Happy Friday to everybody—this was the first time in the history of the Union that we were able to celebrate the opening of the new Union. This was a very special day for all of us. It was the first time that we had a special event that brought the entire student body together. It was a wonderful day and I am so grateful to everyone who helped make it happen.

There are so many things that I want to say about this day, but I will try to keep it short and sweet. First of all, I want to thank all of the wonderful people who came out to support us on Friday. From the staff at the Union, to the vendors who helped us with the food, to the musicians who entertained us, everyone played a part in making this day so special.

I also want to thank the students who volunteered their time to help with the event. You all did an amazing job and I am so grateful for your hard work. I hope that you all had a great time and that you feel proud of yourselves for being a part of this special day.

Finally, I want to thank everyone for their support and for showing up to celebrate this special day with us. This was a wonderful way to start the year and I am excited to see what the rest of the year holds.

Thank you again and I hope you all had a wonderful time at our opening event!

Sincerely,

Hurtle Predominates as Baseball Candidates Vie for Positions on Wooster's 1949 Diamond Squad

Hurtle and more hustle is the battle cry of Wooster's varsity baseball squad when it opens its season in an opening diamond debut with Penn on Thursday, April 17, in their third straight year without a spring season. The world of sports believes that the ball season opens four days before the Major League. When the season starts, the hard-earned hopes in the baseball tournaments of the nation, the home-tomboy ideals, must be realized. This year's Wooster baseball squad will begin their campaign for the spring season. The tournaments, which are designed to put the squad through their paces for the spring season, will be the opening of their season.

The Yoemen, featuring the famed wooster's baseball team, had their first practice on Saturday, March 26. The team arrived at the field in full uniform, complete with helmets, and were immediately put through their paces. The team consists of ten players, including the star pitcher, Ralph "Wooster" Sheffler. The team is led by Coach Edie Miller-GD-Liberal Arts, who is known for his ability to coach. The team's lineup features a mix of experienced players and new recruits, all of whom are expected to make a significant contribution to the team's success.

Seniors Hayley Guzzo and Judy McVirro are expected to contribute to the team's offensive capabilities. Guzzo, a star player for the team, is known for her speed and agility on the field. McVirro, on the other hand, is known for her strong arm and defensive skills. The team's pitching rotation is led by Ralph "Wooster" Sheffler, a seasoned veteran of the team. Sheffler's experience and skill on the mound will be crucial to the team's success.

The team's first game of the season will be against Penn on April 17. This game is expected to be a tough one, as Penn is known for their strong batting and fielding. However, the team is confident in their ability to compete and emerge victorious. The team's morale is high, and they are looking forward to a successful season. The team's strategy for the season is focused on building a strong team chemistry and working together as a unit to achieve their goals.

In summary, the team is excited for the season to begin and is ready to compete. With a strong lineup, skilled players, and a supportive coaching staff, the team is poised for success. The team's goal is to compete for the league championship and to make a strong showing in the spring season. The team is looking forward to the challenges ahead and is committed to giving their best effort in every game. The team's focus is on teamwork, discipline, and hard work, and they are confident in their ability to achieve their goals. The team's spirit is high, and they are ready to take on the season with optimism and determination.
