His

His Majelties Letter to the Major of Kingston upon Hull. the 25. of April, 1642.

To Our trusty and welbeloved, the Major, Aldermen, and Burgeses of Our Town and Port of Kingston upon Hull.

Rusty and well beloved, We greet you well, whereas Wee have bin long sensible of the just complaints and great Burdens of Our Subjects in these Northern parts, by occasion of the Garrison in our Town of Hull; and whereas We were on Friday the 22. of this Moneth petitioned by divers of the Gentry, and others, Inhabitants of this County, That the Munition at Hull might remain in the Magazine there, for the security of Our Person, and of all these Northern parts, their Feares being much grounded upon the Parliaments Relations of for-reign Invasions: Vpon which, the more to expresse Our care of Our peoples safety, We did our self go in person to char our Town, that upon our own view We might consult what proportion of it might bee fitly removed upon any pressing occasion, having a respect to the promised supply for Scotland, the necessary use of Arms for Ireland, as well as for the safeguard and satisfaction of these Northern parts. But much contrary to our expectation, and the Duty and Allegiance of our Subjects, we found the Gates of that our Town shut, and the Bridges drawn up against Vs; and though We came in a peaceable way, reposing the greatest Confidence in the Love and Loyalty of our People, by offering (as we did) to put our own Person, and our two Sonnes, but with 20.
Horse, into that Town, there being in it a Garrison of about 800. Souldiers; Yet We were not onely denyed entrance, but in a warlike manner opposed by Sir John Hotham, the armed men being placed in all the Ports, and about all the Walls of the Town attheadging (though falsely) for his excuse, the Command of the Parliament; and being pressed by Vs to shew such an Order in writing he could not doe it, for We were very confident that there was never any publick Order of theirs, that could so much as imply a denyall to Our admission: We knowing well enough, that hee was entrusted by them for a Guard and Security of that place against all forreign Enemies, or those at home who are disaffected in Religion & not against his natural Sovereign, which hostile Opposition and actuall Levying of War against our person, being by the Statute of 25. Ed. 3. enacted high Treason, which Statute condemned, and that for the avoyding of all jealousies, as We have said, We were content to have bin admitted with so very small a number in our Company, We were thereupon constrained to proclaim the said Sir John Hotham, & all those that should adhere to, or assist him, Traytors. Of all which abovesaid passages, Wee

We have acquainted our Parliament, demanding Iustice to be done upon him, that they might thereby have opportunity to vindicate the imputation laid on them by sic Iohn Hotham, and We the easier way to chastize, according to the Law, so high a Treason. And lest a mis-understanding of Our intentions, or of the Law may misguide, our loyall and wel-affectcd Subjects, the Inhabitants, Caprains, Officers, or souldiers i tha Towne, VVe have thought fit to commend to your consideration the aforesaid Statute, with that of the eleventh of Hen. 7. Cap. 1.

VVherein it is declared, by the unanimous Assent of Parliament, That the Subjects of this Realm are bound, by the Duty of Allegiance, to serve the King for the time being, for the defence of His Person and the Land, against every Rebellion, M'ght, or Power raised against Him and with His Majesty to enter or abide in Service in Battell, if cause so require. And it was therefore then enacted, That from thence forth no person whosoever that shall attend upon the King, or be in place, by His command within or without the Land. That for the same deed and true service of Allegiance, he, and they be no way attaint or convict of high Treason, or of other Offences for that Cause, by any Proccesse of Law, whereby he, or any of them shall lose or forfeit Lives, Lands, Tenements, Goods, or any thing; but be for that Deed and Service utterly discharged of any vexation, trouble, or losse; And if any Act or Acts, or other Proccesse of Law thereupon for the same happen to be made contrary to this Ordinance, that then that Act or Acts, or other Proccesse of the Law what soever they shall be, stand and be utterly voyd.

All which, together with the Copies of Our Message and Petition ( which VVe send here inclosed ) We require you to publish to the Inhabitants, and all such Commanders and Souldiers as will beare them: That knowing both the Perill of the Law on the one side, and the security of such as shall adhere to Vs on the other, they be not misled (through ignorance) to decline their Allegiance; and that the Souldiers may lay down their Arms, and admit Our entrance in a peaceable way. In so doing, you shall bot discharge your duties, and those that shall have need, be assured to find (upon such their submission) Our ready Mercy and pardon And We doe likewise require, & charge you, the Inhabitants (as wel Souldiers as others) upon your Allegiance, That you permit not any part of our Magazin or Munition to bee removed or transported out of that Towne under any pretence of Order or Power whatsoever, without our Royal Assent in writing under Our Hand. Assuring you, That it will be much more pleasing to Vs to have Occasion administered by the Fidelity of the Inhabitants to enlarge those Graces and Immunities granted to that Towne by Our predecessors, then to have any occasion to question your Charter.
