Dr. Lowry congratulates Mr. Clouse, as Dean Taesch holds the plaque awarded the custodian on 40 years service.

Mr. Clouse Serves For 40 Years; Galpin Staff Gives Thanks At Party

by Sheila McIsaac

"It would be difficult for me to recall the many ways you have helped and the innumerable favors you have graciously performed for so many." That's no small praise for anyone, but Dr. Howard Lowry was not exaggerating when he made that statement to Mr. Marion Clouse who recently completed 40 years as a building custodian at the college.

Broadway Actress Plays Little Theater

May 8, 9, 10, 11, and 12 will find the annual Color Day theater season in swing. The speech department has announced that during that time Solid Gold Cadillac, a recent Broadway production which had a long New York run, will be presented. As an added attraction, Ruth McDevitt, former Wooster student and star of the original cast, has consented to play the leading role here.

Miss McDevitt visited the Wooster campus at the end of last April. While touring her old haunts, she divulged her plans of continuing on the road with the George S. Kaufman — Howard Teichman play another year. At that time she did not know she would come to Wooster on a side path.

When asked last year if she had any advice to contribute, to students interested in acting, Miss McDevitt replied, "I would advise all young people interested in a career in theater to get a college education first. They need as broad an education as they can get."

Wishart Museum Exhibits Textiles

March 6 through March 28 in the Josephine Long Wishart Museum of Art the exhibit, "Textiles and Ceramics" will be presented. Hand-woven textiles, draperies, and upholstery are exhibited by Edward Rossbach from the University of California, Mary Ann Emerine, Katherine William, and Ruth Williams, all from Cleveland.

Along with these hand-woven textile, Mr. Rossbach also has on exhibit printed textiles which include silk screen method, batik method, and commercially printed fabrics. The ceramics shown by Tom Sellers of Columbus, Ohio include earthenware bowls, vases, casserole, and teapot.

The art department intends this exhibit to be of interest to all, especially women. The museum is located on the second floor of Galpin Hall.

Mr. Clouse, present custodian of Galpin Hall, was presented a plaque and a purse last week at a special surprise party. Told it was a party to celebrate Dr. Lowry's return from the west coast, Mr. Clouse at first excused himself from attending. Some Galpin staff members became persistent, and Mr. Clouse found himself trudging down the Galpin stairs, his excuses ignored.

Plaque in Recognition

It was just as well he went, for a plaque which reads "In recognition of forty years of service to The College of Wooster this scroll is presented with our grateful thanks to Marion Clouse," is not the type of thing that just anybody can receive.

The plaque, which was presented by "the present staff of Galpin Memorial and the remembrance of many others you have helped through the years," was accompanied by an additional scroll with all the names of the present Galpin employees.

Dean William Taesch presented the inscription. Alumni Secretary John D. McKee and Mr. Arthur Southwick, Registrar and Director of Admissions, heaped further praise on the still surprised and undoubtedly embarrassed Mr. Clouse.

Comes in 1916

Mr. Clouse first came to the Scot campus in 1916 as assistant and later custodian of Kauke Hall. He moved to his present position as the Galpin custodian upon completion of that building in 1931.

Asked if he remembered how many people he has known in the past four decades, he replied that some return from time to time and stop to talk. "I recall their faces and talk with them, but I don't remember all the names." After forty years, Mr. Clouse, you are entitled to forget a lot of faces too.

Officers Of Alumni Entertain Seniors

On Tuesday, March 13, and on Wednesday, March 21, the Alumni officers will entertain all Seniors in the Alumni office. The parties will begin at 4:00 p.m. Refreshments will be served, and new movies of campus activities will be shown.

The Alumni Office hopes that many Seniors will come, for it is their introduction to the Alumni organization and its activities.

Bob O'Meara Wins Poster Competition

Judges of the Student Senate-sponsored poster contest announced that Bob O'Meara took first prize with an unusual poster with moveable parts. Second and third prizes were awarded to Julie Jerabek and Ann Fuehrer, according to publicity directors Sam Hunt and Bob Mitchell. Judges for the contest were Murray Blackadar, Harry Bradley, and Joan Eaton.

The poster contest was sponsored as a publicity stunt for the Flaming Follies, which will be presented on Saturday night, March 17, in the chapel.

Main Sizzles

The Flaming Follies originated in 1952, as a celebration of the burning of Old Main in 1901. It has been a student-faculty variety show from the beginning, and the tradition is being carried through this year.

