Notestein, '00, is Guest Lecturer

Wallace Notestein, '00, Professor of English History at Yale University since 1928, who returns for Commencement this year to attend his thirty-fifth class reunion, has been secured as a guest lecturer for the Alumni College. He will speak in Douglass Lounge on Thursday evening at 7:00 o'clock. "Suggestions for Travel in England", discussed by a noted English historian who has spent seven years in England and has the record of sleeping in every county, will undoubtedly be a high light of the Sixty-fifth Commencement program. Dr. Notestein's Commons Debates of 1621 in seven volumes is to be published this summer.

Care of Children

Children who accompany their parents to Wooster for Commencement weekend this year will receive special attention. The Alumni Office Staff is planning to cooperate with visitors in arranging for the care of their children at a reasonable charge.
