CLASS OF 1996

The College of Wooster
Welcome Class of 1996 and all new students!

I have to first thank my friends at Wooster for encouraging me to put together this “Baby Book,” and my friends from home for offering their opinions and ideas. I also want to thank Michelle and Robin from The Collier Printing Company, Mimi Lewellen in Admissions, Tom Karpf and Teg Smith for their artwork, and to all of the advertisers who helped cover the costs for the production of this Directory. More thanks goes to my family (and Alex) who supported and helped me with the book, and to the mailman who is glad (after 300+ letters) that this whole thing is over!

Welcome to your new home everyone. Good luck to all of you and enjoy your days at Wooster.

<tr>
<td>Abbie Chapin</td>
<td>West Chester, PA</td>
<td>After working at a camp for mentally handicapped people, I find that my high energy level makes me unique.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Alanna Mussawir</td>
<td>Philadelphia, PA</td>
<td>I enjoy colorful things, African-American history, chemistry, science, I love to talk on the phone, and be with my boyfriend. I think my militant outlook on life and society makes me unique in a very positive way.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Adam Mellor</td>
<td>Zanesville, OH</td>
<td>I enjoy debating, weightlifting, playing cards and relaxing. I am my own person - not a &quot;plastic&quot; individual who molds to the norm. I would be Dan Quayle for a day so I could get paid to do nothing.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Alex Johnson</td>
<td>Wooster, OH</td>
<td>Basketball, baseball, collecting baseball cards, Nintendo playing, golfing. My sense of humor is unique. I would be myself. I don't want to be anyone else.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Aditya Rege</td>
<td>Bombay, India</td>
<td>Theatre (I act professionally on Bombay stage), sports, music, pretty girls. My Aquiline nose, my pathetic sense of humor and a ridiculous notion that I can sing well make me unique. The first time I sang, my parents nearly disowned me.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Alex Leroi Zaitchik</td>
<td>Natick, MA</td>
<td>Groovy sounds, funky ideas and fine women! DNA makes me unique. I would be myself, a long time ago, so I could change my response to this question.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Alan Troup</td>
<td>Murrysville, PA</td>
<td>I enjoy tennis, basketball, wilderness activities, camping, repelling, golf and tennis. I collect rocks, minerals, baseball cards and souvenirs of my travels. I'd be Michael Jordan. He has the power to touch so many people's lives, especially children.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Ali Faisal Yasin</td>
<td>Lahore, Pakistan</td>
<td>My interests include physics and the performing arts. Debating being foremost in the latter category. Reading a good book with music on and lots of junk food is my favorite hobby.</td>

Amy Shea Elkavich
Manchester, NH
Miss Hall’s School
Tennis, skiing, reading, gardening, music.

Amanda Lee Junkin
Solon, OH
Solon HS
I love dancing, reading, and listening to my favorite rock band U2. I believe in doing my own thing. I don't just go with the flow. I'd like to be the doctor who discovers the cure for AIDS so I could make a lasting contribution to mankind.

Amy Menk
Poland, OH
Poland Seminary
Skiing, reading, camping, painting. My feet make me unique. Life is too short to spend it wanting to be someone else.

Amy Elizabeth Beilstein
Mansfield, OH
Mansfield Senior High
I like to spend my time playing the flute, gardening and listening to music. I also like to be involved in my church youth group. The quality that distinguishes me from others my age is my faith in God. I have higher morals than most people my age.

Amy Salvato
Cincinnati, OH
Princeton HS
I have natural red hair. I would be my cat – he leads a very relaxing life.
Amy Stillwagon
Ann Arbor, MI
Pioneer
I love to watch and participate in all kinds of sports. Listening and collecting CD's is also a passion of mine. But most of all, I love going out with my friends and doing things spontaneously.

Andrea Reinhart
Roseville, MN
Roseville Area HS
I live for tennis and food. If I'm not out on the court you can be sure that I'm not far from the Fritos.

Amy E. Triplett
Pittsburgh, PA
Mt. Lebanon HS
My interests include music, I was in marching and concert band, reading, needlework, nature walks, and miniature golf. I'm also active with various volunteer work.

Andrew Cronin

Andrea DeCeilio
Fredonia, NY
Fredonia HS
Tell me something really funny or give me a lilly pad and you'll find out what's unique about me.

Anita Lee Mitchell
Sidney, OH
Sidney HS
If I could be anyone, I wouldn't be another person, but an animal. That way I could know how they think.
Anne C. Marquardt
Mansfield, OH
Lexington HS

Skiing, windsurfing, sailing, tennis, jogging, mountain biking, horseback riding, playing violin, reading, and amazingly (after all these years) studying! I'd like to be a terminally ill child so that I could better understand and someday help similar children.

Ben Wachs
West Lafayette, IN West Lafayette HS

I enjoy giving long, detailed responses to questions about my hobbies and interests. My uniqueness makes me unique. I would be Elvis for a day in order to see whether I'm dead or not.

Anneli Våxmo
Norrköping, Sweden
Ebersteinska skolan

I have taken piano and song lessons for nine years. My friends and I use to sing at parties and concerts. I also like sports. I am positive and creative. I would be a famous ballerina performing the ballet to the "Fire Bird" by Stravinski.

Benjamin B. Haskell
Winchester, MA
Winchester HS

My interests are the arts (fine arts - painting, etc.), playing ultimate frisbee, riding my bike, and listening to music. I'd be Pablo Picasso so I could experience the mind and actions of one of the greatest artists ever to create.

April Elsea
Findlay, OH
Findlay HS

I am interested in writing, reading, playing piano and jogging. I'd be a penguin because they are so cute and carefree! They waddle everywhere, jump in the water and waddle again! It would be fun.

Benjamin Wolski
Lower Gwynedd, PA
George School

Trumpet, piano, tennis, football, jazz, science. People always find some "God forsaken" nickname that fits my personality. I'd be Indiana Jones - I only wish my life was that perfect.

Augusta Ferguson
Charlotte, NC
Myers Park HS

Tennis, soccer, bowling, skiing, photography, traveling, roller blading, jewelry making, sky diving, gardening. I'd be Georgia O'Keeffe because she was independent and lived her life the way she wanted, and set a good example for women today.

Betsy Titler
Madison, OH
Madison HS

Dancing, going out with friends, cheerleading, church youth group, dance and tap, ballet, jazz and lyrical all at competitive levels. I'd be Princess Di to see what it would be like to live in the public eye and to have all the attention.
Bill Taylor
LeRoy, NJ
LeRoy HS
I like golf, tennis, basketball, bowling, singing, listening to music, reading, sleeping, Mountain Dew and popcorn.

