Beamer Will Crown Queen in Color Day Festivities

Miss Katherine Stimson will be crowned Color Day Queen by Fredy Beamer, last year’s Queen, as the highlight of this year’s ceremonies on May 3. Kay is a history major, a junior resi- dent at Hoover House, a member of Phi Alpha Theta, and a member of choir. She has written the Glee Club's song for the past seven years, has been a member of the north senator, the WIGA Judicial Committee, and was a member of the Kane from Ohio. She talks.
Maid of Honor Ruth Darwood will be a resident of Beeman Hall. She is a biology major, member of Phi Alpha Phi and Delta Kappa, and has served on the WIGA Judicial Board, the Kappa dance committee for Color Day, Beeman Hall, and the 1953 Glee Chairwoman. Ruth’s role is to be announced later.

The Quill has chosen Vincenzo Read as this year’s Grand Marshall, and present, as well as event, while the Maid of Honor will be attended by Madge Harry and rendered by Dennis Jones.

Pat Buttram, Mary Kay, Barbara, Mary Lou, and Carole Staker, also who competed for the Quill, will be escorted by Jim Honer, Jim Williams, John Bohnick and Gary Williton, respectively. Jane Lehto and Pat Luke are to be chosen to complete the event as pages.

Don Hatch is chairman of the Glee Club, and in charge of the student section. Candidate details of this year’s event will be released the page before ceremony to be announced soon after event.

Tryouts Finished
For Saint Joan
The late Bernard Berlin’s play "Saint Joan" is being produced by the Color Day Production of the Theater of the University. Mr. D. T. Shannon will direct.

Tryouts for parts were held Monday, Wednesday, and Thursday of the past week, but no list of the cast has been released as of Tuesday. This final rehearsal was dedicated to Saint Audenciel, May 6. The play is to be presented in Glee Hall.

Theater staff aren't sure, if it's worth for teachers, where would we get courses for our dance, the paper inquires.

"They're young, dance student at the start of Texas and our visiting for days, and they're good looking — especially between 18 and 21 and the group are well-honed to work. Qualified applicants are sure that correspondence would be kept entirely confidential.

This comes from the Minnesota Daily and was headlined "Quaint Question Puts Quizzed in Qua-
