1-29-1953

The Wooster Voice (Wooster, OH), 1953-01-29

Wooster Voice Editors

Follow this and additional works at: https://openworks.wooster.edu/voice1951-1960

Recommended Citation
https://openworks.wooster.edu/voice1951-1960/41

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the "The Voice" Student Newspaper Collection at Open Works, a service of The College of Wooster Libraries. It has been accepted for inclusion in The Voice: 1951-1960 by an authorized administrator of Open Works. For more information, please contact openworks@wooster.edu.
COLLEGE AWARDED $43,500 FALK GRANT

Three Year Gift Funds New Institute Of Politics

Antouncement was made this afternoon of a $43,500 grant to the College from the Edgar F. Falk Foundation of Pitts-burgh, Pa. The grant is designed to finance the establishment and operation of an Institute of Politics for a period of three years.

"United Europe" is
IRC Series Topic
Second Semester

"United Europe" is the subject chosen for the International Relations Club program series for the second semester. The attitude of England, France, Germany, the Benelux countries and the United States toward a United Europe will be discussed in this quarter. The first session will be held in the Amoskeag Room of the College at 8:00 p.m. on Thursday, Feb. 11, at 8:30 p.m. in lower Rober-Envelopes will be served at 6:30 p.m.

United Europe represents one of the most vital topics of international discussion during the present phase of the cold war. The organization feels that an understanding of the history and political situation in various countries is imperative for attempts to ease current tension.

Guille Participates In Lecture Series For Europe Tours

Miss Guille, associate professor of French, will participate in the special lecture program of the American Council for the navy of this summer. Students from 21 to 25 years of age are eligible for the "nip-trip which includes air transportation to the Mediterranean, Italy, Austria, and France, and by sea to the United States. England, Switzerland, Germany, Austria, and Italy. The tour will leave New York on July 1 and will spend nine weeks in Europe. Miss Guille will lecture at the universities and will participate in international meetings, faculty and ad- ministrative meetings and social functions.

Readers Digest Selects Wooster For Scholarship

President Howard E. Lowry of the Readers Digest has been invited to participate in the annual scholarship competition with college, Feb. 5. The general scholarship competition for the New World's Best Essay, "Astronomy-Mind-A Challenge to Humanity" was held in the Readers Digest on the campus of the Readers Digest. The college is selected from those submitted by participating colleges. Manuscripts for the competition should be submitted to the Readers Digest, 500 Fifth Avenue, New York 36, N. Y.

Other members of the forum will be Associate Professor William A. Simon, Director of Research at the University of California; President Stevens of the College; and Professor Michael J. McEwen, author of "The South Pacific," a recent international best seller. The forum will be held in the Amoskeag Room of the College at 8:00 p.m. on Wednesday, Feb. 29.

To Those Who Are About To Die

We Salute You

WOOSTER, OHIO, THURSDAY, JANUARY 29, 1953

No. 10

Clerk: Mr. Interior and Hattie Red- will replace Marion Harper and will live in the SMAC on th Wednesday afternoon of a $43,500 grant to the College from the Edgar F. Falk Foundation of Pittsburgh, Pa. The grant is designed to finance the establishment and operation of an Institute of Politics for a period of three years.

"United Europe" is the subject chosen for the International Relations Club program series for the second semester. The attitude of England, France, Germany, the Benelux countries and the United States toward a United Europe will be discussed in this quarter. The first session will be held in the Amoskeag Room of the College at 8:00 p.m. on Thursday, Feb. 11, at 8:30 p.m. in lower Rober-Envelopes will be served at 6:30 p.m.

United Europe represents one of the most vital topics of international discussion during the present phase of the cold war. The organization feels that an understanding of the history and political situation in various countries is imperative for attempts to ease current tension.

Guille Participates In Lecture Series For Europe Tours

Miss Guille, associate professor of French, will participate in the special lecture program of the American Council for the navy of this summer. Students from 21 to 25 years of age are eligible for the "nip-trip which includes air transportation to the Mediterranean, Italy, Austria, and France, and by sea to the United States. England, Switzerland, Germany, Austria, and Italy. The tour will leave New York on July 1 and will spend nine weeks in Europe. Miss Guille will lecture at the universities and will participate in international meetings, faculty and ad- ministrative meetings and social functions.