Bridget Drury
Wheeling, WV
Wheeling Park HS
I would be the character Lucy from the "Chronicles of Narnia" because I would like to have all of the adventures she had.

Bill Ping Xie
Pittsburgh, PA
Peabody HS
I'm interested in various things. From Karate, martial art, and fencing to dancing and debate. I'm also interested in comparing different religions. My hobby is the art of argucy (fortune telling). Most of my life is an odd ball case.

Bridget Marie Gamby
Upper Sandusky, OH
Upper Sandusky HS
I like to play volleyball, soccer or any kind of sports, except basketball - I am terrible at basketball. I also like to read and listen to music of any kind.

Brian Hewitt
Fredericksburg, OH
Waynedale HS
Football, baseball, basketball, tennis, baseball card collecting.

Brijin Boddy
Elyria, OH
Elyria HS
Playing volleyball and singing. My name is an indicator of my unique personality. I have a totally logical outlook on life that makes me different.

Brian Kaplan
Gaithersburg, MD
Quince Orchard
Tennis, basketball, weightlifting, and jazz band (trumpet). My sensitivity and willingness to help people make me unique. I'd be a trauma physician specializing in Pediatrics. I've always wanted to be a doctor and I enjoy working with children.

Brooke Johnson
Edina, MN
Edina HS
My interests are doing things with kids and studying people's minds. My laugh and my sense of humor are unique. I would be Pebbles from "Flinstones" because she has nothing to worry about and just has fun.
Bryan Koepp
Lorain, OH
Lorain Catholic HS
I have many interests and hobbies, but my favorite is running. Man, do I love to run. My red, curly hair makes me unique because it glows like the sunshine and has as many curls as a coaster. Like Mike, I wanna be like Mike.

Caroline Starr Saum
Chevy Chase, MD
Bethesda-Chevy Chase HS
I'm interested in history, drama and Russian. I do aerobics for exercise. I love playing childish games and I'm awesome in a water gun fight.

Caitlin Dill
Chapel Hill, NC
Chapel Hill HS
Swimming, photography, dancing. What makes me unique? I survived Spanish, barely. I'd be Michael Jordan. I would love to be able to play basketball that well and be able to jump that high.

Carolyn E. Winemiller
West Milton, OH
Milton-Union HS
I have a fickle lucky star - an over active imagination.

Carmine Vincenzo
Cleveland, OH
St. Ignatius
I like to write and enjoy life. I like sports and music. I also like talking to people, and getting to know them.

Carrie Young
Kent, OH
Theodore Roosevelt HS
I like new things, to try things that are daring and sometimes stupid. I love the outdoors, to read, to write, to talk to people and to have fun. I have always wanted to be a bird, for a day, so that I could fly.

Caroline Gray
Dedham, MA
Kents Hill School
Field hockey, sailing, hiking, running, music, environmental issues, and community service.

Chad Brintnall
East Grand Rapids, MI
East Grand Rapids HS
I love all sports - baseball especially. I also like to hunt, fish, and spend time at my cottage in Northern Michigan.
Charles Hansen
Strongsville, OH
Strongsville HS
I enjoy sports and outdoor activities although I also like to read and relax. I am "a jack of all trades, but master of none." I do many things reasonably well but I will never be able to master any.

Charlotte M. Chenot
Towanda, PA
Towanda Area HS
Horseback riding, running, skiing, ballet, swimming, ice skating, sledding, singing, traveling, camping, French horn, piano, country air, snow, dancing, laughing, animals, music, and cards. Santa Claus - because he brings happiness to everyone.

Chris Seibert
Ridgefield, CT
St. Lukes
I like playing all sports, my favorites are soccer, football, tennis and basketball. I like listening to music, hard rock, heavy metal, and top 40. I'd like to be Michael Jordan, being the best basketball player in the world.

Christine Nicole McBride
Ontario, Canada
Williston Northampton
My hobbies include singing, dancing, acting, diving and gymnastics. I'd definitely be a cartoon because no matter how hard they get bashed up or torn apart they always bounce back. Plus I like how their eyes go when they are scared.

Christine Elizabeth Reid
Cincinnati, OH
Turpin
I enjoy reading, writing, and playing the violin.

Christy Cairns
Rochester, NY
School of the Arts
I love to dance and travel. I spent the last year as an exchange student in Brazil and learned Capoeira and the Samba. I'm practically fluent in Portuguese, but I'll speak English to you - if you speak slowly!

Chris Seibert
Ridgefield, CT
St. Lukes

Claire G. Moncrief
Morganton, NC
Freedom HS
Soccer, swimming, running, listening to music, and talking into the wee hours of the night. What makes me unique is that I don't try to be unique or different - I'm just myself. I'd be anyone who has been the best at something - anything.

Clinton Behm
Madison, OH
Madison HS
Everything interests me - sports, music, nature, talking to people, going places. What makes me unique? Just that I'm different in some ways. I'd be Bugs Bunny.
Courtney Caswell-Peyton
Greenwich, CT
Greenwich HS
I love performing, listening to all kinds of music, rock collecting, photography, and reading Shakespeare. I am a theatrical person as well who loves discussions. I am determined to succeed and I pride myself on staying true to my principles.

Cyrus Screwvala

Danbury HS
Downhill skiing, bungee jumping. What probably makes me unique is that I’m like no one else.

Courtney Young
Wooster, OH
Wooster HS
I enjoy reading, writing letters, listening to music, singing, and hanging out with friends. I also enjoy shopping. My friends say I am unique because I am able to be friendly with almost anyone, and I am usually smiling.

Damon Rothhaar
Willard, OH
Willard HS
I like playing or watching any type of athletics, computers, and reading.

Cynthia Sue Boggess
Sherman, WV
Ravenswood HS
My interests include playing tennis, growing plants, recycling, painting, philosophy and biology. Being an artist, nature lover, and a feminist makes me unique.

Dana Moore
Valparaiso, IN Valparaiso HS
I can be at home and happy anywhere if I just have a few good books and some nice music (I like just about anything) and a room to hole up in. It’s people I get scared of.
Danell Ann Tobey
Greenville, MI
Greenville HS
Drama Club, forensics, show choir, literacy club, SADD, Flat River Community Players, reading. I have homemade green daisy jeans. I would be me. If everyone wanted to be someone else we'd only know illusions as no one would exist.

