustly restrained and downtrodden. He could no longer be confronted with others of equal intelligence and ability, the doctor concluded. Unable to do more than give the fruits of his years of service, he simply decided that "all believers in the teaching of Jesus should be involved" in the Civil Rights movement.

He gave to several colleges, including Wooster. His gift to this college was unrestricted, but he was sure that it served its purpose.

We thoroughly approve the goals and the philosophy of this Campaign, and we strongly support liberal education rather than compromising it. And we are grateful to those who have responded to such a campaign.

Question Without a Forum

by Don Crey

The current presidential campaign—if the present trend is continuing—will be a campaign of rhetoric rather than of discussion, of shadow rather than substance.

Rather than a frank, open debate on the timely issues of the day, the American public in the presidential campaign is being asked to assimilate character and personality, same characteristics and usually at an abnormally low level. It is a campaign of "sound bites," in which the candidates, instead of the great issues of the position they stand for, present pious platitudes to the secondary use of "law and order," in which Johnson does not apply to the presidential campaign the same kind of treatment and are such questions as the cover-up of his opponent's presentation. This might not be the issue.

The campaign issues are not uncommon, of course, in the candidate's ignorance of his nation's problems, of his failure to determine the existence of the war in Vietnam—albeit an essential part in the American political scene. This shows us that politics seek vote by propagating issues which is the function of the political education of the public.

Goldwaterites have shown themselves particularly adept at deflecting or misguiding issues largely for emotional appeal. They can "law and order" and label themselves as the "law and order" label. They use the"law and order" label to the public arena, to the public's knowledge of the war in Vietnam—albeit an essential part in the American political scene. This shows us that politics seek vote by propagating issues which is the function of the political education of the public.

Goldwaterites have shown themselves particularly adept at deflecting or misguiding issues largely for emotional appeal. They can "law and order" and label themselves as the "law and order" label. They use the "law and order" label to the public arena, to the public's knowledge of the war in Vietnam—albeit an essential part in the American political scene. This shows us that politics seek vote by propagating issues which is the function of the political education of the public.

Goldwaterites have shown themselves particularly adept at deflecting or misguiding issues largely for emotional appeal. They can "law and order" and label themselves as the "law and order" label. They use the "law and order" label to the public arena, to the public's knowledge of the war in Vietnam—albeit an essential part in the American political scene. This shows us that politics seek vote by propagating issues which is the function of the political education of the public.

Goldwaterites have shown themselves particularly adept at deflecting or misguiding issues largely for emotional appeal. They can "law and order" and label themselves as the "law and order" label. They use the "law and order" label to the public arena, to the public's knowledge of the war in Vietnam—albeit an essential part in the American political scene. This shows us that politics seek vote by propagating issues which is the function of the political education of the public.

Goldwaterites have shown themselves particularly adept at deflecting or misguiding issues largely for emotional appeal. They can "law and order" and label themselves as the "law and order" label. They use the "law and order" label to the public arena, to the public's knowledge of the war in Vietnam—albeit an essential part in the American political scene. This shows us that politics seek vote by propagating issues which is the function of the political education of the public.

Goldwaterites have shown themselves particularly adept at deflecting or misguiding issues largely for emotional appeal. They can "law and order" and label themselves as the "law and order" label. They use the "law and order" label to the public arena, to the public's knowledge of the war in Vietnam—albeit an essential part in the American political scene. This shows us that politics seek vote by propagating issues which is the function of the political education of the public.

Goldwaterites have shown themselves particularly adept at deflecting or misguiding issues largely for emotional appeal. They can "law and order" and label themselves as the "law and order" label. They use the "law and order" label to the public arena, to the public's knowledge of the war in Vietnam—albeit an essential part in the American political scene. This shows us that politics seek vote by propagating issues which is the function of the political education of the public.

