Scotts Noted For Youth Work

Religion-in-Life Week this year will bring Dr. George MacPherson Docherty to the Wooster campus. Dr. Docherty and his Scottish kin have filled the pulpit of New York Avenue Presbyterian Church in Washington, D.C. since the death of Peter Marshall.

Dr. Docherty, born in Glasgow, Scotland, in 1911, was graduated from Glasgow University. He received his Doctor of Divinity degree in 1950 from Temple University. During the war Dr. Docherty joined the Lona Community and worked with young people in the Glasgow slums.

In 1950, Dr. Docherty accepted a call to his present pastorate. At the time he was serving a congregation in Aberdeen, Scotland. Prior to this he was an exchange pastor between Great Britain and the United States under the National Council of Churches. His sermons have been published in several periodicals including the Congregational Record.

Errata

There was an error in the last issue of the VOICE concerning the Marching Band. The name of the band is "Regiment of the Banner." The name of the band has been previously stated in the VOICE. Our apologies to all persons concerned.
Let's Not Take It For Granted!

"To think what you like and say what you think" is one definition of democracy, a government formed in a remnant of 1700 years ago by the historian, Tacitus: "Hare is the felicity of the times when you can say what you like and say what you think." We, ourselves, cut add, "Hare are the times when people really try to think logically and sensibly and really try to say what they think in a clear, concrete way." It is true that much of what we have heard on TV lately has been much too partisan and too much to a set down for us rather than to try to construct opinions of our own. It is so much easier to react than to think. We believe that this habit of abstract words. It is so natural during the heat of battle to let our wits and tempers run away.

To pursue our less degree, we will be molders of our world. As molders, we will have to work not only with our lives and with our minds, but also with the words and the ideas of other people. We will have to use these words in such a way that they truly communicate to other people the opinions which we form, for it is not enough to believe our thoughts and hope that others will believe them also.

We strike one more death blow to freedom every time we take our right of free speech for granted, every time we put invisible ad homine tape over our mouths and refuse to speak, because we can't talk very well, or because the other person can talk so much better, or because we are afraid we might have to support with words and actions any stand which we might take.

Voice Of A Young Republican

by Jack Bernhardt

Last week the President of the United States obtained permission to use United States Armed Forces in the defense of the Nationalist Chinese in the shape of a joint Chinese-American task force. This is a gesture, but marked a real change in the approach to foreign policy on the part of the U. S. Executive. The days of foreign relations based on the notions of the past as expressed by the Monroe Doctrine and Truman have been shattered, and President Eisenhower has kept an open mind.

We do not pretend to take issue with the Constitutional scholars who maintain that as Commander-in-Chief, the President has the authority to send troops anywhere. We would merely like to point out that Mr. Eisenhower has backed up his "authority" with the sanction of the Congress. The President himself has pointed out that the Democratic members of Congress felt obliged to go along with the request, because to oppose it would have been to refuse part principles of the Democratic Party.

However, President Eisenhower has done more than keep a campaign promise-a promise in which the world out that the people of the United States have a unity of purpose, and that our previous policy of appeasement has been abolished. The large majority reviewed by this bill in Congress is indicative of the general feeling that the United States should draw a line which the Chinese Communists had better think twice before crossing.

We realize that such a policy involves a certain risk. May we point out that President Monroe certainly made a foolish statement in the Monroe Doctrine, when he warned the rest of the world that to meddle in South America would mean dealing with the United States. After all, only 10 years before, we had lost the War of 1812, our navy was about the size of a yacht club fleet, and the country was in no way ready for a war.

In this instance, we would point out that Mr. Eisenhower has moved a return to the basic American ideal. Americanism is the belief that the United States is strong enough to deal with its own affairs, that it will pay to stand up for itself, to speak clearly, and to share its principles with the others, and that its government is strong enough to hold all the risks involved in this move. Eisenhower has moved a return to the basic American ideal. Americanism is the belief that the United States is strong enough to deal with its own affairs, that it will pay to stand up for itself, to speak clearly, and to share its principles with the others, and that its government is strong enough to hold all the risks involved in this move.

