BARKLEY SPEAKS THURSDAY

Institute And Young Democrats Sponsor Senator's Speech On Youth In Politics

Joe H. Buntlin, Director of the Institute of Politics, has just announced that the Honorable Alfred A. Barkley, who was recently elected to the United States Senate from Kentucky, has accepted a speaking engagement with the Institute at the College of Wooster. The meeting will be held in the college chapel at 8:30 p.m. on Thursday, November 11, 1954. The doors of the chapel will open at 8:00 p.m. and the public is invited.

At Wooster Mr. Barkley will emphasize the importance of youth in political organizations.

Yo's Rave Drive

Co-sponsored with the Institute for this event is the Young Democrats Club, which launched a reviewed effort for a membership drive in connection with its appearance. "Seat at the Chapel will be the first step in the build-crats," said Virg Minor, Young Democrats Club chairman.

Following the speech the Young

Democrats will have an opportunity to elect Mr. Barkley at a reception at Balcomb Hall.

Mr. Barkley will be "served as the 'You,'" a nickname he received at the Senate. His recent election to the Senate, revised to that body after an absence of

Democrats Seek New Members

The Young Democrats will eligi-

be his national membership campaign for the 1953-55 school term. There is, however, no Barkley's speech this Thursday. A new feature, affiliate membership cards, will allow the holder to enjoy membership in the Young Democrats even though he is already a member of the Young Republican Club. Membership cards will be on sale starting Tuesday, November 9, and will continue to be sold throughout the year by pre-order captains.

The precinct captains are: Holden Arwin, Joyce Apple; Katherine

Khub, Shirley Fowles, Homer

Cottage, Ann Harriou, Scott Cottage, Provo; W. Douglas Hall, Jerry

Carlisle, Virg Minor; Miller Manor;

Teresa Minor, Holode Manor; Nancy

Orr Hud; West-

minister Cottage, Pat Campbell; Andrew Hall, Hill Bower; Senate Cottage, Miss hose; Third Section, Dick Callendar; Fourth Section, Miss Townsend; Sixth Section, Ellis Last; Seventh Section, Miss Khoobyarian, and Eighth Section, Dan Collins. (Continued on Page Two)

Miss Winifred Wygal Will Speak

Upper Holden Dining Room has been reserved for the YWCA Centennial Banquet which will take place on November 16 at 6:30 p.m. Miss Winifred Wygal, writer, speaker and former Secretary of Religion for the National Young Women's Club, will be the after-dinner speaker. Her talk is entitled, "Why Do We Not Dread Birthdays?"

Attending the dinner will be 132 girls who will celebrate the forty-ninth anniversary of the founding of the first YWCA in the world.

Letters have been sent to former members of the Advisory Board, and to former presidents of the Wooster YW, inviting them to the College; Oxford. Her lecture will be the centennial celebration. Centennial programs of the YWCA this year, will act as sessions of ceremonies for the dinner.

The decorums, menu, and program will emphasize the birthday party theme.

Centennial Committee

Chairman of the Centennial Committee is Barbara Persons and Peggy Sessions. Student members of it are Dorothy Anderson, Sally Griffith, Joy Hopefield, Marilyn Rhoten, and Bertha Trosien. Advisers to the committee are Mrs. Fred Yeager and Mrs. Charlene Townsend.

Arrangements have been made to that girls who were unable to be at the funeral because of the limited accommodations, can attend the sad reunion in delays and for the main event.

Miss Wygal will also speak in chapel on Wednesday morning, November 17. A delegation of Drury College, the did graduate work at Columbia University, Union Theological Seminary, University of Chicago, and Queens-

College in New York. She was born to Jesus, Zhana, India,

Patience, and Europe, as well as over North America.

Food Service saves $30 per person on the monthly meal of soup, crackers, and milk. These savings are collected and divided among the projects.

Dad's Day Addition Causes Enthusiasm

A new addition to the Dad's Day Drive has served as an encourin the annual Dad's Day Drive this year.

upper South Carolina Avenue, which is located in Lower Gallina for a period of discussion with Mr. W. D. Doan, and members of the faculthy. Earlier in the morning, they were met at their offices so that students could bring their discussion cards to them individually. Introduced by Dad's Day chairman, Mr. Doan, the purpose of giving parents and faculty an opportunity to get better acquainted, the idea received enthusiastic comment from many who were present at both the conferences and

Lowry Opens Discussion

Lowry opened the discussion period with a brief talk in which he outlined the college program and presented certain curricula of it. The remainder of the discussions were to questions from the parents, which were answered by a panel composed of President Lowry, Dean Grady, Dean Golden, Dean Young, and Mr. Preston.