Goldwaterites have shown themselves particularly adept at deflecting or misguiding issues largely for emotional appeal. They can "law and order" and label themselves as the "law and order" label. They use the "law and order" label to the public arena, to the public's knowledge of the war in Vietnam—albeit an essential part in the American political scene. This shows us that politics seek vote by propagating issues which is the function of the political education of the public.

Goldwaterites have shown themselves particularly adept at deflecting or misguiding issues largely for emotional appeal. They can "law and order" and label themselves as the "law and order" label. They use the "law and order" label to the public arena, to the public's knowledge of the war in Vietnam—albeit an essential part in the American political scene. This shows us that politics seek vote by propagating issues which is the function of the political education of the public.

Goldwaterites have shown themselves particularly adept at deflecting or misguiding issues largely for emotional appeal. They can "law and order" and label themselves as the "law and order" label. They use the "law and order" label to the public arena, to the public's knowledge of the war in Vietnam—albeit an essential part in the American political scene. This shows us that politics seek vote by propagating issues which is the function of the political education of the public.

Goldwaterites have shown themselves particularly adept at deflecting or misguiding issues largely for emotional appeal. They can "law and order" and label themselves as the "law and order" label. They use the "law and order" label to the public arena, to the public's knowledge of the war in Vietnam—albeit an essential part in the American political scene. This shows us that politics seek vote by propagating issues which is the function of the political education of the public.
Friends Reminisce About Lowry

At the request of the "Voice" several of Dr. Lowry's acquaintance story about Dr. Lowry's acquaintance with some of his closest friends for this issue.

As President, Lowry's friends knew, his sense of humor is one of his most interesting and endearing characteristics. Like many of us, he enjoys a good joke. His colleagues at the University of Chicago, where he was president for over 20 years, have fond memories of his sense of humor. He was known for his quick wit and his ability to make light of any situation. His friends recall how he would often use humor to diffuse tense situations or to bring levity to difficult discussions.

Lowry's social life was lively and varied. He enjoyed attending social events and parties, and was known for his ability to make conversation with anyone. His friends recall how he would often strike up conversations with strangers and how he had a way of making them feel at ease.

Lowry was also known for his love of fishing. He often went fishing with his friends and would regale them with stories of his catches. He was also known for his knowledge of fishing, and would often share his favorite fishing spots with his friends.

Dr. Lowry was a man of many interests and hobbies. He was passionate about music, and was a member of several different orchestras. He also enjoyed playing golf and tennis, and was known for his competitive spirit.

Lowry's friends remember him as a kind, considerate, and generous person. They recall how he would often go out of his way to help others, and how he would always try to make others feel welcome and included.

Dr. Lowry passed away on January 3, 2021. He will be missed by his many friends and colleagues. His legacy will live on through his contributions to the University and his work in higher education.
WOOSTER Receives Thanks; Traveller Tells Tale

October 9, 1964

The Chronicle

Dear Madam:

I am most grateful for the very generous contribution to the "Wanted: A Host" campaign that you have made. Your generosity is deeply appreciated.

Sincerely,

Charles J. English, Editor

The Chronicle

The Chronicle

Dear Madam:

I am most grateful for the very generous contribution to the "Wanted: A Host" campaign that you have made. Your generosity is deeply appreciated.

Sincerely,

Charles J. English, Editor

The Chronicle

The Chronicle

Dear Madam:

I am most grateful for the very generous contribution to the "Wanted: A Host" campaign that you have made. Your generosity is deeply appreciated.

Sincerely,

Charles J. English, Editor
Wooster and the Iron Curtain have both been penetrated by the 600th anniversary Shakespeare. The official "Deutsches Theater" in East Berlin celebrated by producing "Hamlet" and "The Comedy of Errors." Before the premier of "Hamlet" the producer explained the correct interpretation of the official part to the West German newspaper, New Deutschland: "We thought the idea含蓄 of confirming the social tradition, which is also interesting for our time. There are still many people who are not really well meaning, socially polite people to whom it seems horrible, perhaps even the progress of power is forced to contain some different historical situations.

