1995 NEW STUDENT DIRECTORY welcomes THE CLASS OF 1999

The College of Wooster
Wooster, Ohio
Welcome to Wooster
Class of 1999

Now that the directory is finished, and I can breath a sigh of relief, I would like to thank the people that helped me complete this project. I would like to thank Dan Ephraim and Emily Durham for selecting me to be editor of the "Baby Book" and Jennifer Seaman for her words of wisdom after doing the directory for the class of 1998. I would also like to thank Joyce Heitger and Office Services, Sheila Wilson in Admissions, Brittany Bullard, John Plummer, Collier Printing, and the local businesses who advertised in the book. Finally, I would like to thank my family; my mom who answered a lot of phone calls and slit all my envelopes, my dad who was a great filer of pictures and questionnaires, and my boyfriend, Andrew South, for putting up with my loud outbursts. And, a special thanks to Matthew Anderson for the front cover art and Nicole Oehler (illustration on page 7) both from the class of 1999.

I had a wonderful time doing this book and I feel like I know all of you who sent me your life stories crammed into three little lines. Have a great time at Wooster and Good Luck!

Questions from you...

I originally planned to answer your questions, but I received so many interesting questions that I decided you would have more fun reading the questions than reading my answers! So, I have categorized your questions and maybe you will enjoy finding out the answers on your own.

You guys were wondering a lot about the surrounding community of Wooster...

What is there to do for fun off campus in the City of Wooster? Do students leave the City of Wooster very often to do or see things (i.e. concerts) in other cities? Wooster isn’t a boring town is it? Is Wooster rural or urban? What is the student to cow ratio in Wooster? Where do we go shopping? What kind of discount can I get at the Everything Rubbermaid store? What do students do for fun on and off campus in Wooster? Is there a community in Wooster of African-Americans other than the students and the faculty? Is there someplace to climb in the vicinity, short of climbing the buildings? Just how safe is Wooster? Approximately how many people think Wooster is in Massachusetts?

Some of you had some practical things on your minds...

Do we get cable in our dorms? Where on earth do Black people get a haircut? How exactly does one pronounce W-O-O-S-T-E-R? Does cow-tipping kill cows? What does the band wear under their kilts? What is a fighting Scot? Where would an out of town guest of the opposite sex be allowed to stay overnight? Is there a charge to use e-mail? What will happen if I can’t find a class? What is the best way for guys and girls to meet each other? (What are the girls like--personalities, etc...? How are the guys at Wooster? Are they worth checking out?)

Who are the conservative professors and which professors import their liberal dogma in the classroom? What is the air-speed velocity of an unlaiden swallow? Are the students allowed to use local residents for experiments in things no man was meant to know?

The answers to these questions should become readily apparent...

Will the College of Wooster ever be like Princeton? The Rubbermaid outlet isn’t the coolest thing, is it? (I just want to know I am going to have fun.) Why haven’t you gotten rid of sororities and fraternities, yet? What is the dress code? If I decided to take a break from what I have been interested in, will the teachers be OK with this?

Some of you just want to eat...

Is there a Denny’s restaurant in Wooster? Where is the best pizza place? Do you take Diner’s Club? Honestly, is the food in the cafeteria really edible? Please tell me there is a twenty-four hour coffee shop I can walk to from campus!!

Have a great time this year solving these wonderful mysteries!!!