Danya Anne Lecker
Erie, PA
Villa Maria Academy
I play soccer, softball, volleyball, basketball, and I swim. I like to read classic novels and watch 1920 movies. I am a very versatile person. At the drop of a hat, I'm capable to adjust to a new situation, especially if there's a challenge that stimulates the activity.

Daniel Blystone
London, England
American School
I like music – I play cello and guitar. I also enjoy film and theatre.

Dave Waldman
Wayne, PA
Radnor HS
I like lacrosse and football. My Indian Head tattoo makes me unique. I would be Perry Farrell, ex front man for Jane’s Addiction, for a day.

Daniel Branstrator
Richmond, IN Richmond HS
Music, hiking, camping, thinking. The fact that I am genuinely secure and content with who I am makes me unique. I'd be myself because I really don't like anyone else enough to be them for a day.

David Brown
Pittsburgh, PA
Peabody HS
Writing, visual arts, photography, the space sciences, skiing, ultimate frisbee, cycling, and juggling.

Daniel Roeder

Donna-Marie Granderson
Uniondale, NY
Holy Trinity HS
Working at McDonald's, shopping at the mall, going to movies, and talking on the phone. Everytime someone sees me, I always have a smile on my face. I guess I'm just a happy person, but it's weird that I'm always smiling.
Dora Loflin
Oberlin, OH
Elyria Catholic

I am very interested in the performing arts. I have taken tap and ballet lessons for 11 years. I have also been a member of the drill team for the past two years.

Dorie Buchman
Maplewood, NJ
Columbia HS

Following/listening to the Dead, attending NHL games (the NY Rangers), and I especially love to travel to European countries. Just being myself. Everyone's unique in their own way. I'd be my best friend. This way I could see what she thinks of me.

Doug Dawson
Germantown, TN
Germantown HS

Music, playing trombone, watching sports, playing almost all sports (baseball, tennis, and volleyball), trying to figure out females, eating and sleeping. I try to accept others as who they are, and I try to be myself no matter who I'm around.

Shady Side Academy

My interests include volunteering and playing sports like golf and soccer. My main interest has been singing in an A-Capella group in high school.

Dylan Leggett
Evanston, IL
Evanston Township HS

Reading, music, skateboarding, photography, everything. My taste in almost everything is eclectic/eccentric. I'd be Calvin of Calvin and Hobbes, because I could do anything I wanted, not understand the implications, and blame it all on someone else.

Eileen Marie Walland
Fairview Park, OH
Fairview HS

Basketball and softball.

Elizabeth Helstein
Darien, CT
Darien HS

I really enjoy diving and dancing. I also like being in the outdoors which includes hiking and mountain climbing. What makes me unique is my personality, spirituality and love of the outdoors.

Elizabeth Mullaney
Duxbury, MA
Duxbury HS

Theatre, English, music, writing, reading, having fun, being goofy and laughing til I can't breathe or my sides hurt (whichever one comes first). Without question I'd be Jim Henson - he was an incredible person. His work touched almost everyone.
Elizabeth Ruth O'Loughlin
Wooster, OH

My more expensive hobbies are traveling abroad and shopping. Besides I like to swim and to play piano. For one day I'd be myself, but then a male me, just curious to know what it's like to be a male.

Erika Putinsky
Westerville, OH
Westerville North HS
I play soccer and I like listening to the Grateful Dead.
I am open to new ideas and try to form my opinions on my own. I would be an Aborigine in Australia for a day because they seem to know the way life should be.

Erin Balsat
Wooster, OH
Wooster HS
My sense of humor makes me unique. I love to laugh and usually find the humor in nearly everything.

Ethan A. Dunsford
Ridgewood, NJ

St. Davids, PA
Radnor HS
I love to swim, listen to music of all kinds, and read.

Heather R. Young
Sunbury, OH
Big Walnut
Snow skiing, swimming, boating. I'd be Julia Roberts because I want to see if her life is really as great as everyone imagines it to be.

Hao Sheng
Shanghai, China
Sidwell Friends School (D.C)
I am a potter, I play with clay and fire. What makes me unique? I came from China.

Heidi Georgi
Waynesburg, PA
Waynesburg Central HS
I'd be John Howard Griffin because he truly experienced what it was like to be black in the 60's as compared with what he had heard and seen of blacks as an Anglo.
Helena Thornstrom
Molnlycke, Sweden
Burgården
Playing the piano, sailing, aerobics, traveling, skiing, reading, music, meeting people, movies, letter writing, drawing, going out... I'm Swedish! That makes me unique.

Jason Killam
Flemington, NJ
Hunterdon Central
I enjoy sports and the outdoors. The outdoors is where I like to spend my free time. Lacrosse is my favorite sport to participate in.

Jen Hudson
Ridgefield, CT
Ridgefield HS
My favorite things to do are swim and hang-out. I have been doing both for as long as I can remember. I live on Chipmunk Lane, have chipmunk cheeks and my nickname is Doll after the Rescue Ranger.

Jason R. Rundorff
Hermitage, PA
Hickory HS
Basketball, fishing, and hunting.

Jenni Park
Chattanooga, TN
Chattanooga School
I'd be Hayden Schilling (Dean of Admissions) because I think secretly he is Superman. There's no way any average human could do all he does.
Jennifer Anderson
Parma, OH
Valley Forge HS
I like to spend my time in the theatre or listening to music or being with friends doing anything from dancing to sitting in the park-just talking. I never give up! I don’t think I would change who I am because I don’t know who I will become.

Jennifer Garrick
Pittsburgh, PA
Mt. Lebanon HS
I love music, and I like ice-skating, hiking, camping and playing frisbee and baseball. I also like to play golf and I’m interested in herbalism. I’d be Ginger Rogers because I want to know how to dance and be a movie star.

Jennifer Houghton
Centerville, OH
Centerville HS
I like to read, cross stitch and collect things. I have a collection of dolls, music boxes and anything related to cows. I have this amazing ability to turn myself into other people. For some strange reason people constantly mistake me for someone I’m not.

Jennifer Kostelnik
New Brighton, PA
Freedom Area Sr. HS
I like to read, write short stories, and learn about new things.

Jennifer Morris
Paoli, PA
Great Valley HS
I love marching band, hiking, reading, singing, and anything creative. I’ll try anything at least once. I love to learn about anything and from anybody.
I’m always there to lend an ear to anyone who needs it.

Jennifer O’Callaghan
Bethlehem, PA
Freedom HS
I collect quotes, play the tuba, and am trying to learn sign language. I have the worst sense of direction of anyone I know. I’d be my cat, Gizmo, because except for having to poop in a litter box, she seems to have a great life.

