Welcome to Wooster
Class of 2004!

Working on the New Student Directory gave us a few headaches, but reading your responses and getting to know the incoming class made it worthwhile. We appreciate those of you who replied; we had a great time reading your funny remarks.

We could not have done this without the help of so many people. We would especially like to thank Gloria in the Dean’s Office, all those helping from the Admission’s Office, Carrie Lippert, James Foster, Jerome Hall, Liz Farina, Elizabeth Kriynovich, Carey Speros, Doug Brown (for laying on the couch giving tips) and anyone else we may be forgetting. Your help made this possible. Thanks!

We hope you enjoy reading about your classmates and get to know each other better. We also hope you learn to love Wooster much as we do.

To all the upperclassmen who are hoping to use this as a tool to meet attractive first years, good luck. There are a lot of great faces to choose from! Enjoy!

What is the craziest thing you have ever done?

Selected Responses:

Doing flips off of my dresser onto my bed when I was little.
Drank Ovaltine.
Pixie Stix powder up my nose. Don’t ask.
If I told you, I’d have to kill you.
I stole and held hostage several items belonging to my AP Economics teacher and left ransom notes in hopes that it would motivate him to grade and return essays of mine that he had procrastinated on for 6 months.
Occasionally, I leave my house.
Either breaking into one of my friend’s houses with another friend, using her pool and car all week (without her knowing) or skipping chorus class 42 times.
I hid the bodies.
Gone skinny-dipping with a friend and snapping turtles.
I came into this world naked.

Words of Wisdom to fellow classmates

Selected Responses:

Be where you are when you’re there.
Take it easy and remember we’re all in this whole Independent Study thing together.
Don’t skip any class 42 times. Trust me, you cannot get away with it.
Even if you’re on the right track, you’ll get run over if you just sit there.
Never pet a burning dog.
’Dream as though you’ll live forever; live as though you’ll die today.” –James Dean
Someday they will say we are all crazy, so you might as well get a head start and beat the Christmas rush.
Don’t settle
The world is full of cactus – sometimes you sit on one, but it is up to you whether you’re going to pick the thorns out of your butt or not.
Think of what you have instead of what you want.
Do nice things for people and don’t tell anyone about it.
Take things that happen lightly. Don’t hold grudges; they will tear you up.
To dream of the person you wish to be is to waste the person that you are.
Avoid strangers – introduce yourself.
Great achievement involves great risk.

They responded to the following questions:

1. What three words best describe you?
2. If you could have the wardrobe of any TV or movie character, whose would you want?
3. What was your favorite cartoon when you were growing up?
4. If you could put only one thing in a time capsule, what would it be and why?
Aaron Hansard
Altoona, PA
Altoona High School
Outgoing, loud, different. Marlon Wayans – he has all the new city get-ups that I’ve never saved enough money to buy. Ducktales/X-Men. My stuffed animal “Jesse” – I’ve had him forever and he’s gone on every trip with me.

Adam Ridout
Waynesburg, PA
Waynesburg Central High School
Friendly, easy-going, fun. Neo/Thomas Anderson on the Matrix. Thundercats. 4 books – The Hobbit and the Lord of the Rings trilogy so my future family could read them as I did.

Aaron J. Orszag
Sagamore Hills, OH
Nordonia
Athletic, kind, sensitive. Thunder Cats.

Adam Campbell Yack
Iowa City, IA
Iowa City High
Creative, caring, focused. "The dude" from The Big Lebowski. Nothing says comfort like shorts, t-shirts, and a bathrobe 24/7. Pinky and the Brain. A twinkie. Maybe when the time capsule is opened there will be a famine or drought, and no matter how long you leave them out, twinkies never go bad.

Aaron Vannucci
Huber Heights, OH
Wayne High School
Friendly, funny, thinker. Hyde from "That 70's Show." Scooby Doo. A Jimi Hendrix CD because nothing is as timeless as a guitar riff that gives you goose bumps. And music can soothe.

Alaina Hession
Brockton, MA
Brockton High School

Abigail Cook
Girard, OH
Ursuline High School
Funny, athletic, witty. Amanda Lewis – MTV VJ. The Flintstones. A picture of me and my friends so that I would always remember us in high school together.

Alanna Tryder
Lincoln, MA
Lincoln-Sudbury Regional High School
Sincere, family-oriented, musical. Smurfs. A recording of my senior recital would be placed in the time capsule because my family and friends were present and it was a memorable occasion.
Alice McBee
Tilton, New Hampshire
Tilton School
Un-conventional, witty, clumsy. Rose in Titanic. I didn’t watch TV, but my favorite picture book was The Maggie B. A picture of my parents, where my mother is wearing gold sequined heels, and a bathing cap with rubber alligator on top. They are such nutty, wonderful people I’d like to remember them always just like that.