To the Editor:

May a parent reader of the WOOSTER VOICE, a mighty good college paper, by the way make a comment or two? Regarding H. L. Huston's letter, "Protection Is Not The Answer," I would ask if you are aware that a professor of Teachers College, Columbia University, as endorsed by the General Assembly and adopted by the Board of Christian Education? In an issue of Presbyterian Life (Feb. 9, 1958) I read a letter describing the WOOSTER VOICE and quote your President Lowery as saying: "Christian Education tries to put at the center of college curricula the idea that the Christian faith is not a religion but a way of life. It is the story of the fruit of an institution's cultures because he does not wish to become an aberrant branch. It is a part of self-analysis; it is a prerequisite to adaptation.

Sincerely,

Ltgon, Nancy

Committees Meet And Plan Events

The Religion-in-Life Week Committee will begin its activities Sunday, Feb. 6 at 6:30 p.m. with a concert together at the First Presbyterian Church. Both members of the faculty and students concerned with the program of the week will be included at the meeting. Registration forms will be served, and the business will consist of a general view of the coming week. Terray Bard is in charge of this retreat.

Daily breakfasts, arranged by Jane Hancock, will be held throughout the week. These breakfasts, which are a new addition this year, will be held in Upper Holden and all committee members are welcome. A joint worship service at 7 a.m. will precede each breakfast. In this way the ELL Committee can start the day together, arrange for last-minute plans, discuss the progress of the week, and set the tone for the day's work.

Operating under the main ELL Committee are various special committees. Dick Eaton is in charge of the music for the morning and evening services. He has arranged for the Men's Glee Club to sing on Monday night. Nancy Moorse to perform on Tuesday, and Mary Grace Goshorn to sing on Wednesday, and the chapel choir to sing on Thursday evening. Terray Bard has arranged for the communion service to be held Thursday evening. Phil Eaton and Sue Stewart are in charge of dormitory programs. Jerry Carlisle and Jan Ackerley, John Wilson and Elizabeth Cowles, and Dick Moyer and Peg McCullough are the hosts and hostesses for Dr. Docherty. Joe Arismel has planned for the complete rearrangement of the BOC room to be made into a simple worship room. The week's program of events and all other material is being arranged by Sheila McIsaac. Jim Crow has planned the cover for the main program. Al Edel and Bob McWalters are in charge of publicity. Bob O'Mara, Jula Irabek, and Helen House are making campus and dorm posters. The special devotional booklet for the week, entitled Fruit of the Spirit, was composed by Joy Hatfield, Marilyn Kohl, and Demi Tashkets. They have done the silk-screening for the cover.

We see here by the news releases that Al Lopez, the highly-touted manager of the Cleveland Indians (to no one's known) who has predicted that the Tribe will top the American League pennant again come next fall. What we want to know is, what's the use of winning a pennant if the AL champs can't even win one game from a far weaker National League team? Not much point in letting the Indians win; the Yankees never fared too badly.

Study Boosting League

While we're on the subject of baseball, and it's getting closer all the time, the American League Realignment Committee has recently announced that a possible expansion to a 10-team loop is a possibility. The committee is now conducting a study of several midwestern cities in a campaign to admit them to the junior circuit.

It is highly probable that any change which might result will not come about before the next two or three years. Besides the midwestern cities under consideration, presumably those in Texas, the committee is discussing possible teams for the Pacific Coast and Canada.

They Did It Again

Who said lightning never strikes twice in the same place? If you don't believe it, just ask Kentucky basketball coach Adolph Rupp. Georgia Tech upped the powerful Kentuckians less than a month ago and they did it again.

The Engineers used only five men in the wild game but that was all that was needed for the win. An aggressive ball-striking combination paid off for the second time against the plodding number one in the nation. Sounds a little familiar, doesn't it?