Jennifer Voth (Jennie)
Fairview Park, OH
Magnificat HS
Exercising and doing things outdoors; counselor
at an MDA Summer Camp, and talking with friends. I’d be Audrey Hepburn
because she is so elegant and unconditionally gives of herself through movies and endless volunteering throughout the world.

Jennifer D. Wyatt (Jen)
Lake St. Louis, MO
Wentzville HS
I enjoy playing soccer, going on road trips, and just hanging out with friends. I am what I am, what you see is what you get.
Jeremy Kaylor
Massillon, OH
Tuslaw
My interests and hobbies include playing basketball and listening to rap music. If I could be someone else for a day, I would be Michael Jordan. Then I could slam dunk from anywhere.

Jill Refshauge
Washington, WV
Parkersburg South HS
Listening to classical music, playing the piano, singing, skiing, cycling, and softball. My sense of humor which cannot possibly be explained in less than 25 words makes me unique.

Jessica J.S. Burns
Newtown Square, PA
Radnor HS
I like to draw, paint, and play tennis for fun. I like outdoor stuff like hiking, climbing, etc.

Jim Smucker
Lima, OH
Shawnee HS
I’m interested in sports. I enjoy collecting baseball cards. I also enjoy hanging out with my friends. My smile and personality makes me unique.

Jessica Viti
Columbia, MD
Oakland Mills HS
I love playing sports (volleyball in particular) and working with people. I think that my ability to work with people is what makes me unique. I have the knack for getting along with all different types of people.

Jin-Hyuk Choi
Seoul, Korea
St. Andrew’s—Sewanee
Soccer. My body and mind make me unique.

Jill Hammerstone
Russellville, KY
Russellville HS
My interests include writing poetry, listening to music, doodling in a sketch book, editing, sleeping and trying to survive life. I’m not anymore unique than anyone else. The only factor that accentuates my individuality is the gene pool that created me.

Joe Pedalino
Sandusky, OH
The Gow School
I love lacrosse, running, video games and skiing. One of the things that I seem to be noticed for is my humor. I would be Lord George Gordon Byron. This is because he lived very well and was a party animal. Yet he was a great writer like I might hope to be.
Johanna Hebblethwaite
Logan, OH
Logan HS
I enjoy reading, long walks, volleyball, and swimming. I also enjoy spending time with friends. I’d be a talk show host because you could meet so many new people and worry about someone else’s problems!

John Retzloff
Bay Village, OH
Bay HS
I like to play sports and have a lot of fun with friends. What makes me unique from others is my very own identity and my ability to adapt to different people and places. I’d be President just to see what kind of responsibilities lay upon his shoulders.

John Wood
Wellesley, MA
Deerfield Academy
Watching the Red Sox, Patriots, Celtics, playing soccer and tennis, movies (Harrison Ford in “Witness”), traveling (Australia, Wyoming), music (John Mellencamp), books (Huck Finn), and eating good pizza.

Johan Nyblom
Falkenberg, Sweden
Falkenbergs Gymnasium
I play a lot of tennis, but also golf. I think tennis is more fun because there is more action and also I compete. Well, I guess I’m the thing that makes me unique. Taking life as it comes day by day, but also having a big goal.

Jonas Brier
Natick, MA
Natick HS
I like sports, especially wrestling, basketball and wiffleball and camping, fishing, drawing, and a bunch of other things. I have an outie and I like my room messy, and there’s a lot more that make me unique.

Joni Cossaboom
Ludlow, MA
Ludlow HS
My interests are singing, acting, reading and going to movies. I adore cows and hope to have one someday. I especially love the Beatles. I think that my uniqueness stems from my weirdness. I have an uncanny habit of trying to make people laugh.

Josh Miner
Chadds Ford, PA
Kennett High
I enjoy skiing, going to the beach, and going out with friends. I have a good sense of humor, I’m open-minded and I can get along with just about anybody.

Joseph Grubesic
Brook Park, OH
Midpark HS
I enjoy playing basketball, reading, attending all types of sporting events, going out with friends and watching movies. My ethnic background makes me unique. I am of Croatian descent and have watched anxiously as Croatia has become independent.
Joshua Ryland
Copley, OH
Copley HS
Football, politics, playing guitar and writing. I want my own t.v. talk show! I'd be David Letterman - his quick wit and brand of humor remind me of my own personality.

Kandis Durant Anderson
Shaker Heights, OH
Shaker Heights Senior HS
I'd like to think of myself as being an independent thinker who expresses my individuality in every facet of life.

Julie Morse
Fredonia, NY
Fredonia HS
What makes me unique? AAAAAHHHHHH-CHOOOO!!!!!!!

Karen Fisher
Algonquin, IL
Harry D. Jacobs
I've seen all 13 episodes of "I, Cladius" on masterpiece theatre. I'd be Elizabeth Dole because she is one of the most powerful women in Washington politics.

Julie Anne Paolano
Doylestown, OH
Chippewa HS
I love playing all sports, especially basketball.

Karen Louis
Kent, OH
Theodore Roosevelt
Sleeping, filling out questionnaires, staring blankly at open spaces, confusing people. I don't own a pair of Birkenstocks and/or wool socks. I'd be Elmira on "Tiny Toons" because she's hideously annoying... That could be fun!

Kalyani Manohar
Bombay, India
Cathedral & John Coonon
Being 'a bone china babe' (a name bestowed on me by friends) whose first love is adventure sports like white water rafting, free falling, hand gliding and not to mention bungee jumping!

Kate McNeece
Annandale, VA
W.T. Woodson
I'm interested in animals, reading, horseback riding, and geneology. My unconquerable wit makes me unique.
Kate Peterson
Washington D.C.
Woodrow Wilson
I enjoy talking to friends, analyzing people's actions, learning to play sports that I have no talent with, and attending classes regularly. I'm an unusually sincere person, have naturally blonde hair, naturally straight teeth, and I'm pleasantly sarcastic.

Kate Elizabeth Sabin
Greenfield, MA
Northfield Mount Hermon
Soccer, orchestra, ice hockey, horseback riding, international studies, theatre. I invented the home freezer do-it-yourself cryogenic kit for Macroductylus subspinosus. I'd be Lisa Looper 'cause I love orange Tang.

Kate Peterson

Kate Kohnstamm
Breda, the Netherlands
Stedelijk Gymnasium Breda
I like field hockey, skiing, swimming, traveling and golf. My looks, in combination with my character and behavior, I'm usually very sweet, but can turn into a tiger. I'd be my little sister (16), to see how she thinks about me and many other things (we differ a lot).

