Dearest Daddy:

I just finished sending out four more invitations one to Hamingsons.

Why, Daddy when you get home I'll only have one exam to take and that is Spanish on Tuesday - I have Shakespeare on Thursday
Reformation on Friday.
All of my exams are
at 8:00.

Tonight we have a beautiful service on the quad 'neath the
elms - when the seniors
in their robes - pass

down the traditions of Wooster to the underclassmen dressed in white. - We sing a class song etc.

The Westminster
Choir of Dayton - sings at our Baccalaureate service on Sunday morning.
Mother surely would enjoy that. I wish you could all come up - Sunday would be here for the class
play on Sunday, the alumni banquet on Saturday and the Bac.
services etc on Sun -

I think I've decided in my mind
definitely not to even think about coming back next year.

Louise Irwin said that her folks. (Mr and Mrs Irwin) wrote her that you spend a
prayer at the assembly.
I'm anxious to hear
your report of things there. It surely would have been nice if Mother could have gone. She's Kelas is at Gulesa..... on the Comm. I believe.
You might see him.

Am having some time going to dinner
parties teas and banquets..... We are invited into
Δ Ε Ρ tomorrow
night.

Love "
Beau
