2-11-1955

The Wooster Voice (Wooster, OH), 1955-02-11

Wooster Voice Editors
Orchesis gives
Modern Dances
In Annual Recital
(Orchesis, the Modern Dance Club, will present its winter recital tonight, February 11, at 8:15 p.m. in Sestrenian Gymnasium. The program, entitled "Sentimental Journey," will depict the moods suggested by various periods. To carry out the story, a perfume of dances created especially for the program booklet.

President Gives Solo
The recital will be presented in part four. Hideni Takashita, the president of the club, will introduce the program with a solo to the music of "American in Paris." Strangers will be followed by "La Fantastique," as done by Har-

Picture will be found on page 7.

In Woodfield, Rosetta Wheeler, sister Western, and Linda Staufer, "ravish Caucasian Sketches" is the title of the music. Next program will be "Tigress" and "Afternoon of the Fairy Princess." Instead of Ivan, Gail Henry, Marty Klip-

New Transfers
Join Campus Life
The arrival on the campus of 10 new students coincided with the opening of the second semester. Stephen Argey, a native of Lake Forest, Illinois, is a Sophomore transfer from Princeton University. He plans to enter the ministry. Another pre-ministerial student is Corinthee Bocchini, a Sophomore from Edwards, Mich.

Gretchen Brown is a Freshman from Ohio State University who wants to enter the field of secondary teaching. Her home is in Cincinnati. Illinois, Gail Buc-

All those who are interested in church-related vocations and who would like to join the IRS could work should come to a workshop on Thursday, February 11, at 4 p.m. in the S.C.C. room.

Both in 1941 and 1943. He held the pastorate in the House

lager than any other man in Ohio's history. During the hi-

fer, as the cost of the operation of the House of Representatives was reduced 25 percent under the figure for the previous biennium.

McColloch entered the armed forces in December 1941 and rose

in the rank of a major while serving with the American Military

Government in England, France,

and Germany.

Bill McColloch attended a one-classroom school prior to enrolling in

(Continued on Page Three)

Representative William M. McColloch
Addresses Ye's At Lincoln Day Dinner
by Jack Smith
Monday evening, February 14, at 6:15 p.m., Upper Holden will be the scene of the Young Republicans' Lincoln Day Dinner. President of the 300 member club, Keith Henry, and Secretary, Marge Fullerton, are expecting a full house. Following the dinner the speaker for the evening, Congressman William McColloch, will deliver the birthday anniversary address of America's Civil War president.

Born in Holmesville, Ohio, Mr. McColloch graduated from Wooster High School and attended the College of Wooster from 1919 to 1921. He is the first alumnus to speak to the club and the only alumnus ever in Congress.

He received S.B. degree in Ohio State University in 1920, the same year in which he was admitted to the Ohio Bar. He was appointed to the Florida Bar in 1920 and elected to represent Miami County in the Ohio House of Representatives in 1922, to which he was re-elected for four successive terms. Mr. McColloch also served as minority leader from 1926 to 1929 (22nd General Assembly). In 1939 he was elected Speaker of the Ohio General Assembly and re-elected Speaker.

the University. He plans to enter the ministry. Another pre-ministerial student is Corinthee Bocchini, a Sophomore from Edwards, Mich.

Gretchen Brown is a Freshman from Ohio State University who wants to enter the field of secondary teaching. Her home is in Cincinnati. Illinois, Gail Buc-

All those who are interested in church-related vocations and who would like to join the IRS could work should come to a workshop on Thursday, February 11, at 4 p.m. in the S.C.C. room.

Both in 1941 and 1943. He held the pastorate in the House

lager than any other man in Ohio's history. During the hi-

fer, as the cost of the operation of the House of Representatives was reduced 25 percent under the figure for the previous biennium.

McColloch entered the armed forces in December 1941 and rose

in the rank of a major while serving with the American Military

Government in England, France,

and Germany.

Bill McColloch attended a one-

classroom school prior to enrolling in

(Continued on Page Three)

Representative William M. McColloch
Addresses Ye's At Lincoln Day Dinner
by Jack Smith
Monday evening, February 14, at 6:15 p.m., Upper Holden will be the scene of the Young Republicans' Lincoln Day Dinner. President of the 300 member club, Keith Henry, and Secretary, Marge Fullerton, are expecting a full house. Following the dinner the speaker for the evening, Congressman William McColloch, will deliver the birthday anniversary address of America's Civil War president.

Born in Holmesville, Ohio, Mr. McColloch graduated from Woos-

ter High School and attended the College of Wooster from 1919 to 1921. He is the first alumnus to speak to the club and the only alumnus ever

in Congress.

