

Let dreary winter be gone . . .

*Enjoy a glorious commencement weekend with old friends and new faces - with a place of memory, and a place of beginning. The soft spring air of the campus is shattered by the sound of air hammers and chain saws as the College enters a new decade. New framework rises and new plans take tangible shape.
One could do worse than be a part of an evolving Wooster in its second century.*
