When we first started to put this thing together, we weren't quite sure what we were doing. Now we're not sure what we have done. We had a lot of ideas about making this a resource book for the students on campus, but not all of them found their way into the book. We hope that whoever gets this next year will keep on trying!

This book's major purpose has always been to help people meet each other, which is a good idea, but a lot of times it is used to maintain sexist attitudes and other stereotypes. We tried to change these effects by changing the directory. We'd like to see this book develop to the point where it is no longer "The Pig Book" but into something more helpful for the entire campus.

The organizations in this book are by no means all there are on campus. They simply represent the responses we received to a request for people to write about their campus groups for inclusion in this book. That should help you figure out something about the ones that didn't respond.

The advertising, new this year, had two purposes. One, to give the student an idea of what sort of facilities are available in town, and two, to help us afford to expand this book without dropping the expense on the student body.

We attempted to print as close as we could to the word for word copy we received, both for groups and individuals. If we left out one of your interests, such as "cosmic consciousness" or "mud elephants", it was probably because there wasn't enough room. Sorry. Also for those of you who aren't in here---you were too late.

Have a good year--or don't, it's really up to you.

The Editors

P.S. Thanks, Schmader! (for what?)  K.R.

Campus Council is a decision-making body whose membership consists of students, faculty, and administrators. In the past, Council has included six students (the President and Vice-President of SGA, the Lowry Center Board Chairman, and three members-at-large), three faculty, and three administrators. However, due to student initiative, three members-at-large are to be added to Council this year, raising the student membership to nine.

Campus Council has the power to legislate in areas of student life, and to make recommendations to the President of the College, the Board of Trustees, the faculty, or any campus group or committee. Council also allocates its yearly budget to various campus organizations. The Student Government Association, Lowry Center Board, Publications Committee, Black Student Association, Wooster People's Party, National Organization for Women, International Student Association, and Wooster Christian Fellowship all received funds for the 1973-74 year from Council.

Campus Council is a forum for members of its three constituencies to express and debate ideas. Council meets weekly, and members of the college community are urged to attend and participate. Anyone may obtain a place on Council's agenda by contacting the Campus Council Chairman, Ron Wilcox.
The Student Government Association is the voice of the student body on campus. The legislative branch of the SGA is the General Assembly. General Assembly consists of representatives from all campus living units. General Assembly allocates the SGA budget, makes recommendations on campus life and other student concerns, and publishes Potpourri (the daily newsheet) and the freshman directory. SGA has financed the campus pub, multi-media shows, all-campus parties, anti-war demonstrations, and a myriad of other activities, as well as lobbying for greater student participation in campus decision-making. SGA also runs summer storage and end-of-the-quarter buses to Cleveland airport.

General Assembly meets weekly, and its meetings are open to any interested people. Students are urged to attend and participate in Assembly meetings. The Assembly is elected by living units in the Fall of each academic year. The executive branch of SGA, the Cabinet, is elected in the Spring of each year, in a campus-wide election. The members of the SGA Cabinet are:

President: John Kneen
Vice-President: Jack Bryar
Secretary: Pete Petrack
Treasurer: Dave Maloney
Campus-Council-Members-at-Large: Martha Boland
Bob Newman
Ron Wilcox
Lowry Center Board Chairman: Dave Miraldi

Members of the SGA Cabinet, with the exception of the secretary and treasurer, serve concurrently on Campus Council. Any student or organization may request money from SGA by submitting a written request to the SGA treasurer. Anyone may place an item on the General Assembly agenda by contacting the SGA president. The SGA offices are located in the basement of Lowry Center. The phone is extension 350. Feel free to call or stop in anytime.

The Wooster People's Party is a radical action group loosely affiliated with the national People's Party. The national party ran Dr. Benjamin Spock for President in the 1972 elections. The People's Party advocates "a program of action which will ensure for all people the full measure of political, social and economic justice which has been our nation's promise unfulfilled for two centuries."

We believe that in order to obtain this justice, and to enable themselves to live in a position of harmony with all humanity, people must take control of their own lives. On campus, the WPP has focused its activities toward obtaining the determinant power for students in the college decision-making process. We believe that the college can best serve as an educational institution if it accords its students a full role in the decision-making process—a role based on the democratic practices upon which this country was founded. The People's Party has channeled its efforts in this area primarily through Campus Council and the Student Government Association.

At the same time, the People's Party has organized activities around national issues—primarily American involvement in the Indochinese War. We have sponsored anti-war demonstrations, a literature center, a benefit for a Vietnamese hospital, speakers, and cultural events. This year we plan to sponsor a series of radical speakers, expand the literature center into a reading room, and become more involved in community affairs.