Among the faculty members who will appear this year are Dr. Gore, Dr. Gloye, Dr. Fobes, Dr. Jenny, and Mr. J. Robert Carruth. The student acts range from rock 'n roll to classical music, and from comedy sketches to a scene from Shakespeare's HAMLET.

Ted D'Arms and Sally Anthony will be featured as the Master and Mistress of Ceremonies of the production, which is being directed by Bill Whiting. Cliff Amos is coordinator of the program, and has enlisted the services of Fritz Gunther as technical director and John Gooch as business manager.

Hair Raising

One of the high-lights of the program will be the judging of the beard-growing contest. Contestants will be judged by Miss Kaslo, Miss Coyle, and Miss Thomas, plus a female representative from each class. Sherry Slater is in charge of the contest.

Tickets will go on sale Monday in every dormitory, the book store, and the senate office.

Senate Sponsors Spring Elections

Nominations and elections are in the March wind for Woosterites. Not only are we going to mock-nominate a presidential candidate, we have some real elections of our own coming up.

On Monday, March 12, the Juniors and Seniors will hold one of the most important mass meetings of their college career to nominate by secret ballot six Junior girls to run for Color Day Queen. That meeting will be held during chapel time.

Petitions Available

Petitions for Senate offices will be available starting Friday, March 16. It is not yet known just which offices will be up for election, according to Virg Musser, president of the Senate. The Senate is meeting to discuss the question but further comment was refused for publication.

Following a policy started this year, WSGA will have its elections separate from the Student Senate. These elections will be held at the end of April.

Collegiates From Five Ohio Campuses Take Long Look At French Colonialism

Tomorrow foreigners will invade Severance Gymnasium as almost 300 delegates and 80 additional workers arrive to attend the 1956 Five College Conference Mock United Nations. Armed with amendments to the main proposal on Algeria, Rules Books, and research notes on French colonialism, students will arrive from Antioch, Denison, Oberlin and Ohio Wesleyan.

SFRC Discusses Campus Problems

The communication system problem is at present unsolvable, because the college does not have enough outside lines. This finding of the committee on communication was communicated to the March meeting of SFRC last Monday, March 5. However, the resolution was passed to continue the investigation.

Salary Recommendations

Ken Plusquellec of the salaries committee presented a set of recommendations to the SFRC, including the following:

(1) That no change be made in the present salary schedule.

(2) That the Publications Committee and Student Senate make a complete study of their salary schedule, keeping in mind the contribution of the organization to the college community, the amount of work involved, the extent to which the organization is self-supporting, and the extent to which the requirements of the job tend to exclude students who must work to stay in school.

(3) That no salaries be paid to WCW until the SFRC and Student Senate feel that it fulfills the four above criteria.

Constructive Action

The problem presented by fraternity initiations in the light of the recent MIT incident was brought up. Dr. Lowry, in stating that he thought constructive action will be taken on this campus, said that he considered the spirit of our men during section initiations and concerning this problem commendable.

A report was presented to the group on the text-book situation, which will be studied and discussed at the next meeting. The meeting was adjourned at 8:55.

Orchestra Features Works Of Mozart

Associate Professor Alan Collins will again conduct the Chamber Orchestra in the Chapel at 8:15 on March 11 in the second of their two annual concerts. Since this is the year that musical organizations are honoring the 200-year anniversary of the birth of Mozart, the concert will include some of his works.

The two selections from Mozart will be "Serenade-Eine Kleine Nachtmusik" and the "Overture" to The Abduction from the Seraglio. The other numbers of the program include "Brandenburg Concerto No. 1" by Bach with Ruth Sanderson playing the violin solo and Rose Bird playing a horn solo; and "Serenade for Strings" by Dvorak.

If former experience prevails, Russia and the United States will be casting leery glances at each other. However, with Oberlin in the role of colonialistic France, East-West differences will play a secondary part.

Some Background

Wooster delegates, with a lecture by Miss Dunham and additional comments by Saud Khayat stashed away, will enter debate with some degree of knowledge. It is the hope of the Steering Committee that debate will be intelligent and parliamentary wrangle kept to a minimum.

New Procedure

In former years Roberts Rules of Order have been used by the Assembly. However, last year the United Nations Rules of Procedure became the official guide and WCW will hold a radio training school Tuesday, March 13, from 7 to 8 p.m., and Thursday, March 15, from 7 to 3 p.m. in Taylor 204. Mr. Logan will conduct the school. Anyone interested in radio broadcasting is invited to attend.

eliminated much of the parliamentary debacle. Delegates can rise only to a point of order, and it is up to the Speaker to determine what constitutes such a point.

