Monday 1926?

Dear folks.

Just a short note to tell you a little news. You remember I mentioned something about a conference being held this last weekend!
Well it was a Northern Ohio College Conference - including all the Y.M.'s Y.W.s - and S.K. is of the Northern Ohio Union. I hadn't given a second thought on going because of debate, etc. -

— Well this morning one of the girls came up and congratulated me - and on questioning her I found out that I was elected —

Sec. and Treasury of the Northern Ohio Union - a union of about 20 colleges.

I was shocked! - - - can you imagine what that means. Mamie Berry, who was at the conference and also an officer in the union, brought me home the books and checks when! That's enough to stun me for a while!

Then today tryouts were held for the color day play and I decided I'd try out for fun - so gave my Italian piis - and this evening at Debate one of the girls informed me that I was one of those picked for the second tryout which will be held again tomorrow. In that tryout we tryout from a cutting of the play itself. There was 50 or so that ~~tryout~~ tried but Sean said: 'Whew!' - I tried out for the Daughter or 4 other girls which have fine parts. There were eleven picked to try out for these 5 places - so 6 will be eliminated now.

Such is life at college.

Much Love

Busy Beaw.

If I should happen to make a part in the play, you'll all have to come to Wooster for color day, which is the biggest event in Wooster's college year.

Eleven cases of measles broke out today at Kenardine. All the infirmaries are full.
