Dear dad

Started a letter to you yesterday but it was so interrupted that I am beginning over again. We got a cut in Greek this first period so that I will be able to finish this and get it off on the same mail.

Your last letter sounded good... I do hope there can be something done for this Agnes Fayer. You are sure that the money is not borrowed but given??? There is also another girl in our freshman class who is all alone in the world. She has neither parents nor money. She doesn't see how she can stay thru the next semester. She can borrow money from the college but she hated to do that. She has worked her way thru H.S. but of course college is different. To give you an idea of her keen wit and mind, I think she would make a wonderful lawyer. Tell Esther to tell you about Jene Butterworth. She is not going to be a missionary tho so I suppose there is no way to help her. She is a tiny girl, loved by every one and not strong enough for the life of a miss.. Her friends at home are helping her. However Agnes Fayer is going to be a missionary and needs it worse than Jene does now. Agnes belongs to a Pres. church in Blufton and Rev. King is the pastor. There would be no trouble to get recommendations because I know the circumstances. She is well acquainted with Prexie.

We are having revival services here in Wooster held by Bob Jones. The auditorium holds about 1500. I had a date coming home. Met Paul on the way home too, it was so funny.

Sat. afternoon we cleaned our room thoroughly and it looks just swell now. It seems as if every one has been up to see it since then. We arranged it differently too. Our new matron was here our nurse, some upper classmen and the DEAN and just loads of girls. They all just love this room but no more than we do. It is so homey and comfortable. Our new victrola is just wonderful but there is one more thing we desire. Boots got a special from home yesterday (She gets a special from her mother every Sunday) saying that they would send some good records this week. We have our vic. now and we want to have good music in our room. We are tired of jaz. Could you send us some of the records you are not using. I wish you would do that real soon. It would help the atmosphere of our room much ~~and~~ besides being nice for us. Must close this minute and rush to class

LOVE TO ALL