With this the case, the Speakers have much power. Each college designates one student, who retains the Speaker's chair for an hour and 15 minutes. Myron Lord will represent Wooster on the platform. Dave Abell, former Four-College Coordinator from Denison; Ross Flanigan, last year's Wesleyan speaker; Jack Rice, representing Oberlin; and Eliot Stadler, present coordinator from Antioch, will also have their fling during the day.

The Final Say

Delegates can appeal the decision of the chair, and in such a case Parliamentarian Joe Bindley will have the final say. He will sit on the platform with the Speakers. Flanking the platform will be the press table and secretarial tables. Joy Huenink will be conference secretary. In charge of mimeographing, typewriting, and other rush-rush business will be Jo Brown, Louise Byers, Jan Douglas, Jane Downs, Phyl Hancock, Hope Hunter, Donna Musser, Donna Phinzy, and Rosie Wherley.

Detailed Organization

Delegations will also be able to contact each other by a system of page girls. These girls, Compton Freshmen, are supervised by committee member Marilyn Brown. Also on the campus coordinating committee are Dr. J. Arthur Baird, Roger Bush, Bob Duke, Mr. Lewis Maddox, Ralph Morrison, Edi Powers, Bob Tobey, and Sheila McIsaac, chairman.

Campaign Managers Beat War Drums In Earnest

Say Aye To Ike

by Jim Cooper

"... The Democrats, in control of both Houses, are paralyzed on a whole series of politically potent domestic issues... The Eisenhower administration's legislative program is a masterpiece...," stated the Alsop columnists on February 12.

"Restored Our Sanity"

On September 29, 1955, these same columnists wrote: "When you add up the balance sheets, however, I think it is very clear that the debt this republic owes to Eisenhower to date is a truly gigantic debt. The best way I can sum it up is to say that he has restored our sanity and decency."

"Yet, by always presenting to the country and the world this special, personal image of America, so sane, so genial, so strong in moral feeling, Dwight D. Eisenhower has done things that must have seemed impossible..."

Maintains Popularity

Every public opinion poll shows that President Eisenhower has achieved the almost impossible feat of remaining at peak levels of popularity—this despite bitter partisan attacks against him, and despite his unfortunate set-back last September.

The President has offered his services once more to the nation, if the nation desires him, knowing, as it does, the full facts concerning his health. His announcement was one of honest humility and yet complete frankness. It is another page in the chapter of glowing sincerity which he has written.

A World Leader

The average man and the average woman in the satellite countries and in Soviet Russia itself probably see in Dwight D. Eisenhower an honest, effective, humble champion of peace, a man who has tried at the summit, and in every other way, to avoid war, and who will continue to try to avoid, as it must be avoided, another world conflict.

For these reasons, the Eisenhower Campaign Committee feels that the President's continuation in office is America's best safeguard for success in the competitive coexistence race.

Back Up Bricker

by Keith Henry

"Bricker has this asset, namely, that he is trained in the processes of government, the balance of the executive with the legislative arm, the technique by which things are accomplished under our system."

Goes on Record

"John Bricker has put himself flatly on record for 1) a militarily strong United States which will deter Communist aggression in the world...; 2) retention of... United States military bases built in foreign countries; 3) the United Nations."

Contrary to what New Dealers say, John Bricker is not an isolationist. In 1944 he said, "Isolation is no longer possible or desirable... No nation can be indifferent to any other. The expansion of our trade and commerce is the pressing problem..."

Refused America First-ists

"Bricker refused to join the America First Committee. He would have nothing to do with Philip LaFollette, former Governor of Wisconsin and pillar of the early America First Committee."

"Much of his opposition to the New Deal may be signalized in a graphic comparison: as governor, Ohio had 22,500 state employees and 90,000 Federal employees within its borders."

Deodorized State

"As governor, he cleaned up a smelly state graft situation. He tended the state's finances so carefully that from a deficit of $40,000,000 (M) in 1938, he left office with a state surplus of $100,000,000 (M)." —Saturday Evening Post.

Uncompromising Republican

Life magazine says, "John Bricker is a product of the oldest living tradition in American politics—that of the Ohio President. He talks like what he is—a genuine, uncompromising Republican... Bricker is incapable of malice."

John Pew, well known Pennsylvania Republican, had this to say in Life magazine, "John Bricker looks every inch a president. He would make the perfect candidate."

Win With Warren

by Dave Seyler

Earl Warren began his political career as a representative to the California legislature in 1939. Since then he has been actively engaged in the affairs of his state and nation.