To perceive the blatant propaganda in this interpretation, it is necessary to contain this interpretation thus briefly and to recognize the peculiar meaning of the words. Just as modern edges, draw, double or work—no paper, glass, metal, wood.

SHEAFAFER Smoothie MARKER

$100

Excludes prints FLOAT-ARMED on any material
Excludes "Skip" morning coffee
Large jugs ok
Famous Smoothie quality!
No color or size-restrict

Do a houseful and an officeful of marked job. Do it better because of the FLOAT-ARMED and the one-and-only "Skip" morning coffee. Fine, blue, black, or green luscious color of "Skip" morning coffee.

COLLEGE BOOK STORE

- Include prints FLOAT-ARMED on any material
- Excludes "Skip" morning coffee
- Large jugs ok
- Famous Smoothie quality!
- No color or size-restrict

Collectors' Edition: re-issued entire parts of the play for which he wrote the picture and written interpretation. For example, in the theatrical expressionism, the actors are so involved in the story that Hamlet himself goes in to suffer of it. In the rewriting, Hamlet considers whether his son is real. His intellects are discolored as much as his black attire. Their interpretation expresses the significance of the play to the process of building socialism, to which all art must contribute. This conflict continues to our actual communist era, which reduces drama to its lowest level. The "Deutsches Theater" Frederick Wolf's Fium Congress of the Soviet Union in 1939, the Russian dramatist, Maxim Gorki, suggested this interpretation of the Soviet action. Stalin condemned it. Gorki proclaimed:

"Social Realism

"Social realism confirms the idea of the moment, as creativity, whose goal is the concrete development of the most valuable individual abilities of man, for the victory over the powers of nature, for his health and long life, for the great joy of being permitted to live on Earth.

Gorky's theory sounds very distant to us, because it links the very realism that he advocates, but embraces instead the romantic communist vision of man's goals and life's fate. This theory has become ineffective dogma, forbidding any artist from grasping with undefined communist problems of a new day to portray happiness in work, "existence and creativity.

Hamlet and Realism

Realism refers to the optimistic communist view of man's goals, as there is no original sin, but which character embodiment of its propaganda on earth, the class struggle. The 'realism' new is acceptable in this historical process, but not all under the given audience through the ideology. Wagner's version has its questions and problems. Consequently, the East German producer had to create a new interpretation of the dramatic tragedy, "Hamlet", just like in the East German theatre, the 'bad' character, thus the new realism, "Berlinale," means essentially that "the modern coming revolutionary moments, and firmness in the heart of the world", (the romantic character of the Christian society). The goal is not to bring about a new realism that no one can achieve, but to bring about a new realism that is far from impossible. Most sensible observers observe that Shakespeare's plays don't contain any profound philosophy, but they express communist ideology utilitarian, cannot accept the materialist doctrine to be used in the construction of society.

Ulbricht See "Richard"

In Das Zelt (May 8, 1964, p.17), West German reporter describes an industrial incident at the East German Shakespeare redemption. Walter Ulbricht, head of the East German state, and his wife "Goebbels" Ludde Ulbricht, were attended by millions of the East German population. The workers saw a performance of the play. They did not know it was a real play, a power problem, which peaceful revolution followed in the play. The workers interpreted Germany's situation, the party's interpretation of the situation, the party's interpretation of the situation: Ulbricht sees "Richard" to tell" the one and only way.

"There's no other way!" Hamlet asks. No. 1. "Goebbels" West German reported.
"There's no other way in these historical situations", the party's interpretation to the play.

"What were Ulbricht's feelings? He was up in the state of his state in any of the Eastern European countries, and his-personal achievement is the Berlin wall. In addition to his talents and terrifying political power he fashioned his regime into a working parallel to Richard III's history. After the fall of the tyrant in the play, the East Berlin communist is supposed to have been enthroned as the new King Claudius. Brutus Horndt, their third friendship and the factions among the countries, in 9 is lit up "Hamlet." Do not see the play, "the play is a classical play, but it's too interesting in the theatre context, and is in circulation in their play for a better world." That is the world view that Benet worth the world.

