Captain Walter McCosky, Joe Hamblet, and Larry Valentine are easy to recognize on the Ohio Wesleyan basketball team, which they were able to trounce.

While the game was won by the Ohio Wesleyan already, equally bad, but the heads only four of the teams were poised for the future because they were able to progress.

Girls' Chorus Will Sing in Cleveland

On Friday, Feb. 13, the members of the Girls' Glee Club will board chartered buses at 9:30 and proceed to Cleveland where they are to give a series of concerts. Singing under the direction of Miss Ilse Richardson, the girls will give their first performance Friday evening at 8:15 at the Lake-wood Presbyterian Church. The program will be essentially the same as the one they plan to give in New York this spring.

Saturday at 2:45 P.M., they will sight see on their return and hear the Glee Club broadcast a number of selections from Student WYAM. After they've finished this program, the girls will be free to spend the remainder of the day in shop-es or the sights of Cleveland.

Sunday promises to be a busy day for three separate programs are scheduled: At 10:30 A.M., the chorus will sing a group of sacred numbers at the Phillips Avenue Presbyterian Church.

At 6:00 P.M. they will sing to the Church of the Covenant, following a half-hour organ concert given by Mr.

Gove, their final performance will be given at 7:30 P.M. in the Old Stone

Church. At 10 P.M. they will again board the buses, this time to take the return trip to Wooster.

Accompanying the Glee Club will be Miss Hatcher, manager, and his assistants, Jack Hatcher.
