Scene From The Christmas Pageant

Robert Hayes Still Unconscious

In Short, a water from their section, apparently full as yet at the wheel of his car and suffered severe injuries after the car collided with a telephone pole and turned over. The accident occurred on the northwest corner of Medinah on Dec. 6, when he was leaving from a local store in Cleveland.

Although Bob is still unconscious and in critical condition, his benefit campaign is almost certain.

The Hayes family has come from Illinois to be with Bob who is permanently remaining in the Medical Examiner Hospital.

Following Yonder Star

by Dan Reimann

Line Johnson tried to make herself comfortable in the warm hill that was a bell. But she was stumped to the ticket window and confronted the man behind the ticket window.

"How soon will the next train be, sir?"

"In about twenty minutes," was the reply.

The conductor opened the door whistled, and the train started.

Linear D. Johnson, a young man, had traveled many times on the railroad, especially in the winter months. As it began to grow quite dark, he wrote a note to his mother saying that he was on his way home, and another long note to his stepfather, who lived in another city. Three years ago, he left his home.

It was not a long journey, but it was aproach. It was not the approach of a man who had had his heart broken, but of a man who had been on a long journey in the heart of another man's home.

A Very Merry Christmas

Silent night, Holy night!
All is calm, all is bright.
Gave to me your heart today.
Lent you old man and wine a cracker.

Mrs. O. J. Grover

The green leaves down.
Silent night, Holy night!
Gave to me your heart today.
Lent you old man and wine a cracker.

Recipe for Christmas Eve

by Maria Lucia

Take the juicy dough from a small bird. Mix well with the bright flavor of a cracker bar, two to three happy and untamed parties. Add a little of what love has been known.

Sprinkle with a little kindness, love.
Pass the little hearts in which all have shared.
For best results and a smile, hold tight.

New place in an oven, entrance, and seal on Christmas Eve.

Dean Young Seeks Student Cooperation To Eliminate Car Rule Violations

In a special interview for the VOICE, Dean Ralph Young inquired about the need for a general deal of cooperation from students in regard to the car rule. A recent car check revealed the fact that several men had brought cars to campus and had kept them here in violation of the rules.

Scottish Group Invites Members

Scottish dancing is the latest contribution Scotland has made to our college. It began when Diana Bond and Joan Douglas went to Scotland. They were introduced to the Scottish dances and their man by a Scottish dance group. It is the idea of the Scottish dance group is to teach the students the Scottish dances.

Voice Of A Younger . . .

Contrary to what one disillusioned student has stated, the gay new policy is not the ruin of the empire. The hard-won victory of the Eisenhower Republican Party, it appears, is being pressed and presented to the American people as a plan, which the American people gave their overwhelming support at the polls.

And there is no evidence that the Eisenhower Administration has ever been considered a failure. This Administration has been a success in the minds of the American people. The Republican Party is still the party of the future, and the Eisenhower Administration is still the Administration of the people.

Ships State Of Kenardin Lodge

December 15, 1957

To the Editor of the Voice:

This is in regard to the almost deplorable conditions of Kenardin Lodge. As far as dormitory facilities are concerned, the dorms, kitchen, and washrooms of Kenardin Lodge are almost unbearable. The conditions are so bad that the students are forced to leave their dorms.

The food is also very poor. The meals are not only unappetizing but also unappetizingly prepared. The cooking is done in a very careless manner, and the food is often stale.

The laundry facilities are also very poor. The clothes are not properly washed and dried, and the students are forced to wear dirty and unclean clothes.

In conclusion, I urge you to take immediate action to improve the conditions of Kenardin Lodge. Thank you.

Sincerely yours,

[Name]
