Over the dissenting votes of three women senators, the Senate adopted the No-Flower rule that there will be no rose festival, also known as the Spring Festival. The Senate's decision was made in order to ensure away the suspicion that some men had that the dance was to be free except for the price of a costume. Third Retains Intramural Crown

Fifth Is Runner-Up; Bogey's Douglass III Also Gain Honors

by Bob Clark

Third Section swept an undefeated season and their second championship in as many years, to make it a close final week.

In the Trolley league, the Bogey's maintained a slender second-round margin to take the crown in that division. Douglass VIII had already won their title in the Freedman Loop, as their season ended two weeks ago.

Third bowed through this season just as they did last, although they played a majority of their games during the past four or five times this year. They gave close attention to the list, more than any "regular" with Fifth, and many of the same games. The squad of Bogey's, Curry, Kendall, Tunnel, and Ferry, with Sue Barch and Gail never covering a lot of action during the soliciting of Bogey's press, followed a formless array to all of their operations—one which was good enough to be called "champions."

Runner-up in the Kanyer Loop was Fifth, who lost only once, both games going to Third. Fifth entered a race in their closing game with an average, who ended up in the third place spot, winning by one point in the closing minutes of those last games.

Douglass VIII were undefeated until their final game, where they were handed the defeat by a score of 44-45. A few days later, however, they proved their strength by beating their only competitors in the league three times.

The final standings:

Fifth (VIII), who entered the season Haverstock, with his list, gave up his position. Present many more, many men coming in on the last game spot, with one point in the closing minutes of those last games.

Exchange Proposal Aroused Discussion
Four out of six Wooster students expressed a favorable attitude toward a proposal for a full exchange with Howard University, Negro. "Negro institutions are" was the title of the paper which presented the idea. The administration says that such a proposal would have to come from Howard University, as they have progressed farther than the idea now.

"It seems to me," replied Dave Brow, senior political science major, "that if such a plan is to work, it will have to come from the students. We'll have to have enough students interested in going to Howard each year to make the plan a success." Shauer Approved Senior government, Dave Shauer, says, "I think the West-of-Presbyterian students of the last few years have shown that the students of Negro institutions are interested in such a plan. In all probability Howard would need as much money as we would contribute much to our campus."

"I'd like to see intercollegial groups associated on campus," is the opinion of Bill Vogel, president of student-Faculty. Although in favor of this exchange plan, he would "rather see a plan through which more racial groups are served here by the existing two-year," Bill emphasized that such an exchange would present problems about income pool, scholarships and social clubs. "To get full benefit from their being here, we'll have to live with them. Then shall we let them continue during their stay here. Well, that's just one of the problems that would arise from this." Lee Wolkenberg, sophomore, president of campus-WOMC, believes, "It would be a step in the right direction. The Negro is an individual and going to school with Negro would impress this upon us.