He received S.B. degree in Ohio State University in 1920, the same year in which he was admitted to the Ohio Bar. He was appointed to the Florida Bar in 1920 and elected to represent Miami County in the Ohio House of Representatives in 1922, to which he was re-elected for four successive terms. Mr. McColloch also served as minority leader from 1926 to 1929 (22nd General Assembly). In 1939 he was elected Speaker of the Ohio General Assembly and re-elected Speaker.

the University. He plans to enter the ministry. Another pre-ministerial student is Corinthee Bocchini, a Sophomore from Edwards, Mich.

Gretchen Brown is a Freshman from Ohio State University who wants to enter the field of secondary teaching. Her home is in Cincinnati. Illinois, Gail Buc-

All those who are interested in church-related vocations and who would like to join the IRS could work should come to a workshop on Thursday, February 11, at 4 p.m. in the S.C.C. room.

Both in 1941 and 1943. He held the pastorate in the House

lager than any other man in Ohio's history. During the hi-

fer, as the cost of the operation of the House of Representatives was reduced 25 percent under the figure for the previous biennium.

McColloch entered the armed forces in December 1941 and rose

in the rank of a major while serving with the American Military

Government in England, France,

and Germany.

Bill McColloch attended a one-

classroom school prior to enrolling in

(Continued on Page Three)
Blowing The Elephant's Horn

Voice of a Young Republican last week has caused another young Republican to raise a voice in protest. To use foreign policy as a basis for the improvement of any nation or any of the other states is just a sham more than ever before. We are not suggesting that this nation's foreign policy is not in need of criticism, but we are suggesting that it is above slanderous comment.

To this amateur observer, the foreign policy of the Eisenhower Administration is the most difficult to understand. It remains to be seen whether the Republicans on the back for a so-called return to "the basic American ideal" is little more than blowing the Elephant's horn—a little off-key at that.

A foreign policy is not basically determined by any national ideology; it is primarily an expression of national experience tempered by politics, interests, personalities, etc. Our support of Tito, France, and our backing of France does not demonstrate a dislike for fellow who might be our friends. There have been many times in our history when we have not disappeared from aggression by our allies. Obviously, the nation is grounded far more deeply in nationalism than in any particular ideology or political party.

Mr. Herfordts seems to define appeasement as any sort of compromise with the communist powers. According to this view, it is better for us to write a definitive line "which the Chinese Communists have always been afraid of." The United States, on the other hand, understands in our relationship to non-communist nations that world tensions are not solved by uncompromising policies unless by peaceful changes in policies. Either policy is hopelessly unsuccessful in peaceful diplomatic negotiations.

We need to talk about the Moscow Doctrine as a supposedly "foolish statement" or our claimed loss of the War of 1812.

A careful analysis of a good history text will probably dispel these notions. J. C.

Russia Changes Premiers

Makarev is too optimistic. He actually had planned to tell the West to sleep with overtures of peace. The fact that Red China had kept us awake was definitely a threat in Makarev's policy. He made it plain that our policy toward China was clear in Chinese policy. The big goal of the Makarev policy was to prevent the recurrence of Giolitti. The decision came to arms. Western Germany, Mr. Makarev's foreign policy fell like a dead tree in a bad wind.

The wind storm just happened to be the Russian army and Khroushchev. Some paper on a large domestic policy which was able when Mikirova was forced out. It was about this time that Russia's new number One Max, M. Khroushchev, started dictating the policy of Pravda. Khroushchev's first plan was for a reduction in production of consumer goods. We can expect that Bulgaria will have a strong nationalistic policy on this point. Soviet propaganda may try to intimate that heavy industry in Russia will remain identical with war production. Khroushchev's reform was a representation of the right hand's betrayal. The policy was so badly needed. He also came out against antireligious propaganda.

Before the recent reshuffle Molotov held the balance of power between the two rival personalities, but it is expected that he will follow the new policy of this young leader. It is unlikely that he will be able to mold it to his convenience. Perhaps in a few years, he will be called to head. Khroushchev's as well as control him, but when his own policy fell short of his claims, Makarev was swept out with the changing tides of Soviet Government.

There is no reason to subscribe an intelligent optimism among Western nations. Even the loss of Minedo-France, Europe will continue to move toward prosperity and peaceful coexistence. Tolerance, Truth, and Trade are fast becoming the keys to a new and glorious age of mankind.

Norm Morrison

Wooster Voice

Page Two

Blowing The Elephant's Horn

Voice of a Young Republican last week has caused another young Republican to raise a voice in protest. To use foreign policy as a basis for the improvement of any nation or any of the other states is just a sham more than ever before. We are not suggesting that this nation's foreign policy is not in need of criticism, but we are suggesting that it is above slanderous comment.

