Sterne Surplus May Reach $1200 By Year’s End

With any kind of luck at all, the surplus should shoot up to $1200 in 1969 dollars by the end of the school year. This would mean a $700 increase over last year's $500 surplus. Although no one is completely sure about the surplus for this year, it is most likely to be around $700.

The surplus was estimated to be $500 last year, but the amount actually reached $700. This was due to a number of factors, including a decrease in the number of students and a decrease in the cost of materials. The surplus is used to fund various activities at the school, such as extracurricular programs and school trips.

In addition to the surplus, the school also receives funding from a number of other sources, including tuition, grants, and donations. These funds are used to support the educational programs and services offered by the school.

The school board is currently reviewing the budget for the upcoming year, and will make decisions about how to allocate the surplus funds. The board will consider the needs of the school and the goals of the administration in making these decisions.

Union Offers Deal on Dance Bands

In an attempt to get the College off of the “unfair” list of the Musicians Protective Association, H. A. Belson, secretary-treasurer of Local 139, Mansfield, has offered to guarantee all College organizations a summer orchestra at 75 dollars whenever a deal was made. All deals would have to be submitted to the union, however.

This offer for a minimum-priced band, a nominal guarantee, is a proposal made by Mr. Belson and President S. J. W. This guarantee is only for the small organizations, such as the Student Council, which cannot afford to hire a band for the season. Mr. Belson and President S. J. W. have signed the contract, which states that all guarantees will be wanted.

If this agreement went into effect, the bands would be able to command a minimum price of $250 to $300. This would be a considerable amount of money, and the bands would be able to help keep the college’s budget in order. The guarantee is only for the season, since the College has already paid in full for all guarantees for this season.

The written contract offered would be on a ten-day basis. A written contract would be signed for the first ten days, and then the guarantee would be paid in full for the remainder of the season.

The Senate made this recommendation together with three other recommendations to the President. These recommendations were made to help solve a number of problems that have arisen in the past year. One of these problems was the lack of a union, which has caused a number of problems.

In addition, there was one report at the meeting that suggested the President of the College, Arturo Cano, should consider forming a subcommittee of the College Board of Control in order to deal with this issue.

In conclusion, the Board of Control has recommended that the College offer a minimum guarantee of $250 to $300 for all bands. This guarantee is only for the season, since the College has already paid in full for all guarantees for this season.

Wooster Swimmers Edged By Kent, 40-35

Carl Munson’s swimmers lost by a touchoung yesterday afternoon in their attempt to come back over Kent State in the last five inches to defeat the Scots in their home pool, 40-35.

With a lead of 2-3-2, John Fontaine, Larry Price, Lee Fairclough, and Ken Leventhal of Munson were able to pull away from Kent’s three leaders that had been at the head of the race. Price, Fontaine, and Fairclough opened the way for the third Munson leader, Jim Cook. The race was won by the Scot’s third man that dropped out of the race.
