Senate Consider

NSA, Hop Costs, Color Day Rates

The decision followed the presentation of a list of commendations by Dean Macoy Underhill, chairman of a subcommittee to plan the trial run of the morning program. It was the duty of the subcommittee to make an impartial examination of the trial. The committee consisted of the members of the Senate, who were selected to attend the trial.

In the discussion, Bob Atwell pointed out that many of the students who were present were of the opinion that the faculty was opposed to the system, and there was some difficulty with it. Mr. Smith explained that the faculty had voted to adopt the system as proposed by the SFC without any reservations.

Atwell, Vie for Senate Post

A last minute decision by John Keitt to run for President of the Senate, brought Bob Atwell the chance to secure the nomination without opposition.

Until Tuesday noon, Atwell, a member of the Senate and member of the Student Christian Council, had been planning on being the candidate of the Student Union. Keitt is also a member of the Senate and comes from Madison, Wisconsin.

Two justices, both from West Virginia, are candidates for the Speakership of the Student Christian Council. Mark Allen, a member of the House, and Paul Hinton, a member of the House, are the two candidates. The two candidates are scheduled to meet in the gymnasium on Wednesday afternoon to determine which of the two will be the Speaker of the Senate.

The Senate has voted to make nominations for next year. Candidates for Speaker are: Ted Lincoln, Bill Macoy, Mark Allen, and Paul Hinton. The vote will be taken on June 10th, the last day of the Senate.

The Senate has voted to make nominations for next year. Candidates for Speaker are: Ted Lincoln, Bill Macoy, Mark Allen, and Paul Hinton. The vote will be taken on June 10th, the last day of the Senate.

SRFC Plans Evaluation Of Honor System Trial

Plans for a student-faculty group evaluation of the honor system were discussed by the Student Faculty Relations Committee at their meeting last Monday afternoon.

In other business, Dean Tanush reported that in response to the petition of faculty members, examinations could be taken by students at some other college, provided that the student bear the cost of purchasing, and that the test be taken in a reputable institution. He also reported that the faculty will discuss compulsory church attendance at their next meeting.

Mr. Smith concluded the discussion by saying that many members of the faculty preferred to be in another examination.
A Job Well Done...

"Two of the lead roles in the current Little Theatre production Berkeley Square are played by Betty Oosterlind and Bill McGrew, shown above in one of the scenes from the play."

Berkeley Square Phantom captures Fancy of Opening Night Audience

by Walt Wilks

Jumping barriers of time has always been a fascinating subject for playwrights. Berkeley Square, the tragedy of a man who falls in love in the wrong year, is appealing in its method of bringing two worlds together. This year's Berkeley Square is set in the very upper world of the Age of Elegance, an era of subtle and mysterious society, where the French opera and Napoleonic intrigue combined to make the glittering capital of Europe. Claire, the heroine, has been living in exile and is returning to England, where her former life appears all but a memory. Her beauty and talent have been praised, and her return is expected with much interest. She is reunited with her fiancé, the Duke of Marlborough, who has been away on a secret mission for the British government. Together, they navigate the complex social dynamics of the time and find themselves caught in a web of intrigue and romance.

The production was well-received by the audience, with Bill McGrew's portrayal of the Duke of Marlborough receiving particular praise for his charm and mannerisms, which brought a sense of historical authenticity to the stage. The set design was also praised for its attention to detail, bringing the grandeur of the Age of Elegance to life.

Wonderful Cooperation

Mr. Trabosh

May I express my deep appreciation for the generous support of the Community Chest in the Berkeley Square. Without their contribution, the Berkeley Square would not have been possible. The cooperation of the Community Chest has been invaluable in ensuring the success of the production.

The Berkeley Square performance was held at the College Theatre, and the audience was treated to a night filled with laughter, tears, and the remembered glories of the Age of Elegance.

Campus Gossip...

Mr. T. R.

An informal list last Friday night in honor of the basketball players members of the Section. Lower Bebbuk was the plan and several people were present.

Freshman Formal was last Saturday night. Members of the class were divided into groups, and each group was assigned a theme. The event was well-received, and the attendees enjoyed the festivities.

The meeting of the President Elect with the students was held on Friday evening. The students were given an opportunity to express their thoughts and opinions. The President Elect listened attentively and addressed the concerns of the students.