Katherine Nash Williams
Danville, KY
Boyle County HS
I love caring for children and watching them develop. I also am greatly interested in all kinds of religions, and I play the piano and viola. I am the calmest person I know — I worry about nothing (well, almost nothing!).

Katie Anderson
Springfield, OH
Springfield North HS
I love flowers, trees, art and music — I am a huge R.E.M. and Beatles fan. I also enjoy drawing, reading, and the cello.

Lavonne Urban
Cleveland, OH
Lutheran West
I'm involved in drama and key club. I've also been a varsity cheerleader for football and basketball for four years. I love dancing and having a good time! I think my weird sense of humor and strange way of looking at things makes me unique.

Lisa Nuzum
Hudson, OH
Hudson HS
I would like to be someone who knows what they want to do with their life and can get there.

Leah Hergott
Denver, CO
Manual HS
I play soccer, scuba dive, and ski – I also love working with animals along with spending time improving our environment.

Liu Ning
Nanjing, China
Nanjing Foreign Languages School
I like to collect stamps and I'm interested in watching films. I am modest and prudent, so before I say something or do something, I would think it over carefully. I'd be a student of Confucious so I could learn from him.
Liya Aklilu
Dar-es-Salaam, Tanzania
Int’l School of Tanganyika
Camping, traveling, partying all night long, reading, writing, and talking on the phone. I would be Cleopatra, as she is portrayed by Shakespeare — he shows her as being vibrant, powerful, courageous and alluring.

Malvin Moore
Durham, NC
Northern HS
My interests include music and sports, and I would like to become a television sportscaster. I’d like to be Nelson Mandela. I’d like to know what it would be like to have a hand in bringing about social and political change in a nation.

Liz Lawton
Westfield Center, OH
Cloverleaf Senior HS
I play softball in the summer. I like to play the piano. My sense of humor makes me unique.

March Melvin Dadzie
Nairobi, Kenya
Hillcrest Secondary
I love rugby, soccer, squash, traveling, meeting people, music, adventure books and watching movies. My name “March”, given to me by my Godfather, actor-director Sidney Poitier while filming the “Wilby Conspiracy.” I have yet to meet him.

Luke Zannoni
Crawfordsville, IN Crawfordsville HS
I like to watch or listen to Chicago Cubs games, run on occasion, camp in the outdoors, play video games, and work on my scrapbook. I can sleep anywhere for long extended periods of time, I have a cat that eats popcorn, and a last name that starts with Z.

Mark Baker
Shaker Heights, OH
St. Ignatius
Lacrosse, skiing, and most other sports.

Lynn Moorhouse
Bloomfield Hills, MI
Lahser HS
Anything to do with music and talking with friends. The only advice I will ever give is to “do whatever makes you happy.” I wouldn’t want to be anyone else, because almost no one’s life is perfect, even just for one day.

Mark Halsall
Cleves, OH
Saint Xavier HS
My generally optimistic outlook, ability to bounce back from almost anything, and my sense of humor make me unique.
Mark Hawkins
Massillon, OH
Massillon Washington
I enjoy water-skiing, weight lifting, spending time with my family, and relaxing.

Mary-Catherine Segota
Winchester, MA
Winchester HS
Classical and modern music, conducting, art, drama, piano, flute, piccolo, singing, hiking in the mountains, giving massages, and going driving on long spontaneous trips. I'd want to be Barney Rubble just to see what it really is like to live next to Fred.

Marlene Kiss
Broadview Heights, OH
Brecksville-Broadview Hts. HS
I enjoy running, singing, dancing, art and listening to Sting. In spite of my "quiet, shy appearance," I can really be quite a chatterbox!

Mary McDonough Thomas
Wooster, OH
Wooster HS
I live for biking (bicycling, that is - not motorcycling - although sometimes I do like to deck myself out in black leather) and I also enjoy downhill skiing - not in black leather.

Marufer Syed Raza
Zambia, Africa
Internat'l School of Lusaka
Soccer, soccer. Music, music. Skiing. The fact that I am the greatest thing made by God since Adam and Eve makes me unique. I'd be Saddam Hussein to feel absolute power and obviously to invade Kuwait, Saudi Arabia, Jordan, Egypt...

Matt Rodgers
Orrville, OH
Orrville HS
My main interest is being active in all types of sports. I also like to just hang around with all of my friends. I really don't have one major characteristic that makes me unique, but I've had two knee surgeries and won a state championship in basketball.

Mary Ronan
Youngstown, OH
Woodrow Wilson HS
I enjoy repelling and diving, but theatre (at school and Youngstown State University) is my biggest hobby. My sense of individualism and humor make me unique. I'd be Pat from "Saturday Night Live" so I'd now the truth about him, her?!

Matt Schaeffer
Amherst, OH
Marion L. Steele
Soccer, skiing, sailing, water-skiing, biking.
Some of my hobbies/interests consist of football, pole vaulting, weight lifting, listening to music, or just hangin' out with a bunch of friends. I have been said to be a trend setter.

Matthew May Fairport, NY
Fairport HS

I enjoy playing basketball and volleyball. I listen to and enjoy all kinds of music. I'd be Howie Mandel. He has the great job of making people laugh, and has more fun by just living and experiencing life than any other person I've seen.

Matthew Queen
Beaver Falls, PA
Blackhawk HS

My interests include sunning, socializing, sightseeing, skiing, sleeping, sunsets and studying... NOT! Well, I doubt there will be many other people at Wooster with my last name.

Matthew Paul Jarusinski
Glassport, PA
South Allegheny HS

Max Jan van Min
Belthover, Holland
Het Nieuwe Lyceum

I love playing tennis and listening to Queen (I am a member of the International Queen fan club) and I love Great Britain. I'd be Freddie Mercury, he would still be alive!

McKay Whitaker
Atlanta, GA
The Westminster Schools
Swimming, jogging, windsurfing, and tennis.

My major activity is trying to keep all my other activities going and still remain somewhat sane. I get along extremely well with my mother. I'd be a hermit on a tiny island in the South Pacific.

Matthew Ziegler
State College, PA
State College Alternative Program

I enjoy listening to music of the 60's and 70's, attending Grateful Dead concerts, playing ultimate frisbee, and discussing politics. I believe that I am a true individual and I am what and who I want to be.

Megan Stephen
Jackson, MI
Jackson HS

My favorite activities are going out for coffee, listening to music, reading and watching "Laverne and Shirley" on t.v.
Meghan Dougherty
Medina, OH
Medina Senior High
I love to dance, and love just about anything musically oriented. I enjoy sports immensely (tennis, soccer, etc.), but I don’t play them for competition; I like to have fun! I’m open-minded and always willing to try new things.