Readers Digest Selects Wooster For Scholarship

President Howard E. Lowry of the Readers Digest has been invited to participate in the annual scholarship competition with college, Feb. 5. The general scholarship competition for the New World's Best Essay, "Astronomy-Mind-A Challenge to Humanity" was held in the Readers Digest on the campus of the Readers Digest. The college is selected from those submitted by participating colleges. Manuscripts for the competition should be submitted to the Readers Digest, 500 Fifth Avenue, New York 36, N. Y.

Other members of the forum will be Associate Professor William A. Simon, Director of Research at the University of California; President Stevens of the College; and Professor Michael J. McEwen, author of "The South Pacific," a recent international best seller. The forum will be held in the Amoskeag Room of the College at 8:00 p.m. on Wednesday, Feb. 29.

To Those Who Are About To Die

We Salute You

WOOSTER, OHIO, THURSDAY, JANUARY 29, 1953

No. 10

Clerk: Mr. Interior and Hattie Red- will replace Marion Harper and will live in the SMAC on th Wednesday afternoon of a $43,500 grant to the College from the Edgar Falk Foundation of Pittsburgh, Pa. The grant is designed to finance the establishment and operation of an Institute of Politics for a period of three years.

"United Europe" is the subject chosen for the International Relations Club program series for the second semester. The attitude of England, France, Germany, the Benelux countries and the United States toward a United Europe will be discussed in this quarter. The first session will be held in the Amoskeag Room of the College at 8:00 p.m. on Thursday, Feb. 11, at 8:30 p.m. in lower Rober-Envelopes will be served at 6:30 p.m.

United Europe represents one of the most vital topics of international discussion during the present phase of the cold war. The organization feels that an understanding of the history and political situation in various countries is imperative for attempts to ease current tension.

Guille Participates In Lecture Series For Europe Tours

Miss Guille, associate professor of French, will participate in the special lecture program of the American Council for the navy of this summer. Students from 21 to 25 years of age are eligible for the "nip-trip which includes air transportation to the Mediterranean, Italy, Austria, and France, and by sea to the United States. England, Switzerland, Germany, Austria, and Italy. The tour will leave New York on July 1 and will spend nine weeks in Europe. Miss Guille will lecture at the universities and will participate in international meetings, faculty and ad- ministrative meetings and social functions.

Readers Digest Selects Wooster For Scholarship

President Howard E. Lowry of the Readers Digest has been invited to participate in the annual scholarship competition with college, Feb. 5. The general scholarship competition for the New World's Best Essay, "Astronomy-Mind-A Challenge to Humanity" was held in the Readers Digest on the campus of the Readers Digest. The college is selected from those submitted by participating colleges. Manuscripts for the competition should be submitted to the Readers Digest, 500 Fifth Avenue, New York 36, N. Y.

Other members of the forum will be Associate Professor William A. Simon, Director of Research at the University of California; President Stevens of the College; and Professor Michael J. McEwen, author of "The South Pacific," a recent international best seller. The forum will be held in the Amoskeag Room of the College at 8:00 p.m. on Wednesday, Feb. 29.

To Those Who Are About To Die

We Salute You

WOOSTER, OHIO, THURSDAY, JANUARY 29, 1953

No. 10

Clerk: Mr. Interior and Hattie Red- will replace Marion Harper and will live in the SMAC on th Wednesday afternoon of a $43,500 grant to the College from the Edgar Falk Foundation of Pittsburgh, Pa. The grant is designed to finance the establishment and operation of an Institute of Politics for a period of three years.

"United Europe" is the subject chosen for the International Relations Club program series for the second semester. The attitude of England, France, Germany, the Benelux countries and the United States toward a United Europe will be discussed in this quarter. The first session will be held in the Amoskeag Room of the College at 8:00 p.m. on Thursday, Feb. 11, at 8:30 p.m. in lower Rober-Envelopes will be served at 6:30 p.m.

United Europe represents one of the most vital topics of international discussion during the present phase of the cold war. The organization feels that an understanding of the history and political situation in various countries is imperative for attempts to ease current tension.