Amanda Michelle Hoye
Marlborough, NH
Northfield Mount Hermon
Sarcastic, energetic, determined. Gwyneth Palтро from Sliding Doors. Smurfs or Garfield. A picture of me and my friends, simply for laughs.

Ami De
Carmel, IN
Carmel High School
Funny, caring, honest. Rachel from Friends. Scooby Doo. Pictures of my family and friends to remember memories.

Amika Jewel Gibbons
Aliquippa, PA
Sewickley Academy
Nice, religious, energetic. I like Brandi Norwood’s style on the show “Moesha.” I would put the Bible in it. Whoever came across the capsule would then have the opportunity to learn firsthand about Jesus and how he improves lives.

Andrea M. Gousen
Arlington, VA
Washington-Lee High School
Andrew Beltz
Columbus, OH
Upper Arlington High School
Trustworthy, honest, goofy. The guy from that one show. Garfield. Today's newspaper. It comments so much on our society and how we view it. Our era would be seen in a different light.

Andrew Smuch
South Beach, FL
Bayside Academy
Suave, a real problem solver, pretty boy. Zack from Saved by the Bell. My cell phone anda bottle of hair gel.

Andrew Dennis
Defiance, OH
Defiance High School
Focused, honest, energetic. Transformers. My clothes, because they will be in style 20 years from now.

Andrew Clark Spencer
Shaker Heights, OH
Shaker Heights High School
Social, intellectual, kind. Jeff Bridges playing Jeffrey Lebowski in "The Big Lebowski" or possibly "The Jesus" from the same movie. Simpsons. I would put a little white kitten in the time capsule, so when you opened it in 25 years, you'd have a big white kitten. I'd punch some holes and put a few mice in there, too.

Andrew Platt
Pittsburgh, PA
Mount Lebanon High School
Outgoing, caring, trustworthy. Will Smith from The Fresh Prince of Bel Air. Scooby Doo. A computer and a toothbrush because it seems as though updated models come out every week.

Andrew Yutaka Thatcher
Rolling Hills Estates, CA
Palos Verdes Peninsula HS
Relaxed, friendly, truthful. Anything that's not too flashy. The Simpsons. Trumpet, aged instruments are better.

Andrew Shields
Bucyrus, OH
Bucyrus High School
Quiet, creative, honest. James Bond, including the car! Transformers. My collection of 23 Godzilla films because they depict something that I enjoy. As well, they contain many cultural and historic points of interest.

Angela Manella
Westlake, OH
Westlake High School
Idealistic, sarcastic, imaginative. Queen Amidala, Star Wars Episode I. Thundercats. A cell phone, because the fewer there are, the better.
Anjulie Arora
Dehradun (UP), India
Woodstock International School

Affectionate, dog-loving, mixed breed. Actor Ben Kingsley in the movie Ghandi. Simpsons. Age because it changes with time.

Ashley Lyn Salinsky
Canfield, OH
Canfield High School

Anna Krumwiede
Appleton, WI
Appleton East High School

Shy, compassionate, silly. Meredith on "The View." I didn’t have a favorite cartoon, I was a Sesame Street kid. Photographs, to see what people were like and what they did.

Ben Baldwin
Dover, OH
Dover High School

Affable, unflappable, day dreamer. It’s a toss-up between Duck Tales and Animaniacs. I would put all my dirty laundry in a time capsule. Then my room would be clean.

Anna Steckel
Columbus, OH
Upper Arlington High School

Zany, Down-to-earth, reliable. Julia Roberts (Anna Scott) in Notting Hill. She-Ra and Strawberry Shortcake. I would put in a box that contained items that were popular at the time: a tape of songs, movies, a magazine, etc.

Ben Cullman
Bowling Green, OH
Bowling Green High School

Easygoing, crazy, witty. Dusty Bottoms, the character played by Chevy Chase in Three Amigos. Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles. The movie Three Amigos, because it is the funniest movie ever.

Ansley L. White
Radnor, PA
The Shipley School

Ben M. Gillig
Tiffin, OH
Columbian High School

Funny, large, and nice. Wayne Campbell from Wayne’s World. The Simpsons. A journal and some pictures of my friends and I.
Ben Swarts
Danville, OH
Danville High School
Tall, skinny, white. Morpheus, from the Matrix. Looney Tunes – Road Runner & Coyote. My CD collection, to remember the "oldies" when I make it to the future.

Ben Wood
Bridgewater, CT (Born in NJ)
Wooster High School
Out-going, positive, laidback. Pink Floyd from the Wall. The Simpsons. BB King's Gibson Guitar.