Kentucky, it seems, was just a little too anxious for revenge. The Wildcats were unable to make a single foul shot in the fast first half. Their field goal accuracy was also badly off its usual form. The final score, 69-59, shows that the game wasn't too close and that the Engineers could possibly do it again.

Tankers Clash

Tomorrow afternoon the Scot swimmers will attempt to win their second home meet of the season as they take on the Allegheny squad in the Wooster pool.

Wooster will play host to Slippery Rock, another Pennsylvania school, next Friday afternoon. From there, the Scots will travel to Ohio Wesleyan where they will take the runner-up champs in the Ohio Conference from last year.

Mary Hatches' cagers host to Ashland tomorrow night in the gym. As you probably remember, Wooster spoiled the Ashland cagers earlier in the season on their home court and the return match should prove to be a very tough one for the visitors.

First places for Wooster were taken by Duncan in the individual medley and the 100 yard freestyle in times of 1:41.6 and 55.0, respectively. Oberlin took first and second places in the 200 yard freestyle, the diving, and the 200 yard breaststroke, in which Sten of Oberlin set a new pool record with a time of 2:30.8.

Scots Zip By Student Princes 84-62:
Await Showdown With Flying Pioneers

Leading all the way, with Heidelberg threatening only once, the Wooster Scots turned back the Student Princes, 84-62, here last Saturday afternoon. Wooster led 13 of the 15 half-way marks.

While the Scots were winning their 100th and 112th games, they were also pulling in their fifth straight win in Ohio Conference play. Manager Carey and his team have the Heidelberg lads as they defeated Ohio Wesleyan, 90-78. The Pioneers are also victorious in all five of their league contests.

For Heidelberg, it tumbled them below the 300 mark as they dropped their sixth game in 10 starts. They also fell further down in the standings as they held a 3.5 mark.

Scots Hit From Field

Familiarity with the home court showed up as the Scots proved their great accuracy from the field. Wooster made 18 of 27 from the free throw line while the Princes missed 11 of 34. Wooster was whistled for 20 personals while the losers were called for 15 fouls. The Scots dropped in 33 of their 50 from the field and Heidelberg scored on 22 of 69 shots.

Tom Cusin was tops in rebounds for Wooster as he pulled in 12 off the boards. Heaverly gathered in 14 of the 65 Scot rebounds as Heidelberg totaled 65.

It is a possibility that the Scots will play both of their games this week without the services of Dick Garcia. The speedy freshman has a badly sprained ankle which is expected to keep him out of the game for the rest of this week.

Smith Scores 24

Jerry Smith led the Scot scorers with 21 points. Dick Barrett and Tom Cusin each tallied 19 while Chet Welly had 13, Harold Bergendorf was high for Heidelberg with 15.

Wooster took off to an early 8-7 lead before Heidelberg could find the range of the bucket. The Student Princes then faltered more and more and Wooster ran the score up to 30-10 before the next time out. In the closing minutes of the first half the Princes started shooting their eyes as close as they closed the gap to 37-28 at the whistles.

Scot Poll Ahead

At the start of the second period it looked as if Heidelberg would make a fight of it but they fell far behind under the withering press of the Scots. At the half-point of the second half, Wooster led 60-44.

In the closing minutes, Scot guards the winners as they jumped their lead to 23 points. This five minute play with Wooster outscoring the Princes 17-12.

Referees: Ellis, Blasnow.

JY's Score 52-43 Win Over Reserves; Justice Tops Scorers With 23 Points

More accurate shooting from the field gave Coach Jack Behringr's reserve college junior varsity a 22-20 win over the reserve varsity in Saturday night's preliminary in Severance gymnasium.

Again it was Tom Justice to lead in the JY's. He got 23 points. Behringr's outfit made 22-42 at the half and stayed in first all the way.