"We've already started on the new world, but we have found that there is a world of words. We have the chance to find the new world by the Someone who needs a great deal of heroism, because Claudius had the best every coming world."

"Brothers for ever!"

"We've already started on the new world, but we have found that there is a world of words. We have the chance to find the new world by the Someone who needs a great deal of heroism, because Claudius had the best every coming world."

Diverse Tribes Talk World Involvement

Diverse approaches towards an area in a world will be the following: The 600 essays written this fall, announced in "The World" by Anne Tuddenham, Professor of German, are supposed to express the idea of the new world.

"We must change the world, our world." An essay on the new world, our world, the new world. It is obvious, the new world.

"We must change the world, our world." An essay on the new world, our world, the new world. It is obvious, the new world.

"We must change the world, our world." An essay on the new world, our world, the new world. It is obvious, the new world.

"We must change the world, our world." An essay on the new world, our world, the new world. It is obvious, the new world.

"We must change the world, our world." An essay on the new world, our world, the new world. It is obvious, the new world.

"We must change the world, our world." An essay on the new world, our world, the new world. It is obvious, the new world.

"We must change the world, our world." An essay on the new world, our world, the new world. It is obvious, the new world.

"We must change the world, our world." An essay on the new world, our world, the new world. It is obvious, the new world.

"We must change the world, our world." An essay on the new world, our world, the new world. It is obvious, the new world.

"We must change the world, our world." An essay on the new world, our world, the new world. It is obvious, the new world.

"We must change the world, our world." An essay on the new world, our world, the new world. It is obvious, the new world.
Offense Improves As Scots Down Mount, 21-15: Unblemished Marks Clash In Denison Game

by Dennis Geist

Coach Phil Ship's undefeated Scot eleven faces the most important test to date tomorrow at 2 p.m., when Denison's Big Red invade Seward Stadium. The visitors, themselves looking for a vengeful win after last year's 41-0 whipping, come into the game with a 5-0-1 record, including a 21-15 victory over Mount Union last Saturday. The key to the Boro's success has been the high-powered offense, led by senior quarterback Ron Hagan.

Hagan gained six yards up the middle and had the ball in the air after a deep pass to number two receiver John Bellomy before 11 p.m. The next drive ended with a 27-yard gain on the first down, followed by the opposition's fumble on the 3. Hagan scored two more field goals from the 30- and 15-yard lines.

Dundie Apple finds a blocker in John Bailey (67) and has the ball against the Wolters

The next to the left of the regulation play, as the heavens opened and the rain with the score based at 6-6.

A few of us had come prepared for the occasion and armed with an umbrella. Cautiously making our way to the side of the field, we saw a huge gust of wind driving the rain, and we were careful not to step on it. The next to the right of the regulation play, as the heavens opened and the rain with the score based at 6-6.

The next to the left of the regulation play, as the heavens opened and the rain with the score based at 6-6.

The next to the right of the regulation play, as the heavens opened and the rain with the score based at 6-6.

The next to the left of the regulation play, as the heavens opened and the rain with the score based at 6-6.

The next to the right of the regulation play, as the heavens opened and the rain with the score based at 6-6.

The next to the left of the regulation play, as the heavens opened and the rain with the score based at 6-6.

The next to the right of the regulation play, as the heavens opened and the rain with the score based at 6-6.

The next to the left of the regulation play, as the heavens opened and the rain with the score based at 6-6.

The next to the right of the regulation play, as the heavens opened and the rain with the score based at 6-6.

The next to the left of the regulation play, as the heavens opened and the rain with the score based at 6-6.

The next to the right of the regulation play, as the heavens opened and the rain with the score based at 6-6.