Bennett Ostergaard
Seattle, WA
University Prep
Friendly, relaxed, funny. My wardrobe is just fine thank you very much. X-Men (got to see the movie). Martha Stewart – so I don’t have to watch her TV show anymore.

Billy Russell
Kent, OH
Kent Roosevelt High School
Independent, laid-back, adaptable. Morpheus from The Matrix. Transformers. A car, if it would fit. It would show the progress of our attainable, everyday technology.

Bobby Koehler
Silver Spring, MD
St. Andrews Episcopal H.S.
Outgoing, athletic, fun. Simpsons, Dragon Balls.

Brendan Donaghey
Middlebury, VT
Middlebury Union High School

Brent Boelter
Akron, OH
Bevere
Active, friendly, easygoing. Gilligan from Gilligan’s Island; the hat rocks. He-Man. A twinkie; it would be the only thing that would last until the time capsule had been dug up.

Brian T. Gold
Estell Manor, NJ
St. Augustine Prep
Brianne Diorio
Youngstown, OH
Cardinal Mooney High School

Cameron Miller
Wooster, OH
Triway High School

Brooke E. Barnard
Wooster, OH
Wooster High School

Funny, caring, compassionate. Rachel from Friends. Scooby Doo.

Carla Radford
Oshkosh, WI
Wayland Academy

Tiny, goofy, determined. I'd want Angie Harmon's from Law and Order because she's beautiful and intelligent and her clothes show it. I was a bigger fan of Sesame Street. It would be the journal I kept of my senior year so I could pull it out in 20 years and laugh at what a dork I was.

Bryan Armstrong
Highland Hts., OH
Mayfield High School

Quiet, funny, laid-back. Pacey from Dawson's Creek. Rocky and Bullwinkle. My senior video because it's a good reminder of the last 13 years and to remember what it was like to be young.

Casey Wolnowski
Avon Lake, OH
Avon Lake High School

Outgoing, fun, talkative. Keanu Reeves - The Matrix -> I thought the futuristic leather look was cool. Scooby Doo. Pictures of how a city looked in 2000.

Caitlin Lustic
Cleveland Heights, OH
Cleveland Heights High School

Studious, fun-loving, compassionate. Felicity. The Snorkels. A photo album because my friends and family mean the most to me. A single picture can bring back a million memories.

Catherine Mahurin
Franklin, TN
Centennial H.S.

Deadpan, exuberant, pierced. Tilda Swanson's from the movie Orlando - talk about variety. Thundercats, Smurfs, Scooby Doo, Animaniacs, Power Puff Girls! Myself (complete with lifetime supply of food, air, water and entertainment).
Cathy Love
Wooster, OH
Wooster High School

Chris Michelmann
Niles, OH
Niles McKinley High School

Cecily Raynor
Hudson, OH
Hudson High School

Chris Yohuno
Krobo-Odumase, Eastern Region
St. Rose's Secondary School
Optimistic, sociable, compassionate. Grace Omaboe, Akan Drama. Captain Planet. Succeed in every good work. This is because it has always been my heart’s desire and my dad’s attitude towards achieving success in life really spurs me on.

Chad W. Canterbury
Steubenville, OH
Steubenville Big Red
Quiet, analytical, laid back. Fred Flintstone – no need for an iron. "Thunder Cats" and "(Lion) Volton" (a tie). My French book, so I wouldn't have to see it again.

Christian Cory LaSala
Portland, Maine
Cheverus High School
Devil’s advocate, positive, energetic. The Major from "Ghost in the Shell." Voltron. A tool kit – regardless of any economic calamity, tools will be useful and have real value as opposed to perceived value.

Chris Doherty
Westerville, OH
St. Francis Desales
Funny, athletic, intelligent. Neo – The Matrix. Ducktales/Looney Tunes. I would put in a soccer ball, because I bet it will still be played far into the future.

Christina Anastasia Adams
Hicksville, OH
Hicksville High School
Christine Nicole Hecktor
Cincinnati, OH
Glen Este High School

Charismatic, reliable, entertaining. I would love to have the wardrobe of pretty much any character ever played by Grace Kelley. "Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles." I would put in a journal that contained a collection of poetry, essays, and other entries from me and my friends.

Christopher D. Clyde
Wooster, OH
Triway High School

Free flowing, love, dynamite. Indiana Jones, any of the movies. "Captain Planet." A letter to myself about my goals for the future, and what's going on presently. I'd want to know how values changed in however many years it was in the capsule.

Clark Wegner
Wales, WI
University Lake High School

Order, out, of. "The Cat" from "Red Dwarf." Fat Albert and his Junkyard Gang. My friend Jason, because I have a very small time capsule, and Jason is a very small man.