To this amateur observer, the foreign policy of the Eisenhower Administration is the most difficult to understand. It remains to be seen whether the Republicans on the back for a so-called return to "the basic American ideal" is little more than blowing the Elephant's horn—a little off-key at that.

A foreign policy is not basically determined by any national ideology; it is primarily an expression of national experience tempered by politics, interests, personalities, etc. Our support of Tito, France, and our backing of France does not demonstrate a dislike for fellow who might be our friends. There have been many times in our history when we have not disappeared from aggression by our allies. Obviously, the nation is grounded far more deeply in nationalism than in any particular ideology or political party.

Mr. Herfordts seems to define appeasement as any sort of compromise with the communist powers. According to this view, it is better for us to write a definitive line "which the Chinese Communists have always been afraid of." The United States, on the other hand, understands in our relationship to non-communist nations that world tensions are not solved by uncompromising policies unless by peaceful changes in policies. Either policy is hopelessly unsuccessful in peaceful diplomatic negotiations.

We need to talk about the Moscow Doctrine as a supposedly "foolish statement" or our claimed loss of the War of 1812.

A careful analysis of a good history text will probably dispel these notions. J. C.

Russia Changes Premiers

Makarev is too optimistic. He actually had planned to tell the West to sleep with overtures of peace. The fact that Red China had kept us awake was definitely a threat in Makarev's policy. He made it plain that our policy toward China was clear in Chinese policy. The big goal of the Makarev policy was to prevent the recurrence of Giolitti. The decision came to arms. Western Germany, Mr. Makarev's foreign policy fell like a dead tree in a bad wind.

The wind storm just happened to be the Russian army and Khroushchev. Some paper on a large domestic policy which was able when Mikirova was forced out. It was about this time that Russia's new number One Max, M. Khroushchev, started dictating the policy of Pravda. Khroushchev's first plan was for a reduction in production of consumer goods. We can expect that Bulgaria will have a strong nationalistic policy on this point. Soviet propaganda may try to intimate that heavy industry in Russia will remain identical with war production. Khroushchev's reform was a representation of the right hand's betrayal. The policy was so badly needed. He also came out against antireligious propaganda.

Before the recent reshuffle Molotov held the balance of power between the two rival personalities, but it is expected that he will follow the new policy of this young leader. It is unlikely that he will be able to mold it to his convenience. Perhaps in a few years, he will be called to head. Khroushchev's as well as control him, but when his own policy fell short of his claims, Makarev was swept out with the changing tides of Soviet Government.

There is no reason to subscribe an intelligent optimism among Western nations. Even the loss of Minedo-France, Europe will continue to move toward prosperity and peaceful coexistence. Tolerance, Truth, and Trade are fast becoming the keys to a new and glorious age of mankind.

Norm Morrison

Wooster Voice

Page Two

Parameles Ploy

PLAYING SALOON CONCERT

"An Hour of Music for Fun and Violence" will be presented by the Parameles Ploy, Thursday, Sunday, February 13, at 8 p.m., and Tuesday, February 15, at 8 p.m. in the Cottage. The music, Parameles Ploy will offer Chappie Prouty for piano, and the voice of Madeleine Kreisler, the "Nytebird" by Zeno Husted and music of"How Old Is Song" by Cowell, in which the arrangements are by Zeno Husted for piano and the strings. The last work will be "The Wine of Amuse" by Jeanjean, arranged by Zeno Husted for piano, and the strings. This will be the "Sonata in A Major", Faure for piano and violin.

Loretta Conrad and Nancy Moore will give a joint recital on Sunday, February 20, at 8 p.m. in the chapel. The soro presents several solos and en es, and a reading of "Sonata in E Minor" by piano and cellos. Loretta Conrad and Nancy Moore, cellos, will also present Evelyn Hamel, Sarah Hasenflug, and Nancy Moore, violins. The recital will be concluded with "Ode to Joy" by Beethoven. Nancy Moore will play the piano, and Evelyn Hamel, Sarah Hasenflug, and Nancy Moore, violins.

Parameles Ploy will entertain with "Sonata in A Major", Faure for piano and violin.

Frost Debaters Challenge Purdue

When the University of Maine hockey team visited the University of Maine in February, the Frost Debating Team of the University of Maine will be more than ready to challenge the Purdue University Ploy on February 28th. The team from Main, which is the state champion, will be touring the country looking for competition. They have been invited by the University of Maine to take part in a debate with the University of Maine. The team will be traveling from Maine to Wisconsin on the way to Purdue. The debate will be held at the University of Maine on the evening of February 28th.

