Viv Douglas Will Try For Title

Wooster Speakers Take High Honors in State Speech Contest

By PAT HENDERSON

As a result of placing first in the women's state oratory contest held here last week-end, Viv Douglas will go to Northwestern University on April 24 to enter the inter-state competition. Viv, a junior hailing from Dalton, O., who has been interested in speech since her freshman year, is also a cheerleader and a member of Imps.

Two of the five available first places in last week's state speech contests were won for Wooster by Vivian Douglas in women's oratory, and Annie Austin in women's extempore speaking. David Cowles, in men's extempore, and Alan Joseph, men's oratory, ranked fourth in their respective contests.

Other first place winners were Ruth Withrow, of Heidelberg, in women's interpretative reading, Lawrence Kuhl, of Bowling Green, in men's extempore, and Richard Ashbrook, of Denison, in men's oratory. Ashbrook will represent Ohio in the national inter-collegiate contest scheduled for April at Northwestern University.

Fifteen Ohio colleges brought a total of forty-six speakers to the campus on Mar. 8 and 9 for these contests sponsored annually by the Ohio Association of College Teachers of Speech. Of the fifteen, nine were able to place speakers in the upper-three bracket. Bowling Green came out on top with one first and four second places, followed by Wooster with two firsts.

Prizes were awarded the first and second place winners in each contest. The results as announced at the conclusion of the last round on Saturday afternoon were as follows:

Women's reading, first, Ruth Withrow, Heidelberg; second, Eve Marie Saint, Bowling Green; third, Pat Kuenzli, Ohio Wesleyan.

Women's extempore, first, Anne Austin, Wooster; second, Mary Ann Kseppe, Bowling Green; third, Ardath Franck, Kent State. Men's extempore, first, Lawrence Kuhl, Bowling Green; second, Robert Stauter, Ohio Wesleyan; third, William Schaffer, Wittenberg.

Women's oratory, first, Vivian Douglas, Wooster; second, Aurelia Christea, Bowling Green; third, Betty Newland, Ohio University.

Men's oratory, first, Richard Ashbrook, Denison; second, John Keown, Bowling Green; third, Stanley Tolliver, Baldwin Wallace.

Senate Prexy Petitions Due Before Monday

Petitions for president of the Student Senate during the 1946-47 school year may be had Friday, Mar. 15, from Betty Dodds at Hoover Cottage.

These petitions must be returned to Miss Dodds Monday. Primary elections will be held Wednesday, Mar. 20, in the Senate room, and finals on Friday. Petitions must be signed by 140 names.

According to Dale Blocher, head of the Color Day planning committee, this pageant will be presented at the annual May Queen coronation on May 11.

Last year this skit was omitted in favor of folk dancing and the timely naval review. The usual custom was renewed this year, however, and will be a part of the festivities.

There will also be a photographic exhibition on the Soviet Union, a program of newly published Russian music played by the college string quartet, and a film on the U.S.S.R.

Among the speakers who will be present during the week are: Louis Dolivet, editor of the magazine "Free World"; Dr. John Mackay, president of Princeton Theological Seminary; Dr. Hans Simons, dean of the graduate faculty of the New School for Social Research; Dr. Henry A. Atkinson, of the Christian Council of Palestine.

Senate Considers Breakfast Plans For Late-Risers

Also to Sound Out Student Opinion on Smoking in Union

In order to determine how many students would favor the serving of late breakfast in the campus dining rooms, the Student Senate on Monday night named Ruth Cameron, a senior from Cincinnati, to poll student opinion.

Meanwhile it was decided to ask students to air their feelings on smoking in the Student Union to Don Shaw, senate president. If the students fail to show interest in the question, the matter will be dropped.

Elections Coming

Betty Dodds, chairman of elections, announced that the elections for president of Student Senate, W.S.G.A., and M.S.G.A. would be held before spring vacation and the election of Big Four president immediately after vacation.

A motion was made and carried that these new officers should sit in senate meetings as non-voting senators until the new senators were elected.

The matter of having all college publications under senate jurisdiction was brought up and discussed. It was also brought up that the senate should pass on all selections of editors instead of the faculty board which now performs that duty.

The matter was left for a week's discussion with a possibility that it will be brought up in a senate chapel.

President Don Shaw brought up the point of having non-senate committees of the student body to which all abuses and gripes could be brought. The senate voted that he should have the power to appoint such committees.

Checking Attendance

The heads of the W.S.G.A. and M.S.G.A. agreed to bring up the matter of checking attendance in church and chapel to their respective boards.

Dale Blocher was present to report about the Color Day pageant. He requested that $25 be paid to Livy De Pastina for writing the pageant. He also said that the queen manager is Dick Poethig and that the seats for Color Day are being sold for 50 cents and 75 cents for box seats.

There will be a Color Day dance the night of May 11. The money that is total profit for the Gum Shoe Hop is $263.

Big Six Meets For First Time In Two Years

Transition Underway

At this stage of the game athletics at Wooster, and just about everywhere else, are in a state of transition. Basketball and swimming are being replaced by track and baseball. Later tennis and golf will get under way as the weather becomes warmer. Because of this change over from the winter sports to the outdoor spring and summer sports, there is not a lot to write about. Of course there are the prospects for the baseball and track teams, but it is still a little early to be predicting what the outcome will be. There is one team, however, about which something should be said.