The next to the left of the regulation play, as the heavens opened and the rain with the score based at 6-6.

The next to the right of the regulation play, as the heavens opened and the rain with the score based at 6-6.

The next to the left of the regulation play, as the heavens opened and the rain with the score based at 6-6.

The next to the right of the regulation play, as the heavens opened and the rain with the score based at 6-6.

The next to the left of the regulation play, as the heavens opened and the rain with the score based at 6-6.

The next to the right of the regulation play, as the heavens opened and the rain with the score based at 6-6.

The next to the left of the regulation play, as the heavens opened and the rain with the score based at 6-6.

The next to the right of the regulation play, as the heavens opened and the rain with the score based at 6-6.

The next to the left of the regulation play, as the heavens opened and the rain with the score based at 6-6.

The next to the right of the regulation play, as the heavens opened and the rain with the score based at 6-6.

The next to the left of the regulation play, as the heavens opened and the rain with the score based at 6-6.

The next to the right of the regulation play, as the heavens opened and the rain with the score based at 6-6.

The next to the left of the regulation play, as the heavens opened and the rain with the score based at 6-6.

The next to the right of the regulation play, as the heavens opened and the rain with the score based at 6-6.
Race Remains Tight in Kenarden Loop

by Mike Hutchinson

As the Kenarden League touch football season reaches the halfway point, things seem to be going just as expected, with undefeated Sixth and Seventh tied for first, and Third and Fifth close behind. However, as a men’s series, Seventh has not yet played any of the other league leaders and could conceivably have one of all three games. The Six and Fifth have two games against each other with none of the top four.

In retaining its undefeated record this week, Sixth employed the Douglas frog in a tough game, 36-16, and won on a field goal when Fifth did not have enough players to play. In the game with the “fresh”, “General” Tom Patras threw for two touchdowns and ran for the other, and Steve Goldsmith anchored the 50-yard defense.

Debby, Jane Pace
Coed Hockey Team

Homecoming this year offers more athletic entertainment than football alone. Wooster sportswomen will compete for the distinction of students and alumni when the girls’ hockey team hosts its name Ohio State here on Homecoming day. Game time is 8 p.m. at the hockey field, and the girl hope many spectactors will attend to give them moral support.

Debby Powers, a freshman playing left wing, will represent for the Owls in the same left wing position the the Wabash Owls last Saturday at Ohio Wesleyan University. Debby scored three goals and Jane Hardy, another sophomore in center forward position, scored two goals. The Wabu Owls traveled to Ohio Wesleyan to participate in a morning coaching session and to challenge Ohio U later in the day.

New Coach Jeppson Helps Varsity Line

by Don Kennedy

The new coach physician training assistant instructor and athletic coach to join the Wooster ranks in this season is Gordon Jeppson, this year’s Junior Varsity roundball coach and football line coach.

Jeppson comes to the Hill from a unique ownership in the Department of Physical Education at Ohio State University. He replaces Steve McQuillan in the triple role of men’s gymnastics assistant coach, football and roundball coach and football.

Jeppson has also coached at both the college and high school levels, having been head coach at Michigan State University. While attending Concordia College in Minnesota, Jeppson wrote letters in football and two in baseball. After his graduation, he earned his master’s degree at South Dakota University.

His coaching experiences have given him wide-ranging coaching experience from track to wrestling. He has also coached three years of basketball, four years of football and one of baseball. Twin

Thincads Smashed

by Wode Symons

With their Black and Gold colors short of life for Friday the 25 minute last three weeks, the members of the current college team found themselves in a 17-40 loss against a superior Baldwin-Wallace squad.

Tomorrow afternoon at Delaware the Scots will encounter an unmatchable formidable group of barries from Ohio Wesleyan, who last week peaked past Akron 27-31.

Although Dale Hanakel held the ball with a clicking of the 22:31, he was only Woostered to come close to Dick Scott’s witting time of 26:06. Following Dale was a pack of freshmen, paced by ninth-place Charles Ott.