The Wooster People's Party rejects any hard-line political doctrine. Our politics are a blend of Gandhi and the Fugs, Ben Spock and Country Joe. Everyone is welcome to work with us on any projects. For more information, contact: Ned Adams, Martha Boland, Tom Burns, or George Metesky.
If the people at the bottom of the pile stopped grinning and let go, what would happen?
The Black Student Association membership is open to all Blacks and Third World students who attend the College of Wooster. Our programming is directed into three major areas: Political, Cultural, and Admissions.

Politically: We are active in dealing with the college campus and the surrounding community, insuring that Blacks are accorded full respect. We also try to make gains for the betterment of Blacks here on campus, as well as in this country.

Culturally: We are concerned with exposing our beautiful Black heritage and culture to the campus and community, and instilling pride within ourselves.

Admissions: We are active in helping the administration recruit Blacks and Third World students.

We are looking forward to your presence here at the college, and your joining our ranks.

Co-chairman: Larry Jones
Treasurer: Mike Tanner
Secretary: Katherine Young
The Wooster chapter of the National Organization for Women has a membership almost evenly divided between college women (students and faculty) and townswomen. The goal of NOW is to "bring women into full participation in the mainstream of American society...exercising all the privileges and responsibilities thereof in truly equal partnership with men." The Wooster chapter was formed in response to the need for women in this community to work together in a meaningful and effective way to achieve equal rights. Our activities include bringing speakers, programs, and films on feminist topics to the campus; actively lobbying for legislation which would affect women in general, such as the Equal Rights Amendment; initiating and encouraging women's studies courses and research projects to document the position of women in American society; attending and reporting on women's conferences at other colleges; and consciousness-raising. The larger group, which meets at least once a month, is divided into smaller working groups centered on such topics as: the image of women in the media; women and health; women and the law. These groups meet as often as they feel necessary. In addition, a small consciousness-raising rap group meets weekly to explore the effects of sex-stereotyping. Men are encouraged to attend and join. You do not need to be a dues-paying member of national NOW in order to actively participate in any of our activities. For further information, contact Sue Roberts, History Department.
Organization: Lowry Center Board is headed by a main chairman, who is appointed by a committee composed of the Lowry Center Director, Assistant Director of Lowry Center, two members of LCB, one student-at-large, and one non-student; the latter two are named by Campus Council. The chairmen of Entertain the Campus, Current Issues Committee, Recreation, Travel and Social, and the LCB secretary are elected by the student body. All other committee chairmen are appointed by a panel of LCB members, the Director of Lowry Center, and the Assistant Director of Lowry Center. Each year LCB runs a membership drive to fill up positions in each particular committee. The committee positions are open to all students. The student chooses the area of his or her interest, and works with the chairman in planning and running the various programs connected with that committee.

Lowry Center Board provides the campus with films, concerts, dances, speakers, and various other types of programs that strive to meet the needs of college students. LCB is a series of fourteen committees, with each committee responsible for one particular aspect of student programming. It is organized as follows:

Arts and Crafts: The ground level of Lowry Center and the basement of Holden Hall house the LCB Craft Center. The Crafts Center offers classes that meet once a week in the areas of macrame, weaving, candlemaking, ceramics, silver jewelry making, furniture refinishing and re-upholstery, children's workshop, and darkroom.

Art: Lining the walls of Lowry Center are rented or borrowed exhibits of art. It is this committee's responsibility to choose the exhibits, hang them, and return them.

Current Issues Committee: This committee brings in speakers, and sponsors politically oriented films. The topics range from the gas shortage to flying saucers to the American Indian culture.

Film: Offering a different movie each Friday and Saturday night, film committee presents recent box office films at reasonable rates (25¢, 50¢, 65¢).

Black Forum: The Black Forum Committee provides the campus with black speakers, musicians, and artists. It also works with the Black Student Association and plans special weeks and weekends aimed at providing black culture to the campus and to help recruit black students to the campus for the following year.

Entertain the Campus Committee (ETC): ETC is divided into two main areas—dance and mini-concerts.

Dance: This committee generally schedules three all-campus dances a quarter, which are free to the students.
Mini-Concerts: Up and coming, young acts are presented to the campus at the minimal price of 49¢ or 99¢, depending on the cost of the artists. These concerts are not limited to musicians. Plays, comedians, escape artists and the like find their way into the mini-concert series. It is important to mention that the ETC committee is in charge of organizing ticket sales, promotion, and physical set-up of big-name entertainment if and when promoters use the college as the site of their concert. ETC also brings spontaneous entertainment to the campus by providing talent for the students' enjoyment in the Lowry Center pit, and at dinner.

Special Events: Homecoming and Parent's Weekend come under the direction of this committee, which organizes these two events.

Recreation, Travel, and Social Committee: is divided into six smaller committees.

Travel: Travel Committee runs week-end trips to major cities, buses to concerts, special activities to baseball games, amusement parks, and spots of special interest.

