THE CLASS OF 2002

The College of Wooster
Wooster, Ohio
Welcome to Wooster
Class of 2002!

First of all, let us welcome you to Wooster! We appreciate all of you who answered our survey and returned it to us on time. We tried to be lenient about the due date (don't expect your profs to do the same), however, we had to leave out a few late entries. We really enjoyed learning about your class and we hope that this book will be as fun for you to read as it was for us to make it. We're sure that it couldn't be half as stressful!

Let us take time to thank Monica Short in the Admissions Office for her help obtaining student lists, as well as John Plummer who helped us on the financial side. Thanks also go to Dean Plusquellac, Cary at Collier Printing, Joyce in Office Services, Betty in the Treasurer’s Office, and Charles our assistant. Congratulations and thanks to Maggie Peter our cover design winner! We also need to thank Karl Bekeney for giving us the job and Sadie for giving us her expertise (uhhh... yeah).

To the Class of 2002, we wish you well for your four years at Wooster. The best advice we can give you is to relax and have fun. Take advantage of all of the opportunities presented to you... the memories will be well worth it! Wooster is a great place and we sincerely hope that you grow to love Wooster as much as we do.

You Crazy Kids!

Selected responses:

Crashed a wedding reception and brought them a box of 46 corndogs as a present. Nothing I do is crazy. To be crazy is to be without purpose; I always have a purpose. Well, I earned the nickname “Streak”… Wrote that I wanted the wardrobe of Batman because of the nipples on the Batsuit. Played 4 years of football without a cup. My senior year, all the girls in my class got together and made a painting. Instead of using paintbrushes, we used our boobs! Drank my own urine at football camp. This survey. Shaved my head with a razor and painted my entire head like a basketball — we won the state championship later that day. Ate a box of Ex-Lax to win a $5 bet. When I was 4, I was sleepwalking. I went to the top of the basement steps and peed down them. Used those 3 words to describe myself. Embarked on a 4 week solo-backpacking trip to Nepal and Tibet without telling my parents. Drove down Main St. with 3 of my friends, topless, in a convertible, on a Friday night. Went skinny dipping in somebody’s pool while they were gone. Got my belly button pierced without my parents knowing. Went to a hurricane party at the beach during Hurricane Bertha. Drank a tablespoon of Tabasco sauce straight up. Played Co-ed Naked Corn Tag (it’s played at night in a corn field) at summer camp; we all had poison ivy the next day. Tried to shave a map of the Earth into my head. Drank the water in Mexico. While studying at the Kansas Art Institute, I had to draw naked people (of various shapes and sizes). It was quite an experience! No comment! I plead the fifth. Stabbed my neighbor in the leg with a pear knife. I was the first girl on my swim team to ever shave her head for sectionals.