The University of Maine will be added to the list of universities that they have debated. The team is looking forward to the challenge of debating the team from Purdue University. They believe that it will be a great opportunity to improve their debating skills. They are looking forward to the debate and believe that it will be a fun and exciting experience.
McCulloch Speaks

(Continued from Page One)

William McCulloch was elected to the 108th Congress on November 4, 1944, in a special election to replace Robert F. Jones, who became a member of the FCC. Upon entering Congress he said: "It is my intention to reduce the costs of government wherever possible. It is my theory that government should provide only essential services the people can't provide for themselves. The worth of a congressman isn't measured by the amount of so-called easy money he can log-roll out of the federal treasury. His ability and worth should be measured by the economies he can effect and the backing he can prevent." McCulloch was re-elected to the 81st, 82nd, 83rd and 84th Congresses. In the Congress he is a member of the judiciary, small business, and congressional campaign committees. A member of the Ohio State and American Bar associations, McCulloch married and has two daughters.

Following the dinner, the dining room began to clear as all the out- siders who wish to hear the speaker.

William McCulloch

'Outward Bound' Declared Success;
Has Excellent Set, Characterization

by Bill Whiting

It must be a feeling of great gratification to Bob Wettstone to realize that his IS play, Outward Bound, was one of the theatrical highlights of the year. It was very well timed, well mounted, and so well acted. The set was striking; the characterization generally excellent; and the blocking sensitive and sensible.

Honors of the evening clearly went to Mary Haupt, whose interpretation of Mrs. Midget was the brightest light in the play. Her accent was delightful and mastery; her face was a constant comment on the action of the play. At her final exit, there would have been a great applause had not the lump in everyone's throat prevented it.

Joe Coulson, as the snobbish Mrs. Cliveden-Banks was triumph during the play. The evening. The role could have been played in many ways. She wisely played it the comic elements, providing a fool to the irritable Prior and the pompous Lingley. I remember Jan's great job as St. John, who performed with precision and sympathy.

A happy surprise was newcomer Al Edel, who walks with first prize in the men's competition. If ever anyone looked and behaved like a well-bred British clergyman, Al Edel did. From his first entrance, he created an impression of competence and comfort that steadily grew as the play ed. He brought to the role an understanding and a delivery that marked it distinctly as above average—far, far above.

David Krambacher had a difficult part as Scrutby, the steward who was lost young. One doesn't know whether he's happy, melancholy, or contented. Unfortunately, I'm still not sure. But he was convincing in spite of the uncertainty, though he displayed nerviness occasionally and consequently got started on the wrong foot on a few lines.

Gail Steinhoff and Richard Mac- qua, as the two losers who tried to make an impression were funny but unconvincing. Towards the end, Miss Steinhoff let loose with some very fine emotional reading, but her face remained compara- truly immobile. The two parts are a challenge, and the challenge was not entirely, if not overpower- ingly.

John Horndfeld made a promis- ing appearance as the irritable Prior, a young drunk who ultimately loses his reputation in his inherent good. He looked better than he sounded; on stage, he brooded and meditated in a companion-aressing way. But af- ter three acts, his voice ran a little thin and garrulous.

The same could be said of Ro- bert Wettstone as Mr. Lingley, of Lingley, Ltd. His frequent blow- ups sounded very comic but they took their toll in the last act. Still, his performance was able and sensitive, and I'd like to see more of him and Mr. Horndfeld.

John Goosh had what I would consider the most difficult role in the piece. I think of the Examiner as a grandly affected type of person, kind and understanding. Though he tried with such murder, he tried to make Robert Frost or Carl Sandburg sound alike. He couldn't walk ed nor talked like an old man. But in accordance with this, he played an old man who was to be every line for laughs (even when Mrs. Midget asked him if there were any jobs where she could "tuck in the line", "Plenty", it got a laugh) and sparked the part with exuberance and vitality.

Set Commended
The set, as I have mentioned before, was an outstanding one. It was well-lighted and well-equipped, and a suitable setting for this semi-comic play of the hereafter.

Although I seem to make a point of saying, "I'm not sure", it is in my contention that what is a good review should do, in the hope that I may be avoided in the future. All in all, Outward Bound was a good show and Bob Wettstone can justly be proud of his successful evening.

NEW—EXCITING
VISIT
TREASURE ISLAND
ALL ITEMS $1

Shadley & Hudson Jewelers
420 BROADWAY
OSTER, OHIO

'AMSTER SHOE STORE'

country scene

CITY SEEN!

