New York Alumni Invite IS Students For Week of Study

The New York Alumni Club, in an effort to be of assistance to students, is instituting the following plan whereby students may have at their disposal the various research facilities available in that area. The New York Club will also provide housing and breakfast for the duration of one week. This year, both Seniors and Juniors, in any field of study, are eligible.

He spent some time in the New York Public Library which he felt, offered limited opportunities for research. Fritz said he was especially impressed by the

"Education and the ministry are the two keys to a man's person can engage in, and it is a natural thing to move to Wooster. These are the main reasons why Mr. Charles Poling is engaged to teach at the College. He is the person with the right kind of background, particularly of the country, to carry on the traditions of the school. We are glad to have him as an addition to our faculty." You Can Win a Cash Award—and Scholarship Money for Your College in Reader's Digest $41,000 CONTEST

Open to All College Students (Faculty, too!)

Nothing to buy...nothing to write and you may find you know more about people than you think!

How well do you know human nature? Can you tell what subjects interest people most? Here is a chance to test your judgment—show how good an editor you are—and you may win $5,000 for yourself, plus $5,000 in scholarship funds for your college.

It's fun to try. Maybe you can top other students in countries across the country...and you can match wits with the editors of Reader's Digest.

Why do far more college graduates read Reader's Digest than any other magazine? What is it that makes the Digest the most widely read magazine in the world—with 11 million copies bought each month in the United States, plus 9 million abroad? Why is it read each month by at least 60 million people, in 12 languages—Arabic, Danish, English, Finnish, French, German, Italian, Japanese, Norwegian, Portuguese, Spanish and Swedish?

Can you spot in a typical issue of Reader's Digest the universal human values that link scholars, statesmen, scientists, writers, businessmen, housewives? Can you pick out the articles that will be most popular with the average Digest reader?

You may find...you know more about people than you think!

Here's all you do. Study the descriptions (at the right) of the articles in the October Reader's Digest—or, better still, read the complete articles in the issue itself. (But you are not required to buy The Reader's Digest to enter the contest.) Then simply list the six articles—in order of preference—that you think readers of the magazine will like best. This will be compared with a nationwide survey conducted among a cross section of Digest subscribers.

Follow the directions given below. Fill in the entry blank, paste it on a post card, and get it into the mail before the deadline. Additional blanks are obtainable at your college bookstores.

All entries must be postmarked not later than midnight, October 25, 1956. Don't delay. In case of ties, the entry with the earliest postmark will win.

Just pick in order the six articles you think most readers of October Reader's Digest will like the best.

In the space opposite the word "FIRST" write the number of the article you think will be the most popular of all. Opposite the word "SECOND" write the number of the article you think will rank second in popularity. List in this way the numbers of the six top articles in the order of their popularity. (Note: Use only the numbers of articles you choose. Do not write the title of any article.) Clip and paste this coupon on a government post card.

Fifth Section Leads Intramural League, First, Seventh, Douglass In Second Tie

by Ron Riley

The scramble for the intramural football championship of the last two days, last night, all nine teams have played at least one game, and Third, Fifth, and Sixth have played two.

The Phi Delt's with two straight 60-0 victories take the early lead. In Fifth's first game, against Sixth, Willy Barber caught a pass from Bob Crane late in the second half to win the close contest.

In the third vs. Fifth game neither team scored a touchdown on offense. Hank Hopper's punt was blocked by one of his teammates, rolled in the end zone, and alert Ed Broese fell on it for a T.D. Missed a golden opportunity earlier, having the ball one foot from punt on second down, but failed to score.

The Fresh of Douglass rolled against Sixth, winning 34-0. Quarterback Ron Taylor threw three T.D. passes -- four to Danny Thomas, his favorite target of the game. A comparison in scores shows the strength of the Fresh, as Fifth only beat Sixth, 6-0.

First and Seventh also won their first games easily. First whipped Second, 72-0, on scores by Don Metz and Larry Spontz. Seventh beat Eighth, 24-6, on scores by Don Dixon, Bruce "Stein" Hunt, Bruce Kent, and Derrill Smith. Two other touchdowns for Seventh were called back, however, as the Ninth scored Eighth's only touchdown.

Third won their first game against Fourth, 6-0, on a pass play from Hank Hopper to John Haynes who was completely alone in the end zone.

Ohio State Plays Host To Wooster As Scot Sailing Club Faces First Regatta

Fair weather and a still breeze is the prayer of the Sailing Club for Saturday afternoon at O'Schoons Regatta. The Sailing Club will compete in its first and biggest regatta of the fall racing season.

The members of the Wooster team will be Carol Andrews, Dave Bouquet, Kim Brown, Jack Burrows, June Kenyon, Mary Minor, Bob Putnam, and Bob Thompson.