Clint Rhodes
Somerset, OH
Sheridan High School

Colin M. Dunphy
Chapel Hill, NC
Woodberry Forest School

Loud, funny, friendly. Carson Daly, I mean the guy is a dork, but he has good clothes on MTV. The "Smurfs" - now I know more about the mushroom houses, and I like the show more now! Music records that are before CDs so that new generations will not forget good music as well as how old stuff can be cool even if it's outdated.

Colleen Call
Frankfort, KY
Frankfort High School

Disciplined, witty, straight-forward. Jenny from Forrest Gump. Smurfs. A video tape of the TV show ER. I believe this show is television at its best and I'm interested to see how it compares to future TV shows. (I'm sorry if this is bordering cheese...unfortunately, it's the best I could come up with.)

Cory Becker
Canton, OH
McKinley Senior H.S.

Sincere, open, random. William Wallace (Mel Gibson's character in Braveheart). Calvin and Hobbes will always be my favorite. I have a ball made out of my used guitar strings that's all rusty and spiky.

Courtnee' Le'Nae' Washington
Little Rock, AK
Sylvan Hills

Out-going, intelligent, talkative. Jada Pinkett Smith from Jason's Lyric. Tiny Toons. My high school years because I want to be able to relive those days when I'm old and gray.
Courtney Lynn Stiles
Blairstown, NJ
Blair Academy

Imaginative, outgoing, adventurous. I'd want the wardrobe of Grace from the TV show Will & Grace. Gummi Bears. The one thing I'd put into a time capsule would be a bottle of water because who knows what the purity of water would be like if & when the capsule was opened.

Craig Megenhardt
Cuyahoga Falls, OH
Cuyahoga Falls High School

Athletic, determined, smart. Piccolo – Dragon Ball Z. Dragon Ball Z. My VCR because they probably won't be around in the next decade.

Cyrus Karimian
Fairlawn, OH
Copley High School

Humorous, athletic, friendly. Joey from Friends. Scooby Doo. Pictures and memories of my grandmother who was the most important person in my life.

Dan Zamborsky
Brunswick, OH
Padua Franciscan

Smart, funny, athletic. Neo from The Matrix. Scooby Doo. A computer. So we could see how much they changed over time.

Daniel Bandstra
Holland, MI
Holland Christian HS

Daniel Robert George
Shaker Hts., OH
Shaker High

Sentient, kind, goal-oriented. Rick Vaughn – Major League. Scooby Doo. I'd throw in some of my written philosophies about life and God, because I'd like to see if my beliefs would be different over the course of time.

Dan Steck
Brunswick, OH
Brunswick High School

Competitive, hard worker. Stifler from American Pie. Garfield and friends. I would put in a CD because I'm sure in the future these will be a totally different way to listen to music.

Danielle S. Fei’elin
Canton, OH
GlenOak High School

Artistic, easy-going, dependable. Rachel on "Friends." "Sailor Moon." The movie "Goonies", because it's the number one kids adventure movie of all time, not to mention hilarious! I want future generations to enjoy the adventure.
Dannielle Hawkins
Doylestown, OH
Chippewa High School

Shy, caring, changing. Drew Barrymore in Ever After. Smurfs. My relationship with my high school friends, so we would remain close.

David Massey
Dearborn, MI
U of D Jesuit

Darcy Mahler
Kalamazoo, MI
Loy Norrix High School

Deanne E. Rider
Marion, OH
Marion Harding

Energetic, witty, dependable. Imogens from the movie Down to You. Clothes and Fashion Style. Gargoyles. I would put a collection of my poems, writings, drawings, hopes and dreams so my descendants can have a glimpse into my life.

Darryl Tyler Alexander
Lebanon, OH
Lebanon High School

Honest, athletic, intellectual. Regis Philbin – "Who Wants To Be A Millionaire." Jetsons. My state championship football tape. It was the highlight of my high school career.

Deirdre Elizabeth Abele
Sacramento, CA
Saint Francis

Funny, sympathetic, good friend. Rachel on Friends because she always has new clothes and they always look good on her. The Little Mermaid. A photo album with pictures of everyone I like so I don’t forget anyone.

David Esparra
Youngstown, OH
Ursuline High School

Loyal, silly, chillin. Will Smith in "Fresh Prince of Bel-Air." "He-Man," My 2pac music, everyone should experience pac.

Dena Freeman
Mentor, OH
Mentor High School

Enthusiastic, compassionate, diligent. Cher in Clueless. She-Ra, Princess of Power. I would make a scrapbook of pictures, articles, etc. from today’s society so that people in the future could have a clear idea of what life is like today.
Devon Wilson
Zionsville, IN
Zionsville Community High School
Upbeat, humorous & random (so my friends tell me!).
Dharma from Dharma & Greg. Thunder Cats. Tori Amos – Little Earthquakes. It shows the struggles that a woman goes through in order to survive in our time at hand.