Mr. Warren has held such posts as District Attorney for Los Angeles county, Attorney General of California, and Governor of that state for 10 years. He is now serving in the capacity of Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, a post which he gained through his high moral character and political aptitude.

Gets Things Done

Mr. Warren may be classified as a liberal Republican. He is in favor of government intervention in business only when private industry can not do the job. He has shown his willingness to get something done by his actions as Governor of California. At that time he backed rural electrification and improvements in the distribution and reclamation of land. His success in this field makes him especially competent to handle the farm problem which is sure to face the next administration.

Favors Increased Foreign Aid

In foreign policy he is in favor of increased economic aid and a strengthening of the North Atlantic and South Pacific treaty alliances.

One may ask whether Earl Warren would be elected if nominated. A look at Warren's record in California should answer this question. He is one of the few men in history under the California cross-filing system to be nominated by both parties in their primaries. Because of his high moral character, his executive ability, his liberal policies, and his great popularity we recommend that Chief Justice Earl Warren be nominated for President of the United States.

Poly Sci Honorary Scans Liberal Arts

Mr. James Davis of the sociology department will be the speaker at the March meeting of Pi Sigma Alpha, political science honorary, next Tuesday evening at 7:30 in Lower Andrews. Mr. Davis will speak on the subject, "Law in the Social Sciences."

The appearance of Mr. Davis is one of a series sponsored by the honorary to relate political science to other related areas of the liberal arts. The February meeting, first of this series, featured Dr. Jenny of the economics department who discussed the question "Should an Economist Be a Politician?"

These meetings are open to the campus.

Stand On Stassen

by Chuck Kinzie

Harold E. Stassen is a young, vigorous member of the progressive wing of the Republican party. Born in West St. Paul, Minnesota, in 1907, Mr. Stassen's career has been marked by early and sustained success.

Graduated from Minnesota

Having been educated at the University of Minnesota and the Minnesota College of Law, Mr. Stassen began the practice of law in 1929. In the same year he was admitted to practice before the United States Supreme Court, the youngest man in the court's history to be accorded the privilege.

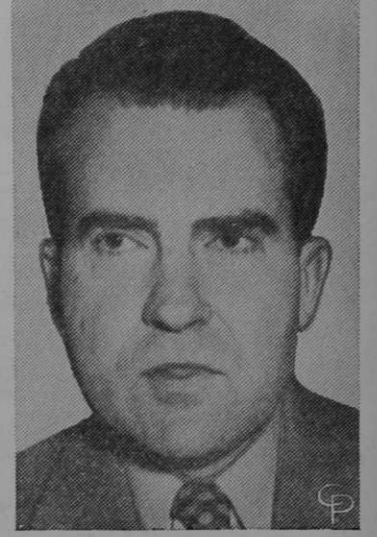

During the years 1930 to 1938, Mr. Stassen served as a county attorney, and then in 1938 he was elected the youngest governor in the history of the state of Minnesota. At the time he was also the youngest governor in the United States, being only 31 years of age.

Takes to Waves

He was reelected for the terms 1941-43 and 1943-45, but did not fully serve out the last term as he volunteered for duty with the U. S. Navy in World War II.

Mr. Stassen served during the war on the staff of Admiral W. F. Halsey in the South Pacific. From the end of the war until 1952 he served as the president of the University of Pennsylvania.

In the succeeding years he has served as Mutual Security Administrator, Foreign Operations Administrator and now as a Special Assistant for Disarmament to the President.

Nixon Needed Now

by Ron Hendee

Vice President Richard Nixon has served, for the past four years, the United States has ever had. Accomplishing, with typical efficiency both the administrative and legislative duties of the vice-presidency, Dick Nixon has served the cause of peace with his around-the-world tours.

Accompanied by his wife, Pat, he has done more than anyone else in the United States today to show the nations of the world that the United States is the champion of international peace and security.

California-Born

Richard Nixon was born and now makes his home in California. After receiving his law degree from Duke University he served as an administrative assistant in Washington. Giving up his job to run for Congress, he served in both the 80th and 81st Congress, it was during this time that he proved himself to be an efficient and judicious lawmaker.

Nixon Ferrets Out Hiss

While serving in Congress, Mr. Nixon received public attention for his work on the House Un-American Activities Committee which led to the eventual conviction of Alger Hiss for perjury. This service assisted young Nixon in his election to the United States Senate in 1950.

With a record of honesty and integrity Dick Nixon would prove to be one of the greatest presidents the United States has ever had.

