WELCOME!!

We'd like to take this opportunity to welcome you to The Land of Woo and to the New Student Directory. Both of which you have been hearing so much about. We have worked long and hard to get this finished and we'd like to take the time to thank some of the people who helped make this book possible: Sue Friedman and Sylvia Young, our advisors; Mimi Lewellen, Admissions Office; Kristy Bender, our cover artist; Jennifer Belmont, President of SGA (without her, we wouldn't have had any money!); Kevin Wilkin and Elizabeth Smith, our dear friends who put up with our zaniness, the incredible mounds of pictures and paperwork all over the floors, and the late nights of typing; and the nifty people over at Collier Printing. Thank you all!!

We hope that you enjoy the New Student Directory as much as we have enjoyed putting it together. So now, just sit back and enjoy the ride. And, please, remember to keep your hands inside at all times and to wait until the ride has come to a complete stop before exiting!

HOW NOT TO LOOK LIKE A FIRST YEAR STUDENT

  - Memorize your schedule
  - Pronounce Beall Avenue as Bell Avenue
  - Pronounce Bever Street as Beaver Street
  - Ask your favorite administrator out to lunch
  - Read your Scot's Key
  - Question the architecture of McGaw Chapel
  - Smile and wave at the Lowry front desk attendant
  - Recycle. It's cool.
  - Familiarize yourself with the Kauke arch snow tradition
- DON'T:
- Carry ALL your books to class
  - Drop a tray in Lowry dining hall
  - Carry your campus map with you
  - Carry a purse
  - Walk in groups of seven or more
  - Expect snow days
  - Expect it to stop raining
  - Let anyone know you've been reading your Scot's Key
  - Walk out of the library with books that have not been checked out
  - Believe everything upperclass students tell you

Parents of The Class of '93 don't know . . .

I sleep in my room with the light on so they think I'm studying Economics.
How much I cut class (Calculus & AP Biology) and hid my deficiency slips and tests.
I have a hidden side to me that only my closest friends see.
I love to party and have a good time!
I'll be living under the Open Visitation policy.
I won't be keeping my room at Woo very neat.
Who are we kidding??
To avoid a murder rap, I'll rather not answer this question.
While they were in Florida I had a wild party complete with Jacuzzi activities.
I've been to Europe and back 3 times.
I skipped school to go water skiing at my cottage.
While on our Progressive dinner, I broke a chair at our Headmaster's house.
When I was 14 I took the "family car" out for the night when they were out.
I . . . I . . . I can't tell you.
I took full advantage of the absence of a drinking age while in West Germany.
They don't know that I smoke.
Their children actually do grow up.
I am proud of them & love them.
I don't ever want to declare a major!
I took a nap in a local cemetery then went to a swim party instead of school.
Like the time we . . . with . . . and . . . without getting caught.
I used to smoke like a fiend!
Remember all those trips to the library? I don't think I know where the library is.
I almost was not accepted to college.
NO WAY!!
When I feel really rebellious, I like to park in handicapped parking spaces after midnight.
I HATE getting socks every year for Christmas!!
There's too much to tell!
The party I had when they were in Indiana, the strip poker games and the skinny dipping.
In 7th grade I hit a police car with a rotten banana.
I am a member of the Wire Train Fan Club.
I secretly despise the license plates on the front of my parent's car.
I once carried my backpack on both shoulders.
If it weren't for my ears, I'd get a mowhawk.
When I was 8, I accidentally walked in on my parents having sex.
I have a tattoo of a lion on my left butt cheek.
In 25 words or less? HA!
I used to feed the dog my veggies during dinner.
I want to be a Solid Gold dancer.
I tore off a "It is unlawful to remove this tag from the mattress" sticker.
. . . that I'm going to school in Ohio.
During my first flying lesson I flew less than 15 ft. away from a 747.
I have kissed a girl.

WOOSTER LOVE SONG

Alma Mater

by Ralph E. Plumer, '06

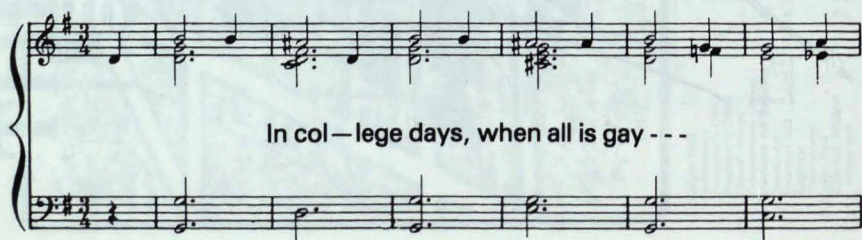

In college days, when all is gay
And life but at the start
There comes to each a love supreme
Awakening in the heart;

And when we ask "What is this love,
This first love fond and true?"
From many hearts the answer rings,
Tis dear old Wooster U.

To Wooster U;
Our Wooster U.
Out in the world may we prove true
Ever remembering,
never forgetting
Our love for you, dear Wooster U.

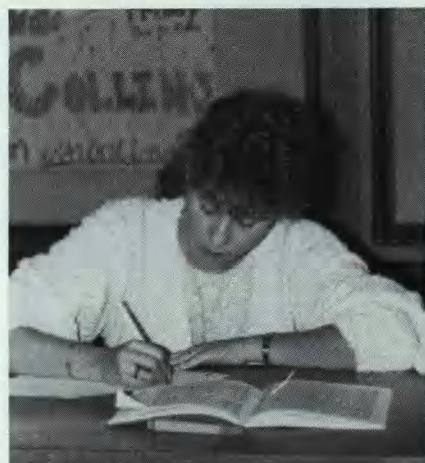

Old Wooster and its memories
Will come to us each day
And life with all its joys and cares
Can never drive these away
The profs and prexy, campus, halls,
Our friendship, staunch and true
All center round our first great love,
Our dear old Wooster U.

To Wooster U;
Our Wooster U.
Out in the world may we prove true
Ever remembering,
never forgetting
Our love for you, dear Wooster U.