Nine teams are competing with twelve foot fiberglass Tech dinghies which Ohio State supplies to each team. To ensure a fair competition from each team the races are divided into A and B classes. Nine races are being run in each class; those who win a race in one place may not race in the other.

Scoring is based on the number of boats beaten in a race. Wooster's final score will be the sum of the numbers of boats she beats in the eighteen races.

For the past few years, Ohio State has been the regatta hosts. The Scot contingent would like to break this record.

Tom Dingle sends Scots Whipping; Gambierites Cop First In Three Years

by Art Humphries

The Wooster Scots football team made its second trip of the year as they traveled to Gambier to help the Kenyon Lords open their 1956 football season. The Lords hadn't won a game for the past two seasons, but this year they have put together their strongest team in several years.

After the game was over, the cheer as usual, an added team was pulled off the last season and left the field with a very hard-fought 13 to 2 draw.

The Lords quickly began to exploit their back services which previously appeared in the Ashland game, as quarterback Joel Holmes repeatedly hit on short passes up the middle and mixed with steady yardage gained through the line, marched for the first score of the game. Holmes passed to Keith Brown, who made a beautiful diving catch in the end zone to put Kenyon ahead, 6-0.

Wooster Fumbles

On the first play after the kick-off, John Papp rolled out to the left, hit, and fumbled the ball, Kenyon recovering on the Wooster 60-yard line. In six plays Kenyon had scored again, Holmes putting over from a half-yard out.

Holmes then passed to Milhol-

Tom Justice gained 100 yards to lead the back services which Tom Justice gained 52 of the yards in this march, which ended with Jim McClung scoring from the one. Justice was stopped on a sweep attempt for the extra point, and the Scots trailed, 13-6.

Feminine Magazine Selects Gal Editors

The magazine's College Board Contest offers a chance (for the freshman as well as the seniors) at seeing one of the twenty Guest Editors—on a month on the staff of Madameville. Those who are accepted on the College Board do two assignments during the college year.

An Editor's Salary

The top twenty Guest Editors will be brought to New York next June to help write, edit and illustrate the August College issue. They will be paid a regular salary for their month's work, plus round-trip transportation to New York City.

While in New York each Guest Editor takes part in a full calendar of activities. She interviews a celebrity in her chosen field, visits newspaper offices, fashion workrooms, stores and advertising agencies, besides working daily with the Madameville Editor to whom she is assigned. The twenty Guest Editors get help in finding positions in their special fields, and each year several join Madameville's own staff.

Apply By November 30

November 30 is the deadline for applying for College Board Membership. Application should write a 1,200-word critique of the editorial section in Madameville's August 1956 College issue (or a later issue if the August one is not available). A good critique will tell something about your attitudes, interests, how you express yourself. Give first overall likes and dislikes, suggested changes and additions; then concentrate on one aspect—fashion, illustration or fiction, for example. In case the critique isn't enough to indicate any particular slant, send in addition something that will.

Hear By Christmas

Successful candidates will be notified of acceptance on the College Board before Christmas; the first College Board assignment will appear in Madameville's January issue.

For further information see the Dean of Women or the August, September, October or November issue of Madameville.

courses are taught by men and women whose knowledge is based upon practical experiences in their fields.

Cultural Opportunities
All is not work, however, for Washington offers many cultural opportunities in the form of concerts, theater productions, art museums, historical monuments, and national conferences of professional groups.

Five Students
Last spring Wooster sent five students to the Washington Semester: Jane Bancroft, Janet Martyn, Joe Mason, Carol Thomas, and Peg Williams. They will re-learned from some of President Eisenhower's personal aids about their role in foreign affairs. One of the seminars took the group to the Saudi Arabian Embassy, another to the Department of Agriculture, and still another to the Supreme Court where Justice Burton spoke to the group.

Mort Sen. Bricker
Senator John Bricker welcomed the students to his inner office where he expounded upon his political views. The International House provided opportunities for getting acquainted with men and women from other nations who were studying and working in the city.

Sample Cuisine
Sunday night became a traditional pot-put-together as the group sampled the cuisine of various restaurants in the city from Italian to Swedish. Some of the cultural attractions of last spring were the annual cherry blossom festival, the Goldenthal concerts, a performance by Jacob Heifetz, the musical comedy, Plais and Fancy, and numerous free concerts.

See Register
Anyone who is interested in entering the Washington Semester this spring is urged to see Mr. Southwick and the five who took part last year.

In addition to the Chapel talks on October 10, there will be an opportunity to get more information in the Music Room of the Student Senate on Monday, October 13. Application blanks may be obtained from Mr. Southwick at the Registrar's Office, and must be turned in by November 10.

Editor's Note
The Wooster Voice does not accept unsigned Letters to the Editor, nor will it print letters that ask for signs nor name to be withheld. The editor reserves the right to cut letters over 360 words.