State Chairmen Maneuver Deals

by Nancy McCarthy

Plans for the 1956 Mock Political Convention, to be held here March 24, have been making rapid progress within the past week. Active preparation was begun last Monday with a meeting of the State Delegation Chairmen in Douglas Lounge.

Mr. Bindley, sponsor of the Convention, offered suggestions regarding the organization of their individual campaigns. Each was given the name of the real Delegation Chairman from the state he represents and was encouraged to write requesting information pertinent to the management of actual conventions.

Dr. J. Garber Drushal, professor of Speech, has consented to serve as permanent chairman of the convention. He will begin presiding with the afternoon session and continue through the evening.

Drushal Chairs Convention

Dr. Drushal received his B.A. at Ashland University and his M.A. and Ph.D. from Ohio State. Before joining Wooster's faculty, he taught at Ashland College, University of Missouri, and Capital University in Columbus. In addition to holding membership in the Rotary Club, and a number of other local organizations, he is at present Executive Secretary of the Ohio College Association.

Seyler Serves for Warren

Dave Seyler, Sophomore from Fourth Section, has been chosen as campaign chairman for Chief Justice Earl Warren. Dave and the other campaign managers, Jim Cooper, Ron Hendee, Keith Henry, and Chuck Kinzie, are already out maneuvering votes even though the actual convention is not yet under way.

Frank Storch, chairman of the Michigan delegation, advises that they may back Charles Wilson as a "favorite son." The same is applicable to Oregon, which is contemplating the nomination of Douglas McKay in the same capacity, according to Jack Abel, chairman of the delegation.

 ...WITH 20,000 FILTERS MADE FROM PURE CELLULOSE—SOFT, SNOW-WHITE, NATURAL!

IN THE HUDDLE

by Skip Hoyler

In the springtime some people's fancies turn to gay parties of "wine, women, and song"; a few exist in a nostalgic haze; some take long walks with that certain favorite; many start cramming for mid-terms; but most of us think of the great American sport, baseball. A common question is "What about my team?" Here is the first of a four-week evaluation of the Major League Clubs.

Brooks Easy Winner

Starting with the National League, there is little doubt that the pennant will again hang in Brooklyn. The veteran Dodgers will rely on their tremendous long-ball power and great pitching depth. Jackie Robinson and Pee-wee Reese are approaching the end of the line but the Brooks have adequate replacements to fill any gaps. With manager Walt Alston's leadership and repeat performances by Don Newcombe, Duke Snider, and Roy Campanella, the Brooks will easily go all the way.

Braves Need Miracle

Milwaukee has too many question marks to be considered a serious threat. Gene Conley and Warren Spahn head a first-class pitching staff while Ed Matthews, Hank Aaron, and Joe Adcock can smote the most-distant fence. The Braves have blistering speed but little reserve to back up a good varsity. Manager Cholly Grimm must produce a miracle if he is to stick around for more than one more season.

Giants Could Tumble

The 1955 Giants were the same as the ones who shook the world with four successive triumphs over the Indians in the 1954 series. It was a complete washout and Durocher lost his job. If some of the young pitchers produce and Mays and Antonelli regain '54 form, New York could be a contender. 1956 is a rebuilding year as the Giants must revamp the catching and infield problems. Another flub, however, will drop the Polo Grounders to the second division.

Cincinnati Dark Horse

With mound success, Cincinnati could be a serious first division contender. With the explosive bats of Ted Kluszewski, Gus Bell, Smoky Burgess, and Wally Post in the lineup, all manager Birdie Tebbitts needs are a few more replicas of Big Joe Nuxhall, who won 17 last year. Brooks Lawrence, a refugee from the Cardinals, could be a big winner but not one man is going to make the difference.

Next week, the Phils, Cubs, and Pirates share the limelight to conclude the National League resume. The following week, it's the five American League clubs which figure to produce one of baseball's tightest races. Stick around.

Wooster Cagers Trounce OWU To Close Season

Scots Set Foe To Rout In Second Half; Captain Barrett Makes Final Cage Bow

by Skip Hoyler

The unpredictable Wooster basketball team concluded the campaign on a bright note last Saturday when they thoroughly creamed an outclassed Ohio Wesleyan quintet, 85-65. After a torrid first half, the Scots pulled away and made the game a rout in the next 20 minutes.

Swigartmen Take Conference Fifth

With a fifth place in the big OAC meet at Akron last Saturday, the Wooster tankmen officially drew the curtain on the 1955-1956 swimming campaign.

