Everyman Production Reflects Meaning of "Week of Prayer"

by Pat Husband

According to the text of the page, the Everyman Production directed by James Gruber was a very enjoyable event. The drama's message about prayer, its influence on the progress of a nation, and its effect on the personal lives of the characters is emphasized. The production reflects the meaning of the "Week of Prayer," a time dedicated to spiritual reflection and increased religious observance.

Mose Hypotheses

Dr. Mosel of the psychology department at the University of Illinois has been investigating the hypothesis that a person's ability to reason is influenced by the size of the hypothesis. He found that people with larger hypotheses are more likely to come up with creative solutions to problems. This hypothesis has been supported by several experiments, and it suggests that people with larger hypotheses may be better at problem-solving.
