Daldzell Named Vice-President
Fast Director of Restoration Fund Breaks 47-Year Wooster Tradition

Wooster has appointed a vice-president for the first time in 47 years, announced Dr. Lowry in chapel this morning. Dr. Harold A. Daldzell, who has been serving as associatemember of the $270,000 Restoration Fund of the Presbyterian Church, U.S.A., since 1945, has accepted the invitation to act as vice-president in charge of financial affairs.

Dr. Daldzell will be the third man to act in this capacity for the college, and the first man to be appointed.

Dr. Lowry, upon his retirement in 1944 from the East College of Wooster, recommended that the position be created to assure the institution's financial success.

The executive position was established by a recommendation of the board of trustees, other than the fiscal office. The officers of the board of trustees will be called on to act in the absence of the president, and Daldzell will be second in command of the college.

Vice-President Daldzell was born in Dunmor, Iowa, and served in Pearl Harbor when 11 years of age. For two other graduate classes, Portland High School, he worked as an assistant in the laboratory and Clay Miller Co., then entered the University of Oregon in 1928, from which he received his A.B. degree.

After completing his course, Dr. Daldzell was awarded an honorary doctor of divinity degree from Debreze Catholic University.

In 1931, Dr. Daldzell became associate pastor of the Congregational Church in Chicago, where he had formerly served as a minister of the church.

Later he served as a pastor of churches and missions at the Shadrach Presbyterian Church, New York, and the Park Avenue Presbyterian Church of New York.

In 1948, he was called to his present position to act as executive secretary of the Board of Trustees of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America.

He has served as chairman of the committee for the board of directors for older boys and girls, and is a member of the board of governors of the Presbyterian Board of Missions.

Dr. Daldzell has been married for 37 years to Miss Evelyn Helen Lowry, with whom he has two children, one daughter, and one son.

Plan Christmas Formal
For December 10

The Seniors is bringing Terry Good ly of Antioch College to speak on the lower campus this afternoon.

At a later date, there will be a panel discussion on "The Right to Vote" and one of the lower campus.

It was agreed that no complimentary tickets should be given to female members for the benefit - event. December 10, as part of the program to honor bat

The selection, to go on sale at the same time tickets will be $1.35. Miss A. J. DeNardo and Vincent B. Lowry, who have been announced will be honored, have each been honored as the press of their honors, there will be no press present.

The cancellation of the formal meal scheduled for December was approved by female members and a substitution of a meal planned.

The dinner, to be held in the local chapel, the United World Fund, will be served by the Seniors, and passed on for local faculty appreciation.

On a news item from Jon Babich and Jon Wax, editors of the student directory, a present price of $17.63 has been made on this production with this to act as a new product to come in, and 124 directories were divided between the editors, the other half to go to the other new product.

An item on the directory's expenses, recommended that the board of directors present an estimate of financial needs for the coming year, and that the directors act responsible for remaining within the estimated income. It was recommended that estimates should be considered as set estimates. An estimate is to be kept in front of press squad regulations, and put the press on an estimated basis.

A student Activities Fund of $4 per student is to be set up, with an estimated of $4 per year for tournaments. For approval. Since expenses from last year totaled $3,816, it was suggested that a special student fund be set up.

Students request for a room with cooking facilities for informal dinner parties, was discussed. It was suggested that too many large, formal affairs were being held. Mr. J. A. A. M. Johnson, chairman of a committee to investigate further into the matter.

After The Wind
By Jack Bobbin

"Now," says the sergeant as he affixes an affective arm around your waist, "in case you get too tipsy tonight, take you over to the tailor for your new boots ok?"

If, or in fact, not that uniform's, it's a policy of the Army Public Relations officers why, by this time, have the public believing everything but the incoherence of the army, in the age of the press halls.

According to the ancient edition, the procedure is in pain as packing off to college, though there is, looking in such an analogy, a certain narrowness, at this time, it is only to design.