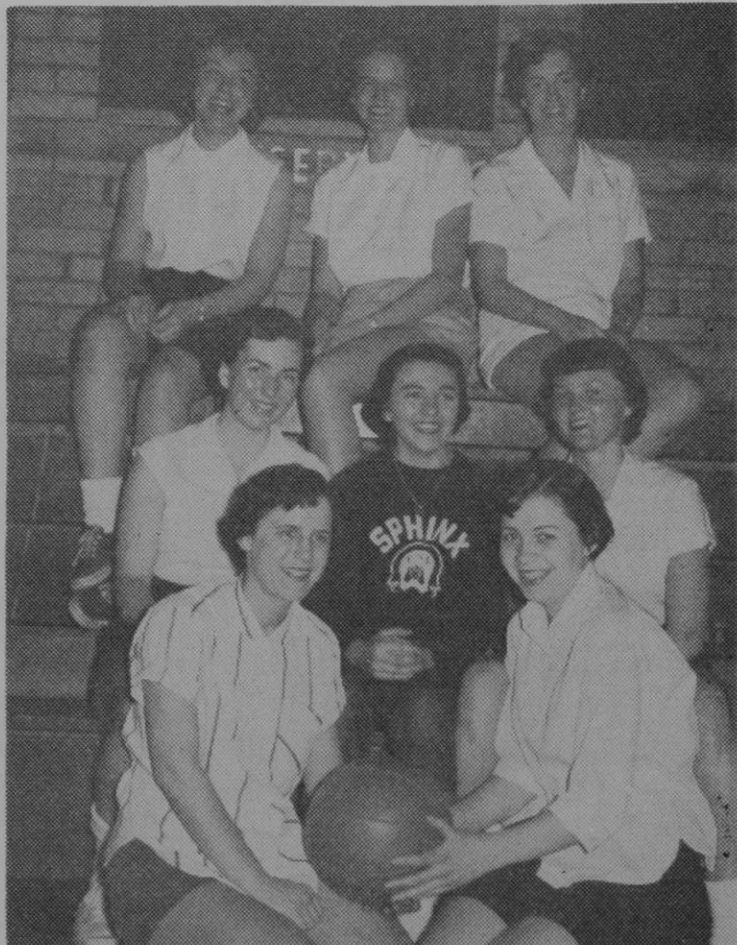

Placing for Wooster were Warren Crain, Dick Dannenfels, Neil Ginther, Dick Hawk, Sam Hunt, and Bob Watson. Although the Scots placed in five of the ten events, they were not higher than fifth in any of them.

Crain Excels

With Ginther (back), Crain (breast), and Hunt (freestyle), placed sixth in the 300-yard medley. Crain was also sixth in the 200-yard breast stroke. Watson took a fifth in the 50-yard freestyle and was leadoff for the 400 yard freestyle quartet which grabbed a fifth. Dannenfels, Hawk, and Hunt rounded out this team.

Team Scores

Team scores showed mighty Kenyon with 107; Oberlin, 66; Ohio Wesleyan, 47; Akron, 20; Wooster, 10; and Wittenberg, 7.

Sphinx Socialites Grab Club Title; Basketeers Overcome Hoover Six

by Anne Marsh

Once again the Sphinx social club has come out on top in the girls' intramural basketball tournament. The final test came in a hot contest with the Hoover team which Sphinx beat 30 to 28, to remain undefeated throughout the entire season. Following second place Hoover, the Sharp Shooters placed third, while Miller and the Faculty tied for fourth place. The other teams in the competition were: Compton Frosh, Imps, Kez, the Leftovers, Peanuts, Pyramids, Trumps, and Westminster.

Basketball playdays are the rage these days. On February 18, Wooster entertained Ashland and Heidelberg. March 6 saw ten girls from Wooster go to Berea for a game with Baldwin-Wallace.

Spring Events

With the closing of a successful basketball season under the management of Kay Demon, we turn to the calendar of spring events.

On the spring schedule we have Bowling Club which is managed by Juanita Yoder. This group meets at the gym on Friday afternoons at 3:15. From there the college bus takes the group to the Wayne Bowling Alleys for fun and relaxation.

OSU Tourney

Last Saturday a delegation of Wooster girls traveled to Ohio State University for the Ohio State

Intercollegiate Bowling tournament. Connie Coleman, Sally Griffith, Lenore Lewton, Nancy Peters, and Juanita Yoder were on the team. Lenore had a high score of 159.

Badminton Club meets on Monday and Wednesday at 7:15. Dotie Peck is manager.

Save for Sharks

Be sure to save room on your calendar for the Sharks' Review, "Walt Disney's Carousel," which comes up on March 19, 20, and 21. Also save 30c to pay for your ticket.

