This Saturday's newscast will feature an interview with guest speaker Jane Doe, a prominent figure in the field of climate change. The interview will cover her research on renewable energy sources and the latest developments in sustainable technology.

The Voice staff will also discuss the recent increase in public awareness of environmental issues and the role that media can play in raising awareness and promoting solutions. The news will conclude with a segment on the upcoming Earth Day festivities, including information on local events and how to get involved.

Stay tuned for all the latest news and updates from The Voice.

Second, Third Lead Loop Both Boast 3-1 Records

Intramural softball has finally gotten under way this past week. The Kenton League again has both teams participating for the eleventh year. The Loop opened with a couple of games. The Loop, which has lacked of enough teams to form a trolley pool, is trying to absorb some of the Kenton teams to form an 11 squad circuit.

At the end of the first week of competition, it is a close race with three teams having been defeated at home once. Leading the league at the present time are the Allenaggne team who are unbeaten. They have won or tied five games. Ajax, led by Fourchon, and Broadway, led byExpressions, are tied for second place with one loss each. A close rear guard of the league is being formed by the Kentucke High, with their first game a 10 to 2 victory. Fourchon. Broadway, led by Expressions, are tied for second place with one loss each. Forchon, for one, is in the lead. The three victory lead is nothing new from this part of the league. Three victories was the high mark in the season of 1951, and this year, not only has the lead been in the league, but has been held for many weeks. Forchon, the only undefeated team in the league, is still in the lead. Their record is one, one, zero. This is a close race with three teams having been defeated at home once. Sections Vie For New Trophy
In Annual Spring Serenade Contest

Commenting many works of praise by the wise sections, the M.S.G.A., presents its annual Spring Serenade Contest Friday in the chapel at 7:30. With W. W. Brown as Master of Ceremonies, and Fred W. Richards, Mr. Richard Verret, and Mrs. Mary B. Godfrey as judges, each section will present their selections.

Since Third Section won the contest for the third time last year, a new impetus will be presented for this performance. The physical accomplishments of these three sections have been less than that of the First Section, but their turnout has increased with time. This year's section will keep it up for their last year and their turn is seen as next year's winner.

Jim states that many of the M.S.G.A.'s members are still active, and the three sections represented are due to turn over soon. The contest will be judged as to how well the group sang together, the organization of the group, and the vocal quality. Last spring the contest was won by Third Section, with French taking second, and Second winning a special prize for originality.

The order of the programs and the selections to be offered are:

Second Section - Leader, Jim Hughes, The Star Tail Dick, Biddles for Strings. Tuna laus de Wind.
First Section - Leader, Dan Belling, In the Still of the Night, The Long Lost Song. There is Nothing Like a Lover.
Second Section - Leader, Guy Morgan, Never Been Kissed. Let Me Be.
I Ain't Gonna Take It Sitting Down.

Fourth Section - Leader, George Bond, The Band, Make the Main, All the Things You Are.
Fifth Section - Leader, Dick Red, Years of Mr. Honest Voice, Battle Hymn of the Republic, When the Sun is Gone.
Sixth Section - Leader, Larry Klein, All the Things You Are, The Old Man's a Mamma, The Ball of Ivy.
Seventh Section - Leader, Clark McElvain, Liberal Education, Congratulations, Well Done, Long Ago and Far Away.
A Loving, Never Been Kissed.
Sixth Section - Leader, Dick Carson, The Fugue, Dry Bones, By the Light of the Silvery Moon. Sessions for the contest will be held at the door and are open to all those who wish representation.

When Third Copped Last Year's Trophy

MORE ON...

Baseball

In the first half of the season, most of the teams were running neck and neck, so a great deal of excitement was added to the Bobcat games.

The Bobcats have shown a great deal of improvement in the second half of the season and are now in a strong position to make the playoffs.

The last game of the season is scheduled for next week against the University of Texas. The game is expected to be a close one, and both teams are playing at their best.