Social: This is one committee that has no bounds to its programs. In the past, special courses such as Chinese cookery, auto mechanics, and sign language have been sponsored by this committee. However, activities such as spelling bees, card parties, faculty firesides, and bingo have also come through this committee.

Camping: Once or twice a quarter, the camping committee organizes a camping trip to sites in Ohio and Western Pennsylvania.

Skiing: This committee provides the services of getting group rates for students at local ski slopes. One day a week, a bus leaves from Lowry Center to a ski resort for an afternoon or evening of skiing. This committee also organizes a big ski-week in the west for students, over a vacation period.
Sailing: This club has nine boats, and a current membership of seventy students. Every Friday, Saturday, and Sunday (weather permitting), a car leaves from Lowry for a day of sailing at Charles Mill Lake.

Recreation: Sponsoring tournaments in the game room in the basement of Lowry Center takes up most of this committee's duties. It also sponsors outdoor activities such as bicycle races and kite contests.

Publicity Committee: Perhaps the most important committee on LCB, publicity makes sure that all activities are well-promoted, and that students know of them in time to plan their schedules. This committee makes banners, posters, hand-outs, t-shirts, radio broadcasts, and mailbox stuffings to insure proper publicity.
The men's intramural athletic program presents eleven different sports annually; included are football, basketball, volleyball, softball, bowling, golf, tennis, billiards, free throwing, table tennis and table games: chess, bridge and poker. Women are eligible for all non-contact sports. All students, employees of the college and administrators are eligible. Participation by section teams scores points toward the Intramural Traveling Trophy, symbolic of section intramural supremacy. Competition is usually at two levels: A and B League. The intramural program welcomes input from the college community on all facets of its operation. The intramural office is located on the floor of the new physical education center. We encourage participation by section members, independents and freshmen alike in the intramural program at the College of Wooster.

Director of Intramurals: Mike Beitzel
Student Director: Russ Phifer
Assistant Student Director: Win McCreary
All women students at the college are automatically members of the Women's Athletic Association. In the past, the W.A.A. was concerned with supporting intercollegiate sports as well as intramural activities. Now the Physical Education Department supports six varsity sports for women, and the W.A.A. can concentrate on providing a strong intramural program.

Some of the sports offered include: flag football, soccer, basketball, volleyball, co-ed volleyball, softball, tennis, and personal conditioning. Now that the W.A.A. has been relieved of the responsibility of financing several intercollegiate sports, the Association is eager to try new ideas—we are open to suggestions!

The W.A.A. has its own central room, located in the Armington Physical Education Center. The activities of the Association are co-ordinated in this room, and information will be readily available to any interested woman.

We hope the 1973-74 year will be as successful as past years have been, but success depends on participation. Therefore, we hope all women on campus will consider participating in some or all of the activities sponsored by the Women's Athletic Association. For more information, contact Pat Vittum.
The College of Wooster Newman Club is a loosely knit and informal organization of primarily Catholic students. It is administered by Father Elmer Marquard, with the assistance of student coordinators. Activities include weekend retreats, liturgy planning, and informal get-togethers. Newman provides students with fellowship, counseling, and spiritual guidance, and welcomes all students of the campus community. For further information, please contact Fr. Marquard (264-8822) or Don Fair Myers House, located opposite Mateer Hall and diagonally across from Hygeia, is a program house for the whole campus. The program is an outgrowth of what was formerly the Drug Referral and Education Center. The purpose of DREC was to help people handle drug-related problems, and to provide information about drugs. We now have expanded our services to deal with any problems college students may encounter—anything related to academics, sexuality, dorm living situations, etc. There are fourteen students living in the house, and they, together with others living throughout the campus, form the staff for the center, now located in Myers. Feel free to drop in anytime, or call extension 493, as there will always be someone there to talk to about anything from birth control to a drug crisis to conflicts with a roommate. Our resource library is available to anyone who wishes to use it.

Campus Girl Scouts is organized primarily as a resource center for troops in the Wooster area who need help with badges, projects, hikes, camping trips, or who want a regular aide to work with their troop. The members of the Campus Girl Scout group fulfill these needs. Occasionally, we participate in community and Council events. There is generally only one meeting each quarter.