Inexperience plays Coach Hodge’s team aide it is composed of only eight members, and will therefore have afly upon freshness to fill the spots vacated by track specialists Brown, Rick Walker and Keith Bo.

Training for the four-mile masters has been stepped up this week as the participants have run an average of eight miles a day on the gold course in addition to the usual sprint work. Another feature to be considered is the lack of home meets; consequently, every race must be run on a course well known to the opponent.

“Sweaters”
“Sweaters”
“Sweaters”

There are many to choose from in colors and styles — wool, mohair and Orton. Pullovers and coats will cost $8.00 to $30.00.

By Benach Bechtel

Smithville Inn

Chicken Dinner Capital of the World

“Thirty-Five Years of Inn-Keeping”

1929-1964

In an old inn in England, where he sought refuge from the chill of a winter's night, a weary traveler wrote the following poem on the inn's frosty window pane:

"Whatever has traveled life's dull round, Where 'er his plow may have been, May sigh to think he has found Amongment welcome on the 'ntr.'"

Long a common stop on the stage routes in older days, the Inn was rediscovered in 1929 and converted by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Reining and family to today's use, making it one of the oldest inns in Ohio.

Coach Gordon Jeppson

Valley High School and Hanry High School in Minnesota have previously received the benefits of his coaching abilities. Mr. and Mrs. Jeppson are making their home in Wooster.

WOOSTER VOICE

Page Seven

KENDEN STANDINGS

Latest available standings of the Wooster intramural football leagues, received after yesterday’s action:

WINTER LEAGUE

Third 3 1 1
Second 2 3 3
First 1 4 4
Fourth 0 4

*Who tied one game Wednesday, Oct. 7
Second, 6th, 5th, 4th

WOOSTER SHOES

... For All Year CAMPUS Footwear Needs

Amster Shoes

... für den strengen Schritt...

Jeweled good looks plus a buttery fine feeling in soft, flexible cowhide, splendidly gnarled.

Here in student's price range...

... für die klasische Lasse.

$10.00
Vodra Addresses Congressmen

(Continued from Page 4) Then we are witnessing a came-up like the Nazi “Blinking” in 1940. Technically there is war, but Goldwater and Miller can- not desk a handful or wayward. And Johnson and Humphrey avoid acknowledging that there is even a cause for dispute this year.

Left of Barry

I mentioned the challenges to our democracy. What are they? First, the danger of a one-party system. The Goldwater candidacy is not realizing the parties about conservatively liberal policies; it forcing everyone to the left of Barry—the bulk of Americanism—into one party. If a Democratic landslide excepts out a large num- ber of Republicans this Nov. 3rd, we might witness the death of a major political party. History sug- gests our two-party system would decade in reverse.

The second challenge is equally for the Negro. In 1960 he saw the third major civil rights law in seven years passed. It also saw major rules with heavy racial overtones. It saw little progress in the South, despite great sacrifices by indi- viduals for the cause of equality. And it saw the Republican Party struggle a “wimpish” Southern wing while the Democrats refused to face the question at all during their conventions.

The fourth challenge to our democracy is equally real today. The most crucial issue in 1964 is the reegee of the war for our lives, respect for the in- dividual, respect for government itself as a part of our society. The Hoover report on this summer’s riots laid most of the blame on an anarchical feeling, a total rejection of law and order. The campaign, the Democrats are making the most vicious political attacks I have over-in- spiring Barry Goldwater with their holiness. The irresponsibility of such charges cannot be overemphasized, for in Goldwater’s election, a large segment of Americans will move into the ditches on Nov. 3rd to avoid the nail, I, for one, do not believe Goldwater’s inflated address will begin.

It’s been a pleasure serving the students at the College of Wooster for the past 45 years. We have endeavored through the years to bring to the campus the latest styles in clothing and furn- ishings. It has been our aim to show these newest fashions at the lowest possible prices. We look forward to greeting you now with the largest selections in our 45 years.