Three questions were raised as fo-

if and legal era in liberal college?", and "What are the prerequisites for college work of the four years?" Mr. Lowry answered the first by stating that a liberal arts education, and the second by discussing the knowledge and to enrich the life of the student through the framework of a liberal arts con-

(Continued on Page Four)

151 Scots Donate In Blood Drive

For Red Cross

This is a vein subject. One hundred and fifty-one students donated a total of 24 units of blood which were contributed to the Red Cross. No blood was collected on Monday, November 15, because of a strike. No few people actually failed to appeal for their appointments.

This Sunday afternoon, November 14, at 3 p.m. there will be a book discussion on Arnold Toynbee's 'A Study of History, abridged by Scotts UW, at the same time, at Dasch, 1032 Palmer St.

Mrs. Minni Makson, general chairwoman of the Wayne County Blood Program, wished to express her appreciation to all the students and faculty for their cooperation, which made the drive a success. She said that Mary El-lee Barkley and Bob Mitchell, the student chairman of the drive, contributed an excellent job in reacting.

The women running the drive wished to apologize to the people of the dorm, the décor line was held up for long periods of time. They also wished to express their thanks to the nurses who came down from Cleveland to help. There were also two nurses who had never worked in a blood drive before.
MORE ON

Institute

(Continued from Page One)

in the college clubs and membership.

Some of the personalities who have promised to be or have been on the campus this year under Institute sponsorship include Congressman Frank T. Bow, Oliver P. Bolton, William Ayres, and Robert Crosser of Ohio. Other national figures include Speaker of the House Joseph W. Martin, Jr., Senator Alben W. Barkley, and Senator Thomas Burke. State officials who will visit the campus are Attorney General C. William O'Neill, Lieutenant Governor John W. Brown and Secretary of State Ted W. Brown. Governor G. Mennen Williams of Michigan has promised an early date in the second semester.

Planning has been initiated for a special program second semester when 50 interested students will be given the opportunity to spend "A Day in Columbus". The proposed trip will include visits to the state legislature and executive offices as well as seminar meetings with various state legislative and administrative leaders.

Another new feature of the Institute program will be a series of weekly radio panels featuring both Young Republicans and Young Democrats discussing important political issues.

MORE ON

Barkley Speaks

(Continued from Page One)

been connected with service for the Democratic Party. He was first elected to office in 1921 as prosecuting attorney for McCracken County, Kentucky. He has attended all of the Democratic National Conventions since 1920, and was permanent chairman of his party's convention in 1940.

While serving as vice-president, Mr. Barkley was married on November 18, 1949, to Mrs. Carleton S. Hadley of St. Louis, Missouri.

Young Republicans, Young Democrats Give Help In Congressional Campaigns

Both Republicans and Democrats asked help from their college organizations in this fall's campaign.

Thomas Nichols, the Democratic candidate for Congress in this district, turned the management of his campaign in Wayne county over to Virgil Musser and the Young Democrats. The club mailed circulars, handled newspaper advertising, and posted signs around the county which urged the election of Nichols. Mr. Nichols himself spoke before the YD's at a meeting in Douglass Hall to initiate his campaign in this area.

At the same time, the Young Republicans were working for their man, the incumbent congressman, Frank T. Bow, Mr. Bow also left the direction of his campaign in Wayne county in the hands of the college students. The YR's assisted in writing newspaper ads, producing radio skits, and mailing literature for Mr. Bow.

Mr. Bow's contribution to the YR effort was to assist the Institute in bringing the Honorable Joseph M. Martin, Jr., Speaker of the House of Representatives, to the campus.

In addition to the campaign for Congress, the clubs assisted their respective party organizations in the function of serving party members. Young partisan volunteers helped staff the headquarters in Wooster of both parties, and YR's and YD's were concerned with campaigns to get out the vote, furnishing transportation and baby sitters where needed.

The college group activity continued to the very end of the election. As the ballots were being tabulated at the Wayne County Board of Elections, a Young Republican and a Young Democrat were busily employed assisting the Board.