Truly a scenic symphony with an exceptionally harmonious composition.

The convertible collar supplies the proper note.
The short button cuff is a fashion-favored finish.

Tweedlander's

Completely washable. Naturally advertised, and naturally most "scene about" in town!
Sizes 10-18.

Shapely classic

$3.95

WOMEN'S DRESS SHOES
JUST ARRIVED—SPRING COLORS & STYLES
IN ARTHUR MURRAY FLATS
See Our Window

NEW—EXCITING
VISIT
TREASURE ISLAND
ALL ITEMS $1
SCOTS SLIP TO THIRD PLACE IN CONFERENCE

Marietta Edges Cagers In Close Game; Mount Union Moves Into Second Place

By Paul Martin

Tough, yes. It was. From the first whistle, and even before, the crowd knew that it would be a tight game. It was so close that fans were afraid to cheer too loudly with the fear in their hearts that they might break the spell that gave the Scots the win.

For this was the game of the champions, and the winter was almost definitely decide the basketball champion of the Ohio Conference. To Wooster it was the final peak of a long series of games. It was a victory. And to Marietta, the defending champs, undefeated in league play for the whole previous year and a half, it was a must. It was as if or as they placed their cherished string on the line.

No 13, often the jinx of world champions, played the role last Saturday night at the fighting Scots were forced to take a dose of their own medicine. A withering full-court press and a blistering fast break set the Scots reeling as they went down by a count of 65-61 in their 13th game of the campaign.

This was the sixth victory for Marietta and put them right at the top of the Ohio Conference. It was also their 19th straight win in league play. The Scots still can boast a season's record of 10 victories and three defeats with a 5-1 record in Ohio Conference play.

Marietta still must face Wittenberg, at home and against Muskingum and Mt. Union away. They also have an away game to be played at Muskingum. Wooster now finds themselves in third place in the conference standings. One victory separates them from Mt. Union, who are a game back in fourth. The game was a terrible battle as the outcome shows from a quick glance. Added to this, you have the fact that the score was tied by the first half 23-23, 50-50 at the halfway point, and was knotted four times during the second period while the lead changed hands 12 times.

Fielder Is Difference

The margin of a victory, two points, was a field goal. The Pioneers made 23 of 66 shots, Wooster 22 of 20. Of the 36 per cent floor shot, 13 were called in favor of the visitors against the Pioneers eight. The difference was the slight edge from the free throw line as they made 19 of 20 chances. The Scots scored off of 32 from the charity line.

Wooster had the greatest edge in the rebound department as they pulled in 55 to the visitors 46. The difference in the game, however, was on the floor where the Pioneers were far more alert, as they beat Wooster 28-20 of their own game of stealing the ball. Jerry Smith scored 15 of the boards and Tom Gustin pulled in 13.

Woosley Three Scores

Perhaps one of the hardest events of the night came at the beginning of the game when the Welty opened for the Scots with three quick field goals. Up to this point, with the visitors behind by a score of 11-5, they had used a zone defense. The Scots promptly called a time out, and when they returned to the defense, a 5-on-5 offense had suddenly been shifted to a 4-on-3 defense.

There was an abrupt change in the outlook of the game as the visitors started to push the ball in the half-point, but they required 10-second time limit.

Welty Hits 17

Wooster was held to 70 for the entire game, approximately under their previous average for the season. The high man for the Scots was Chet Welty with 17. The leading scorer for the Scots hit 24.5 percent of his shots and scored 15. Dan was the leading man for Wooster as he scored 24 markers.

(Continued on Page Eight)

ALLEGHENY EDGES SCOTT TANK TEAM

By Ned Wolfe

On Saturday, February 5, a powerful Allegheny team routed out the Wooster tankmen by a score of 46-35.

Allegheny took the first event, the medley relay, in a time of 3:30.9. The 200-yard freestyle was won in a time of 2:12.4 by Allegheny's White, with Wooster's Swan and Wolfke taking second and third, respectively. First and second place both were taken by Allegheny in the 50-yard freestyle. Pulls won with a time of 25.4 seconds, with Fisher taking second, and Hunt of Wooster third.

Dungan Wins

The fourth event, the individual medley, saw Wooster's Dave Dun- gan take first place and also set a new pool record with a time of 1:36.9.

In the famous diving, first place was taken by Watson of Wooster, second by Allegheny's Rodgers, and third place by Wolfe. Wolfe's only double winner. He also won the 100-yard freestyle, Allegheny for a first place in the 100-yard breaststroke.