Melissa Anne Culver
Livington, NJ
Mt. St. Dominic Academy
My interests include travel, downhill skiing, chorus/choir, yearbook, English saddle riding, service projects, and meeting other people. I love to meet and form friendships with people from other cultures throughout the world.

Melia Alyssa Arnold
Arlington, VA
Washington-Lee
I love sports – I play soccer and run track. I also love cutting toenails and eating Chinese food! I like peanut butter and pickle sandwiches. I’d be Dan Quayle to see if he really has a clue!

Melissa Lynn Pettigrew
Butler, PA
Butler Senior HS
My interests and hobbies include women’s soccer, SADD, skiing (downhill), newspaper, reading, and environmental issues.

Meredith Alexandra Clark
Vienna, VA
James Madison HS
My main interest is theatre, all types, with music coming in a close second. I spend spare time reading or catching up on old movies. I am unique in that I am the only person I know who can justify spending quality time with my teddy bear.

Meredith Graham
Canton, OH
Jackson HS
My interests include reading, music, dancing, listening, soccer, football, and learning about new things. I’d be anyone else just to get an idea of what it would be like to be that person.

Meredith W. Rucker
Dublin, OH
Dublin HS
Theatre, dance, music, frisbee, ice cream, movies. I’m not a psycho and I don’t use hairspray. I’d be Kathleen Turner for a day because I like her voice.

Mia S. Pearce
Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia

Michael P. Baker
Millersburg, OH
West Holmes HS
I enjoy reading and listening to music. I also enjoy camping, hiking, and taking long rides on my bike.

Monica Walker
Cleveland, OH
Warrensville Heights HS
I feel I am unique because I like to be my own person and stand on my own two feet, because I often stand alone in making my own choices. I am very different or unique. I am a leader not a follower.

Michele Rae Wing
Cortland, OH
Mathews HS
I enjoy volunteering for many causes, playing flute in marching band, and spending fun and crazy times with my friends.

Nancy Dwight Seiters
Sewanee, TN

Soccer, creative writing, art, mountain biking, tennis, swimming.

Michelle Perrigo
Cleveland, OH
Lutheran West
I love to read, write poetry, act, sing, enjoy beautiful things, and spend time with friends. I enjoy volleyball, soccer, photography, collecting quotes, and Bible study. I have a lot of fun being myself and most other people are too complicated.

Nancy Frischmann
Brookfield, CT
Brookfield HS
Photography, writing, music. I am also interested in film making and Irish folktales. I’d be Natalie Merchant because she leads the life of a musician and still manages to keep her name clean. She’s very down to earth and untouchable.

Michelle Marie Prikryl
Mantua, OH
Crestwood HS
I’m interested in the fields of medicine and biology. Going to school and working doesn’t leave much time for hobbies. I consider myself unique because I am really easy to get along with. I care about even those I don’t really know.

Nathan P. Hitt
Morgantown, WV
Morgantown HS
My hobbies include skiing, hiking, white water canoeing, orienteering, and music (guitar and trumpet). My interests, however, include everything. A perspective of the Big Picture, an attitude to try new things, and my own inner style make me unique.
Nathaniel E. Criss
Meadville, PA
Meadville Area HS
Guitar, soccer, volleyball.

Nicole Marie Ponstingle
Westlake, OH
Magnificat
Writing poetry, going out with friends, working for animal rights and swimming. I'm very sensitive so I try to find beauty in everything. I'm more than willing to help a troubled soul. I'd be a friend of William Shakespeare so I could witness a genius.

Nicole Leigh Coward
Wellington, OH
Wellington HS
Tennis, writing, watching movies. My intense interest in and knowledge of tennis makes me unique. I'd be a relatively unknown tennis player, such as Naoko Sawamatsu, to feel the ups and downs of tour life.

Pandora Pearl Clark
Cuyahoga Falls, OH
Cuyahoga Falls HS
My two main interests are reading and acting. I can't refer to them as hobbies because they have become more of a way of life. I believe that my high moral standards and my spiritual beliefs are two of the main traits that set me apart from my peers.

Neelabja Roy Chowdhury
Calcutta, India
Calcutta Boy's HS
I love listening to rock music (Pink Floyd, Guns n' Roses, Scorpions), reading fiction, I simply adore horses and I enjoy meeting new people and making new friends. I'd be Hitler to feel what it's like to have the wrath and anger of the whole world upon you.

Nikia La Shaun Bridges
Akron, OH
Harvy S. Firestone HS
In my spare time, I enjoy playing Nintendo Gameboy, talking on the phone, reading Jackie Collins' novels and meeting new people.

Nina Katherine Lany

Reene Ann Snyder
Burbank, OH
Norwayne
I enjoy playing basketball, going to movies, out with friends, swimming, and reading. I hope to meet a lot of new people at Wooster so I can expand my hobbies and interests.

Robert Leonard
Burbank, OH
Cloverleaf HS
I like soccer and wrestling.

Richard E. Boudier
Massillon, OH
Washington HS
I enjoy playing several sports in my spare time including golf, basketball, and baseball. I also enjoy reading and running. I would be a professional golfer for a day because I enjoy playing golf, but I really stink at it so for one day I would be good.

Robert J. Martin
Stoughton, MA
Stoughton HS
I'm interested in music, people, guitar, cars, sleeping, seeing a different part of the country and moving out of my parent's house. I think I have a good outlook on life. I once took a stress test that went as high as 500 and scored a 14.
Robert Wise
Landenberg, PA
Avon Grove Senior HS
I am interested in zines and small bite sized newspapers, the weirder the better.

Salman Saeed
Karachi, Pakistan
Karachi Grammar School
Enjoy listening to music and making mechanical and electrical kits. My ability to take a lot of pushing around makes me unique.

Russell Bowser
Youngstown, OH
Woodrow Wilson HS
Making incendiar­ies and explosives, martial arts and body building! Do you know too many people who like to mess around with substances that could blow you back to your elemen­tal, atomic state for fun? Plus, I have both my right and left ear pierced.

Samir Bandhu Gupta
New Delhi, India
Woodstock School
I love playing sports given a chance would play anything from field hockey to snooker to water polo.

Ryan L. Grissinger
Wooster, OH
Triway HS
I enjoy working at my own pace, without someone telling me what to do. Even when someone tells me exactly what I’m thinking, it confuses me and I mess up. I’d be the vice president because I can’t spell and I don’t like “Murphy Brown.”

