Students Asked To Air Complaints

The Student-Faculty Relations Committee has set aside, as a regular part of its meetings, a period for the airing of complaints from students. Students may, by making their complaints known to the chairmen of the committee, have them scheduled for discussion at one of their regular meetings.

Chairmen of the Student-Faculty Relations Committee are: William Burns, Mr. J. W. Elder, and the Rev. Dr. W. K. Kane of Trinity Church.

The members of the committee will be present at the meeting on Monday night, October 28, at 8:30 p.m., in the Senate Chamber. Students who have complaints to present should be present at the meeting in order to present their cases before the committee.

Cham From To Visit Woolser Rubber Co.

The Chemistry Club, already in its second active year, is one of the busiest groups in the college. Under the guidance and advice of Professors E. B. Leavitt, the club has developed a full schedule of activities. Members have attended numerous meetings, and the club has sponsored several solicitation drives.

At their last meeting, November 8, the members of the club planned for next year's activities. The club is now in its second year, and it is expected to continue to grow in the future.

Professors and students met at the club's annual meeting on November 8. The meeting was attended by a large number of students, and it was reported that the club had already raised $1,000 for its activities.

Ashland Next Ye For Wooster Gridders
Eagles Have Won Only One Game;
Scots Seek To Even Season's Stale

Fresh from a whipping 35-7 victory over the Allegheny Gators, the Scots once again hit the road tomorrow afternoon as they visit Ashland College, home of the Eagles. Last year in Ashland, the Scots left town with only a 1-0 contest, as the Eagles had been on a roll since that game. In the three contests since then, the Eagles have won 14-24-27, which is probably not a coincidence.

As mentioned, this contest is being run to even the score for this season for the Scots as they kick horns with the Eagles of the Mid-Oho Lingering. And it might also be an effort to finally break the losing streak of 13 straight that the Scots will get that third one.

This year Coach George Grangers' "People in granite" it definitely lacks the edge that it showed in the past, a team. Out of both games that the Eagles have lost, the Scots have played well in their next two games. Next Monday will be the homecoming game for the Eagles. These, too, were "People in granite," but they were the Slate Run Grangers, and the Slate Run Grangers were the winners. This year, it will be the Scots who have the edge. The Eagles have taken some classes, and their game going into a win streak, although they need to use them and have been able to play well against the Panthers.

As for Ashland, they have played some good football this season, and their defense has been solid. The Eagles have won three games this season, and their defense has been good in those contests. As for Wooster, they have played some solid football this season, and their defense has been good in those contests.

The game will be played at 2:00 P.M. at Ashland College. The Eagles will be wearing their traditional black and orange uniforms, while the Scots will be wearing their traditional green and gold uniforms. The weather is expected to be clear and sunny, with temperatures in the mid-60s.

Students, Prof To Exhibit Art In Massillon Show
Four students and Mr. Dan Eckert, art instructor, have had their work selected for the Massillon Museum’s 18th annual state-wide show. The exhibit consists of 119 displays done in a wide variety of mediums.

Included in the show are works by: Milton Davis, whose watercolor is entitled “Sails”; Jim Couse, whose drawing is called “City by Night”; Ted Moen, who entered a watercolor still life, “Thistle Show”, whose ceramic sculpture is titled “Vanquished”, and Mr. Eckert, whose woodcut is called “The Card Player”.

The show is running from Nov. 1 through Dec. 1 and most of the exhibits are for sale.