Scoring from the field the junior varsity made 26 of 66 shots for 39.5 percent while the reserves hit only 11 of 36 for 30.6 percent. From the free throw line the reserves made six of 13, the reserve scores seven of 14.

Six points by Bob Andrews helped the reserves get away in the lead 8-4. The score was tied 12-12, then the JY was in front 18-12 with the period gone. In the second half the winners posted leads of 26-22, 40, 28 with 5:50 to play.

Bob Behringr has two games for his charges this week. For the preliminary Thursday game in Severance, the Etta-Wooster varsity go, the JY will play the Congress College. Next Saturday night, with Ashland College playing here, the JVs teams preliminary. The visitors are coached by Wes Crile, former Scott athlete.

Scots Trample Fenn College 115-37; Reserves Indicate Power And Depth

The Wooster College basketball team swarmed the College of Wooster 115-37 in the largest margin of victory ever accumulated by a Scot team in 55 years.

The final score, 115-37, was not piled up because the Scots were seeking a record but because Wooster completely outclassed the Foxes in every field. Coach Holen emptied the bench of all but 15 players who dressed in an attempt to keep scores down. But as it was, every player who entered the game scored, a feat cheered enthusiastically by the large crowd in attendance.

Fenn's squad consisted mostly of freshmen and they just couldn't keep up with the Baby Scots. One distinct handicap to the visitors was the absence of Fred Infield, the leading scorer for the Foxes for the season. Infield was suffering from a knee injury and did not make the trip with the team. The three letterman's were sorely missed by Fenn.

The one doubtful honor from Fenn took home with them the fact that no team has ever had but two scoring averages at a College game. The Fenners scored three field goals on 35 shots in the first half but finished with six for 35 in the second period. This was a total of nine goals in 60 attempts, or a mere 15 percent.

Wooster Hits 36 Percent

Wooster scored 25 for 65 in the first half and 21 for 57 in the second half to total 44 field goals on 122 shots for 36.9 percent. Fenn scored 19 of 44 times from the free throw line in 12 Wooster possessions while the Scots made 27 of 45 or Fenn's 27 foals.

Wooster led at the halfway mark by a score of 55-19. At the end of the second period Coach Holen sent out a new team to show their stuff. Don Drain, Stan Trotter, Dick Babar, Bob Andrews and Gery Smith started the period and they soon ran up the score to 115.

Scots Reach 100

Long before five minutes was in the game and the Scots had reached 100 points, Mose Holen began to work on the bench and the Scot coaches continued to move upward. The final score was an indication of the strength of the Scot bench for the rest of the year and for coming seasons.

Fifth Section Defeats First And Third; Gains Tie For Lead As Second Loses

With the interlude of final exams causing a short lull in the intramural cage league as well as in the pre-test basketball results, the final leg of hardwood activity commenced this week with Fifth and Second tied for "King of the League" laurels.

Second picked up their seventh win against one loss by beating Fourth, 50-46, after leading at halftime, 31-20. Blake Moore led the victors in scoring with 20 points and Andy Stevenson collected 10. "Due" Rice paced Fourth with 14 markers while Harry Savasta had 10.

On the losing end of a 19-15 halftime score, Second lost their second tilt of the campaign, 42-34, the setback coming at the hands of a sharpshooting Eighth Section quintet paced by "Buzz" Salyer and Dick Stevic. Salyer hooped 20 points and Stevic had 10 to top Eighth while Moore and Bill Koen scored 10 apiece for Second.

Fifth's Phi Delta gained a 7-2 slate and a tie for the top spot by beating First, 85-29, and defeating Third, 70-30. In the first game Dean Acker hit for 22 points to lead Fifth's point makers while Dick Baraguy, Turk Ogden, and "Ace" Hole scored 16, 14, and 12 markers respectively. Dave Lewis was high for First with 14 points.

Against Third Baraguy was the big gun for the Phi Delta with 22 points and Hole netted 15. Paul Davies and "Hoofer" Vanderhall both scored 10 points to pace the inserts.