The second session of the President Elect with the students was held on Saturday afternoon. The students were given an opportunity to express their thoughts and opinions. The President Elect listened attentively and addressed the concerns of the students.
Dukes Up!

WOOSTER VOICE SPORTS

Trackmen Open At Cleveland

Golf. Tennis To Start Soon

As the season winds up at last in keeping up both the golf and tennis teams.

Coach Phil Smith is calling a meeting next Monday morning, at which the entire golf squad will be present.

Larry Price has three lettermen in his team, with one from last year, Dick Page and Dave Anger.

Price has three lettermen in his team, with one from last year, Dick Page and Dave Anger.

Squad Enters K of C Events Tonight; Ohio Conference Meets Tomorrow

With the winter sports season hardly forgotten, track and field men will enter competition this weekend in two big opening events. Although the squad is hardly rounded the recent event, Coach Carl Munson far from deciding who his regular season performers will be in many events, the squad will compete in the annual Knights of Columbus meet in Cleveland tonight, then go to Granville tomorrow for the Ohio Conference meet. The meet will be held in Denison University's million dollar field house.

At Cleveland the Scots will come against Wright State with big ratios in the track and field meet this will be an individual event, every man for himself, with no one given a start for any team against another. This meets the wish of the Wooster man will be a square entry, and will carry the name. The regular school only for identification purposes.

Among the limited number of men who will enter the K of C meet are Bill Prouty, running in the 25-yard dash; John Keist and Art Locoh, high and high hurdles; Dave Allison and Bill Hiles, 2-mile run; Prouty, Bob Anderson, John Bobin, and Fred McKracken, the mile relay; and Jim Wurter, pole vaults. Wurter, a man-

Seven Baseball Lettermen Return As Scots Begin Spring Training

With spring just around the corner, baseball coach John Swagert has his candidates working in the gym. Seven lettermen, five from last year's squad, other freshmen compose the group from which he will select a team.

IDEAL DAIRY MILK

REAL MILK

ICE CREAM

133 N. Bever St.

Beulah Bechtel Shop

Presses...

"SPRING SILHOUETTES" FASHION SHOW

-45-

Schine's Wooster Theatre

Wednesday, March 19th, at 8:45

BEULAH BECHTEL

PUBLIC SQUARE

"Appetite comes with eating... but thirst departs with drinking..."

Ralphie

You can lose thirst in a hurry with a bottle of ice-cold Coca-Cola that's sparkling refreshment.
Grads Make Wooster School of Presidents

Wooster is rapidly proving the College of Colleges with the appointments this semester of Dr. Russell Huston as president of Eastern Illinois University; Karl S. Upton, '49, as president of the University of Virginia; and Dr. Charles E. Provost, as president of the University of Illinois.

Many men who have set out to be presidents of colleges and universities have done so.

Dr. Jesse Barlow, San Francisco Theological Seminary; Dr. Arthur H. Congdon, Washington University, St. Louis; Dr. Charles R. Martin, Duke University; Dr. Edward D. Long, Furman University; Dr. Donald W. Miller, Curry College; Dr. Milton Wincewicz, Central College; and Dr. Robert D. McCord, Wooster College will be in Lake City.

Dr. Rand T. Coopman has stepped up from the presidency of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology in the direction of the corporation of M.I.T. Dr. Robert F. Finley, president of Hamilton College in New York, is now dean of the Chinese Language School at the University of California.

Dr. James H. Henry was the president of Villanova University, but has now assumed the direction of the Chinese Institute of the University of California. Dr. John A. Hofmann, '48, was president of the Medical College of the University of Nevada. Dr. Wilson Coopman served as president of Washington State College until recently. Dr. Frank J. Weig, '34, is president of Normal University in Ibadan, Nigeria.

The University of Nigeria in Ibadan is the first university to be formed in Africa and the executive director of the Chinese Language School is the president of the University.

Among the retired presidents are:

Dr. Harry M. Criswell, who has been president of Alma College and Linfield College; Dr. Lee, George Boyce, who served as president of three colleges; Ball State College; Earlham College; and President of the University of Alabama in Birmingham.

Dr. James W. Campbell, former president of the University of Wisconsin, who was engaged as executive secretary of the University of Wisconsin, will take over the presidency of Ripon College at the end of the year.

