No Attempt Made To Dictate Policy For All Campus

The student Senate made its final decision last night on the union or non-union band question. It was decided to try to get union music for its larger dance. The union music from Columbia is considered better, and the smaller enrollments of smaller bands its company.

After a fairly serious discussion on the question and from the students and from the band, the motion on the Senate "to get union music for its large dance, namely the Day's Dance, Homecoming, Christmas, Spring, Fall, Homecoming, and out for our own union music from Columbia," was defeated.

The meeting ended with the adoption of the by-laws that the by-laws of the George Edmunds. He announced that it was one's right to have a good band, and that he would not feel bound by the results of the poll, but would work as a guide in making their decision.

THE CHUCKWAGON

By Chuck William

Some of you may recall that in my last column I tried to put a firmer student body in order to get them behind us after their disappointing week of football.

It must be admitted that we have a very important team in the making of the Wooster gridiron, Mullen's mental as well as his physical training is an important part of his development.

His mental training is an important part of his development and a very important part of his development. His mental training is an important part of his development and a very important part of his development.
Theatre-In-The-Round Employs Greek Approach In ISP Play

by Gordon Wagner

It started as an adventure in education—independent study—for Marilyn Geith, and is ending up on Taylor Hall stage. And will you if you go to see "The Return of Peter Grimes" on Friday, December 9, for this will be theatre-in-the-round, where the audience (about 80 people) sits on the stage in a circle around the actors.

It was nothing new to the Greeks, but for us it will be, having only recently enjoyed a revival in the United States. However, this isn't a Greek Play; that would be too hard. "Lyci" Geith has adapted David Belasco's realistic stage play to his purpose.

There will be few properties and no