Edwin G. Marks
Merchantville, NJ
The William Penn Charter School

Doug Reiser
New Philadelphia, OH
New Philadelphia High School
Fun-loving, energetic, and social. Oh for sure Mighty Mouse, that suit is sweet! Ren & Stimpy. The CD, Pink Floyd – Dark Side of the Moon, because I've listened to it everyday since I was 14.

Elaine Morgan
Cuyahoga Falls, OH
Woodridge High School
Fun, considerate, individual. I suppose anyone's on E.R. would be fine cause I want to be a pediatrician. Gummi Bears. A note to myself predicting my future so I could dig it up later and see just how far off I was.

Douglas Charles Hanke
Columbus, OH
Upper Arlington High School
Attentive, fun-loving, caring. Ferris Bueller from "Ferris Bueller's Day Off." Transformers. A poem to remind me how beautiful the world is.

Eliot Fackler
Plymouth, OH
Plymouth High School
Dedicated, honest, fun-loving. Hyde from "That's 70's Show." "Superfriends." A newspaper featuring articles about rising gas prices, trouble in the Middle East, the 2000 Presidential Candidates and the 2000 Summer Olympics. This would help people understand what life was like in the early 21st Century from a global perspective.

Drew Emerson
Gambier, OH
Mt. Vernon High School

Eliza Cramer
Zelienople, PA
Seneca Valley High School
Creative, dedicated, sensitive. Felicity Porter in Felicity. Smurfs and Strawberry Shortcake. A copy of the quote book I have compiled, because the sayings and quotes within it has gotten me through tough times.
Elizabeth Alberts
White Oak, PA
McKeesport Area High School

Elizabeth Day
Penfield, NY
Penfield High School
Open-minded, unique, emotional. Meg Ryan - You've Got Mail. Alvin and the Chipmunks. My scrapbook because I'm a packrat. I never throw anything away!

Elizabeth Strain
Indianapolis, IN
Park Tudor School
Happy, strong willed, reliable. I dress the way I am most comfortable. I don't know of any characters wardrobe that I would want because I wear different clothes from day to day. Tom & Jerry, Rocky & Bullwinkle. My bear, because it is the closet thing to my heart, and it has been with me all my life.

Emily Davis
Carbondale, IL
Carbonale Community H.S.
Thoughtful, enthusiastic, optimistic. Maggie (Emily Watson) in The Boxer. Transformers. My senior yearbook because it's a reflection of who I am and where I come from.

Emily Katherine Heine
Bath, OH
Revere High School
Willy, short, wombatious. I don't know but when I was younger I wanted Clarissa's wardrobe from the show 'Clarissa Explains It All.' Ninja Turtles. The picture of me sticking my tongue out on the New York bus because it shows a little of who I am.

Emily G.H. Carlisle
Beaver Falls, PA
Blackhawk High School
Amicable, fair-minded, sensitive. Clarissa from Clarissa Explains it All. Inspector Gadget. A bible. God's love and presence is a steadfast and unconditional thing and would greatly aid a changing world.

Emily Stewart
Tilton, NH
Tilton School
Outgoing, crazy, indecisive. Julia Stiles - Kat Straffora from 10 Things I Hate About You. Tale Spin. My CD collection cause it's a reflection of the times and I could hardly live without times.

Erik Shipe
Green, OH
Green
Erin Hayes
Dover, DE
Dover High School

Open-minded, flexible, fun loving. I would love to have Grace Kelly's wardrobe from "Rear Window." "Rescue Rangers." I would put in a letter telling how the world is today, some jokes, and what people do for fun.

Erin Herzberg
Euclid, OH
Euclid High School

Outgoing, friendly. Buffy from Buffy the Vampire Slayer. The Smurfs.

Erin Kriynovitch
Valley View, OH

Woodward Academy

Evan Agona
Cortland, OH
Youngstown Ursuline

Athletic, exciting, friendly. "Scooby Doo." My state championship ring. It was the best day of my life because I also got my diploma.

Evan Harlow
Westminster, VT
The Putney School

Witty, relaxed, charming. Patrick Swayze from Dirty Dancing. X-Men. My shoes in a zip lock bag so that people can know if odor control has improved over the years.

Fred Ingram
Sheffield Lake, OH
Brockside High School

Active, energetic, outgoing. James Bond in Golden Eye. Simpsons. A photo album so I wouldn't forget my past.