Allegheny Pulls Ahead

In the 200-yard breaststroke event Allegheny's Cox and Peronne took first and second, respectively, with a winning time of 2:22.9. Third place was taken by Wos- ter's Evans.

The 200-yard breaststroke saw Hill of Allegheny just edge out the Scotchman, Warren Cline, for a first place and a pool record of 2:23.1.

The Scots were victorious in the 50-yard freestyle relay, was won by the Wooster team of Hunt, Swan, Watson, and Dungan in a time of 55.5, taking the final score of 56-50.

WOOSTER THEATER

SATURDAY thru TUESDAY

Bar & Lancescer

Gary Cooper

"VERA CRUZ"

Models - Harby Supplies Treasure House

136 S. Grant St., Wooster

SPECIAL OFFER

"DANDY SHIRT"

4.95

The exciting "gauchos"... the shirt that's the rage! In the most exciting colors... all-oxide-smooth broadcloth that's washable and washable for ease. Soothing pocket conversion. Light trendy. French cuffs. A top in it in a bitterweaver, navy, apricot, white or tuareg. Sizes 30 to 46.

SPORTSWEAR — SECOND FLOOR

W. H. WILKINSON CO.

Good Merchandise — Our Business and Pleasure — Since 1879

Mr. Robert Stecker of the Kent State Teachers' friends in the Middle East will be in Mr. Barrels' office February 10, in the afternoon.

LAMPL "DANDY SHIRT"

THE WILLIAM WILKINSON CO.
SCOTTS 'N SODA

by PAUL MARTIN

SCOTS EVE Runner-up Slot

With their hopes of a Conference championship shattered, the Trotter Scots this week have their eyes set in a most determined manner toward the runner-up slot in the Ohio Conference.

After dropping their first conference game to Marietta last Thursday, the Scots have concentrated all of their work this week on whirlps both Denison and Knox. Wins over these two clubs would almost seriously put the black and gold in second place for the final standings.

Akron Plays 61st

With the starting whistle at tomorrow's game, Wooster and Akron will be playing the 61st game in the rivalry between the two schools.
The Scots hold a slight edge over the years with their 33 victories. That Zeis defeated the Scots in the Akron Invitational Tournament during the holidays and the home squad is bent on revenge with the decided advantage of their own floor and a favorable crowd.

Wooster Not Mentioned

With the publishing of the NCAA and Ohio Conference statistics for basketball last week, it was discovered, and not to our surprise, that there were no Wooster players mentioned in the top 20 scorers in either loop. The old days of Weikner, Shaw, Holt, and Voekef seem far gone. We hope that people will start remembering the Wooster talent as it is due to the players that are there, and not due to the lack of mention. The Scots also rank as the 22nd team in the nation as far as defense is concerned.

Seventy Fades

Next week we will move from the sublime to the ridiculous as this jerge will also participate in the Cinco de Mayo festivities. We hope that you'll enjoy the antics of the staff as we try to put together a page that really fantastic. You probably don't think that there's a difference?

WOOSTER VOICE SPORTS

GEORGE KIM

George, a senior from Los Angeles, California, is the outstanding spark plug and workhorse on this year's varsity basketball squad.

Chester Grange Vips Whose Scott JV's

Chester Grange sailors defeated the Wooster College junior varsity last Thursday night at the College. In the evening's preliminary game, the Wayne County team went ahead early in the first period of play and were leading the JVs 15-11 at the halfway mark.

Dale Wegyandt was the high man for both teams as he netted 15 points. Tom Justine was the high scorer for the Scots as he tallied 12 points. This was far below his season's average.

Chester scored on 15 of their 16 shots from the field, while Wooster hit on 14 of 58 shots. The Scots were whaled for 20
personals and the visitors tallied 25 of their 55 shots. The JV squad scored on 9 of 14 chances with eight Chester fouls called.

Chester Moves Abroad

With the score tied at nine-all halfway through the first period, Chester moved into the lead 17-11,
and the Scots were able to come as close as three points after the break. This margin held as the score at the whistle of the end of the first half.

Within five minutes after the start of the second half, the Grange had run their lead to a ten-point advantage and with eight minutes to play, they were ahead 30-26.