Blood Wanted

If you haven't been contacted about the Red Cross Blood Drive and would like to give, please call Anne Marsh at 368. She will tell you who to see in your particular dormitory. Remember that's March 20.

Imps, Echoes Join Clubs Hold Formal

The Imp-Echo formal is to be held tonight, March 9, in Lower Babcock. To start off the evening there will be a "social hour" at 8:30 in the Babcock Smoker. From there those attending will progress to the dance floor of Lower Babcock disguised as the "Red Ox Inn" in keeping with the theme of the dance, "A Night in Old Heidelberg."

"Student Prince"

Refreshments will be served continuously throughout the evening and will include root beer, pretzels and sandwiches. The serving girls will be decked out as German peasants. Entertainment is to be based on a "Student Prince" theme.

Captain Dick Barrett, playing his final game, put the Scots on the right foot when he opened with long sets from the side and corner. At 3:41 the Bishops halted play as they trailed, 12-2.

OWU Takes Lead

The visitors took the offensive now and roared into the lead, 21-20. Don Dixon, however, put Wooster in front again with a twisting drive. The lead changed hands five times before OWU was on top with a 33-32 advantage. That was their final glory as Tom Justice paced the Black and Gold to a 40-37 tally at the horn.

Barrett Receives Ovation

In the second half, many of the Scot reserves saw action as the Wesleyan defense completely collapsed. Justice was high man with 21 and was ably supported by Garcia, 16, Dixon, 12, and Barrett, 12. When the popular Scot captain left the floor with 1:44 remaining, he received a tremendous ovation from the crowd. Mark Davis garnered 20 for the losers.

Mose Hole Honored

During half time ceremonies, Coach Mose Hole was given a 35-mm slide projector in appreciation for his 30 years as Wooster basketball coach. During this time he has a phenomenal record of 383-168. The presentations were made by Ann Gieser and Dick Jacobs.

The script called for a complete reversal two evenings earlier when

THE Corporation Plans Field Trip

Anyone interested in economics is welcome to join THE Corporation. This year THE Corporation has the largest enrollment ever on this campus, about 68 members. The officers are: president, Bob Black; vice-president, Les Hauschild; secretary, Milly Hawken; and treasurer, Doc Stefanek. Instead of paying dues each member purchases a certificate of stock in THE Corporation.

Varied Program

Outside speakers have spoken to the group on topics of timely interest such as the St. Lawrence Seaway and Guaranteed Annual Wage from both labor's and management's point of view. Several field trips have been taken to local industries including the Wooster Rubber Company and the Borg-Warner Company. This spring THE Corporation plans to take a trip to a large industrial firm in Cleveland, Akron, or Canton.

JV Cagemen Close With 65-54 Victory

With a barrage of buckets late in the third quarter, the Wooster Junior Varsity cagers closed the season with a 65-54 victory over a stubborn Ohio Wesleyan foe.

Leedy Tallies 26

After enjoying a 28-25 halftime advantage, the Scots quickly found themselves behind, 29-28. Until the Behringermen moved out in front again, the count was knotted five times. The talented Bob Leedy was again high scorer with 26 tallies.

Besides their fine 11-3 record, the Frosh had several players who should develop into valuable varsity potential.

the Scots were 81-57 victims of a strong Mt. Union five. With a sudden scoring splurge in the final minutes of the first half, the Purple Raiders abruptly settled a tense issue.

Welty Opens Scoring

Chet Welty's fielder from the corner started festivities before brilliant Raider forward Don Talbert netted his first two of 37 with a savage drive from the key. Dixon put the Scots back in front with a pair of baskets but the Alliance hosts evened the count with four straight conversions from the bonus line.

Mt. Union Takes Lead

Gerry Smith's long set was overbalanced by a tap in and layup by Talbert as Union took the lead for good. It was not until 14:50, however, when the tally was still a tight 21-20, that the victors pulled away to take a commanding 38-25 advantage at the buzzer.

Second Half Runaway

The second half was not contest as the Purple Raiders led by as many as 22 points. Both coaches cleared their benches in the closing minutes to give the future varsity hopefuls a chance to show their talents. Despite the numerous fouls, there was torrid action.

Scoring Figures

Don Cannon tacked on 14 to go with Talbert's destructive accumulation while three Holemen, Dixon, Smith, and Ramseyer, hit double figures with 16, 14, and 12 respectively.