Sara Montie
Fairview Park, OH
Luthern West
Basketball, volleyball, politics, horses. A pioneer on a wagon train to the West – I would like to have the experience of seeing the land untouched by people.

Sadie Mahoney
Lakewood, OH
Lakewood HS
I enjoy music – flute, pic­colo, piano and singing. I have been involved in several plays and basketball cheerleading. I would be an actress on “Saturday Night Live.” This is the ultimate job experience. Live improvisation is scary yet exciting.

Sara F. Pierce
Woodstock, VT
Woodstock Union HS
I love being with my friends, going out dancing, listening to music, singing, and playing the piano. Swimming and skiing are also important to me. My infectious laugh, my ability to eat a lot and stay relatively thin, and my crazy hair all make me unique.
Sarah Blanford
Kalida, OH
Kalida HS
I am a fervent Anglophile. I am also interested in world affairs. Being Margaret Thatcher for a day would fulfill all of my dreams.

Sarah Day
Silver Spring, MD
Richard Montgomery HS
I like to spend my free time with my friends. If I'm not with them, I might be reading, acting or singing. I'm unique because there is no one else like me. That's all.

Sarah Robertson
Battle Creek, MI
Battle Creek Central HS
I swim, play volleyball, sing (love music), and read. I like nature and sports. I'm almost positively sure of who I am and am happy with that person. I would be myself in thirty years... to see if I was satisfied with the choices I'd made and the things I had done.

Scott A. Crawford
Stow, OH
Stow HS
In my spare time I like to play golf, basketball, and softball. I also plan to stay involved in the Senior Classical League while at Wooster.

Scott H. O'Loughlin
Claremont, NH
Kimball Union Academy
I like listening to music, staying in shape, and relaxing. I'm the only person I know who thinks the way I do. I would be Woody Allen for a day. He's funny and has a good outlook on life.

Sean D. Rhattigan
Youngstown, OH
Woodrow Wilson HS
My interests include various sports such as basketball, tennis, and biking. I'm also very interested in all types of music. I think I'm unique because of how versatile I am at everything I do. I can adapt to new people and situations of all types fairly easily.

Shannon M. Preece
Cheswick, PA
Fox Chapel Area HS
Musical theatre, creative writing. I'd be Betty Rubble because she gets to use creative cooking tools.
Sharif H. Khan
Lahore, Pakistan
Lahore American School
Well, I like listening to slow and/or classical songs, and I also take interest in photography. I'd be an animal so I can get a true picture of the human through neutral eyes.

Solveig Slavin
Louisville, KY
Ballard HS
I like music, piano, hockey, hiking, mountain climbing, traveling, and movies.

Shawn M. Foster
Pickerington, OH
Pickerington HS
Baseball, music, drums, visual arts (film). My wide variety of interests make me unique. I'd be anyone - it would be a change.

Stephanie Tourje
Webster, NY
Webster HS
Skiing, sailing, swimming, singing, musicals, movies. My sarcastic sense of humor makes me unique.

Shayak Bhattacharya
Calcutta, India
Calcutta Internat’l School
Soccer, badminton, track, stamp collection. Well, I have the qualities that make others not so unique!! I'd be Saddam Hussein in order to find out the joy behind killing newborns in incubators.

Stephen Howard Wheeler
Medina, OH
Medina HS
My extra curricular interests include music, drama, and dance and I enjoy traveling.

Shereen Hejazi
Greenville, PA
Greenville HS
I love to participate in sports, especially basketball, gymnastics, and track. I also enjoy photography, playing the piano, dancing, watching movies, and spending time with friends. I am a true individual with an open mind.

Steve Sprigg
Cincinnati, OH
Princeton HS
Acting, singing, writing poetry, Broadway music/shows, 50's & 60's music, playing the piano, nature, computers, and juggling. I'm a friendly and sensitive guy who may be the last of the romantics. I'd be Billy Crystal for a day – I love his dry sense of humor.
Susan Bunch
Philadelphia, PA
The William Penn Charter School
Drama and singing are some of the things I love to do the most. I also play field hockey and lacrosse. I like to make sure that people are happy and smiling. I like to give hugs and laugh. Some say my laugh makes me unique.

Susan Lenington Jeffrey
Shelby, OH
Shelby Senior HS
I love to dance, listen to music (especially Depeche Mode and New Order), and read books by Daphne Du Maurier. I think my Scottish Dancing makes me unique. It would be great to be Jack Hanna because he works with so many different kinds of animals.

Susan Sipes
Crestline, OH
Crestline HS
A few of my interests include listening to music, spending time with my friends and playing basketball. I would be Michael Jordan, then I would know what "air time" feels like. I would love to create and fly like he does.

Syed Hussain
Lahore, Pakistan
Aitchison College Lahore
I love all sorts of outdoor activities. My hobbies keep changing but these days I'm into Aero Modelling. I believe my name is unique - Syed Muhammad Turab Hussain. I'd be the richest man in the world, and distribute wealth amongst deprived children.

Tamara L. Charles
Chagrin Falls, OH
Chagrin Falls HS
Dance, letter writing. I'd be Paula Abdul because she is an awesome dancer and just to be famous for one day would be the best.

Tatjana Mochalova
Moscow, Russia
North Olmstead HS
I love painting and reading, and astronomy is one of my biggest interests. I enjoy collecting all sorts of things. I think I always try to be a leader in a group, and I also try and want to be the best, but I like the competition.

Theresa Ronquillo
Grosse Pointe, MI
Cranbrook Kingswood
I enjoy eating, sleeping, reading, writing poetry, the Grateful Dead and Nat King Cole, watching cheesy movies and foreign films, and playing tennis and volleyball.

Tiffin K. Ross
Shaker Heights, OH
Shaker Heights HS
I spend most of my spare time cooking and eating. I also enjoy playing tennis and going to the movies.
Tim Hallett
Urbana, IL
Urbana HS
I enjoy sports, drumming, and "Star Wars" books and movies. I also enjoy a good laugh and making others laugh. I'd be William Calhoun, my favorite drummer, because I would love to be able to evoke the sounds out of the instruments that he does.

Tim Konnert
Reston, VA
South Lakes HS
Soccer, swimming, fishing.

Tim O'Rourke
Chevy Chase, MD
Bethesda-Chevy Chase
I would be Norm Peterson from "Cheers." Who could think of a better life?

Timothy Joseph Gargasz
Amherst, OH
Marion L. Steele
I enjoy participating in just about anything that is active. While I'm not playing a sport or socializing, I like to relax by watching t.v. or reading.