Guille Participates In Lecture Series For Europe Tours

Miss Guille, associate professor of French, will participate in the special lecture program of the American Council for the navy of this summer. Students from 21 to 25 years of age are eligible for the "nip-trip which includes air transportation to the Mediterranean, Italy, Austria, and France, and by sea to the United States. England, Switzerland, Germany, Austria, and Italy. The tour will leave New York on July 1 and will spend nine weeks in Europe. Miss Guille will lecture at the universities and will participate in international meetings, faculty and ad- ministrative meetings and social functions.

Readers Digest Selects Wooster For Scholarship

President Howard E. Lowry of the Readers Digest has been invited to participate in the annual scholarship competition with college, Feb. 5. The general scholarship competition for the New World's Best Essay, "Astronomy-Mind-A Challenge to Humanity" was held in the Readers Digest on the campus of the Readers Digest. The college is selected from those submitted by participating colleges. Manuscripts for the competition should be submitted to the Readers Digest, 500 Fifth Avenue, New York 36, N. Y.

Other members of the forum will be Associate Professor William A. Simon, Director of Research at the University of California; President Stevens of the College; and Professor Michael J. McEwen, author of "The South Pacific," a recent international best seller. The forum will be held in the Amoskeag Room of the College at 8:00 p.m. on Wednesday, Feb. 29.
Bonk’s Shoe Store
157 W. LIBERTY STREET

Selling Out
All Overstocked Men’s, Women’s & Children’s Shoes & Rubber Footwear

SUPER SPECIALS OFFERED DAILY — WHATSOEVER YOU DO — DON’T MISS THIS SALE

BUY FOR NOW! BUY FOR NEXT SPRING—BUY FOR MONTHS TO COME! — SAVINGS BEYOND YOUR FONDEST DREAMS

PREPARE FOR HELL WEEK!
FLASHLIGHTS — BATTERIES — BULBS
WIRE — STRING — SCISSORS
PAINT — BRUSHES — PLEASERS
EXTENSION CORDS — PORTABLE RADIOS
COMBINATION LOCKS
GENERAL HARDWARE

IMHOFF & LONG CO.
WESTINGHOUSE STORE
140 E. LIBERTY STREET, Hornell and Hector

 other . . . voices
by Pat Moreno

Now that semester examination and vacation are over, here’s a thought for those who aren’t too pleased with their grades and those who are delighted with theirs.

New England
Now is the time to meet our neighbors. For a few dollars we can purchase a ticket to any New England city, as far as Boston or New York, and on the return trip we can establish friendship with another traveler.

Boston Opera Ballet
Dear Miss Sergeant:
I am writing to express my appreciation for your kindness and hospitality during my recent visit to your city.

The Ankon School
Here’s another question for you.

Dudley Stebbins

VALENTINES
HUMORISTTalks on Valentine’s Day
THE GIFT CORNER
SOUTHWEST CORNER PUBLIC SQUARE

START THE NEW SEMESTER RIGHT

“THE POINT” SATISFYING — COMMERCIAL MEALS AND SNACKS

THE POINT
RESTAURANT AND DONUT SHOP
ENTRANCES ON CLEVELAND AND EAGLE

LOVERS ONLY
FOR THAT EXTRA SPECIAL SOMETHING FOR THAT EXTRA SPECIAL DAY WE HAVE LOTS OF “LOVIE” RECORDS BOTH 45 AND LONG PLAY.

VALENTINE SPECIALS
PANO LANA’S—“BECAUSE YOU’RE MINE”
Cole Porter’s — “Bye Bye Blues”

Paul Weston’s — “Melodies for Sentimental Mood”
Hundreds of Others

THE WOOSTER MUSIC CENTER
Public Square
WOOSTER, OHIO

WOOSTER THEATRE
Beren Himan
Ralph Mecnic in “SOMEBODY LOVES ME” — and —
John Payne in “BLAZING FOREST”
SUN. — MON.
Jane Russell in “MOUNTAIN BELLE” — and — “THUNDERBIRDS”

WOOSTER THEATRE

Beautiful diamond rings need not be expensive!

“Johie”, an original design with carefully selected brilliant diamonds — GreatTempered mountings that assure a lifetime of faithful wear. Here is timeless quality and craftsmanship — priced to suit the pocketbook of the most modest budget. From $100 the set. Available in white or yellow gold.

SHIBELY & HUDGSON JEWELERS west of square
OLIN & MARGARET Pritchard, Owners