Gabrielle Caldwell
Shaker Heights, OH
Shaker Heights High School

Ambitious, understanding, responsible. Jennifer Lopez. No matter what she wears, it always manages to look great! Gummi Bears and Smurfs. The fashions of today. Since style varies with time, I think it would be neat to see how much things change in 20 yrs (or more).
Geoff Allerton
Pittsburgh, PA
North Allegheny
Focused, laid-back, funny. I would have the wardrobe of Shaft, the old movie, not the new one. Voltron. I would put a can of Spam in a time capsule, because Spam is a very useful product, and who knows what we will need it for in the future?

George Morrison
Columbus, OH
St. Charles Preparatory
Calm, happy, nice. Cosmo Kramer, Seinfeld. Tale Spin. A teddy bear. I do believe that in a time capsule, many would put things dealing with adults. I would rather have something from a child in it.

George Neuendorf
Poland, OH
Poland Seminary High School
Fun, smart, skinny. Thomas Anderson/Neo in the Matrix. Roadrunner cartoons. I would put in one of my favorite hats because I love baseball caps.

Ginny Martino
Monroeville, PA
Gateway Senior High School
Athletic, kind, funny. Scooby Doo and Thunder Cats. A photo album because pictures always tell the truth and show emotions. Also, a person will always be able to remember people and places by pictures.

Ginny Tucker
Champaign, IL
University High School
Friendly, intelligent, compassionate. Calvin and Hobbes. A video tape of one day’s worth of TV – it could give general ideas of how people talked, lived, interacted, and also certain cultural values.

Grace-Ann Lindsay

Outgoing, enthusiastic, creative. Carson Daily, MTV, Total Request Live. Simpsons. A classic car, clothes, and an Atari to be able to show my kids the clothes and games we had as kids.

Jaymie Strecker
Marietta, OH
Marietta High School

Confused, introspective, sarcastic. Batman (especially the utility belt). Peter Pan, Batman, Smurfs. I’d preserve summer vacations because I don’t want to give them up as I grow older.

James Gilchrist IV
Beaver, WV
Woodrow Wilson

Jeanne Breitmayer
Dublin, OH
Dublin Coffman H.S.

Talkative, sensitive, determined. Monica’s from Friends. Gummi Bears. Scrapbook of my life and what I’ve done with parts of current magazines in it so I could remember what it was like to be a teenager during the 1990’s.

James D. Williams
Lorain, OH
Lorain Admiral King

Smart, humorous, dedicated. Steve Harvey from The Steve Harvey Show. Voltron. My picture so the girls of the future can see what they missed.

Jeff Huber
Westlake, OH
St. Edward High School

Dedicated, honest, fun. Billy Hoyle (Woody Harrelson) in White Men Can’t Jump. "He-Man." The scrapbook my best friend made for me with pictures of me with all my friends from high school.
Jennifer Bolt
South Amherst, OH

Silly, generous, trustworthy. Karen from Will and Grace. Scooby Doo. A Third Eye Blind CD so everyone would remember how awesome they are.

Jennifer Flavin
Pittsburgh, PA
Seten-LaSalle High School

Outgoing, sincere, happy. Alicia Silverstone in "Clueless." "She-ra Princess of Power." A picture of me with my friends. When people see it, they'll know how close we were and how much fun we had.

Jennifer Jenkins
Beavercreek, OH
Beavercreek High School

Spirited, procrastinator, helpful. Anyone on a soap opera because they never have to wear the same thing twice. I really didn't watch cartoons, I preferred shows with real-life people in them. A scrapbook of photos because it could show all the people I have met, places I've seen and things I have done.

Jennifer Moss
Monroeville, PA
Gateway Senior High School

Friendly, athletic, outgoing. Dharma from Dharma and Greg. Flinstones. My old computer - an Apple. I would like to plug it back in and show my kids.

Jesse R. Menefee
Chagrin Falls, OH
Kenston

Valorous, Venerable, noble. I would be dressed like James Bond. I mean, he shoots people while wearing a tuxedo. How cool is that? "Scooby Doo." A completely useless object - a pom-pom painted brown, for example. That way it could be the twentieth wonder of the world because the future folk won't be able to figure out why it was so important.

Jessica Berry
Shreve, OH
Triway High School

Dependable, honest, diligent. "Winnie the Pooh." My scrapbook because it contains pictures and articles of many of my memories.
Jessica Nan Clarke
Marietta, OH
Marietta High School
Cheerful, inventive, clumsy. Rachel Greene – Friends. The Smurfs. Probably one of my Rusted Root CD's because most people end up giving away or selling their favorite albums when they get older and then wish they still had them later.

Jessica A. Love
Bainbridge (Chagrin Falls), OH
Kenston High School
Athletic, fickle, fun. Sesame Street. Pictures so that I'd always be able to look back at how I've changed and all the things I've done in my life.