Todd van der Kieft
Hinsdale, IL
Hinsdale Central
I love sports, swimming, volleyball, basketball and lacrosse. I like hanging out with my friends and doing things like going into the city. I would be Michael Jordan because he has such an influence on the lives of millions of people, plus he can fly.

Tom Della Torre
North Bergen, NJ
Dwight-Englewood
I enjoy playing guitar, listening to music, and spending time with my friends. My ability to make friends easily makes me unique. I'd be Dan Quayle just to see what it feels like.

Tony Bekavac
Clairton, PA
Kimball Union Academy
Football, rugby and staying in good physical condition. I'd rather be myself than anyone else. It gives me a chance to prove what I can do rather than what someone else has already done.

Tracey A. Follina
Maple Heights, OH
Maple Heights HS
I enjoy dancing, acting, and anything involving music. I'm the type of person who isn't afraid to go up to a complete stranger and strike up a conversation. I'm also not afraid to do or say almost anything!!
Victor "Sky" Green
Pasadena, CA
John Muir HS
To put quite simply my biggest interest in life right now is to become a success. I've always felt that my ability to have a mind of my own has made me exceptionally different from most. I'd be a god so that I may change many of the flaws in the world today.

Wanjiku Ndichu
Nairobi, Kenya
United World College
Development work, social service, reading, singing (though my voice isn't what you'd want to wake up to), acting. My great sense of humor and ability to be a good listener make me unique.

W. Christian Geckeler Greencastle, IN Greencastle HS
Bicycling, running, sci-fi/fantasy books, video games, classic rock, hopefully radio. I'd be Bill the Cat; Aaaacckk-Thpthhhh!!! Why not?

Yumi Maskay
Yokohama, Japan
St. Maur International School
Singing, dancing, weight lifting, drawing, reading novels, writing poems, D. Jing (being M.C.), swimming, cooking, counseling, designing cards & (fashions), and trying a lot of part time jobs. I feel life is short and time is running out while I'm sleeping.

Walker Pogue
Richmond, VA
The Collegiate Schools
I enjoy listening to music as well as playing tennis. I also like to spend time at the James River. I would be a handicapped person so I could learn to appreciate what I have.

Zain Raza
Karachi, Pakistan
Karachi Grammar School
I enjoy playing tennis and the electric guitar. My face makes me unique. I'm the only one who looks like me.
Adrienne K. Vredenburg
Stafford Springs, CT
Stafford HS

I like swimming, running, basketball, and riding horses. I'm outgoing I guess. I like to go out and make bad situations better. I'd be Michael Jordan - who wouldn't want to be him? He's a basketball God. His talent is so admirable.

Chiranjeev Bordoloi
Jorhat, India
Mayo College

Reading, creative writing, traveling and music. The ability to work as hard as a husky at any task and the ability to get along equally well with a child of 7 and a man of 70 make me unique.

Jesse Buggs III
Bowie, MD
Bowie HS

Jazz, R&B music, espionage, Barker/King novels, chess, soccer, tennis, writing fiction short stories.

Joseph J. Zwiller
Chapel Hill, NC
Durham Academy

I am of the few finalists in the American Family Publishers Clearinghouse sweepstakes.

Katherine M. Vail
Philadelphia, PA
Westtown Friends School

Lacrosse, reading and writing. What makes me unique? My ability to be optimistic at all times - well, almost all the time.

Kristi Walter
Mt. Vernon, OH
Mt. Vernon HS

My interests are in architecture and the arts. I spend my free time riding my bicycle, playing the piano, and drawing.

Matthew Burnette Stepanich
Chicago, IL
Lake Forest Academy

Theatre, soccer, baseball, track, watching sports, having a good time, teaching kids about life as a camp counselor. I'd be Bill Murray - not only is he a funny guy, but he spends his time enjoying his life and his family and going to baseball games.

Michael Harkless
Glen Arm, MD
Friends School

I enjoy tennis, soccer, swimming, skiing, computers and running. I love to travel to various places around the world.
TOP TEN ANSWERS:

What is the craziest thing you've ever done?

1. I ate a live toad for 8 bucks.
2. I was on an airplane once. When the stewardess came by I pretended to throw up. When she looked at me I started eating my puke, which was really Campbell's mushroom soup. She freaked out.
3. Some kids and I acted as if we were tied up with tape over our mouths. We laid a toy gun on the table. One of us acted like a robber, all just to scare the pizza boy to death.
4. I baked cupcakes, inserted a condom into each one, frosted them, and left them on the doorstep of a friend's house with a note saying, "Love, Mickey Mouse."
5. I jumped out of a car going 25 mph to see if I could land on my feet. It didn't work!
6. I met my future sister-in-law with a goldfish up my nose.
7. I streaked across my whole city (5 miles). Tied with: I streaked in front of an isolated Eskimo tribe while being chased by a pack of hungry sea otters who thought I was an oversized pickled herring.
8. I traveled atop a bus for eight hours on a freezing December night, only with a shirt on.
9. When I was 4 years old, I drank a beer and went drunk to preschool.
10. During a rehearsal (in the little theatre at school) I was so proud of my new black and purple lace bra that I took off my t-shirt and showed my bra to 2 guys who were working on the set.

What's the most embarrassing thing that's ever happened to you?

1. I went to kiss a guy and my jaw slipped out of joint and I got lockjaw. It was the first kiss!
2. My friends and I were eating lunch at school and right across the table was this guy I was trying to impress. Someone made me laugh and I exploded laughing. A whole mouthful of chewed up oranges flew out of my mouth and all over the guy! I about died.
3. I was the Fry Guy at Burger King, and I slipped and dropped an order of large scolding fries onto a woman's face, hair, and down her blouse.
4. When I was 6 years old, I fell in a cesspool.
5. Once at summer camp I forgot to relieve myself before bedtime. By morning the lower bunk person was drenched. I was the laughing stock of the camp.
6. I was thirteen and a group of my friends dared me to buy a box of condoms. I reached for a box and knocked over the whole display case right in front of my father's best friend.
7. I regurgitated on my roommate's floor when I was a Wooster perspective!
8. I didn't play baseball one day because I was feeling ill. But I pinched hit and puked in the middle of being at bat.
9. After a heated discussion with a close friend of mine (following a soccer match), I turned around to show him my middle finger - only to find that I was showing it to his father.
10. Once upon examining a friend's watch I noticed the words "shock resistant" and said, "I didn't know you could get a shock from a watch."