Dr. John H. Crabtree, former president of Mt. St. Mary's College, now teaches philosophy at the University of Wisconsin and is a Western union.

President and founder of the College of the Holy Cross was Dr. Reuben S. Brown, who graduated from Amherst College in 1864. Dr. Reuben S. Brown, served as president of the College in 1842, and ended his term as president of the College.

President and founder of the College of the Holy Cross was Dr. Reuben S. Brown, who graduated from Amherst College in 1864. Dr. Reuben S. Brown, served as president of the College in 1842, and ended his term as president of the College.

President and founder of the College of the Holy Cross was Dr. Reuben S. Brown, who graduated from Amherst College in 1864. Dr. Reuben S. Brown, served as president of the College in 1842, and ended his term as president of the College.

President and founder of the College of the Holy Cross was Dr. Reuben S. Brown, who graduated from Amherst College in 1864. Dr. Reuben S. Brown, served as president of the College in 1842, and ended his term as president of the College.

President and founder of the College of the Holy Cross was Dr. Reuben S. Brown, who graduated from Amherst College in 1864. Dr. Reuben S. Brown, served as president of the College in 1842, and ended his term as president of the College.

President and founder of the College of the Holy Cross was Dr. Reuben S. Brown, who graduated from Amherst College in 1864. Dr. Reuben S. Brown, served as president of the College in 1842, and ended his term as president of the College.

President and founder of the College of the Holy Cross was Dr. Reuben S. Brown, who graduated from Amherst College in 1864. Dr. Reuben S. Brown, served as president of the College in 1842, and ended his term as president of the College.

President and founder of the College of the Holy Cross was Dr. Reuben S. Brown, who graduated from Amherst College in 1864. Dr. Reuben S. Brown, served as president of the College in 1842, and ended his term as president of the College.

President and founder of the College of the Holy Cross was Dr. Reuben S. Brown, who graduated from Amherst College in 1864. Dr. Reuben S. Brown, served as president of the College in 1842, and ended his term as president of the College.

President and founder of the College of the Holy Cross was Dr. Reuben S. Brown, who graduated from Amherst College in 1864. Dr. Reuben S. Brown, served as president of the College in 1842, and ended his term as president of the College.

President and founder of the College of the Holy Cross was Dr. Reuben S. Brown, who graduated from Amherst College in 1864. Dr. Reuben S. Brown, served as president of the College in 1842, and ended his term as president of the College.

President and founder of the College of the Holy Cross was Dr. Reuben S. Brown, who graduated from Amherst College in 1864. Dr. Reuben S. Brown, served as president of the College in 1842, and ended his term as president of the College.

President and founder of the College of the Holy Cross was Dr. Reuben S. Brown, who graduated from Amherst College in 1864. Dr. Reuben S. Brown, served as president of the College in 1842, and ended his term as president of the College.

President and founder of the College of the Holy Cross was Dr. Reuben S. Brown, who graduated from Amherst College in 1864. Dr. Reuben S. Brown, served as president of the College in 1842, and ended his term as president of the College.

President and founder of the College of the Holy Cross was Dr. Reuben S. Brown, who graduated from Amherst College in 1864. Dr. Reuben S. Brown, served as president of the College in 1842, and ended his term as president of the College.

President and founder of the College of the Holy Cross was Dr. Reuben S. Brown, who graduated from Amherst College in 1864. Dr. Reuben S. Brown, served as president of the College in 1842, and ended his term as president of the College.

President and founder of the College of the Holy Cross was Dr. Reuben S. Brown, who graduated from Amherst College in 1864. Dr. Reuben S. Brown, served as president of the College in 1842, and ended his term as president of the College.

President and founder of the College of the Holy Cross was Dr. Reuben S. Brown, who graduated from Amherst College in 1864. Dr. Reuben S. Brown, served as president of the College in 1842, and ended his term as president of the College.

President and founder of the College of the Holy Cross was Dr. Reuben S. Brown, who graduated from Amherst College in 1864. Dr. Reuben S. Brown, served as president of the College in 1842, and ended his term as president of the College.

President and founder of the College of the Holy Cross was Dr. Reuben S. Brown, who graduated from Amherst College in 1864. Dr. Reuben S. Brown, served as president of the College in 1842, and ended his term as president of the College.