But with more and more men being drafted into the military, newspapers are finding it harder and harder to fill their columns, especially when the newspapers are as small as the columns of the old-school newspapers.

K. H., however, will probably stand out. From the angle of the other, the only prerequisite for this man has been two hands. And a few hours of your time, if you and the new sergeant are operating from a boarding house booklet. If not, rest hands.

But the new order of the day, "Make those uniform's fit!" Surprising no higher-water's change, no more shocked means because you keep on breaking on yourself, no more company punishment because your cap sinks over your eyes just as the general's "You see? Everything, everyone, happy and fully deben.

And duly.

Don'titude Me, But..."

Question: What do you think of instructing as Hunter System in Wooster?

"I think it would be a fine idea. The hunter system seems to be working for us." M. Chaffers. I think that if the students and the heads of the teachers together they're really to think it's only when the students show us that we lack of their respect of self and their respect to the system where our total financial support is also necessary." Views on the 'Voice'

Opinion polls aren't much in vogue since November 2, but the Voice is in an interesting and comprehensive one this week. The results are collected a few weeks ago, entitled "Voice in the News." We now have a "fair" estimate of campus opinion.

Mint interesting to use the resources to the question "What do you think of the new "The Voice"?" The major conclusion to be drawn from these is that the Voice is widely read and that the majority of students, upon reading it, are satisfied with the overall content and format.

We have been able to print true pictures of several events.

In my opinion, most of the students who use the Voice are satisfied with its overall content and format, and there is no serious problem with the writing and layout of the publication.

In addition to putting out a college paper for your information and entertainment, your Wooster Voice will be available in various forms, including a campus newspaper, a radio station, and a television station.

The Voice is not a weekly paper. It is a weekly publication, distributed on a monthly basis. The Voice is distributed to all students and faculty members on campus, and to alumni and friends of the university who have been added to the distribution list. Advertisements and subscriptions can be obtained by calling the office of the Wooster Voice.

This is a STUDENT publication, printed for all of you, written by students, and for students. It is an important aspect of the university's culture and spirit, and it is important that it continue to exist in a free and open environment.
Fresh Commerce Cage Drills As 18 Emmy Report

The call for freshman basketball practice resulted in the proper preparation two weeks earlier by Coach George Wittenberg. His men had bad men out trying to gain a spot on the season's squad for pre-season practice.

Using the main building at the gymnasium on Tuesday and Thursday nights, the team played practice games with exact man-to-man defense being practiced. The men are so charged around that each man goes to play against and with another man each time.

By using the specimen the manager believes that a player who wins and has had the number of baskets made by player in the same game will be allowed to make a point against the basket. The rules were drawn up and will be in effect for the next game.

The team now has a good basketball team that is not defeated and will compete against the number one team in the Southeast. The team is expected to do well in the N.C.S.C.A.A. tournament this season.

There is a definite basketball game between the Ohio State University and the University of Michigan on Saturday, November 10th, at 2:30 P.M. The game will be played in the St. John Arena in Columbus, Ohio. The Buckeyes have played several games this season and are expected to do well against the Wolverines. The game will be attended by a large crowd and will be a great way to start the basketball season for both teams.

Ninth Section Opens New House

With Faculty Reception

Ninth section officially inaugurated new house on East Avenue by welcoming President Lowery and the faculty at a reception and open house, November 12.

Guests were received by an informal reception made up of members of the faculty. After being shown the reception house, uncooked and punch were served to them. Music was provided by a trio of Dorothy Swan, June Tilton and Dave Lalibert.

The Ninth Section House, located at 6584 Avenue A, was occupied by the section before the war. During the war, the few remaining members had to move to Deer Park Avenue, but the house was leased out to a student. With the cooperation of the college administration, Ninth has now been able to move back into its original home.

A move near downtown faculty housing makes the reception house a center of social activities for the students, and an opportunity for them to meet other students in their class.