Jessica Hiznay
New Springfield, OH

Open-minded, loquacious, nice. Scarlett O'Hara in Gone With the Wind. A movie, because film can capture a lot about a society in a certain time period.

Karina Colbenson
Littleton, CO
Littleton High School
Humorous, cheerful, strong-willed. Rachel from Friends. Muppet Babies. A collection of Dr. Seuss books, everyone can relate to them and they teach all of life’s important lessons.

Kate Dotterer
Sunbury, PA
Danville Area High School
Sagittarius, yellow, patient. Lisa Simpson – Simpsons. Road Runner. I would put roller skates in a time capsule because I think the next generation won’t know what they are.

Kate Foster
Princeton, NJ
Princeton High School
Friendly, silly, talented. Mary Camden on 7th Heaven. Garfield. I would put in a recording of me having a conversation with someone so people could know for a fact how we actually talked.

Kate Matthews
Pittsburgh, PA
Carrick High School
Athletic, creative, musical. Joey Potter from Dawson’s Creek. Garfield and Friends. My senior yearbook so future generations could see what the class of 2000 enjoyed, dressed like and participated in.

Curious, friendly and down to earth. Gillian Anderson. Garfield. A picture of my family because no matter what happens in the future my family will still represent security to me.

Katie Stainbrook
Fremont, OH
Fremont Ross High School

Funny, smart and amazing. I have to say Meg Ryan, in "You’ve Got Mail!" When I was little, My Little Pony. But now, it’s the Simpsons! A disposable camera filled with weird pictures because when people find it later they can see the way that life "looked" in our time-period. Also, I think it might give them a laugh to see nasty-morning pictures of my friends and I!

Katie Frato
Mentor, OH
Mentor High School

Nerdy, dependable, dedicated. Agent Dana Scully of the X-Files. Except I wouldn’t want her shoes. Inspector Gadget. The Sunday comics. I think they’re a really good indicator of the issues people are concerned about and would give people in the future a pretty complete view of our daily lives.

Kay Ritchey
Bexley, OH
Bexley High School

Fun, caring, creative. Kate Winslet’s in Sense and Sensibility because I would like to be part of early 1900’s England. He-man and She-re Princess of Power. Saad Ahmed Khatri
Karachi, Pakistan
Karachi Grammar School

Articulate, artistic, procrastinator. Kramer (Seinfeld). Jerry (Tom and Jerry). My Gibson electric guitar because I believe it has contributed immensely on the development of music.

Sarah Blue
Danville, OH
Danville High School

Caring, weird, thoughtful. Kelly Taylor from 90210. Smurfs. My senior yearbook that way people then would see what it was to grow up now.

Sally Lawton
El Paso, TX
Loretto Academy

Smart, inquisitive, friendly. Flora Poste from Cold Comfort Farm. Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles. The Phantom Tollbooth by Norton Juster because it is a good book.

Sarah Church
Hugo, OK
Hugo High School

Congenial, tenacious, outgoing. I want the wardrobe of Scarlet O'Hara in Gone with the Wind. Inspector Gadget would put my journal in a time capsule if I could. That way people could know what the world was like for me "back in the day."

Sam Almy
Charleston, ME
Foxcroft Academy

Relaxed, not-the-same, low-maintenance. The Doctor from Doctor Who. Transformers. Directions to find the time capsule so everyone could find it.

Sarah Drewes
Cincinnati, OH
Colerain High School

Hardworking, honest, trustworthy. Joey on Dawson's Creek. My Little Ponies. I would put a computer in it to show the future people how well things advance over the years.
Sarah Enslen
Overland Park, Kansas
Shawnee Mission South
Energetic, athletic, caring. Monica from Friends. Alvin and the Chipmunks. Pictures of friends and family because it would remind me of my childhood.

Sarah Reinbold
DeTour Village, MI
DeTour High School
Imaginative, patient, understanding. Emma’s off of the movie Emma. The Gummi Bears. My DNA, just imagine everything they will be able to do with it in the future.

Sarah Grant
Woodstock, CT
Hyde School
Change the world. The Last Unicorn. A letter – why leave people guessing about the significance of an object or the past when I could tell them the way things are.

Sarah Shafer
Chagrin Falls, OH
Kenston High School
Fun, open-minded, devoted. Scooby Doo. My youth because I never want to lose my free spirit and I don’t want to get old.

Sarah Noe
Indianapolis, IN
Roncalli High School
Imaginative, offbeat, procrastinator. Drew Barrymore – Ever After. Thundercats or Smurfs. Matisse’s “Harmony in Red”, as it is my favorite painting. It also captures nearly every aspect of human emotion.