Chester Grange 33 G.F.T
Wefy 3 4 10
Low 3 4 10
D. Wegyandt 5 1 15
Gonter 2 2 4
Peters 3 1 6
Andrews 1 4 6
H. Wegyandt 2 2 2
Wasson 0 2 0
15 23 55
Junior Varsity 36 G.F.T
Gowin 4 0 10
Galehouse 3 2 9
Walklet 1 5 10
Justice 5 2 10
Bart 1 2 3
15 23 56

The request to "Be My Valentine" is one of the nicest compliments you can give. Add to that compliment by sending Hallmark Valentines that show "you care enough to send the very best." Choose yours soon at

MUSKOFF DRUGS

WOOSTER HOTEL BUILDING

The Wayno Conference Nat'l Bank

Discus Your Financial Problems With Us
Established 1845 - Member F.D.I.C. - Phone 2-5075

WE ARE LARGE ENOUGH TO SERVE YOUR NEEDS AND SMALL ENOUGH TO A PPRECIATE YOUR BUSINESS

WOOSTER LUMBER COMPANY

Opposite Fairgrounds Phone 2-8015

PATRONIZE OUR ADVERTISERS
They Deserve Your Support

The Wayno Conference Nat'l Bank

Discussion Your Financial Problems With Us
Established 1845 - Member F.D.I.C. - Phone 2-5075

WE ARE LARGE ENOUGH TO SERVE YOUR NEEDS AND SMALL ENOUGH TO APPRECIATE YOUR BUSINESS

WOOSTER LUMBER COMPANY

Opposite Fairgrounds Phone 2-8015.
Swimming Squad "Wins From Akron"

By Nel Wolfe

The Wooster Taekwon won their second straight dual meet of the season last Tuesday as they defeated Akron University 48-36 at the Akron Metrodome.

Akron started the meet off with a victory in the medley relay with a time of 1:35.57 followed by a first place in the 220-yard freestyle. Scotts won the latter event with a time of 2:35.5. Dave Swanson and Nel Wolfe took second and third place respectively for Wooster.

Scots Rally

Wooster then fought back with a first in the 50-yard freestyle as Sam Hunt won the event with a time of 25.3 seconds. Allen of Wooster took a third in this event. Adding six more points to their total, the Scots captured first and third in the individual medley. Dave Dungan led in this event with a time of 1:42.2. Akron's McManus and Wooster's Mosley of Wooster finished third.

Freestyle

Tangler of the Zip swimmers touched in first in the 100-yard freestyle while Watan and Wolfe took second and third in that order. Once again Dungan and Hunt tallied points as they finished first and third in the 100-yard freestyle. The winning time in this event was 56.9. Bill Alten placed second.

The Zip tankmen then rallied to win the 200-yard backstroke as Watral led the field with a final time of 2:40.3. Evans and Taylor of Wooster finished second and third.

Cains Win Breaststroke

Scheduling in first and second places in their specialty, the Cains brothers garnered eight points for the Scots in the 200-yard breaststroke with a time of 2:45.2. George Autos of Akron finished third.

In the 440-yard freestyle, Roots of Akron took the honors as he capped the event with a time of 5:35. Nel Wolfe placed second followed by Watral of Akron in third place.

In the final event, the 400-yard freestyle relay, the Scots ended up winning with a winning time of 3:35.9. A victory in this event swamped Hunt, Swanson and Dungan gave the Scots a 48-36 win.

Second Tops Third For Eighth Victory

by Mac Hazel

Activity is in the intramural cage league slackened in pace this week with only two games being played on the hardwoods.

Second gained its eighth win against two houses by trouncing Third, 61-22, after holding a 20-point edge at halftime. Andy Stevenson led the victors in the point making department by throwing in 22 markers while Bob Tignon hit for 18 and Bob Hall netted 12. John Tunison had 10 points to lead Third.

With a 13-point lead at intermission, 32-19, Seventeen went on to beat Sixth, 54-31. Bernie Davis was high man for the Tri Kaps with 11 points, followed by Bob Bush and Eill Stoner who scored 14 and 10 markers respectively.

Sharks Rehearse For March Show

The Women's Athletic Association postponed all basketball games this week to permit full participation of all players in the activities of Religion-in-Life Week.

Next week's games find two undefeated teams, Trumans and Sphinxes, vying for first place in League 1 on Monday night. Nell Kincaid's Kids vs. Bowman and the Left-Overs vs. the Hilltoppers are also playing on Monday night. Wednesday night Ker plays the Hoover Hotshots, Peanuts play against the Hilltoppers and Wednesday night the Hammer meets Nell Kincaid's Kids.

The water ballet club, Sharks, continues rehearsals for the review which is to be given March 21, 22, and 23.

The Scot bus leaves the gym every Friday afternoon a few minutes after sixth hour to go to the bowling alleys just outside of town. A co-ed bowling club, managed by Thyle MacSwan uses the alleys for 40 cents a fine, 20 cents if you set your own pins.

ALL NEW! LUCKY DROODLES!