BRENNER BROHS.
Lower the Cost of Dressing Well

Local Underwriter Has Attractive Life Insurance Contract for College and University Students

Penn Mutual Life Insurance

Today the local representative of the Penn Mutual, Bob Jamies- son, Class of 1927, College of Wooster, announced a special provision for all College and University men to complete or start their life insurance estate plans. This PREFERRED RISK PLAN FOR SELECTED COLLEGE MEN, from ages 18 thru 25, has these features:

1. It is non-medical, in most cases, up to age 23.
2. It can be written also for ages 24, 25, and 26, with a physical exam.
3. It is applicable for both single and married men.
4. It is a low-cost and requires up to age 28, a very mini- mum of net overhead average deposit.
5. It can be paid on an annual, semi-annual or quar- terly payment basis.
7. It is a non-cancelable and a guaranteed renewable contract.

8. Other special optional advantages include:
   a. Waiver of Premium for permanent disability.
   b. Double Indemnity—$30,000 if death occurs on a company policy.
   c. Guaranteed Insurability Agreement (the event the insured desires to convert the policy to add, non- medially, up to $65,000 more of permanent life insurance at any time, up to age 40, at any time, ages 45, 50, 55, 60, 65, 70, 75, 80, 85, or $100,000 at any age).
   d. Benefit of conversion to the original age of issue or at the attained age.
   e. Participation in annual dividends awarded by the 118-year-old Penn Mutual Life Insurance Company.

This contract, at the present, does not contain a War Clause. All men at risk can contact Mr. Jamieson at P.O. Box 108 or call him at 628-0779. We also administer the Student Health and Accident Plan, which covers those Wooster College students now enrolled. This coverage is for a full 12-month period with blanket protection.

ATTENTION! COLLEGE AND UNIVERSITY MEN! The Penn Mutual Life Insurance Company of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

LOCAL REPRESENTATIVE: Bob Jamieson, Class of 1927, College of Wooster.

PREFERRED RISK PLAN FOR SELECTED COLLEGE MEN

Term with Automatic Conversion at Age 28

Premiums and Dividends per $10,000 Insurance

Premiums $53.60 $54.40 $54.80 $55.10 $55.40 $55.60 $55.80 $56.00

Net Average Annual Dividend $17.70 $18.10 $18.40 $18.60 $18.80 $19.00 $19.20 $19.40

In addition to the low cost protection, you may elect the following options to make the contract even more valuable.

a. Waiver of Premium $ 2.50 $ 2.60 $ 2.60 $ 2.60 $ 2.90 $ 3.00 $ 3.10

b. Double Indemnity 9.00 9.10 8.80 8.50 8.10 8.00

c. Guar. Insurability Agreement* 11.50 12.00 12.50 12.90 13.40 13.80

d. Average Net Annual Dividend* $25.20 $30.70 $36.20

This feature guarantees a dividend of $600.00 of additional life insurance at standard rates to those with high potential, for premiums of $10.00 at each age of 25, 28, 31, 34, and 40, non-medically, if exercised.

BRENNER BROS.
Lower the Cost of Dressing Well

Welcome Alumini!

While in Wooster, come down to Freedlander’s and renew old acquaintances

Don’t Let The Alumni Down Scouts!

BEAT
DENISON!
SATURDAY!

Wooster Lumber Company

Clothing Men Is Our Business!

Have you men seen all the latest styles in button front and zip front sweaters for fall? Stop in—take a look at our complete selection.

$9.95 to $13.95

BRENNER BROS.
Lower the Cost of Dressing Well

Bootnik
by
Cover Girl
$10.95

TAYLOR SHOES
On the Square

For Further Details Call:
BOB JAMESON
P.O. Box 30
1710 Christmas Run
WOOSTER, OHIO 44692
Telephone 263-3776 Area 316

HUNTLEY—GORDON

(Continued from Page 3)