Mock UN Leaders Ignore Morocco In Move Favoring Algeria

Dr. Lowry Opens General Assembly

Dr. Howard F. Lowry, college president, will officially welcome students from Antioch, Denison, Oberlin, and Ohio Wesleyan tomorrow at 11 a.m. as the Mock United Nations Assembly opens its 1956 session. After his greeting, Wooster coordinator Sheila McIsaac will announce the day's plans.

Delegates will then move to their respective caucus rooms. After lunch at 1:30 the actual session will start with Dave Seyler, chairman of the Swedish delegation presenting the proposal. From 1:30 to 5:30, Algeria will be the major concern. Even during the 3:15 to 3:45 break, delegates will probably caucus on the question.

Evening Session

After dinner the assembly will reconvene at 7 to continue work on the problem until 9 or 9:30 p.m. Then our visiting students will return to their buses and the trip home.

Visitors and observers are welcome at any time in the gym, according to the coordinating committee. There will not be room for them on the main floor. However, chairs will be placed in the balcony for them.

WWST Broadcasts

WWST is broadcasting the Mock UN and area papers will cover the proceedings.

Coordinators Fail To Make Nickel As French Decision Upsets Proposal

"Some days you can't make a nickel" is the way many of the Mock UN delegates and particularly the coordinators on the five campuses feel. The Republic of France did the 1956 UN convention dirt when it announced its plans to grant more independence and liberty to Morocco.

Change in Question

The conference had planned to argue the question of whether France should be forced to make concessions in Morocco. Since the concessions have been made, a week too early for our UN enthusiasts, the proposal will be transferred to Algeria.

Sweden Proposes

The proposal, which is sponsored by the Swedish delegation, is "Resolved: That the Republic of France and the Kingdom of Algeria should make a treaty on the following conditions:

A. That France lower her military forces stationed in Algeria by 4,000 men per year.

B. That France lower her trade restrictions on the Kingdom of Algeria, allowing freer trade between Algeria and other nations besides France.

That Algeria end her economic boycott of the French Republic.

D. That basic civil liberties are insured to all Algerian citizens by the Republic of France, including the freedoms of speech, press, religion, and peaceful assembly.

E. That a special committee of the United Nations General Assembly be allowed to enter the Kingdom of Algeria and study the economic and educational programs of that nation and to offer their help in those areas.

Committee Finds Selections Hard

After being swamped with names of prospective delegates to the Mock UN, the Wooster coordinating committee assigned interested Scots to 14 delegations. With more names than they had places to fill on the United States, Turkey, Swedish and Israeli delegations the committee members found it was first come, first served. Delegation chairmen are starred:

BOLIVIA — Ginnie Blair, Vic Colvin, Ken Haynam, Sylvia Martin, Bill Relf*.

COSTA RICA — Nancy Calderwood, Sally Dunn*, Judy Larson, Janey Thompson, Tom Samsel.

CUBA — Jack Bushman, Bill Dando, Alice Hageman*, Bruce Milne, Joan Reiber.

GREECE — Bob Calhoun, Lorraine Grimes, Don Reiman*, Diane Robenstone, Mary Warner.

HONDURAS — Roger Garst, Norm Morrison*, Wayne Thonen, Cathy Tisinger, Dee Jay Utz.

ISRAEL — Lee and Dan Collins, Jerry Russell, Chuck Salzer, Larry Springer*.

LUXEMBOURG — Jim Edgar*, Jeanne Gould, Jim McLaughlin, Ron Rolley, Ruth Zornow.

PARAGUAY — Mary Elliot, Ray Machesney, Sally Marquis, Millie Webb*, Kent Weeks.

POLAND — Satch Falk, Connie Jones, Carolyn Kendig, Kitty Kittredge, Peter Starek*.

SWEDEN — John Buechner, Bob Harris, Bruce McDermott, Dave Seyler*, Ed Smith.

SYRIA — Roger Hall, Saadi-deen Khayat*, Abby Kleine, Tex Odell, Jackie Straub.

TURKEY — Jan and Gerry Carlisle, Mehdi Kizilbash*, Lee Lybarger.

UNION OF BURMA — Paul Davies*, Dave Groth, Lynette Jackson, Donna Kinkel, Chuck Navle.

UNITED STATES — Bob Duke, Dave Dungan, Betty Jean Jacobson, Will Murray, Bob Tobey*.

Delegations Caucus

Delegations will be able to caucus in rooms by blocs: NATO in 201, Arab League in 203, Asian African Bloc in 204, British Commonwealth in 210; West European Nations in 214, Communists in 217, Pan American Nations in 219, and the South American Bloc in 225.