Sixth nipped Fourth, 62-40, after holding a 11 point rest period lead, 23-11. Tom McQuillan had a good day in the point making department as he scored 24 markers.

Mrs. Ralph Williams, director of Camp Cardinal (private camp at Runn, Ohio), will be in Mr. Barretts at five Friday, February 11, from 3:30 and 4:30 p.m. to interview girls interested in counseling and staff positions. There are several openings for married couples also.

WHAT'S THIS?

For solution see paragraph below.

THEY'RE CLAMORING FOR THEM! Who? Students. What? Luckies. Coast to coast, dormitory to dormitory, college smokers prefer Luckies to all other brands, according to the greatest up-to-dates college survey. Again, the No. 1 reason for Luckies' wide lead: Luckies taste better. They taste better, first of all, because Luck Strike means fine tobacco. Then, that tobacco is toasted to taste better. "It's Toasted!"—the famous Luck Strike process—tones up Luckies' mild, good-tasting tobacco to make it taste even better. So enjoy the better-tasting cigarette . . . Lucky Strike. But don't be like the man in the Droodle above, titled: Pack-picket acquiring Luckies. Make sure you have plenty of your own. Buy Luckies by the carton.

Religious Seminars

Mrs. Ralph Young will conduct a seminar on the topic, "The Christian Understanding of Sex." Source material for this seminar will be The Christian Understanding of Sex, a work by Henry H. Kraemer; and a Y booklet, Faith, Sex and Love, by William Hamilton. The source material for all seminars will be on sale in the Religion-in-Life Book Store, if any students wish to prepare for the seminars ahead of time. The basic discussion questions for the Christian Understanding of Sex seminar will be the following: From what source does one derive a Christian understanding of sex? What is the relationship between sex and love? What criteria should we use to judge our individual conduct?

In Balbock at 4 p.m. on Wednesday and Thursday afternoons, Dr. Smith will lead a seminar which will have as its topic, The Christian Stand on Human Rights. The following questions will be discussed: Why should a Christian be concerned over the question of human rights at all? Should we as Christians think through more carefully the Christian attitude and strategy in the whole anguish problem of Rights and Obligations, of Freedom and Security? Which rights are more severely threatened: personal rights, or social, economic and political (a) in America? (b) in other areas? When we speak of freedom of religion, what do we mean? How does this tie up with the missionary program of the Christian church? Can personal and political rights be given unconditionally? At what point, if any, must those rights be curtailed? Source materials for this seminar will be The Churches and Human Rights, a statement by the Federal Council of Churches of Christ, December, 1949; a Y booklet, Faith, Sex and the World, by Ernest Leff, and a Y booklet, Rights and the Christian Church. The fourth seminar, The Skynite Bear, will take place in Douglass next Wednesday and Thursday afternoons at 4 p.m. Dr. Becker will be the leader of this discussion group. There are no definite source materials for these seminars. The student can ask any question or air any doubt or gripe in this particular group.

FAIR IS DISPENSED BY DISCUSSION

To the Editor of THE VOICE:

Although we do not agree with the majority of the Congressional Club's members, who voted in favor of the proposition that the United States should recognize the government of Red China, we do hereby agree with your editorial in a recent VOICE in the effort that vigorous discussion of the question is not dangerous but beneficial, indeed necessary.

The recent suppression of this topic by certain educational authorities is a manifestation of a sort of unreasoning fear which seems to be sweeping the country. As you say, our constitutional rights are often threatened at precisely the times when their worth is about to be demonstrated. For instance, a free discussion of the problem involved in the recognition of Red China would, we feel, do much toward destroying the very fear which prompts men to suppress the topic.

For this reason, we urge those campus organizations who are able to join the Congressional Club in considering the pros and cons of diplomatic recognition of Red China, and we urge the student body in general to insist on free and open discussion of this crucial topic.

Sincerely yours,

Jim Lindsay, Speaker
Myron Ludo, Clerk