Sarah Siebert
Olmsted Falls, OH
Olmsted Falls High School
Compassionate, loyal, sincere. Mimi from the Drew Carey Show. Looney Tunes. A sound moment in the company of a loved one to be re-opened during a time of loneliness.

Sarah Och
Wheeling, WV
The Linsly School
Outgoing, friendly, fun. Jennifer Aniston – Friends. Rainbow Bright. I would write myself a letter saying what I hope to accomplish and when I dig it up see how much of it I had done.

Sebastian Gleman
Mt. Vernon, OH
Mt. Vernon High School
Creative, artistic, musical. The Vampire Lestat, Interview with the Vampire. He-Man. A CD of music from our time, because I think that music more than anything else describes the outlook of people in a certain time period.
Shannon Huzicka
Youngstown, OH
Cardinal Mooney High School

Fun, friendly, smart. Rachel's from Friends. Alvin and the Chipmunks. Photo album to remember everyone and everything and so other people could see how we dressed and what we are like.

Stephanie Foster
Strongsville, OH
Strongsville High School

Shikhir Goel
New Delhi
Cairo American College

Sincere, honest, diligent. Matt Dillon in "Something About Mary." Tom and Jerry. My first love's father's business card. I mysteriously found it between a textbook in school and it's what I remember her by.

Ted Weintraut
Macon, GA
Central High School

Insightful, witty, and creative. Michael Douglas' character in Wonder Boys. Danger Mouse. A random big-city newspaper, because it would allow future generations to see what events were important and interesting to people of this time.

Spencer Wyatt
Perry Township (Massillon), OH
Perry High School

Honest, outgoing, trustworthy. Tek, from the Real World. He-man, Masters of the Universe. Michael Jordan rookie card. The probability of me losing this card would be diminished when I put the card in a place that no one has access to for a long time. The value of the card, when uncovered could eventually put my kids through school.

Terra Walters
Creston, OH
Norwayne

Thoughtful, fun-loving, conscientious. Buffy from Buffy the Vampire Slayer. Sailor Moon. A copy of the movie Labyrinth because it's my favorite movie. I would want the children of the future to enjoy it as much as I do. Not to mention David Bowie is a total hottie!

Stacia Koch
St. Louis, MO
Villa Duchesne

Comedic, open-minded, energetic. Audrey Hepburn's character in Breakfast at Tiffany's. Inspector Gadget and The Muppets. Copies of my favorite comedic movies so people could enjoy the same humor in them as I did.

Theo K.M. Thwing
Ebensburg, PA
Central Cambria

Interested, enthusiastic, happy. Simpsons. A lock of hair if I can spare it, I would just like to look at it when I'm an old man.
Thomas G. Spears
Springdale, OH
Princeton High School
Smart, funny, nice. Looney Tunes. A newspaper because it is a window into a small portion of the past.

Wes Bonadio
Cranberry Twp., PA
Seneca Valley

Todd Robert Johnson
Bradford Woods, PA
North Allegheny Senior High
Fun, unique, uh... Late? Bart Simpson – The Simpsons. Scooby Doo. Pictures, movies, stories.

Bradford Woods, PA
North Allegheny Senior High
Fun, unique, uh... Late? Bart Simpson – The Simpsons. Scooby Doo. Pictures, movies, stories.

Whitney Cawley
Joliet, IL
Joliet Central High School
Compassionate, friendly, musical. Joey from Dawson’s Creek. The Smurfs. This scrapbook that I made of my 4 years in high school, because when I look back on it later it would bring back memories of all the great times I’ve had and people I’ve met.

Tom Canfield
Hanover, NH
Hanover High School

Tom Canfield
Hanover, NH
Hanover High School

Whitney Helen Jackson
Upper Arlington, OH
Upper Arlington High School
Creative, enthusiastic, independent. Felicity Porter from Felicity. Gummi Bears. A sunflower because it’s cheery and can brighten my attitude.

Tom Helms
Naperville, IL
Naperville North High School
Creative, humorous, idealistic. “Spiderman” – just the suit, not his jeans and T-shirt as Peter Parker. “Samurai Pizza Cats.” A twinkie. They never go bad. Plus, one day they may be an alternative fuel source, produced by Hostess Electric Corp.

William M. Laukitis
Holland, MI
Holland High School
Outgoing, laid back, me. The Rocky and Bullwinkle Show. A picture of my friends and me because they are my memories.
William C. Thomas
Wooster, OH
Wooster High School

Wilmette A. Dadzie
Houston, Texas
Achimota School (Ghana)
Unpredictable, jovial and outspoken. Meg in Sunset Beach. She-Ra (Princess of Power). Unity between all men because we have spent so much time in destroying each other due to racism while we could have used that time to build each other up.

Yasameen Behdad
Granville, OH
Granville High School