WHAT'S THIS? For solution see paragraph below.

A STUDENT'S BEST FRIEND is Lucky Strike. At any rate, the greatest, up-to-date college survey shows that college smokers prefer Luckies to all other brands—and by a wide margin. Once again, the No. 1 reason: Luckies taste better. They taste better, first of all, because Lucky Strike contains fine tobacco. Then, that tobacco is toasted to taste better. "It's Toasted"—the famous Lucky Strike process—tones up Luckies' light, good-tasting tobacco to make it taste even better. Luckies taste better anywhere, any time, as illustrated in the Droodle above, titled: Skier enjoying Lucky while whooshing under bridge. Next time you make tracks to a cigarette counter, Be Happy—Go Lucky. Enjoy the better-tasting cigarette...Lucky Strike.
FCC Committee
States UN Plans
Well Under Way

Saturday, March 12, is the date for the mock United Nations Assembly meeting to be held at Oberlin College. The Four College Conference Committee reports that plans are underway for an informative session to be conducted in strict UN fashion. Recent rule changes have been made in order that the session will be more like that of an assembly meeting rather than a parliamentary debate. The entire program will be based on a regular General Assembly session with students previously chosen representing the Secretary-General and the heads of various delegations. Next Tuesday a list will be posted in center Kaeder on which those desiring to participate may sign for the country of their choice. However, once a student is committed to a country, he cannot change his status during the session. Wooster has been chosen to represent the Soviet Union, while Oberlin will argue the United States viewpoint. Participating students have a choice of 14 other countries that they can represent.

Two Topics Scheduled

The two topics to be discussed are the Arab-Israeli question and the proposed admission of non-member countries to the United Nations. Each of these topics will be discussed during the day, but not simultaneously. A selecting committee will limit students to participate in both.

Transportation will be furnished to and from Oberlin, but all delegations must pay for their train tickets. The box will leave about 8 p.m. and return to Wooster by 11 p.m. Saturday.

All students who sign the list and then find that they are not able to go must either pay their money or find a substitue.

The Perfect Valentine Gifts That Win Her Heart and Hand
Eisenberg Cologne — $2.50
Eisenberg Jewelry — $3.00 up
Satisfies Her Love of Luxury
Pins, Earrings, Necklaces and Bracelets
Jeweled Lipsticks, Compacts and Lighters

Beulah Bechtel Shop
(Fashions of Distinction)

...better than words...
on Valentine's Day!

Assorted Chocolates —
A tempting variety of the finest milk chocolates, and dark chocolates with creams, nuts, crisp and chewy centers.

$1.50
$2.00

A box

You won't have to tell her — she'll know, when you give her Russell Stover candies.

Because they are the finest you can buy, they say more than words!

Russell Stover Candies

Valentine "Heart" tempting assorted chocolates, in a beautiful red foil heart-shaped box.

$1.15

Other Heart Boxes 80c to $7.50

FRANK WELLS
DRUG STORE
New Writers Arise! Cast In Your Work!

Writers of fiction, poetry, and articles are eligible to enter the writers’ contest for college undergraduates now being sponsored by the Ohio Valley Writers’ Conference. The prizes for the contest are scholarships, paying for tuition, room and board, to the first annual Ohio Valley Writers’ Conference at Marietta College, which will be held from August 28 to September 3, 1955. Several guest writers will conduct classes, workshops, seminars, and hold individual meetings for students at the conference.

The scholarships will be awarded to the winners of each of the following divisions: fiction, poetry, and articles. The deadline for entries is April 15, 1955. They will be critiqued by staff members of the conference. Winners will be announced May 15, 1955. For further information, see announcement on the VOICE bulletin board.

Shakespeare—Was He A Fraud?

William Shakespeare, over whom students have sweated for more than three centuries, is possibly history’s biggest fraud.

It is more than likely, says the current issue of Esquire Magazine, that Shakespeare did not write none of the great plays attributed to him. He never signed his name to them, under an arrangement with the real author, Christopher Marlowe.

That is the contention of a Shakespeare scholar, Calvin Hoffman. His theory that Marlowe wrote the “Shakespeare” plays is explained by author Robert Philip in the Esquire article, “The Man Who Was William Shakespeare.”

“Marder” is the correct word. History tells us that Marlowe was stabbed to death in a tavern brawl several months after Shakespeare published his first six plays. Marder says, Hoffman, is wrong.

Hoffman has a bunch that the original manuscripts—bearing Marlowe’s signature—are buried with Marlowe in Westminster Abbey tomb. But he must get permission to open the tomb from the Vicar of Chichester. Thus far, the vicar has refused permission.