Chairman for 1973-74: Karen Quilliam
Fourth Section (Phi Omega Sigma) is one of the social groups on campus and as such, we would like to wish the incoming Frosh a successful and fulfilling year. Fourth (A.K.A. the "Lizards") is the only co-ed fraternity on campus, and has been traditionally associated with the ultra-intellectuals at Wooster. However, any specific classification of Fourth is fairly fallacious. The interests and majors of the members are as varied as the number of members we have. The Lizards offer a number of interesting things to do during the year, limited only by imagination. We have a ping-pong table (and periodically hold tournaments) and a color TV, and these are available for everyone to use. If you're interested in getting to know some interesting people, or would like just to play a game of ping-pong, stop by the northern end (the end with the "IV") of Stevenson Hall, walk in, and we'll be glad to meet you.
WCWS is Wooster's Public Broadcasting service. WCWS is completely student managed and operated from Wishart Hall. We broadcast at 390 watts on a frequency of 92 megahertz with coverage of most of Wayne County. Our program schedule features a variety, including news, sports, educational programming, and rock, soul, jazz, and classical music. All members of the community are eligible to become staff members. The executive staff takes program requests three weeks before the end of each quarter for programs for the following quarter. The management then selects persons to do the programming on a basis of past performances of those who are already on the staff, and audition tapes from those persons who have not previously done programs. WCWS encourages all students to talk to our staff if you are at all interested in radio work. Even if you're not interested in air work, stop by and look at the station facilities on the second floor of Wishart. And don't forget to tune in WCWS FM-92 for all the best in Public Broadcast Radio.

Foreign students and American students who have lived abroad and are interested in foreign languages or international relations, live together in Babcock International House. A program committee plans international talk shows, cuisines, dances, discussions on foreign affairs, weekends with visiting AFS students, picnics, parties, etc.

Foreign students at the College of Wooster have formed the International Student Association. This association is interested in international affairs and international relations, and represents the foreign students at the College of Wooster. The ISA center is located in the basement of Babcock International House. For more information, contact Matt Tunon.

The Fall Quarter of 1973 will mark the beginning of "on the air" operation of The College of Wooster Amateur Radio Club. The club was created to expose the student body of the college to the excitement and adventure of national and international communication by way of "ham" radio.

Membership in the club is open to everyone in the campus community. Classes in International Morse Code and radio theory will be held during the course of the year to enable anyone interested in obtaining an F.C.C. "ham radio" license.

The college has purchased some of the finest amateur radio gear on the market today. The station equipment includes a Drake TR-4B tranceiver and a Mosely Classic 33 antenna. The station is located on the first floor of the north wing of Babcock International House. Anyone interested in the amateur radio club should contact either Jeff Moore or Craig Smucker, or drop in anytime to look over the station's operation.
ZEITGEIST is the college's student operated coffeehouse. Every Friday and Saturday night, Zeitgeist features entertainment and refreshments for the college community. Zeitgeist is located in the Church House basement (Mackey Hall) and is an excellent spot to get away from studies, relax, and listen to good music.

Kappa Theta Gamma, the local theatre honorary and a chapter of National Collegiate Players, recognizes dramatic talent and, more importantly, active involvement in theatre on campus.

Wooster Christian Fellowship is a group of believers in Jesus Christ, Son of God, seeking day by day to grow in the love and knowledge of God. Meetings are held on Wednesday nights with small Bible discussion groups meeting at various times during the week.

At present, there are four girls' social clubs on campus: TEK, Peanuts, KEZ, and EKO. Each is a unique group of girls involved in their club's fun and activities. Yet the clubs all work together too, on both social and service projects on campus. We hope the frosh women will be interested in becoming acquainted with these clubs and their members.

Students who have class conflicts at lunch time should contact the Food Service Office for special arrangements.

Unless special arrangements have been made with our catering department, dishes, glasses, silver, and other equipment cannot be taken from the dining area.
Reservations for dinner at the Wooster Inn will be accepted Monday through Friday during the academic year. These reservations must be placed at the Food Service Office (Ext. 358) by not later than 3 o'clock on the day of the dinner. A reduction of $1.10 will be made from the Inn's menu price for each student who has paid for board in College dining rooms.

The S.G.A. Student Service Committee, and Food Committee meet periodically with members of the Food Service Department. These representatives should present suggestions made by students regarding menus and service. These meetings give Food Service an opportunity to appraise the situation in each dining room and to adopt expressed student wishes whenever feasible.

Catering: The College welcomes opportunities to do catering for special functions. Orders for catering should be placed at the office of Food Service one week in advance of the function. This applies to all orders - paper goods, equipment, or food supplies. Box lunches will be prepared for groups leaving the campus for College sponsored activities, such as field trips, band, and various departmental events.

Guest Meal Tickets: Students often have members of their family or friends visit them on campus. Guest meal tickets are available. These tickets should be purchased prior to the meal from the front desk in Lowry Center. The guest ticket rates are:

WELCOME to the College of Wooster and to the Wooster Community. We sincerely hope you find this year a most memorable one. We invite you to become active in our community affairs as we will in those of your college.

We also invite you to stop into one of our banking offices and ask about our many services. Our Thrifti-Check checking accounts are designed especially for the student and its cost is under your control. We have many services that we hope you will take advantage of this year. If you find the need for financial assistance during your stay with us, please let us help. We have five offices to serve you with our Cleveland-Beall Office just north of the college campus.