* * *

Men vs. Women

It happened to be this sports writer's fortune to see the Big Six Meet held at Oberlin Mar. 9. The first thing that impressed him when he arrived at Oberlin was the fact that the girls at that college occupy the new gymnasium while the men are allowed to hold on to the old one. At Wooster, it has been said, the men will profit by the new one to be constructed in the future. It is not this writer's contention, however, that Wooster should donate its new gymnasium to the female athletes. Since the men's athletics are more popular, and the men compete with other schools more widely than do the women, the men should have the newer and better facilities. Since The College of Wooster came dangerously close to becoming a girls' school during the war, it is a wonder that the new gymnasium is going to be given to the men. As for the Oberlin situation, perhaps the benefactor favored the women's welfare over that of the men's.

* * *

That Pool

This first impression was not the most important one received at Oberlin. The swimming pool, situated in the women's gym, was quite a contrast to the Wooster swimming pool which is shoved down in a corner of the present gymnasium. A Woosterite who sees a swimming pool like this one and even one which is better, dreams of one at Wooster. Knowing that it isn't there he immediately hopes and prays that it will soon come to pass. Carl B. Munson dreams of a natatorium which would hold upwards of a thousand people, and a pool which would be about 75 feet long.

* * *

Spirit Tops

The most impressive thing about the whole swimming meet was the spirit and determination of the Scot tankers. There were only seven of them and only two had ever participated in a college meet. The other schools brought along a dozen or more swimmers and as a result they had fresh swimmers for most of their events. Despite all of the handicaps the Wooster mermen did their best and as a result they came close to defeating Kenyon. Coach Munson remarked after the meet about the fine job they had done and was very pleased about it. These boys whom Munson has been coaching all season had no meets except this one and the main reason for swimming practice this season was to build a nucleus for the team next year. With some of the swimmers he has now in addition to Fulkman, Holden, and others, Coach Munson should have a good team next season.

Last Saturday the Ohio Conference held its Big Six tournament for the first time since 1943 when the meet was cancelled because of the war. The Oberlin tankers were victors in the contest and thus took the title from Kenyon who won it in 1943.

Oberlin took first place in the two relays and in the diving where no other school had contestants. However, the Yeoman were able to get enough second, third, fourth, and fifth places to make 62 points and win the meet. Case was second with 45, Kenyon third with 29, and Wooster fourth with 26.

All teams showed the mark of manpower shortage, but were able to do well in spite of it. Especially noteworthy was the spirit of the Scots who were by far the smallest team at Oberlin.

Four Scots qualified for individual races after the preliminaries were completed. They were Miles, Hull, Ballard, and Foster. Miles, Hull, and Ballard were able to place in the finals in the evening.

500 Yard Medley Relay: Oberlin (Burket, Rasch, Palubinski), won; Case, 2; Kenyon, 3; Wooster, 4. Time—3:31.5.

220 Yard Free Style: Miles (W), won; Bradshaw (O), 2; Parsons (C), 3; Stewart (O), 4; Ballard (W), 5. Time—2:30.2.

50 Yard Free Style: Roth (C), won; Robertson (O), 2; Wendler (K), 3; Weaver (O), 4; Miles (W), 5. Time—25.8.

Diving: Kenedy (O), won; Hillery (C), 2.

100 Yard Free Style: Roth (C), won; Bradshaw (O), 2; Wendler (K), 3; Burket (O), 4; Cloyes (C), 5. Time—59.2.

150 Yard Backstroke: Kuntz (C), won; White (K), 2; Compton (O), 3; Meritt (C), 4; Cooke (K), 5. Time—1:52.

200 Yard Breast Stroke: Labalme (K), won; Rasch (O), 2; Gordon (O), 3; Hull (W), 4; Cavanaugh (C), 5. Time—2:53.

440 Yard Free Style: Miles (W), won; Kuntz (C), 2; Stewart (O), 3; Ballard (W), 4; Girouard (O), 5. Time—5:39.3.

400 Yard Relay: Oberlin (Palubinski, Robertson, Bradshaw, Burket), won; Case, 2; Kenyon, 3; Wooster, 4. Time—4:5.

Trumps Renig as Peanuts Grab Gals' Basketball Crown

The Peanut team, captained by Jean Hodgson, remains undefeated and thus is the winner of the girls' basketball tournament. They won their final game last night against a strong Trump team by a score of 24-23. The game was nip and tuck all the way through with good defense on both teams keeping the scoring at a minimum. Pat Culp of the Trumps was in her usual good form and Shack did a good job at forward for the Peanuts.

Trumps: Culp, Hunter, Kesel, Heitmann, Mulac, Spencer, Kesel.

Last week the Sphinx defeated the gals from Douglas by a score of 14-11. Pierson led the scoring with 10 points and Swan did an excellent job of guarding for the Douglas team.

"Education in the U. S. S. R." and "The Industries of the Urals-Arsenal of the U. S. S. R." are the subjects of two photographic exhibits which will be shown at the college from Mar. 17 to Mar. 23 in connection with the "Week of the World."

The String Quartet will present a concert of modern Russian music at the official opening of this exhibit on Sunday, Mar. 17, at 4:00 p.m. Part of the exhibition will be shown in Kauke second floor and part in the Josephine Long Wishart Museum of Art.

The exhibition consists of 60 photographs and four panels of text giving a description of the process of education in the Soviet Union and over 100 photographs and panels of text describing the Ural industries.

The educational programs and industries in Russia are especially interesting to us because the Soviet Union looks to the United States as a model and guide in many aspects of development.

This display is part of a large collection dealing with all phases of Soviet life, which is being circulated throughout the United States by the Exhibit Department of the National Council of American-Soviet Friendship as part of its program to strengthen the bonds of understanding and cooperation between the two countries.
